A. I. R. Publications — A Tribute from the Law Quarterly Review

"One cannot but marvel at the industry and wide scope of the activities of the authors. Each month, in All India Reporter, they give us an up-to-date selection of the rulings of all the superior Courts in India. They issue monthly and annual digests. From time to time they publish valuable encyclopedic commentaries on the more important statutes. It is unlikely that in any other country in the world is case-law collected and pigeon-holed in a way which makes it more easily available. No doubt the authors have a large number of assistants, but the burden of planning and supervising their work must occupy so much of their time that one suspects that, like, Him that keepeth Israel, they neither slumber nor sleep. They are always willing to experiment."—(1958) 74 Law Quarterly Review. — Pages 316-17.

"The organisation required to produce such books exists at present only in India, and there is no prospect that anywhere but in Nagpur, will a small village of devoted workers be dedicated to the production of the reports, manuals and editions of standard works of reference that have given All India Reporter its unique position. Mulla and "A. I. R." are the great names in the Law Books for India; they are as different as chalk from cheese; and recent works appearing in their series confirm the impression that they will go on forever"—(1964) 80 Law Quarterly Review.—Page 448.

PREFACE

(Reprinted from Vol. 1)

When the A.I.R. entered the field with the first edition of its "Manual" in the year 1947, it at once leapt to the first rank and carved for itself an unrivalled position in the field of such publications, although it was a newcomer in that particular field. This was due to certain settled principles of the A.I.R. to which it has been adhering steadfastly since its foundation more than 50 years ago. These principles may be summed up in three rules, which the A.I.R. has been having as its watchwords since the beginning: (1) thoroughness, (2) exhaustiveness, and (3) meticulous study of all possible ways by which the usefulness of a publication to the legal profession can be enhanced. All these three principles were given full effect to in the A.I.R. Manual.

2. The publication proved to be the most exhaustive and reliable collection of central statute-law together with all the relevant case-law bearing on it, summarised, arranged and presented in a most conscientious manner with a view to affording the maximum facilities to the legal profession, both on the Bench and at the Bar. These qualities meant very hard work both for the editorial staff engaged by the A.I.R. as well as for the management. But they have built up the reputation of the A.I.R. Manual on a most solid and enduring foundation. This reputation brought correspondingly good results as regards the actual sales of the publication and in a little over 20 years after the A.I.R. entered the field, a third edition of the Manual has become necessary to meet the insistent demand of the legal profession.

3. It is needless to dilate, at length, on the special features of the publication. It gives, as in the previous editions, both civil and criminal Acts, and the inconvenient and illogical division into civil and criminal portions has been rejected as in the previous editions. The post-Independence period has been extraordinarily prolific in the matter of legislative output, both at the Centre and in the States. The A.I.R. Manual aims at placing within the reach of the profession, at a reasonable cost, the entire body of central statute-law together with the relevant case-law arranged in a convenient form which has been developed, after patient thought and experimentation, as being the most suitable from the point of view of quick and efficient service to the profession, whenever its members may have to look up a point of law in the statutes of India. Needless to say that our statutes, unlike under the English system, constitute the staple of our law and, therefore, provide the most important and the bulkiest part of our law.

4. In the interval of about 8 years since the completion of the second edition, more than 100 new Acts have been added to the statute book and there have been also a very vast number of amendments and additions to the old Acts. This edition includes all the new Acts and all the up-to-date amendments, besides giving the State amendments also wherever it was possible to trace them.

5. Among the new Acts, special mention may be made of some which are of outstanding importance. Perhaps, the first place in this category will have to be given to the Limitation Act of 1963 which has taken the place of the Act of 1908 and not only overhauled the entire Law of Limitation but has revolutionised and simplified the law in many respects as, for instance, in regard to suits for possession of immovable property and applications for execution, which were two of the toughest and most confusing topics under the previous Limitation Act. The Advocates Act, 1961, has repealed the Bar Councils Act, 1926, and the Legal Practitioners Act, 1879 and has brought into existence a single unified Bar for the whole of India—which is itself a revolutionary change in the constitution of the Indian Bar and has been looked forward to, for a very long period by the whole Bar as an ideal to be realised.

6. The Arms Act, 1959, is another important Act which, by liberalising the provisions of the Arms Act of 1878 in a marked way, has shown itself to be a product of the post-Independence period. The Income-tax Act of 1961 has overhauled the whole structure of the Income-tax Act, 1922, and made a real attempt at simplification of the provisions of the law. Other Acts of the period also reflect the spirit of the times, each in its own way.

7. Above everything, however, this edition of A.I.R. Manual will be of special value to the Bench and the Bar as perhaps the most exhaustive and up-to-date reference book on the Constitution of India. The period, after the last edition, has witnessed an enormous growth and development of the Constitutional Law of India. Not only have there been a very large number of important amendments of the Constitution during this period but a phenomenally voluminous body of case-law which has accumulated on the Constitution.

8. This edition will not only contain the most authoritative version of the Constitution but also the most exhaustive collection of the case-law bearing on it. The subject is so voluminous that no ordinary text-book can be expected to cope with it and do full justice to it. This edition will be found to be practically unequalled as a book of reference on the Constitution of India.

9. All the special features of the previous editions, such as synopsis, "at-paging" of the Reports, etc., are continued in this edition and have also been considerably improved. These special features have been enumerated elsewhere at the beginning of this volume.

10. Before concluding, it is our pleasant duty to place on record our sense of gratitude to all our colleagues without whose unstinted labour and co-operation it would have been impossible to bring out such a vast publication. The editorial work, as can be seen, consists mainly of two branches: (i) that relating to preparing and editing the text of the various Acts, and (ii) the collection and editing of the notes of case-law bearing on the different Acts.

11. The responsibility for preparing and editing the text of the various Acts has been ably shouldered and executed by Sarvashri D. R. Rajandekar, B.A., LL.B., and A. G. Tambe, B.A., LL.B., assisted by Sarvashri P. A. Bakre, B.A., LL.B., H. G. Pathak, B.A., LL.B., and S. G. Kulkarni, B.A., LL.B.

12. The entire credit for organising and managing the editorial work in connection with the case-law must go to Shri V. B. Bakhale, M.A., LL.B., who has been assisted by a band of devoted workers, among whom may be chiefly mentioned

Sarvashri R. G. Dhobley, B.A., LL.B., D. H. Zadgaonkar, B.A., LL.B., K. S. Bakre, B.Sc., LL.B., M. Kuppuswami, B.A., B.L., G. M. Jatar, B.A., LL.B., S. S. Guru, B.A., LL.B., M. V. Joshi, B.A., LL.B., L. G. Chavhan, B.A., LL.B., B. N. Pradhan, B.Sc., LL.B., C. W. Moharir, B.Com., LL.B., D. V. Thakre, B.Sc., LL.B., G. D. Ruikar, B.A., LL.B., Y. P. Baxi, B.A., LL.B., M. N. Thomare, B.A., LL.B., B. D. Bhave, B.Sc., LL.B., D. G. Bhagwat, B.Sc. LL.B., N. N. Harshe, M.A., LL.B. F.I.A., V. R. Buche, B.A., LL.B., G. G. Modak, B.Sc., LL.B., V. S. Sarma, B.A., LL.B. and S. V. Golwalkar, B.A., LL.B.

13. Shri Gopalrao Udar and his team including among others Sarvashri P. K. Thosar, H. W. Mendhi, Govindrao Udar, D. R. Landge, Ku. S. Naidu, Ku. K. G. Deshpande and Ku. S. Deshpande have done the very arduous and responsible work of correcting and passing the proofs and our thanks are due to them for this.

14. Scarcely less important than the work of the editors has been the work of Shri B. R. Abhyankar, who, with his devoted band of workers including Sarvashri M. S. Savarkar, B. R. Katankar, D. P. Alshi, W. J. Joshi, P. N. Deo, G. D. Deshpande, S. M. Lambe, L. S. Wavde and D. T. Joshi and others has manned the responsibility of preparing the manuscript for the press.

15. Thanks must also be given to Sarvashri M. W. Chitaley, C. R. Banerjee, and G. G. Padhye, M. M. Kanitkar and others of the A.I.R. Rotary Printing Press, who, under the leadership and guidance of Shri J. W. Chitaley, finished the printing of the work in record time.

16. Last, but by no means least, our thanks are due to Shri W. W. Chitaley, B.A., LL.B., who has been in overall charge of the whole undertaking and whose exceptional talents, in organising and managing the business side of the undertaking are of inestimable value for the success of the gigantic undertaking that this publication obviously is.

SECTION 8 — SYNOPSIS

1. State Amendment (U. P.)
2. Scope.
3. "Order".
4. Appeal against order relating to compensation — Schedule II, Article 17 (iv), whether applies.
5. Appeals arising under Land Acquisition Act — Section 8 whether restricted to appeals from awards only.
6. Appeal by one of the claimants who is awarded nothing.
7. Court-fee in appeals relating to apportionment of compensation.
8. Court-fee, whether payable on additional payment under Section 23 (2) of the Land Acquisition Act.
9. Appeal by Government.
10. Orders relating to compensation — Illustrative cases.
11. Amount that can be awarded by the Appellate Court.

1. State Amendment (U. P.)— (1) The section applies to an appeal against the decision of the Improvement Trust Tribunal. AIR 1939 All 127 (130) = ILR (1939) All 142.

(2) The section does not apply to an appeal under the Workmen's Compensation Act, VIII of 1923. AIR 1944 Oudh 83 (83) = 19 Luck 460. (Schedule II, Article 11 applies to such an appeal.)

(13) The U. P. Requisitioning and Acquisition of Immovable Property Act 1952 makes no difference whether the property acquired is bare land or some construction like a well. In either case Section 8, Court-fees Act is applicable. 1965 All LJ 909 (914) = ILR (1965) 2 All 907.

(4) U. P. Nagar Mahapalika Act (2 of 1959) comes within the expression 'any other similar statute' in Section 8 Court Fees Act — Decision of the Tribunal is award — Appeal against award — Section 8 of Court-fees Act applies. AIR 1966 All 227 (229, 230).

2. Scope.— (1) The section is not itself a charging section. It merely provides a rule for computing ad valorem fee payable under the Act in certain classes of cases on the assumption that under some other provision of the Act an ad valorem fee and not a fixed fee is chargeable. AIR 1945 Bom 348 (350)  AIR 1932 Cal 346 (348) = 59 Cal 528. (The purpose of the section is that the litigant should be charged in the most favourable way.)

[See also AIR 1957 Punj 32 (34) = ILR (1957) Punj 142 (DB). (The charging provisions are Sches. 1 and II. If there were no Schedule, Section 8 itself would be of no assistance to the State. It is under the provisions of the various Articles of the Schedule that the amount is to be determined.)] difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

[°] See now the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894).

STATE AMENDMENT

Uttar Pradesh:

The following words were inserted between the words "public purposes" and "shall be computed," viz.,

"or against an award made by a tribunal constituted under the United Provinces Town Improvement Act° or any other similar statute." — U. P. Act 19 of 1938 (9-1-1939).

[°] The U. P. Town Improvement Act (U. P. Act VIII of 1919) is repealed by S. 581 of U. P. Nagar Mahapalika Adhiniyam (U. P. Act II of 1959) in so far as it may be applicable to any area included in the City.

Section 8, Note 2 (contd.)

(2) The rule of computation of court-fee prescribed in the section is applicable to a memorandum of appeal filed in a Charatered High Court. AIR 1932 Cal 346 (348) = 59 Cal 528.

[See also AIR 1925 Pat 392 (399) = 4 Pat 336 (FB).]

(3) The section applies to appeal against all orders relating to compensation whether such an order amounts to a decree or not. AIR 1932 Cal 346 (348, 349) = 59 Cal 528. (Schedule II, Article 11 does not apply to such an appeal.)

(4) Any Act which authorises the acquisition of land for public purposes and provides the machinery for assessment and payment of compensation, is an Act for the acquisition of land for public purposes within the meaning of Section 8, even if greater part of its provision deals with other objects. AIR 1946 Cal 524 (525) = ILR (1946) 2 Cal 547. (Section 8 applies to Defence of India Act, 1939.)

(5) The term "acquisition" in Sec. 8 includes temporary acquisitions such as requisitions under Section 19, Defence of India Act, and a memorandum of appeal from award by arbitrator is governed by this section. AIR 1946 Cal 524 (526) = ILR (1946) 2 Cal 547.

(6) Section 8, Court Fees Act is applicable to appeals before High Courts although the section appears in Chapter III. 1965 All LJ 909 (912) = ILR (1965) 2 All 907.

3. "Order". — (1) The word "Order" in the Section means an order as defined in Section 2 (14), Civil P. C. AIR 1945 Bom 348 (349) = ILR (1946) Bom 707  AIR 1968 Andh Pra 348 (353) = (1968) 1 Andh WR 218 (DB). (AIR 1945 Bom 348; AIR 1957 Punj 32; AIR 1939 All 127, Dissented from.)  AIR 1967 Cal 617 (619) = 71 Cal WN 673. (AIR 1945 Bom 348. Dissented from.)  AIR 1959 Cal 609 (613) = 63 Cal WN 325. (AIR 1945 Bom 348, Dissented from.)

(2) The arbitrator under Section 19, Defence of India Act, is not a Court and therefore an award by him is not an order within this section. AIR 1945 Bom 348 (350) = ILR (1946) Bom 707. (Sch. II, Article 11, applies.)  AIR 1957 Nag 8 (10) = ILR (1956) Nag 471 (DB).

(3) Section 8 does not apply to an appeal against an award of compensation made by an arbitrator acting under the Punjab Requisitioning and Acquisition of Immovable Property Act (11 of 1953) because the award is not an order. AIR 1957 Punj 32 (34) = ILR (1957) Punj 142 (DB).

(4) An award given by an Arbitrator under Requisitioning and Acquisition of Immovable Property Act, 1952, is order relating to compensation — Section 8 is attracted, although it is not an order as defined by the Code of Civil Procedure. 1965 All LJ 909 (913) = ILR (1965) 2 All 907.

4. Appeal against order relating to compensation — Schedule II, Article 17 (iv), whether applies. — (1) Appeal against an order relating to compensation under the Land Acquisition Act — Sch. II, Article 17 (iv) does not apply. AIR 1939 All 127 (129, 130) = ILR (1939) All 142  AIR 1950 Cal 434 (Prs 2, 4)  AIR 1932 Oudh 224 (224) = 8 Luck 85 (DB)  AIR 1924 Mad 489 (490)  AIR 1928 Rang 197 (198) = 6 Rang 281 (DB)  AIR 1968 Cal 365 (371) = 71 Cal WN 662. (AIR 1957 Raj 275. Diss. from.)

[But see 1912 Pun LR (Supp) No. 17 p. 54 (57) = 1913 Pun Re No. 57 (DB). (Appeal by Secretary of State — Article 17 (iv) of Sch. II, Held, applicable.)]

(3) A Stamp Reporter or a Taxing Officer, whose duty is to determine propert Court-fees payable on the Memorandum of Appeal, against an award of the arbitrator under the Act 1952 challenging the compensation awarded need not go into the question whether the acquisition itself was for a public purpose and that the only question involved in such an appeal was assessment of just compensation for the property validly acquired. AIR 1959 Cal 609 (611) = 63 Cal WN 325.

(4) An award made under Section 7 of the Requisitioning and Acquisition of Immovable Property Act, 1952 is an order within the meaning of Section 8 of the Court-fees Act and in an appeal against such an award. Court-fees under Sch. I, Article 1 of the Court-fees Act is payable on the difference of the amount awarded by the Arbitrator and that claimed by the appellant. AIR 1959 Cal 609 (613) = 63 Cal WN 325. (AIR 1945 Bom 348, Dissented from.)  AIR 1968 Andh Pra 348 (350) = (1968) 1 Andh WR 218 (DB).

(6) An order refusing compensation is as much an order relating to compensation as an order allowing compensation is. So whenever the Arbitrator refuses to allow any compensation to a party on the ground that it has no title to the property acquired, that is an order relating to compensation and Section 8, Court Fees Act is attracted. 1966 All LJ 909 (913) = ILR (1965) 2 All 907.

5. Appeals arising under Land Acquisition Act — Section 8, whether restricted to appeals from awards only. — (1) An order passed by a Civil Court on a reference to it under Section 30 of the Land Acquisition Act does not amount to an award. AIR 1922 PC 80 (83) = 45 Mad 320 = 49 Ind App 129.

(2) For the applicability of this section what is essential is that the order appealed against must relate to compensation and it is immaterial whether the order amounts to an award or not. (3) The words "acquisition of land" in Section 8, Court Fees Act are wide enough to include requisition of premises. (1965) 69 Cal WN 513 (515) (DB).

(4) "Order relating to compensation . . . . for acquisition of land for public purpose" — Award of compensation by arbitrator under provisions of Central Act 60 of 1948 — Award is not an 'Order' having the force of a decree — Appeal against 'award' attracts fixed court-fee under Article 11 of Sch. 7. Court-fee in appeals relating to apportionment of compensation. — (1) Appeal from an order apportioning compensation among several claimants by a claimant claiming more compensation — The proper court-fee is that payable under this section. (AIR 1957 Raj 275, Not foll.)

(2) Compensation divided between claimant and Government — Appellant claimant appealing from order praying for more amount than was awarded to him paying only two rupees as court-fee under Sch. II, Article 11 — Appellant alleging that the appeal was one relating to apportionment — Held, that the appeal did not relate to apportionment and the proper court-fee was an ad valorem one under this section. AIR 1921 Bom 325 (325) = 45 Bom 277 (DB).

(3) On a reference under Section 30, Jaipur Land Acquisition Act, the District Judge passed an order apportioning compensation among several claimants. One of the claimants, who had claimed that he alone was the owner of the property acquired, filed an appeal under Sec. 54, Rajasthan Land Acquisition Act, against the decision of the District Judge claiming the entire amount for himself. It was held that what was in dispute in the appeal was the relative shares of the parties in the property in dispute and the apportionment would follow the declaration as a matter of course. Section 8 was not at all applicable to a case of this nature. For a relief of declaration of that nature Sch. II. Article 17, Clause (iii), would be applicable.

Sections 8-A to 8-F

Andaman and Nicobar (U. T.):

Sections 8-A to 8-F inserted after Section 8 are the same as those of West Bengal. — Reg. II of 1957, S. 8 (1-8-1957).

Orissa:

After Section 8 the following section was inserted as Section 8-A:

"8-A. Statement of particulars of subject-matters of suit and plaintiff's valuation thereof.—In every suit in which an ad valorem court-fee is payable, under this Act on the plaint, the plaintiff shall file with the plaint a statement of particulars of the subject-matter of the suit and his own valuation thereof unless such particulars and the valuation are contained in the plaint. The statement shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed by the State Government by notification in the Gazette. In every such suit the plaintiff shall also, if the Court so directs, file a duplicate copy of the plaint and of the said statement." — Orissa Act 5 of 1939 (31-10-1939).

8. Court-fee, whether payable on additional payment under Section 23 (2) of the Land Acquisition Act. — (1) Where a person being dissatisfied with the amount of compensation awarded to him under Section 18, Land Acquisition Act, wants to appeal, insisting in case of his success that not only the excess market value but also 15 per cent on such market-value should be decreed in his favour, he must pay court-fees not only on the excess market value but also on 15 per cent thereon. 10. Orders relating to compensation — Illustrative cases. — (1) On acquisition of property District Judge ordering compensation to be invested in Government Promissory Notes and allowing only interest to claimant — Claimant filing appeal against order paying Court-fee under Sch. II, Article 17 (vi) — Held, that court-fee must be paid under this section. (1912) 39 Cal 906 (913, 914) (DB).

(2) Land acquisition proceedings — Claim by reversioner that compensation money should not be paid to alienee from Hindu widow as the alienation was not binding upon him — Prayer for investment of money under S. 32, Land Acquisition Act — Claim disallowed — Appeal by reversioner — Held, that it was not governed by this section. AIR 1935 Cal 243 (244) = 62 Cal 331.

[See also AIR 1932 Mad 438 (439) = 55 Mad 641 (DB).]

(3) Land acquisition proceedings — Certain reversioners objecting that whole compensation money should not be paid over to Hindu widow — District Judge disallowing objection — Appeal by reversioners — Held, that appeal should have been stamped with ad valorem court-fee. (1899) 21 All 354 (355) (DB).

(4) Compensation was awarded in respect of debutter land to one K as representing the Deity in his capacity as executor of the person who created the debutter. In apportionment proceedings the whole amount was awarded to L who was the shebait. It was held that court-fee payable on the appeal against that decision was ad valorem on the amount determined under this section and not a fixed fee. AIR 1950 Cal 434 (Prs. 2, 4).

11. Amount that can be awarded by the Appellate Court. — (1) The Court of appeal cannot pass a decree for a sum in excess of the amount claimed and on which no court-fee has been paid even if it finds that the appellant is entitled to a higher amount. (1903) 30 Cal 501 (502) (DB)  (1903) 30 Cal 516 (520) (DB). (Unless before the judgment is pronounced, an amendment of the memorandum of appeal is allowed and the additional court-fee is paid.)

Pondicherry:

Same as that of Andaman and Nicobar — See Act 26 of 1968, S. 3 and Schedule, Pt. II (18-12-1968).

West Bengal:

After Section 8 the following sections were inserted, viz. :—

"8-A. In every suit in which an ad valorem court-fee is payable, under this Act on the plaint, the plaintiff shall file with the plaint a statement of particulars of the subject-matter of the suit and his own valuation thereof unless such particulars and the valuation are contained in the plaint. The statement shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed by the State Government by notification in the Official Gazette. In every such suit the plaintiff shall also, if the Court so directs, file a duplicate copy of the plaint and of the said statement.

8-B. (1) In every suit in which a court-fee is payable under this Act on the plaint or memorandum of appeal the Court shall, *[on the date fixed for the appearance of the opposite party or as soon as may be thereafter] and in every case before proceeding to deliver judgment, record a finding whether a sufficient court-fee has been paid.

[*] These words were substituted by Beng. Act I of 1936.

Sections 8-A-8-F (West Bengal) — Note 1

(1) The object in inserting these sections is to supply the omission in the Act of the provision for Court's power to reject plaint in case of undervaluation. ILR (1937) 2 Cal 501 (507) (DB).

(2) The powers of a Court under these sections are much wider and more specific than those under Sections 9 and 10. ILR (1937) 2 Cal 501 (507) (DB).

(3) Section 8-B casts a duty upon the Court to record a finding whether a sufficient court-fee has been paid and, in case of insufficiency, to dismiss the suit on failure of the party to make up the deficiency. AIR 1940 Cal 451 (454) = ILR (1940) 2 Cal 166 (DB).

[See also ILR (1953) 1 Cal 277 (278). (The court-fee is payable on a set-off under Section 8-B read with Section 12 of the Court-fees Act and before a claim can be rejected on the ground of non-payment of court-fee, time must be allowed under the Code of Civil Procedure, and if the court-fee is not still paid then the Court can reject the claim.)]

(4) The Court-fees Act as amended by Bengal Act 1 of 1936 contemplates two stages so far as payment of court-fee is concerned. In the first stage, under Section 6 (2), failure to pay the reasonable court-fee entails the rejection of the plaint or memorandum of appeal and, at a later stage, under Section 8-B, failure as aforesaid entails a dismissal of the suit or appeal. AIR 1953 Cal 42 (Pr 8) = ILR (1954) 2 Cal 176 (DB)  ILR (1948) 2 Cal 149 (156) , AIR 1961 Cal 491 (493, 495) (FB). (Per Lahiri C. J.)

(5) Per Full Bench — An order dismissing the suit under Sec. 8-B (3), Court-fees Act (Bengal Amendment), is appealable as a decree within the meaning of Section 2 (2), C. P. Code as the order of dismissal amounts in law to an order rejecting the plaint under Order 7, Rule 11 (c), C. P. Code. AIR 1961 Cal 491 (493, 494, 495) (FB). (AIR 1953 Cal 42, Overruled.)

(6) A revision lies against an order dismissing a suit under Section 8-B (3). AIR 1953 Cal 42 (Pr 6) = ILR (1954) 2 Cal 176 (DB). (The revision does not become incompetent by reason of the dismissal of an appeal against decree, embodying the order for non-payment of printing costs.)

(7) The principle underlying under Section 8-B of the Court-fees Act, is to see that Government revenue does not suffer, and the provisions are made stringent, so that, even at a very late stage, the Court is enjoined to see that proper court-fee has been paid. This principle is irreconcilable with the principle underlying Section 11, Suits Valuation Act. ILR (1951) 1 Cal 535 (536). (Necessity to amend Section 8 of the Suits Valuation Act in view of Section 8-B of the Court-fees Act, suggested.)

(8) Under Section 8-C, it is the duty of Court, even in cases falling under Section 7 (iv), to revise plaintiff's valuation where there is a reason to suppose that the relief sought has been wrongly valued. AIR 1941 Cal 509 (511) (DB)  AIR 1940 Cal 482 (483) = ILR (1940) 1 Cal 409  AIR 1940 Cal 451 (452) = ILR (1940) 2 Cal 166 (DB)  (1949) 53 Cal WN 340 (343)  ILR (1966) 1 Cal 427 (431) = (1966) 70 Cal WN 857 (DB).

(9) The basis of the action by Court under Section 8-C of the Court Fees Act is wrong valuation. The modus operandi of correcting that wrong valuation is the Court's power to hold such an enquiry as it thinks fit. ILR (1966) 1 Cal 427 (430) = (1966) 70 Cal WN 857 (DB).

(10) Even without Section 8-C the Court has always the power to revise the

(2) If the Court records a finding that an insufficient court-fee has been paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal the Court shall,

(a) stay all further proceedings in the suit until it has determined the proper amount of such court-fee payable and the plaintiff or the appellant, as the case may be, has paid such amount or until the date referred to in clause (b), as the case may be :

Provided that if the plaintiff or appellant gives, within such time as the Court may allow, security to the satisfaction of the Court, for the payment of any additional amount for which he may be found liable, the Court may proceed with the suit,

(b) fix a date before which the plaintiff or appellant shall pay the amount of court-fee due from him, as determined by the Court under clause (a).

(3) If the plaintiff or appellant fails to give the security referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (2) or to pay the amount referred to in clause (b) of that sub-section within the time allowed, or before the date fixed, by the Court, as the case may be, the suit shall be dismissed.

8-C. If the Court is of opinion that the subject-matter of any suit has been wrongly valued it may revise the valuation and determine the correct valuation and may hold such inquiry as it thinks fit for such purpose.

8-D. (1) For the purpose of an inquiry under Section 8-C the Court may depute, or issue a commission to any suitable person to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court. Such report and any evidence recorded by such person shall be evidence in the inquiry.

(2) The Court may, from time to time, direct such party to the suit, as it thinks fit, to deposit such sum as the Court thinks reasonable as the costs of the inquiry, and if the costs are not deposited within such time as the Court shall fix, may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, dismiss the suit if such party is the plaintiff or the appellant and, in any other case, may recover the costs as a public demand.

8-E. (1) The Court, when making an inquiry under Section 8-C and any person making an investigation under Section 8-D shall have, respectively, for the purposes of such inquiry or investigation, the powers vested in a Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely :—

(a) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath or affirmation;

(b) compelling the production of documents or material objects; and

(c) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.

(2) An inquiry or investigation referred to in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of Sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code.

valuation put by the suing party. (1966) 70 Cal WN 1137 (1138).

(11) Suit under Section 7 (iv) (c) — Court can raise valuation — But this power cannot be exercised unless reasonable standards for such valuation are laid down by rules framed under Section 9, Suits Valuation Act. AIR 1939 Cal 627 (627) (DB).

(12) Where some objective standard of valuation is possible, the Court should act under Section 8-C. AIR 1938 Cal 161 (162)  AIR 1937 Cal 748 (749) = ILR (1938) 1 Cal 196  (1949) 53 Cal WN 340 (343).

(13) The objective standard of valuation should ordinarily be regarded as the value of the benefit which the plaintiff seeks to obtain if he succeeds in his suit. AIR 1940 Cal 560 (560) = ILR (1940) 2 Cal 33  AIR 1939 Cal 743 (744) = ILR (1939) 2 Cal 20.

(14) Where there does not exist an objective standard of valuation the Court should accept plaintiff's valuation as correct. AIR 1939 Cal 278 (279) (DB)  AIR 1939 Cal 265 (266) (DB)  AIR 1954 Cal 26 (Pr 6) (DB)  AIR 1953 Cal 34 (Prs 4, 5) (DB). (Suit for declaration of right to pala of worship and injunction.)  (1954) 58 Cal WN 922 (924). (Though Section 8-C authorises the Court to hold an enquiry as to the proper valuation, where the valuation must necessarily be vague in absence of specific Rules, it would be useless to remand the suit for holding an enquiry in each case under Section 8-C).

8-F. If in the result of an inquiry under Section 8-C the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has been undervalued the Court may order the party responsible for the under-valuation to pay all or any part of the costs of the inquiry.

If in the result of such inquiry the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has not been undervalued the Court may, in its discretion, order that all or any part of such costs shall be paid by the Provincial Government or by any party to the suit at whose instance the inquiry has been undertaken, and if any amount exceeding the proper amount of fee has been paid shall refund the excess amount so paid." — Bengal Act 7 of 1935 (2-5-1935).

9. Power to ascertain nett profits or market value.—If the Court sees reason to think that the annual nett profits or the market-value of any such land, house or garden as is mentioned in Section 7, paragraphs (v) and (vi), have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court may, for the purpose of computing the fee payable in any suit therein mentioned, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary, and to report thereon to the Court.

5. Time fixed for payment of deficit fee — Computation of time. — (1) Plaintiff ordered to pay deficit court-fee within a week — Plaintiff held entitled to full seven days. ('12) 13 Ind Cas 900 (901) (DB) (Call).

(2) Claim under-estimated — Adequate court-fee not paid — Court must stay suit and fix time within which deficit court-fee is to be paid. ('07) 20 All 749 (764, 765) (FB). (Without any regard to fact whether that be time within or beyond period of limitation prescribed for suit.)

6. Extension of time fixed. — (1) Extension of time for payment of deficit court-fee may be granted before or after expiration of time fixed. ('97) 19 All 240 (243) (DB).

7. Order calling for deficit court-fee incorporated in decree. — (1) Question of court-fee raised by defendant at a later stage — Same may be tried as preliminary issue or along with other issues and it does not affect the jurisdiction of the Court in the matter — Order for payment of additional court-fee not to be incorporated in decree. AIR 1960 Pat 527 (529) = 1960 BLJR 505 (DB).

(2) To hold up decision on question of court-fee till end of suit and incorporate order in decree passed in suit is improper. AIR 1938 Lah 311 (312).

(3) Deficiency in Court-fee on plaint — Court has to decide the question in the beginning and call upon the plaintiff to make good the deficiency — Court dismissing the suit on merits and directing the office not to draft the decree unless the deficiency in Court fee is paid — Order practically puts a bar to his pre-

STATE AMENDMENTS

Andaman and Nicobar:

Omit Section 10 — Reg. II of 1957, S. 9 (1-8-1957).

Assam and Nagaland:

For clause (ii) the following clause was substituted, viz.,

"ii. In such case—

(a) the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid and if the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed; and whether the additional fee is or is not paid,

(b) the Court may, if it is of opinion that the estimation has been grossly insufficient, further order that the expenses of the commission, or such portion thereof as the Court may think reasonable, be paid by the party in fault to the Government, and the order so made shall have the force and effect of a decree passed by the Court." — Assam Act 3 of 1932 (27-4-1932): Act 27 of 1962, S. 26 (w. e. f. 1-12-1963).

ferring an appeal — Order improper and not justified. 70 Punj LR 530 (531).

8. Non-payment of additional court-fee. — (1) No Court can compel any party to pay the additional court-fee, even if rightly levied, when he does not want to pay it, for whatever reason, and is willing to have the suit dismissed for such default. The penalty for not paying the additional court-fee due is the dismissal of the suit, even with the costs of the other side if it is on record and presses for it. After the dismissal of the suit for such default (and not on merits) there is no jurisdiction in the Court to levy the court-fee from him by coercive process or to proceed against him for contempt for not paying the balance of court-fee due. AIR 1957 Mad 667 (668).

(2) In view of the Orissa amendment of Section 12 (2) of the Act, a suit cannot be dismissed in appeal for non-payment of the excess court-fee, but the said fee is recoverable as an arrear of land revenue. AIR 1958 Orissa 81 (83) = ILR (1958) Cut 51 (DB).

(3) Court passing decree in plaintiff's favour conditional on his paying court-fee within certain time — Suit to stand dismissed if court-fee was not paid within that time — Plaintiff failing to pay court-fee within time — Order about making good deficiency in court-fee held though not correct was not illegal — Order being good and operative suit held stood dismissed. AIR 1952 Raj 181 (Pr 14) = ILR (1952) 2 Raj 447 (DB).

9. Effect of dismissal of suit. — (1) Suit dismissed under sub-section (ii) of this section — Dismissal does not operate as res judicata, to bar subsequent suit by plaintiff on same cause of action. ('11) 35 Bom 38 (41) (DB)  ('86) 8 All 282 (287) (DB).

10. Appeal against dismissal of suit. — (1) Valuation of appeal on dismissal of suit under this section would be valuation determined by Court and not plaint valuation. AIR 1938 Lah 311 (312).

11. Refund of court-fee. — (1) Court has discretion to refund excess fee paid by plaintiff. See AIR 1937 Lah 239 (240, 241). (Court-fee should be paid on value of site plus costs of improvements made thereon.)

(2) Section 10 makes provision for refund where there has been an error in computation owing to a miscalculation of the nett profits or market value. It can have no application where an appeal properly valued is automatically dismissed as a result of statutory provision. AIR 1953 All 184 (Prs 3, 5) (DB).

11. Procedure in suits for mesne profits or account when amount decreed exceeds amount claimed.—In suits for mesne profits or for immovable property and mesne profits or for an account, if the profits or amount decreed are or is in excess of the profits claimed or the amount at which the plaintiff valued the relief sought, the decree shall not be executed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits or amount so decreed shall have been paid to the proper officer.

Where the amount of mesne profits is left to be ascertained in the course of the execution of the decree, if the profits so ascertained exceed the profits claimed, the further execution of the decree shall be stayed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Andaman and Nicobar (U. T.):

Same as that of West Bengal. — Reg. II of 1957, S. 10 (1-8-1957).

SECTION 11 — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope and applicability.
2. Points of difference between para 1 and para 2.
3. Mode of enforcing payment of additional court-fee under the section.
4. Giving of time for payment of court-fee under this section.
5. Amount of court-fee payable under this section.
6. Court-fees in suits for mesne profits — General.
7. Court-fee on future mesne profits.
8. Suit for administration — See Notes on Section 7 (iv) (f).
9. Suits on mortgage.
10. Madras Amendment.
11. Orissa Amendment.

1. Scope and applicability. — (1) This section furnishes exceptions to the rule that the plaintiff is only entitled to amount claimed by him in plaint. AIR 1921 Oudh 108 (109) = 24 Oudh Cas 209.

(2) This section provides for making up of deficiency of court-fees in case tentative valuation is eventually found to fall short of real amount for which decree is passed. AIR 1934 Lah 545 (548) = 15 Lah 512 (FB)  AIR 1957 Mad 297 (298)  AIR 1949 Mad 750 (Pr 3). (The plaintiff and the defendants in a suit for dissolution of partnership and for accounts who ultimately obtain a decree cannot make it operative unless they pay suitable ad valorem court-fee on the amounts decreed to them.)  AIR 1934 Lah 488 (491, 492) = 15 Lah 151 (FB)  AIR 1918 Cal 895 (896) = 45 Cal 634 (DB)  AIR 1918 Cal 159 (159) (DB)  AIR 1915 Bom 59 (60) = 39 Bom 545 (DB)  ('02) 25 Mad 543 (544) (DB)  ('85) 9 Bom 22 (24) (DB).

(3) Cases under this section would be cases in which insufficiently stamped plaint is received or filed or used owing to mistake or inadvertence of Court. ('90) 12 All 129 (147) (FB). (Obiter.)

(4) Suit for accounts of mesne profits dismissed — Plaintiff appealing — This section will apply to appeal. AIR 1929 PC 147 (148) = 10 Lah 737 = 56 Ind App 232.

[See also AIR 1934 Lah 545 (548) = 15 Lah 512 (FB). (Amount determined as due by appellate Court becomes value of suit for jurisdiction as well as court-fee.)]

[But see ('90) 12 All 129 (147) (FB). (Obiter.)  ('36-43) Tax Dec (Nag) 75 (76) (DB).]

(5) Section does not apply to appeal by defendant against preliminary decree in suit for accounts. AIR 1937 Lah 694 (696) = ILR (1937) Lah 196 (DB).

(6) The section does not apply to any suit not specified therein. AIR 1938 Cal 785 (787, 788) (DB)  AIR 1922 Pat 59 (60) (DB)  ('07) 17 Mad L Jour 625 (626) (DB).

(7) Section 11 does not apply to suit for damages — Plaintiff can enter in his plaint approximate estimate of damages and offer to pay additional court-fee, if larger sum is found to be due, before decree is passed. AIR 1957 Mad 297 (298).

(8) Recovery of additional court-fee under this section does not depend on existence of any direction in decree in that behalf. AIR 1938 Mad 787 (788) = 57 Mad 303 (DB).

(9) Section 17 of Arbitration Act 1940 does not override provisions of Section 11 of Court-fees Act — Suit for dissolution

Delhi:

Same as that of Punjab — See S. R. O. 422, Gaz of Ind., 1950, Pt. II, Section 3, p. 458.

Orissa

For the second paragraph of the section the following paragraph was substituted, viz.,

"Where a decree directs an inquiry as to mesne profits which have accrued on the property during a period prior to the institution of the suit, if the profits ascertained on such inquiry exceed the profits claimed, no final decree shall be passed till the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the claim for the excess shall be dismissed, unless the Court, for sufficient cause, extends the time for payment.

Where a decree directs an inquiry as to mesne profits from the institution of the suit and a final decree is passed in accordance with the result of such inquiry, the decree shall not be executed until such fee is paid as would have been payable on the of partnership and rendition of accounts — Dispute by agreement of parties referred to arbitration — Award made rule of Court by decree under Section 17 — Held, decree that followed was a decree in a suit, that put an end to suit, and, therefore, provisions of Section 11 of Court-fees Act, applied. AIR 1969 Punj 159 (161) = 1968 Cur LJ 907 (DB).

(10) Executing Court can determine whether additional court-fee should be borne by decree-holder or can be recovered by him from judgment-debtor as costs of execution. AIR 1943 Mad 145 (146) (DB). (Plaintiff entitled to recover extra court-fee as costs by further execution.)  AIR 1933 Mad 787 (788) = 57 Mad 303 (DB)  1951-1 Mad L Jour 524 (525, 526).

(11) Proceedings under Order 20, R. 12, Civil P. C. — Section 11, part 2 has no application. AIR 1946 Sind 58 (60) = ILR (1945) Kar 313.

(12) The procedure provided for in the two paragraphs is different. Under the second paragraph the suit itself is to be dismissed if the additional court-fee is not paid within the time allowed by the Court. But under the first paragraph, the suit is not to be dismissed. It is only the execution of the decree that will remain in abeyance till the extra court-fee is paid. AIR 1933 Nag 307 (Pr 9).

2. Points of difference between para 1 and para. 2. — (1) Para. 2 of this section has no application unless amount of mesne profits has been left to be ascertained in execution proceedings, while para. 1 will not apply in respect of mesne profits left to be ascertained in execution proceedings. AIR 1920 Mad 970 (972) (DB)  AIR 1946 Sind 58 (60) = ILR (1945) Kar 313  AIR 1953 Nag 307 (Prs 9, 10). (Where the profits in a suit for mesne profits have been ascertained in the suit itself, or where a sum is decreed in a suit for accounts para. 1 applies.)

(2) It is manifest from the first paragraph of Section 11 of Court-fees Act, 1870 that till the court-fee is actually paid, the decree should not be executed. The second paragraph is inapplicable to a case of this nature because the ascertainment of mesne profits is not done in execution proceedings but under Order 20, Rule 12 of Civil P. C. pursuant to a direction in the preliminary decree. The second paragraph governs only a case where the profits are left to be ascertained in the course of execution of a decree. ILR 1963 Andh Pra 560 (564).

(3) Under para 1, Court cannot fix time for payment of additional court-fee and if any time is fixed and plaintiff does not pay it within such time but pays afterwards, Court cannot refuse to execute decree. AIR 1920 Mad 970 (972) (DB)  ('07) 30 Mad 32 (34) (DB)  AIR 1953 Nag 307 (Pr 10). (Suit for accounts decreed — Court cannot direct payment of court-fee within certain time and dismiss suit for non-payment.)

(4) Under para 2, Court must fix reasonable time for payment of extra court-fee and if it is not paid within such time Court is to dismiss suit. AIR 1937 PC 163 (165) = 64 Ind App 191 = ILR (1937) Lah 502 = 31 Sind LR 367.

(5) No time, fixed for payment of court-fee — Application for execution made on payment of additional court-fee will not be barred though previous application was dismissed on ground of non-payment of additional fee. ('04) 1 All L Jour 350 (352) (DB).

3. Mode of enforcing payment of additional court-fee under the section. — (1) Decree for possession and mesne profits — Bar of execution will apply only in respect of mesne profits and not in respect of recovery of possession. AIR 1931 Mad 717 (720) = 54 Mad 980 (DB)  ('88) 12 Bom 98 (100) (DB).

(2) Mesne profits ascertained in suit — Court can only refuse to execute decree amount claimed in execution if a separate suit had been instituted therefor." — Orissa Act 5 of 1939 (31-10-1939).

Punjab, Haryana and Chandigarh:

In S. 11, for the word 'executed' substitute the words "drawn up." — E. P. Act 26 of 1949, S. 4 (1-4-1950): Act 31 of 1966, S. 89 (1-11-1966).

Uttar Pradesh:

Same as that of Orissa. — U. P. Act 19 of 1938 (9-1-1939).

West Bengal:

For the original section the following section was substituted, viz.:

"11. Where, in any suit for mesne profits or for land and mesne profits or for an account, the fee which would have been payable, if the suit had comprised the whole of the relief to which the Court finds the plaintiff to be entitled exceeds the fee actually paid, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay an additional fee equal to the amount of the excess, and if such additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court may fix, the suit, or if a decree has previously been passed therein, so much of the claim as has not been so decreed shall be dismissed:

Provided that, where the additional fee is payable in respect of a portion of the claim which can be relinquished, that portion only shall be dismissed." — Bengal Act 7 of 1935 (2-5-1935).

till additional court-fee is paid and not dismiss suit. AIR 1920 Mad 970 (972) (DB). (Under Section 11, Court-fees Act, in case of suit for partition and mesne profits, term "decree" should be taken to refer to final, and not interim decree in suit.)  AIR 1954 Mad 170 (Pr 4) (DB).

(3) Procedure of dismissing suit for non-payment of court-fees is not applicable to suits for accounts even where amount due has been left to be determined in execution proceedings. AIR 1937 PC 163 (165) = ILR (1937) Lah 502 = 64 Ind App 191 = 31 Sind LR 367.

(4) In a suit, a decree was passed not only for mesne profits which accrued prior to the institution of the suit but it also directed enquiry into mesne profits since the filing of the suit. Pending such enquiry and ultimate passing of final decree, the defendant deposited certain amounts to the credit of the suit. Plaintiff applied for payment-out of the sum under Rr. 162 and 163 of Civil Rules of Practice.

Held, countering a plea that in view of Section 11, Para. 3 of the Court-Fees Act, the decree ought not be executed without the plaintiff paying the Court-fee on the amount in accordance with the above provision, that the payment-out application under Rr. 162 and 163 was not a proceeding in execution so as to bring the case within the purview of the above provision of the Court-Fees Act. (1968) 2 An LT 236 = (1969) 1 Andh WR 448.

(5) No special procedure is necessary for dismissal for default of payment of additional court-fee if parties have notice of such claim. AIR 1916 Mad 224 (226) (DB).

(6) Suit dismissed under provisions of para 2 — Subsequent application for recovery of mesne profits will be barred. (1897) 24 Cal 173 (176) (DB).

(7) Several reliefs including that of mesne profits granted in suit — Word "suit in second paragraph of this section means only that part of suit which relates to mesne profits. ('97) 24 Cal 173 (176) (DB)  ('88) 12 Bom 98 (100) (DB).

(8) Court is not required to postpone passing or drawing up of decree till court-fee is paid. AIR 1942 Pat 410 (412) = 21 Pat 366 (DB)  AIR 1953 Nag 307 (Prs 9, 10).

[But see AIR 1933 Mad 330 (331) = 56 Mad 705 (DB)  1949 All L Jour 511 (514) (DB).]

(9) Where in a suit for accounts, the plaintiff pays court-fees on the basis of tentative valuation of his relief but the Court on finding that a higher amount is due to the plaintiff gives a direction in the judgment for payment of the additional court-fee by the plaintiff within a fixed time and in case of default to draw a decree only for the amount on which court-fee was originally paid, the direction contravenes this section and the Court acts erroneously in drawing up a decree for part of the claim allowed in case of plaintiff's failure to pay the court-fee within the prescribed time. AIR 1953 Nag 307 (Prs 9, 10).

(10) Final adjudication with regard to mesne profits — Direction not to prepare decree until deficit court-fee is paid only amounts to postponement of drawing up formal decree till payment — Order determining mesne profits amounts to final decree and no fresh final decree for mesne profits need be prepared on payment of court-fee — Starting point of limitation for execution is date of order determining amount of mesne profits. AIR 1950 Pat 524 (Prs 5, 16) = 29 Pat 600 (DB).

(11) Where a compromise decree passed in a suit for accounts allows execution only if payment is not made as agreed and the plaintiff is liable to pay the additional court-fee before executing the decree, the Government has no right to execute the decree for recovering the additional court-fees, if the plaintiff does not want to execute the decree, or before he tries to execute. The Government can be considered to be a party to the decree only when the decree-holder executes it without paying the additional court-fee and can execute it on paying the deficit court-fee. AIR 1954 Mad 409 (Prs 5, 8).

(12) It has been held that a party, who obtains a decree for future mesne profits in the first instance, or in whose favour a decree for future mesne profits is made on enquiry, can evade payment of court-fee if he chooses not to execute the decree or if the decree is satisfied outside the Court. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 6 (7) = ILR (1956) Andh 610, (DB).

4. Giving of time for payment of court-fee under this section.— (1) Under paragraph 1 of Section 11 the only penalty for non-payment of court-fees is that the decree could not be executed until they are paid. This paragraph does not contemplate the Court fixing any time within which the court-fee has to be paid. AIR 1954 Mad 170 (Pr 4) (DB).

(2) Decree directing payment of court-fee within a week — Decree goes beyond what is permitted under Section 11, Para. 1 — Condition as to time cannot be construed as involving a decision that the suit should stand dismissed if the court-fee was not paid. AIR 1954 Mad 170 (Pr 4) (DB)  ILR (1960) 10 Raj 60.

(3) Suit for accounts — Direction in judgment for payment of additional court-fee within certain time and in case of failure to pay to draw up decree only for the amount on which court-fee has been paid — Decree drawn up for part of claim in accordance with such direction contravenes Section 11 and is without jurisdiction. AIR 1953 Nag 307 (Prs 9, 10).

(4) Court can enlarge time fixed under para 2. ('07) 30 Mad 32 (34) (DB).

(5) Time can be enlarged even after time originally fixed under para 2 has expired. ('11) 10 Ind Cas 268 (269) (DB) (Cal).

(6) Power to enlarge time exists under this section itself apart from Section 148, Civil P. C. ('11) 10 Ind Cas 268 (269) (DB) (Cal).

(7) Time for payment of court-fee contained in decree — Court can extend such time without any amendment of decree. ('07) 30 Mad 32 (34) (DB).

(8) A Court neither can nor should deprive itself of its discretion under the section to extend time in anticipation by stipulating that in any circumstance the suit will be dismissed if the additional court-fee is not paid within the time prescribed. AIR 1949 Mad 855 (856).

(9) Appellate Court cannot extend time fixed by lower Court. AIR 1916 Mad 224 (227) (DB).

(10) Non-payment of court-fee — Limitation not arrested — Decree could not be said to be incapable of execution — Execution petition filed after three years from date of final decree but within three years from payment of court-fee — Barred. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 385 (388) = 1962 Andh LT 76 (DB).

5. Amount of court-fee payable under this section. — (1) Court-fee to be paid under this section is difference between the fee paid and the fee payable on amount decreed in his favour. AIR 1935 Lah 40 (41)  AIR 1929 Lah 753 (756) = 11 Lah 325 (DB). (Determination of amount of court-fee cannot be left at the option of plaintiff.)  AIR 1920 Low Bur 94 (95) = 10 Low Bur Rul 276  ('98) 8 CPLR 86 (88).

(2) Plaintiff is entitled to credit for court-fee already paid by him. ('98) 1 Oudh Cas 8 (9) (DB).

(3) Section 11 shows that the claim in a suit for mense profits is only a rough estimate even if a precise amount is stated and it is for the Court to ascertain the true amount. AIR 1966 Ker 286 (292) = 1966 Ker LT 333.

6. Court-fees in suits for mesne profits — General. —. (1) Plaintiff should not be required to pay additional court-fee before Court passes decree for higher amount in his favour than that claimed by him in plaint. AIR 1921 Oudh 108 (109) = 24 Oudh Cas 209.

(2) Decree directing ascertainment of amount of mesne profits in subsequent proceedings— Plaintiff can claim in such proceedings higher amount than that claimed by him in plaint. AIR 1921 Oudh 108 (109) = 24 Oudh Cas 209  ('83) 9 Cal 112 (115, 116) (DB). (Plaintiff not estopped by his previous statements.)

Section 11 — Note 6 (contd.)

(3) In cases where an enquiry is directed as to mesne profits accrued prior to the institution of the suit there is a provision in Section 11 for demanding court-fee before the passing of the final decree — But no jurisdiction is given to the Court to call for Court-fee on future mense profits before passing the final decree, nor is the Court empowered to dismiss an application for ascertainment of future mesne profits and for a decree thereon for non-payment of Court-fee within the time fixed. (1968) 81 Mad LW 64 (67) = (1968) 2 Mad LJ 164.

(4) Plaintiff having means of knowing exact amount due to him but deliberately putting low figure in plaint — He cannot claim full amount ascertained to be due notwithstanding his willingness to pay extra court-fee under this section. ('81) 6 Cal 472 (475) (DB).

(5) Extra court-fee cannot be claimed until amount of mesne profits has been actually ascertained. AIR 1930 Rang 246 (246) (DB)  ('28) 108 Ind Cas 801 (801) (Pat).

(6) Extra court-fee cannot be claimed at time when plaintiff makes application for ascertainment of mesne profits claiming higher amount than that stated in plaint. AIR 1935 All 206 (206) (DB)  AIR 1926 Pat 218 (224) = 5 Pat 361 (FB)  ('54) Madh BLJ (1954) HCR 1516 (1518).

(7) Court-fee becomes payable after final decree and before execution. AIR 1926 Pat 218 (224) = 5 Pat 361 (FB).

(8) In suit for partition plaintiff does not pray for mesne profits — Court awards mesne profits to each sharer in proportion to his share — Defendant who is given share applies for execution of decree — He is not bound to pay any court-fee under this section. ('05) 29 Bom 79 (81) (DB).

(9) Where a plaintiff is allowed to sue as a pauper and the Court passing a preliminary decree orders the plaintiff to pay Court-fee on the amount found due from his co-sharer such an order being in contravention of Order 33, Rule 8, Civil P. C., is an error apparent on the face of the record and can be reviewed by the Court passing the order. AIR 1964 Orissa 94 (97) = 30 Cut LT 386.

7. Court-fee on future mesne profits.— (1) No court-fee need be paid at the outset in respect of mesne profits expected to accrue after institution of suit till delivery of possession though suit may include claim for such mesne profits. [See AIR 1914 Cal 858 (860) (DB). (Plaint regarding future mesne profits returned for presentation to proper Court, after delivery of possession — Plaint presented in latter Court — Claim no longer regarding future profits — Court-fee payable.)]

(2) While in respect of the profits that accrued prior to the suit no final decree itself would be passed without the payment of additional Court-fee in respect of mesne profits from the institution of the suit a final decree can be passed even without paying any additional Court-fee. But, its execution cannot be levied excepting on payment of additional Court-fee payable on the amount claimed in execution. (1968) 2 An LT 236 = (1969) 1 Andh WR 448.

(3) Court can levy extra court-fee under this section in respect of future mesne profits decreed under Order 20, R. 12. AIR 1938 Mad 727 (730) = ILR (1938) Mad 1050 (DB). (5) The claim for mesne profits from the date of the suit to the date of the institution of the second appeal has to be treated as a claim for past mesne profits, and ad valorem court-fee is payable on the additional amount claimed as mesne profits from the date of the suit to the date of the institution of the second appeal. For the mesne profits after the date of the second appeal no court-fee is payable. AIR 1955 Trav-Co 167 (Pr 6).

8. Suit for administration.— See Notes on S. 7 (iv) (f).

9. Suits on mortgage. — (1) In suit for sale in enforcement of mortgage Court decrees larger sum than that claimed by plaintiff — Latter is not bound to pay any additional court-fee before enforcing decree. 12. Decision of questions as to valuation.—(i) Every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under this Chapter on a plaint or memorandum of appeal, shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint or memorandum, as the case may be, is filed, and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the suit.

(ii) But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided to the detriment of the revenue, it shall require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had

10. Madras Amendment. — (1) In case of past as well as future mesne profits if final decree is straightway passed, para 1 of this section will apply and final decree shall not be executed until excess court-fee is paid. AIR 1938 Mad 727 (729, 730) = ILR (1938) Mad 1050 (DB).

(2) Decree awards future mesne profits — No court-fee is payable before final decree is passed after enquiry into such profits. AIR 1937 Mad 46 (48) = ILR (1937) Mad 284 (DB).

11. Orissa Amendment. — (1) The Orissa amendment is not applicable to a claim for accounts made against a co-sharer in a suit for partition. Such a case directly comes within the first part of Section 11. An order, therefore, asking plaintiff in a suit for partition to pay court-fee on an amount found due from his co-sharer and the order refusing to incorporate the amount in the final decree on account of non-payment of the court-fee, are illegal. 1. Scope and object. — (1) The section has no application where the valuation is for jurisdiction. AIR 1919 Mad 93 (94)  AIR 1918 Lah 116 (117)  ('12) 16 Cal LJ 371 (373) (DB)  ('74) 12 Beng LR 115n (115n) (DB). (Decision as to valuation of subject-matter in suit for purposes of jurisdiction is not final under this section.)

(2) The appellate Court is not bound by the trial Court's valuation of the suit. ('82) 6 Bom 302 (303).

(3) The section is clearly designed in the interest of revenue as is evident from the fact that while it makes a decision as to valuation final if it is adverse to the litigant, it allows the decision to be interfered with if it is against the Crown. AIR 1918 PC 188 (191) = 43 Bom 507 = 46 Ind App 24.

2. Applicability to Chartered High Court. — (1) The section does not apply to court-fees chargeable in Chartered High Court — But such High Court can interfere with decision of lower Court as regards court-fees payable in lower Court — Authority to interfere is with the Bench of the High Court and not with the Taxing Officer therein. STATE AMENDMENTS

Same as that of West Bengal. — Reg. II of 1957, S. 11 (1-8-1957).

Orissa:

For paragraph (ii) the following paragraph was substituted, viz. :

"(ii) But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided, it shall—

(a) in any case in which the decision is to the detriment of revenue, require the party by whom such fee has been paid, to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided and thereafter—

(i) if the party required to pay is the appellant or petitioner, the appeal or petition shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the appeal or petition shall be dismissed;

(3) The words "in every other respect" in Order 2, Rule 1 of the Madras High Court Fees Rules in the context clearly indicate that this section which confers on the appellate Court authority or jurisdiction to examine the question about the sufficiency or otherwise of the court-fees paid not only on the memorandum of appeal but also on the plaint in the suit which comes before the Court of appeal is obviously intended to apply to suits filed on the original side of the High Court. AIR 1958 SC 245 (249, 250) = 1958 SCR 1021.

3. "Every question relating to valuation." — (1) The words "every question relating to valuation" refer only to the actual assessment or appraisement of the value of a suit or appeal apart from any question as to whether the court-fee is to depend on the value of the suit or appeal or as to the principle according to which such value is to be assessed. (Section 12 applies to a case in which the question relates to "valuation" for the purpose of determining the amount of court-fee. If the only question that has been raised is whether on the valuation put upon the relief claimed in the written statement, the correct amount of court-fee has been paid, Section 12 has no application.)  AIR 1954 Trav-Co 29 (Pr 3) = ILR (1953) Trav-Co 1006  AIR 1953 Sau 65 (Pr 5)  AIR 1952 Madh B 196 (Pr 9) = ILR (1952) Madh B 136 (DB)  AIR 1952 Pepsu 168 (Pr 2) = ILR (1952) Patiala 345  AIR 1951 J and K 10 (Pr 6) = 9 J and K LR 162. (There is a distinction between a case where the valuation depends merely on a question of fact and one where it depends on a question of law — Section 12 does not bar an appeal in the latter case.)  ('12) 6 Sind LR 72 (75) (DB).

(2) The question under what category a suit or appeal falls for purposes of court-fees is not within the purview of the section. (ii) if the party required to pay is the respondent or the opposite party, the Court shall fix a date before which such party shall pay the amount of court-fee due from him and if such party fails to pay the fee required before the date fixed by the Court the Court shall recover the amount of such fee from him as if it were an arrear of land revenue. Where the Court considers that the amount of such fee should be paid to the respondent or the opposite party by the appellant or the petitioner, as the case may be, the Court may provide for such payment in the order as to cost in the said appeal or petition; and

(b) in any case in which the decision is that any excess fee has been levied, direct the refund of so much excess fee to the party who paid it as would not have been payable had the question been rightly decided.

Uttar Pradesh:

For sub-section (ii) the following sub-section was substituted, viz. :—

"(ii) But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided to the detriment of the revenue, it shall require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay, within such time as may be fixed by it, so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided. If such additional fee is not paid within the time fixed and the defaulter is the appellant, the appeal shall be dismissed, but if the defaulter is the respondent, the Court shall inform the Collector who shall recover the deficiency as if it were an arrear of land revenue." — U. P. Act 19 of 1938, S. 18 (9-1-1939).

West Bengal:

In paragraph (ii) for the words and figures "and the provisions of Section 10, paragraph (ii), shall apply" the following shall be substituted, viz. :

Section 12-A

After Section 12, insert the following :—

"12A. Recovery of deficit court-fee in certain cases.—(1) The High Court shall, when dealing with an application for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court, make an order for the payment of any deficit court-fee with such interest not exceeding six per centum per annum as the High Court may direct, in all cases where the High Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit or appeal had been under-valued either in the Court of first instance or in the Court of appeal, or both, irrespective of whether the certificate of fitness for appeal to the Supreme Court is or is not granted.

(2) The fee together with interest thereon found to be payable under sub-section (1) shall be paid by the party ordered to do so and if such party fails to pay the amount required before the date fixed by the High Court, it shall be recoverable from him as a public demand. — W. (6) A decision in order to come under sub-section (i) must have been arrived at for the purpose of court-fees and not incidentally while deciding the question of jurisdiction. AIR 1918 Lah 116 (117).

(7) Court ordering plaintiff to pay proper court-fee by making up the deficit — Suit tried on plaintiff's undertaking to pay — Suit decided in favour of plaintiff—Plaintiff appealing only on point of Section 12 — Note 9 (contd.) costs without making up deficit — Appellate Court cannot ask the plaintiff under Section 12 (ii) to make up the deficit. In such cases plaintiff's appeal should not be heard unless he makes up the deficit by complying with the order of the Court. AIR 1924 Cal 953 (955) (DB).

(8) Suit resisted on grounds of sufficiency of court-fee and bar of limitation — Trial Court without adjudicating first the question of court-fee deciding that suit was time-barred — Appeal dismissed — In second appeal objection raised that court-fee paid in second appeal was insufficient — Held that in view of the basis of valuation put by plaintiff which question was left unadjudicated by trial Court, no objection could be taken to the court-fee paid in second appeal. Madh BLJ 1955 HCR 267 (268).

(9) Trial Court through mistake or inadvertence accepting written statement pleading set-off though not stamped — Subsequently directing payment of court-fee — Court-fees not paid — Appellate Court can direct payment of court-fees under Section 12 (ii). AIR 1936 Cal 277 (278) (DB).

10. Finality of decision under sub-section (1).— (1) The term "final" in this section has the same meaning as in Section 5. (1890) 12 All 129 (152) (FB).

(2) 'Final' means conclusive. AIR 1937 Mad 46 (51) = ILR (1937) Mad 284 (DB).

(3) The finality is limited only to the question of valuation pure and simple and does not relate to the category under which a suit falls. AIR 1953 SC 28 (Pr 9) = 1953 SCR 197  AIR 1954 Cal 101 (Pr 8) (DB)  AIR 1954 Trav-Co 178 (Pr 22) = ILR (1953) Trav-Co 1170 (FB)  AIR 1968 All 216 (221) = 1967 All LJ 612 (FB)  AIR 1966 Goa 1 (3) (FB)  1964 All LJ 944.

(4) Reading sections 6A (U. P.) and 12 together the law seems to be that in an appeal filed under Section 6A the valuation of the subject-matter of the suit fixed by the Court below cannot be challenged as the finding is final between the parties to the suit and that, therefore, the appeal under Section 6A must be heard on other points namely that a wrong provision of the Court-fees Act has been made applicable or that the court-fee has been wrongly calculated. 1957 All LJ 53 (54).

(5) There is an exception to the finality conferred by sub-section (i) provided for by sub-section (ii). AIR 1935 Cal 338 (339) (DB)  AIR 1951 Pat 183 (Pr 8) = 30 Pat 859  AIR 1949 All 324 (325) = ILR (1949) All 710 (DB)  AIR 1927 Bom 643 (646) = 52 Bom 61 (DB)  AIR 1915 Mad 271 (272) (DB)

(6) Section 12 when it says that such a decision shall be final between the parties only makes the decision of the Court on a question of court-fee non-appealable and places it on the same footing as other interlocutory non-appealable orders under the Code and it does no more than that. If a decision under Section 12 is reached by assuming jurisdiction which the Court does not possess or without observing the formalities which are prescribed for reaching such decision, the order would be revisable by the High Court in the exercise of its revisional powers. Similarly, when a party thinking that a decision under Section 12 is palpably wrong takes the risk of his plaint being rejected or suit dismissed and then appeals from the order rejecting the plaint or from the decree dismissing the suit but not from the decision on the question of court-fee, then it is open to him to challenge the interlocutory order even on the question of court-fee made in the suit or appeal. The word 'finality' construed in the limited sense in which it is often used in statutes means that no appeal lies from an order of this character as such and it means no more than that. AIR 1953 SC 28 (Pr 11) = 1953 SCR 197.

(7) Suit for recovery of possession from licensee on valuation given by plaintiff — Decree — Appellate Court requiring trial Court to determine question of valuation on basis of market value — Plaintiff adducing no evidence about market value — Trial Court fixing value of property on basis of unexplained admission in plaint about monthly rent of property prior to granting of license — Decision on question of valuation held not erroneous and could not be challenged even on merits. ILR (1966) 1 Cal 441 (DB).

(8) For the purposes of Section 12 Court Fees Act there need not be a formal or express decision. The very fact that court accepted a plaint or memo of appeal and disposed of it on merits amounts to a decision that the Court-fee paid is sufficient. On the principle of 'res judicata' it is not therefore open to a party to raise the question of Court-fee in the original court after the remand of the case to it by the appellate Court. AIR 1959 Madh Pra 181 = 1958 MPLJ 704.

(4) Court-fee on letters of administration — District Court granting refund holding that Section 19-D applied — Collector appealing on the ground that Section 19-D did not apply — Held that appeal would have lain if Collector had been party to order but that in this case he was not a party and so the appeal did not lie — But the High Court in the exercise of its extraordinary jurisdiction interfered with the order as the District Judge had acted without jurisdiction. ('03) 27 Bom 140 (143) (DB).

(5) On the question of appealability of the order rejecting plaint for insufficiency of court-fee, the following different views are held:

(a) Order will not be open to challenge by the appellate Court if the decision merely relates to the assessment of the value of the suit. AIR 1919 Pat 270 (275) = 4 Pat LJ 57 (DB).

(b) Where the decision of the Court is not concerned merely with the appraisement of value of the suit but relates to its classification for purposes of court-fees, the decision will be open to attack in appeal. (6) The fact that the decision of trial Court regarding court-fee is not open to attack in appeal will not make the case one in which no appeal lies. AIR 1914 Lah 153 (153, 155) = 1914 Pun Re No. 80 (DB)  ('89) 11 All 91 (93) (FB).

(7) Order rejecting plaint for failure to pay additional court-fee is such a complete and final determination of the rights of the parties that there is no room in any appeal from such order for the proposition that the subject-matter in appeal is not the same as the subject-matter in the original suit and same court-fee is payable on the appeal as on plaint. AIR 1935 Nag 83 (86) (FB).

(8) Plaint rejected for undervaluation — Plaintiff appealing and putting same value on appeal as on plaint — Appeal cannot be rejected as insufficiently stamped without investigating true value of suit property. AIR 1926 Cal 427 (427) (DB).

(9) Order rejecting the plaint amounts to a decree and the memorandum of appeal from that decree must bear ad valorem court-fee. AIR 1921 Lah 43 (43) (DB).

12. Revision against orders as to court-fee. — (1) The duty of fixing the court-fee is cast by law on the trial Court and the trial Court's decision is ordinarily final. AIR 1942 Mad 445 (446).

(2) In a revision against an order on an application for attachment before judgment or temporary injunction, the subject-matter of the suit is not before the High Court and the High Court cannot interfere with the decision of the lower Court in regard to the court-fee in the suit. AIR 1937 Mad 325 (326).
[See also ('37) 172 Ind Cas 212 (213) (Pat).]

(3) Where the decision of the lower Court relates to the classification of the suit for purposes of court-fee and not merely to the actual assessment of the value of the suit for purposes of court-fees, the decision can be questioned by the High Court when the suit goes before it in revision. AIR 1941 Cal 518 (519, 520)  AIR 1925 Mad 713 (714)  AIR 1924 Pat 673 (677) = 3 Pat 930 (DB)  ('10) 5 Ind Cas 141 (142) (DB) (Cal).

(11) Two of three plaintiffs permitted to sue in forma pauperis — Third plaintiff allowed to pay court-fee on his one third share of property in suit — Revision against such order filed by defendant — No revision against an order in which matter involved is purely of court-fee is maintainable — But civil revision at the instance of defendants against order permitting plaintiff to sue in forma pauperis can be entertained — The matter involved being not purely of Court-fee but closely connected with pauperism. The defendants not having been served with notice of the suit have no right to prefer a revision nor could it be said that they are necessary parties in the revision petition. AIR 1960 Andh Pra 339 (340).

(14) Question of court-fee on plaint decided against defendant's contention — Defendant has no grievance and has no right of revision against the decision of the Court of first instance on a matter of court-fee payable in a plaint — Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act (14 of 1955), Section 12 (2). AIR 1961 SC 1299 (1300) = (1961) 3 SCR 1015.

(15) Erroneous decision on question of court-fee not affecting jurisdiction of Court to try suit, does not affect the defendant and the distinction between an error regarding category and an error regarding valuation pure and simple is of no relevance in a revision by the defendant — No revision at instance of defendant. 13. Reference to High Court. - (1) Court in which an appeal is filed cannot refer the question as to the proper court-fee payable on such appeal to the High Court. Order 46, Rule 1 of the Civil Procedure Code does not contemplate a reference on such a point. 1906 All WN 180 (180) (DB).

(5) Appeal by defendant -- Sufficient court-fee not paid on appeal — Court finding during argument that sufficient Court-fee not paid on plaint also — Held. — The Court in the first instance should have asked the defendant appellants to pay deficit Court Fees on appeal and after such payment should have asked plaintiff respondent to pay deficit Court-fee on plaint and only on plaintiff's failure to do so should have rejected the plaint — Held, further that order of the Court rejecting the plaint at the outset is revisable. AIR 1968 Manipur 1 (3).

(9) Where a plaintiff files cross-objections but fails to pay the proper court-fees thereon and subsequently appeals to the High Court from the decree allowing the defendant's appeal but does not file any appeal against the dismissal of the cross-objections, the High Court held, has inherent power to refuse to entertain the second appeal till the proper court-fees on the cross-objections have been paid. (13) Suit calling upon defendant to admit execution of sale deed and register same before proper authority — Suit being for specific performance, ad valorem court-fee is payable on amount of consideration on plaint and memorandum of appeal — Appellate Court not to ask payment of deficit court-fee on plaint until and unless deficit court-fee is paid on memorandum of appeal. AIR 1964 Pat 534 (537) = 1964 BLJR 893.

(14) If at any stage of the appeal a demand is made upon the appellant to pay the deficit amount of court-fee on memorandum of appeal and if he does not pay it, the appeal will be deemed to have been not registered or the memorandum of appeal will be rejected for non-payment of the deficit court-fee. AIR 1964 Pat 534 (538) = 1964 BLJR 893.

(15) Where the appellate Court considers that plaintiff has not paid proper fee in the trial Court, the hearing of the appeal must be stayed and if the deficit is not made up within the time allowed, the appeal and suit must both be dismissed. (16) Where a plaint as well as the memorandum of appeal filed by a plaintiff are found insufficiently stamped, the proper course to be followed by the appellate Court is to direct that the appeal be registered on the appellant supplying the deficit court-fees as regards his memorandum of appeal and after the appeal has been registered and before it has been dealt with under Order 41, Rule 11, Civil P. C., to place the case for orders under Section 12, sub-section (ii) of Court-fees Act as regards the deficit court-fees on the plaint in the lower Court and to dismiss the appeal if the deficit is not paid within the time fixed. (17) Where the defaulting plaintiff is the respondent in the appeal the appellate Court can refuse to hear his counsel till the deficit is made up. AIR 1929 All 577 (577) = 51 All 886 (DB).

(18) Different views are held as to whether the appellate Court should dismiss the suit of the plaintiff-respondent in the lower Court on the ground of his failure to make up the deficit:

(a) Where deficit is not made up within time allowed, defaulting plaintiff-respondents' suit in the lower Court may be dismissed. AIR 1940 Mad 674 (675)  AIR 1920 Pat 656 (659) = 4 Pat LJ 703 (DB)  AIR 1920 Oudh 167 (169) = 22 Oudh Cas 388  ('13) 1913 Pun LR No. 235 p. 784 (788) (DB).

[But see ('92) 15 Mad 288 (289) (DB). (The order of the appellate Court dismissing plaintiff's suit while the defendant's appeal was pending was irregular.)]

(b) Failure to pay the proper court-fee in the lower Court is only an irregularity not affecting the merits of the case or the jurisdiction of the Court and cannot be made a ground for reversing the decree passed by the lower Court in favour of the defaulter. AIR 1925 Rang 65 (67) = 2 Rang 462  ('03) 6 Oudh Cas 135 (139)  ('02) 29 Cal 651 (654) (DB)  ('80) 2 All 889 (890, 891) (DB).

(c) The provisions of Section 10 (ii) are incapable of application. The proper procedure in such cases is not to dismiss the respondent's suit or appeal in the lower Court but to stay the issuing of the decree of the appellate Court, if any, in the plaintiff-respondents' favour. Section 12 — Note 14 (contd.)

(20) In view of the provisions of Section 12 (2) (Orissa Amendment) the suit cannot be dismissed for non-payment of the excess court-fee but the same is recoverable as an arrear of land revenue. AIR 1958 Orissa 81 (83) = ILR (1958) Cut 51 (DB).

(21) The appellate Court cannot order the attachment of property for recovery of deficit court-fee. AIR 1932 All 316 (317).

(22) Joint Hindu family — Partition suit by member A against other members with whom A was in joint possession — A transferring his interest to B — Joining of B as additional plaintiff does not entail additional court-fee — Subsequent transposition of A as defendant renders suit as one by alienee B for partition — B must pay ad valorem court-fee on share claimed immediately on transposition of A — Wrong procedure by trial Court held could be corrected in appeal under Section 12 (ii). AIR 1947 Mad 285 (286) = ILR (1947) Mad 763 (DB).

(23) The power of interference under sub-sec. (ii) in cases of insufficiency of court-fee is conferred on a Court of revision. AIR 1915 Cal 622 (623) (DB).

(24) Where the order of the lower Court demanding deficit court-fee is set aside in revision the High Court ought of necessity as a consequence, to set aside the order of the lower Court rejecting plaint for non-payment of deficit court-fee. AIR 1950 Pat 470 (Pr 7) (DB).

15. Order as to court-fees — Alteration by same Court. — (1) Where a Court has passed a judicial order fixing the valuation of a suit or appeal for purposes of court-fees, it is not open to the same Court to vary or re-open it afterwards. AIR 1941 Mad 626 (627, 628)  1938-2 Mad LJ 647 (647, 648)  AIR 1949 Mad 395 (Pr 3). (AIR 1935 Mad 927, Rel. on.)

(2) Where the suit was filed about 12 years back and the plaintiff had ample opportunity to make up the deficiency in the court-fee but did not do so and, where, in fact, prior to rejection of the plaint, a stand is taken that it was not intended to make up the deficiency, it is not a fit case in which further indulgence can be shown to the plaintiff in the matter of making up the deficiency. 1962 Raj LW 357 = ILR (1962) 12 Raj 766.

(3) An order under sub-section (i) can be altered on an application for review. AIR 1936 Pesh 213 (214)  AIR 1950 All 237 (Prs 9, 11, 15) = ILR (1951) 1 All 186 (DB)  AIR 1925 Pat 47 (47, 48) = 3 Pat 654 (DB)  AIR 1924 Pat 673 (678) = 3 Pat 930 (DB).

(4) A finding as to the value of the property in suit for purposes of court-fees does not preclude the same Court from afterwards coming to the conclusion that it has no jurisdiction to try the suit on the ground that on a proper valuation of the property the suit would go beyond its pecuniary jurisdiction. AIR 1942 Mad 502 (503).

(5) Where without deciding any issue as to the sufficiency or otherwise of the court-fees paid, or any issue as to the proper valuation of the suit for purposes of jurisdiction, the Court called upon the plaintiff to pay the amount stated by the court-fee examiner to be due on the declaratory relief, the decision does not come within the purview of the expression "judgment". Therefore the successor of the Judge would not be barred by the order from considering the question of valuation in order to decide the issue whether the suit was beyond the pecuniary jurisdiction of the Court. AIR 1958 Pat 549 (Pr 3).

16. Finality of order under sub-section (ii). — (1) An order passed under sub-section (ii) can be reconsidered by the Court of appeal, reference or revision by which it was passed. AIR 1941 Mad 626 (627).

[See also AIR 1951 Pat 183 (Pr 8) = 30 Pat 859. (Decision of District Judge regarding court-fee is not binding for purposes of valuing appeal in High Court and Taxing Officer is empowered to assess the value.)]

17. Objection as to court-fee when to be taken. — (1) An objection as to insufficiency of court-fee paid or the plaint or memorandum of appeal can be raised at any time before the case is finally disposed of by the Court. AIR 1933 Pat 234 (235) = 12 Pat 694.

(2) An objection as to under-valuation will not be precluded under sub-s. (ii) from being raised before the appellate Court. AIR 1933 Pat 234 (235) = 12 Pat 694.

[See also AIR 1926 Bom 343 (344) (DB).]

(3) Where the question requires further inquiry for its decision it will not be allowed to be raised for the first time in appeal or second appeal. AIR 1925 Lah 241 (241) (DB). (Second appeal.)

[See also ('91) 13 All 580 (580) (DB).]

(4) Though in practice a party is permitted to raise an objection that proper court-fee has not been paid by his opponent, he has no legal right to raise such a plea, his function being merely to assist the Court in coming to a proper decision. AIR 1935 Mad 927 (928)  AIR 1965 Orissa 108 (110, 111) = 31 Cut LT 61.

[See also AIR 1947 Nag 188 (191) = ILR (1946) Nag 991.]

(5) Where the question of deficiency in court-fee is raised by the Chief Inspector of Stamps in the trial Court but the Court holds that the court-fee paid is sufficient and the Chief Inspector of Stamps does not file a revision against the decision under Section 6-B (U. P.

Amendment) he would be debarred from raising the question again in the Court of appeal, reference or revision. But if that Court suo motu or otherwise, finds that question of court-fee has been wrongly decided to the detriment of revenue it can consider the question afresh. AIR 1949 All 324 (Pr 3) = ILR (1949) All 710 (DB).

(6) Where an appeal is against a decree which does not contain direction ordering plaintiff to make good deficiency in court-fee, omission to include in memorandum of appeal ground expressly challenging finding on question of court-fee is immaterial. AIR 1930 All 443 (444) = 52 All 56.

(7) Suit for possession — Through his mistake in calculation 'plaintiff paying less court-fee 'but making good deficiency as soon as mistake was discovered, though after limitation— Suit decreed — In appeal defendant contending that suit was barred by limitation as deficit court-fee was paid after limitation — Held, plea should have been raised in the Court of first instance and Court must be deemed to have decided question adversely to defendant. ('97) 19 All 165 (168) (DB).

(8) Plaintiff decree-holder (a deity) allowed to sue as pauper — Maintainability of execution questioned on ground of non-payment of Court-fee — Question of payment of Court-fee is primarily between Government and person concerned — Such a question is not open to judgment-debtor. 1968 All LJ 17 (DB).

(9) Suit treated as for injunction — Question of court-fee decided on its basis — No objection taken in lower Court — Objection cannot be taken in revision. AIR 1959 Mys 167 (167) = 36 Mys LJ 422.

18. Estoppel on question of court-fees. — (1) A party who acquiesces in an erroneous decision of the Court on the question of court-fees is not precluded by his conduct from contesting that decision subsequently if, on reflection, he finds that he has acted in injudicious manner in acquiescing in that erroneous decision. AIR 1924 Nag 105 (107). (Suit for partition brought on a stamp of Rs. 10 — Acting on allegations in defence Court holding it to be a suit for ejectment and calling upon plaintiff to pay ad valorem court-fee — Plaintiff thereupon applying for permission to sue in forma pauperis — Permission refused — In appeal by plaintiff appellate Court holding that suit was for partition and court-fee of Rs. 10 was sufficient.)  ('11) 38 Cal 681 (686) (DB).

(2) The mere fact that defendant does not raise objection in the trial Court does not create any estoppel against him and preclude him from contending in appeal that the court-fee paid by the plaintiff was unnecessarily high. AIR 1927 All 308 (308) = 49 All 398.

(3) Where the court-fee on the plaint is raised on the contention of the defendant himself in the trial Court, the defendant in appeal by him cannot be allowed to reduce the court-fee on the memorandum of appeal because it suits his own purpose to do so. AIR 1933 Nag 362 (364).

(4) Where on the objection of the defendant as to insufficiency of court-fee on the plaint an issue is framed by the trial Court and is decided in plaintiff's favour and the defendant, accepting the decision of the trial Court, pays the same court-fee on his memorandum of appeal in the lower appellate Court without impeaching the correctness of the finding of the trial Court, he cannot raise the objection again in the second appeal by the plaintiff. AIR 1917 Lah 386 (387) (DB).

(5) Where objection as to insufficiency of court-fee on plaint is raised by the defendant in his written statement but no issue is directed to the question and the defendant in his appeal pays the same court-fee on the memorandum of appeal without raising any objection in the appeal, he cannot raise the question again in the lower Court after the appellate Court remands the case for re-trial ('07) 6 Cal LJ 651 (658) (DB).

(6) Where objection was raised for the first time in second appeal, that in suit for ejectment of tenant stamped under Section 7 (xi) (cc), plaintiff should not have been granted a decree on basis of title it was held that in the circumstances of the case the question could not be reopened. AIR 1927 Nag 321 (322).

19. Admission regarding court-fees. — (1) An admission by a party on a question of computation of court-fee is not conclusive against him. AIR 1928 Cal 55 (56) (DB).

(2) An erroneous admission by the counsel of an appellant that the appeal was understamped does not bind him. AIR 1929 Lah 879 (880) (DB).

20. Compromise on question of court-fee. — (1) There cannot be any question of compromise between the parties and the Court on the subject of court-fee. AIR 1933 Lah 905 (908) = 14 Lah 558 (DB). (Obiter.)

21. Government's right to be heard as regards court-fees payable. — (1) The question of court-fee is important from the point of view of Government as it concerns the revenue. AIR 1931 All 659 (659) (DB).

(2) Government has no right to be heard before an order is made as regards the proper court-fee payable. AIR 1935 Mad 927 (928)  AIR 1956 Sau 93 (94) (DB).

13. Refund of fee paid on memorandum of appeal.—If an appeal or plaint, which has been rejected by the lower Court on any of the grounds mentioned in the *Code of Civil Procedure, is ordered to be received, or if a suit is remanded in appeal, on any of the grounds mentioned in †Section 351 of the same Code, for a second decision by the lower Court, the Appellate Court shall grant to the appellant a certificate, authorizing him to receive back from the Collector the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal.

Provided that if, in the case of a remand in appeal, the order of remand shall not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the certificate so granted shall not authorize the appellant to receive back more than so much fee as

1. Scope.
2. Inherent power to refund court-fees.
3. Remand under inherent power — Refund of court-fees.
4. Remand under O. 41, R. 23, Civil Procedure Code — Refund of court-fees.
5. Partial remand — Proportionate refund of court-fee.
6. Return of plaint for presentation to proper Court.
7. Rejection of plaint or appeal for deficiency of court-fee — Power to refund court-fee already paid.
8. Withdrawal of suit or appeal.
9. Refund of court-fees in High Court.
10. Excess court-fees paid in lower Court — Credit in appellate Court
11. U. P. Amendment.
12. Setting aside of execution sale — Refund of poundage-fee.
13. Court-fee on application for refund.
14. Loss of certificate under section.
15. Use of wrong stamps.

1. Scope. — (1) Appellate Court under this section is required to issue certificate authorising appellant to receive back from revenue authorities court-fee paid on memorandum of appeal. (2) High Court cannot order refund of court-fees paid in lower appellate Court. AIR 1938 Mad 479 (482) (DB). (Remand in Letters Patent Appeal — No certificate for refund of court-fee paid on memorandum of appeal in second appeal or first appeal can be granted.)  AIR 1934 All 106 (107) = 56 All 526 (SB).

(3) Section does not authorise refunding of court-fees paid on memorandum of cross-objections. ('98) 1898 Bom PJ 72 (DB).

(4) An appellant does not become entitled to refund of excess court-fee amount paid by him merely because the High Court out of indulgence allows him to convert the second appeal into revision application in a case where the second appeal did not lie. When after an objection as to the maintainability of the second appeal is allowed to be raised and to be argued and it is finally held that it did not lie, the court-fee paid on it serves its purpose and cannot be refunded. AIR 1957 All 734 (737).

(5) In execution, decree-holder praying for attachment of movables and paying custody fees — Decree-holder not proceeding with execution case and praying for refund of amount — Fee could be refunded. AIR 1937 Cal 86 (88) = ILR (1937) 1 Cal 624 (DB).

(6) Order for adding court-fees on appeal to costs payable by respondent is not contemplated by this section. ('12) 15 Cal LJ 658 (660) (DB).

2. Inherent power to refund court-fees. — (1) Excess court-fee paid by mistake or otherwise — Courts have inherent power, ex debito justitiae, to order refund of such court-fees. STATE AMENDMENTS

For Section 13, substitute the following, namely:—

"13. Refund in cases of remand.—(1) Where a plaint or memorandum of appeal which has been rejected by the lower Court is ordered to be received, or where a suit is remanded in appeal for a fresh decision by the lower Court, the Court making the order or remanding the appeal shall, where the whole decree is reversed and the suit is remanded, and may in other cases direct the refund to the appellant of the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal, and, if on second appeal the case is remanded to the trial Court, also on the memorandum of appeal in the first appellate Court.

(4) Where the application for refund is made beyond the time fixed by standing orders, refund of court-fees will not be ordered under inherent powers. AIR 1949 Mad 895 (Pr 3).

(5) Inherent powers cannot be invoked to circumvent the law. If the Legislature has cast a particular obligation upon a party, the Court cannot exonerate him under its inherent powers. Thus, it is a legal obligation upon a party to pay court-fees upon the memorandum of appeal. The fact that the appeal was subsequently compromised outside Court and was withdrawn before it was heard by the Court, cannot excuse the appellant from paying the court-fee. Court cannot in such a case order refund of court-fees under its inherent powers. AIR 1953 Bom 73 (Pr 2) = ILR (1953) Bom 170 (DB). but the appellant did not re-present it as he found no necessity for it and the appeal was not registered or taken on file it was held that refund could not be ordered but certificate might be granted that the appeal was not numbered or heard and that the memorandum of appeal which was directed to be returned to the party was stamped with court-fee, leaving it to the appellant to apply to the revenue authorities for an ex gratia refund as in the case of spoilt stamp papers. 1958-1 Mad LJ 183 (183, 184).

(7) Where a litigant has paid the court-fees for which, in law, he was liable, but because of certain circumstances feels that equitable considerations require that he should not be asked to pay the court-fees, he cannot be granted refund. Thus, where the appeal is registered and is admitted for hearing of parties and after hearing the parties appeal is dismissed on the question of limitation, the application for refund of court-fees paid on the memorandum of appeal is not tenable. AIR 1953 Nag 330 (Prs 5, 6) = ILR (1953) Nag 859.

(8) The Court-fee paid on the counter-claim can be said to have been used up and exhausted only if there has been an adjudication as to the truth or maintainability of the counter-claim.

Where all that the Court held in its judgment while dismissing the suit, was that the counter-claim could not be agitated in the suit but that it must be done by a separate suit, there is no disposal of the counter-claim on the merits. The Court-fee paid on the counter-claim has not been exhausted and can be validly used in the second suit instituted on the counter-claim in the proper Court. AIR 1961 Tripura 22 (22, 23).

(9) In the undermentioned case when a pre-emption appeal was filed it was competent. But when the appeal was taken up for hearing on 16th October 1952 the U. P. Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act came into force and by virtue of Section 338 (2) of the Act the appeal stood dismissed. It was held that the consequence which flowed from the dismissal of the appeal was not the result of any act of the Court or the appellants. Hence the prayer of the appellants for the refund of the court-fees could not be granted under any of the provisions of the Court-fees Act, nor could it be granted ex debito justitiae. AIR 1953 All 184 (Prs 13, 14) (DB).

(10) The plaintiff asked for a declaration that the order of dismissal from service was wrongful, illegal, void and inoperative and that he still continued to be a member of the Civil Service entitled to full pay with all increments as they fell due. In the alternative he prayed for a declaration that the order of dismissal was wrongful and that a decree to the extent of Rs. 1,20,000 with interest by way of damages may be passed in his favour. He paid the requisite court-fee on the valuation of Rs. 1,20,000. This alternative claim was deleted from the plaint as a result of an amendment, having regard to a subsequent decision of the Privy Council which held that a person illegally dismissed from Government service could only get a declaration that the order was inoperative and that he still continued to be a member of the service. It was held by their Lordships of the Supreme Court that the decision of the Privy Council clarifying the position could not be a ground for refund of court-fee when at the time it was paid it was in accordance with the law as then understood. AIR 1955 SC 600 (Prs 3, 8) = 1955-2 SCR 391 = ILR (1956) 1 All 131.

(11) In the case of a suit transferred to the High Court under Cl. (13) of the Letters Patent (Cal) the court-fee paid in the original Court at the time of the institution of the suit is the fee properly payable under the Court-fees Act. The case is not one of excess payment, either at the time of the original institution or at any subsequent stage of the suit and consequently there can be no question of exercising the Court's inherent power in order to relieve the plaintiff from any overpayment. AIR 1955 Cal 258 (Prs 8, 9) (DB)  AIR 1955 Cal 52 (Prs 12, 13).

(12) Although in a fit case the High Court can order refund of court-fee under Section 151, the fact that an applicant for a succession certificate had included an item unnecessarily and paid court-fee thereon because of a bona fide error cannot warrant the exercise of the inherent powers because it was clearly his duty to have made proper enquiries before putting in the application. AIR 1955 Mad 681 (Prs 3, 5, 6) = ILR (1955) Mad 325. (But a certificate can be issued, if one is necessary, as to the exact circumstances under which the relief asked for originally, has turned out to be unnecessary, so that the petitioner may apply to the Government for a refund ex gratia.)

(13) Where the plaintiff pays court-fee on a higher valuation, not on account of any mistakes on his part or on the part of the Court, but deliberately for the sole purpose of inflating the valuation of the suit so that final decree proceedings should be before the District Judge, the refund cannot be granted. AIR 1957 Madh B 136 (137).

(14) Where the appellate Court remands a case for fresh trial and the order of remand does not fall under Order 41, Rule 23, the Court has inherent power for the ends of justice to order a refund of court-fee, although this section does not apply to such a case. AIR 1952 Kutch 80 (Prs 5 to 8).

(Preliminary decree set aside as being unnecessary and appeal against it thus becoming infructuous — Remand of case for fresh trial — Refund of court-fee paid on memorandum of appeal can be ordered.)  AIR 1954 Kutch 9 (Pr 5). (Where a Court by passing a preliminary decree, which is either infructuous or unwarranted by the provisions of law, compels a litigant to prefer an appeal the apparent consequence of which is setting aside of the preliminary decree, it is evident that the litigant is compelled to appeal and to pay court-fees on its memo due to mistake of the Court. In such a case, the fact that the appellant was liable under law to pay the court-fees he paid, cannot be allowed to stand in the way of exercise of inherent powers on the ground that inherent power, though exercised to see that ends of justice are not defeated, all the same resulted in circumvention of the provisions of law.)  ('49) 1 Madh BLR 461 (464, 465) (DB).

(16) Certificate for refund of court-fee can be granted (1) where the refund is by virtue of an application under the Court-fees Act; (2) where Court-fee has been paid by mistake by the party; and (3) where the Court has compelled the party to pay in excess of the Court-fee already paid. (17) The Allahabad High Court has held that in Uttar Pradesh a Court has no inherent power to grant a certificate for refund of court-fees and if a Court grants a certificate under Section 151, Civil P C. the Collector before whom it is produced is not bound to honour it. (2) In the following case, it has been held that the High Court can order refund of the court-fees paid in excess erroneously under its own order under Section 151, Civil P. C. It appears there was no decision of the Taxing Officer in that case. AIR 1954 Pepsu 49 (Pr 6) = ILR (1953) Patiala 343 (DB).

(3) The refund contemplated by Section 13 is of Court fee paid on the memo of appeal in the higher Court and not what had been paid by the client in the trial Court. AIR 1966 Goa 1 (7) (FB).

10. Excess court-fees paid in lower Court — Credit in appellate Court. — (1) Excess court-fee paid in suit in lower Court — Credit for such excess may be allowed in appeal to plaintiff-appellant by Appellate Court. 1886 All WN 228 (228).

(2) The undermentioned case has also held that under Section 151, Civil P. C., the High Court can order refund of the court-fees paid in excess erroneously under the orders of the Courts subordinate to it. AIR 1954 Pepsu 49 (Pr 6) = ILR (1953) Patiala 343 (DB).

11. U. P. Amendment. — (1) Suit for declaration of ownership to property not in possession of defendant — Ad valorem Court-fee ordered to be paid and made good by plaintiff — In appeal excess Court-fee ordered to be refunded. AIR 1942 Oudh 58 (60) = 17 Luck 145 (DB).

12. Setting aside of execution sale — Refund of poundage-fee. — (1) Execution sale set aside by Court — Decree-holder cannot obtain order for refund of poundage-fee paid by him — Court may give him certificate for refund and leave it to Revenue Authorities to comply with it. AIR 1934 Mad 409 (410).

13. Court-fee on application for refund. — (1) Application for refund of court-fee under this section falls under Section 19 and no court-fee is chargeable on it. AIR 1932 All 590 (591) = 54 All 790.

14. Loss of certificate under section. — (1) Original certificate for refund lost — Duplicate should be given under inherent power. AIR 1944 Mad 56 (56) (DB).

14. Refund of fee on application for review of judgment.—Where an *application for a review of judgment is presented on or after the ninetieth day from the date of the decree, the Court, unless the delay was caused by the applicant's laches, may, in its discretion, grant him a certificate authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee which would have been payable had it been presented before †such day.

[*] As to application for review of judgment, see the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act 5 of 1908), S. 114 and Order 47 of the First Schedule.

[†] See Schedule I, Arts. 4 and 5.

15. Refund where Court reverses or modifies its former decision on ground of mistake.—Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted, and where, on the rehearing, the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact, the applicant shall be entitled to a certificate from the Court authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the *[application] as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under the Second Schedule to this Act, No. 1, clause (b) or clause (d).

15. Use of wrong stamps. — (1) Plaint sufficiently but incorrectly stamped — Proper stamp affixed within time allowed — Application to Court for return of stamps — Trial Court held could not return stamps but should give certificate for presenting to Collector. AIR 1934 Nag 263 (264) = 31 Nag LR 82.

(2) Decree drawn up by mistake on court-fee stamp — Non-judicial stamp can be directed to be filed under inherent power but application for refund should be made to Collector. ('10) 12 Cal L Jour 324 (327) (DB).

Section 14 — Note 1

(1) Applicability of Article 4 is not affected by the fact that delay in filing application for review of judgment on or after the 90th day is not due to laches of applicant. AIR 1935 Nag 164 (165) = 31 Nag LR 260  ('12) 15 Cal L Jour 505 (506) (DB)  AIR 1951 Mad 262 (Pr 2) = ILR (1951) Mad 709 (DB).

(3) The question of refund under Section 14 can arise properly only where the full court-fee has been paid. Before that it is premature. ('55) ILR (1955) 5 Raj 765 (768).

(4) Transfer of suit to High Court under Clause 13 of the Letters Patent (Cal) — Section 14 has no application. AIR 1955 Cal 52 (Pr 16).

Section 15 — Note 1

(1) Grant of refund of court-fees under this section is obligatory on Court. See AIR 1916 Lah 350 (351) (DB)  AIR 1958 Punj 38 (43) = ILR (1958) Punj 104 (FB).

(2) Section 15, Court-fees Act provides for grant of certificate of refund with reference to some limited grounds alone on which review application is allowed. AIR 1961 Pat 390 (392) = ILR 39 Pat 550 (FB).

(3) Where a review is allowed on grounds other than those of mistake of law and fact, refund of Court-fee paid on the review application cannot be granted by the Court either under Section 15 of Court-fees Act or Section 151, C. P. C. AIR 1961 Pat 390 (393) = ILR 39 Pat 550 (FB).

(4) The mistake of fact or law must be anterior to the date where the judgment or order sought to be reviewed is passed. AIR 1961 Pat 390 (392) = ILR 39 Pat 550 (FB).

(5) Where the petitioners, whose appeal stood dismissed for default as the deficit court-fee was not paid within the time allowed, filed an application under O. 47, Rule 1 for review and the application was ultimately allowed on the ground that there was no want of due diligence, the ground is clearly outside the purview of mistake of law or fact as contemplated by Sec. 15 of the Court-fees Act. AIR 1961 Pat 390 (392) = ILR 39 Pat 550 (FB).

(6) Where Court-fee is paid in excess by mistake and the Court is satisfied about it the excess amount is obviously not paid under any provisions of Court-fees Act the Court should, pass a formal order of refund in exercise of powers under Section 151, C. P. C. AIR 1961 Pat 390 (393) = ILR 39 Pat 550 (FB).

(7) The mere fact that an application for review is allowed is no ground for refund of the court-fee paid on the application. AIR 1961 Pat 390 (392) — ILR 39 Pat 550 (FB).

(8) Apart from provision of Act Court has limited power of refund in exercise of power under Section 151, C. P. C. — Case not falling under Act or not having circumstances entitling invocation of Section 151, C. P. C., a party can apply for refund to Government. AIR 1966 Mad

But nothing in the former part of this section shall entitle the applicant to such certificate where the reversal or modification is due, wholly or in part, to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing.

Sections 16, 16-A, 16-B, 16-C.

Goa, Daman and Diu:

After Section 15 of the principal Act, insert the following sections, namely:—

"16. Refund in cases of delay in presentation of plaint, etc.—(1) Where a plaint or memorandum of appeal is rejected on the ground of delay in its presentation, or where the fee paid on a plaint or memorandum of appeal is deficient, and the deficiency is not made good within the time allowed by law or granted by the Court, or the delay in payment of the deficit fee is not condoned and the plaint or memorandum of appeal is consequently rejected, the Court shall direct the refund to the plaintiff or the appellant, of the fee paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal which has been rejected.

(2) Where a memorandum of appeal is rejected on the ground that it was not presented within the time allowed by the law of limitation, one-half of the fee shall be refunded.

16-A. Refund on settlement before hearing.—Wherever by agreement of parties—

(i) any suit is dismissed as settled out of Court before any evidence has been recorded on the merits of the claim; or

(ii) any suit is compromised ending in a compromise decree before any evidence has been recorded on the merits of the claim; or

(iii) any appeal is disposed of before the commencement of hearing of such appeal,

(3) Separate causes of action will not be test for treating claims based on them as distinct subjects. ('82) 8 Cal 593 (595) (FB).

(4) The "distinct subjects" in Sec. 17 mean distinct causes of action in respect of which separate suits should be filed but for the enabling provisions allowing them to be clubbed up in one suit and the distinctness or identity of the cause of action is the only criterion for the applicability of the section. AIR 1954 Mad 594 (Pr 36) = ILR (1954) Mad 289 (FB). (AIR 1950 Mad 155; AIR 1952 Mad 53, Not approved.)

(8) Bengal Amendment:— The relief contemplated by Section 17 (2) (Bengal) must be one in respect of which court-fees are independently payable under the Act. It cannot mean consequential relief which is not per se chargeable with court-fees. Hence the clause does not apply to cases arising under Section 7 (4) (c) where a single valuation is to be put and ad valorem court-fees are to be paid on that valuation. (12) Suit for possession— Plaint stating that compromise under which defendant had taken possession was not binding on plaintiff — No relief as to cancellation of compromise asked — Suit involved such relief and court-fee was payable also under Section 7 (iv-A) (U. P.) — S. 17 did not apply — Adjudging of the compromise as void and giving plaintiff decree for possession were not based on two causes of action nor did they amount to alternative reliefs — Plaintiff not bound to pay separate court-fees under Section 7 (iv-A) and (v) — Plaintiff asked to pay court-fee on aggregate amount of two reliefs. AIR 1949 All 641 (Prs 3 to 5) = ILR (1949) All 896.

3. Suit for alternative reliefs. — (1) Cause of action same — Fact that several reliefs are sought, cumulatively or in alternative, will not attract application of this section. AIR 1942 Mad 744 (744)  ILR (1949) All 79 (82) (DB). (Where a suit for possession by Hindu female involves a prayer for declaration that an adoption made by her husband is invalid it is only a suit for possession and does not involve two causes of action to be separately valued for purposes of court-fees under Ss. 7 (iv) (b) (d) and 7 (v) (ii) (U. [But see ('77) 1 All 552 (553, 554) (FB).]

(2) Suit including two or more distinct causes of action — Fact that reliefs in respect of different causes of action are sought not cumulatively but in alternative will not prevent applicability of section. AIR 1924 Nag 169 (171)  AIR 1918 Nag 264 (267)  ('08) 11 Oudh Cas 173 (174) (DB)  ('07) 30 Mad 61 (64) (DB)  ('07) 29 All 155 (158) (DB)  ('95) 1895 Pun Re No. 96 p. 455 (460) (DB)  1960 Andh LT 192.

[See however AIR 1956 Nag 175 (Pr 17).]

(3) The word 'relief' in this section should not be construed to mean 'kind of relief' and therefore when the plaint claims the same kind of relief e.g., money claim for breaches of different terms in the same contract they are separate reliefs founded on different causes of action and have to be valued separately for purposes of court-fees. AIR 1950 Nag 189 (Pr 11) = ILR (1951) Nag 463.

5. Court-fee on appeals. — (1) Court-fee payable in appeal embracing two or more distinct subjects would be total of fees calculated with respect to each 'subjects' separately. AIR 1935 Lah 605 (606) (DB)  AIR 1918 All 232 (233) = 40 All 353  AIR 1944 Pat 387 (388) = 23 Pat 675 (DB).

[See AIR 1935 Pesh 8 (10) (DB).]

[See also ('90) 12 All 129 (163) (FB).]

(2) Separate appeals filed by different parties against same decree — Separate court-fees are payable on each appeal. AIR 1919 Lah 450 (454) = 1918 Pun Re No. 91 (DB).

[See also AIR 1921 All 395 (396) = 43 All 56.]

(3) No court-fee is ordinarily payable in respect of costs awarded by lower Court when appeal is filed against decree. AIR 1927 Sind 251 (252) = 23 Sind LR 277 (DB)  AIR 1921 Cal 55 (57)  AIR 1944 Pat 387 (387) = 23 Pat 675 (DB).

(4) Appeal making award of costs distinct matter of contest and specifically directed against order as to costs — Court-fee must be paid in respect of such costs. AIR 1940 Oudh 182 (183). = 15 Luck. 392 (DB). (5) Court has inherent power to consolidate appeals in proper cases. AIR 1918 Mad 368 (369)  ('13) 40 Cal 955 (959, 960) (DB)  ('06) 33 Cal 927 (932) (DB).

(6) Appeals consolidated — Each appeal must be assessed with separate court-fee. AIR 1930 Mad 376 (379) = 53 Mad 248 (FB). (Overruling AIR 1928 Mad 463.)  AIR 1929 Cal 135 (136) (DB)  ('02) 29 Cal 140 (147) (DB).

(7) The objection that a relief is not valued in the appeal and therefore cannot be allowed is one more of form than of substance when the court-fee paid is sufficient to cover the other relief which would have been claimed as the alternative relief carrying higher court-fee. 1950 Ker LT 19 (21) (DB).

(8) In the absence of any reference to a memorandum of appeal in Article 2 (Madras) of Sch. I, Article 1 of that schedule is to be applied in the case of an appeal arising out of a suit wherein the plaintiff has claimed in respect of each of the four promissory notes less than Rs. 500, even when he has paid at the time of filing his suit court-fee on the amount of each of the promissory notes under Article 2 (Madras) of Sch. I of the Court-fees Act read with this section. AIR 1956 Andhra 112 (Pr 4) = ILR (1955) Andhra 630.

(9) Where a single suit is brought in respect of two mortgages and a single consolidated amount is mentioned in the decree as payable by the defendant mortgagor, the appeal by the mortgagor should be charged with court-fee under this section as the decree is passed in respect of two amounts due under the two mortgages. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 1019 (1021).

6. Maximum fee payable. — (1) Rule in this section must be held subject to proviso at the end of Article 1, Sch. I of the Act. ('81) 3 All 108 (109, 110, 111, 112) (FB)  ('01) 29 Cal 140 (147, 148) (DB)  AIR 1950 Nag 189 (Prs 11, 19) = ILR (1951) Nag 463.

7. Suits for declaration. — (1) Several declarations sought in suit each on basis of distinct cause of action — Separate court-fee must be paid in respect of each declaration sought. (2) Declarations based on same cause of action — This section will not apply. AIR 1933 Lah 382 (383)  AIR 1930 Cal 686 (687) = 58 Cal 281.

(3) A suit for declaration that the defendant is the benamidar and that the plaintiff is the real owner of several properties even though based on different documents of title is a suit for one declaration only and therefore this section cannot apply. AIR 1951 Cal 509 (Pr 3) (DB).

8. Suits relating to mortgage. — (1) Suit brought to recover money due on different mortgages executed by same mortgagor in plaintiff's favour is one which embraces distinct subjects and court-fee must be calculated separately in respect of each mortgage under this section. AIR 1941 Rang 95 (96) = 1940 Rang LR 767  AIR 1957 Andh Pra 1019 (1020, 1021)  ('36) 63 Cal 720 (722) (DB)  AIR 1935 Mad 262 (262)  AIR 1924 Pat 77 (80) = 2 Pat 874 (DB)  AIR 1920 Pat 105 (105)  ('04) 31 Cal 75 (77) (DB)  ('04) 7 Oudh Cas 152 (154) (DB).

(2) Section 67-A of Transfer of Property Act does not control or affect operation of this section. AIR 1941 Rang 95 (96) = 1940 Rang LR 767  AIR 1957 Andh Pra 1019 (1021)  ('36) 63 Cal 720 (722) (DB)  AIR 1935 Mad 262 (262).

(3) Two mortgages executed in favour of person in lieu of five promissory notes — Suit on mortgages embraces two subjects and not five for purpose of this section. AIR 1935 Mad 262 (262).

(4) Single mortgage executed by debtor in favour of several creditors, specifying amount due to each — Suit to enforce mortgage does not embrace distinct subjects. AIR 1932 Mad 737 (738).

(5) Suit for redemption of mortgage and surplus profits embraces one subject and one court-fee is payable on such suit. AIR 1941 Mad 115 (116)  AIR 1937 Nag 295 (298) = ILR (1937) Nag 49 (FB)  AIR 1952 Pat 141 (Pr 5) (DB)  AIR 1931 Mad 479 (479)  AIR 1923 All 261 (262) = 45 All 154 (DB)  ('07) 29 All 471 (475) (DB)  ('10) 13 Oudh Cas 32 (33)  AIR 1933 Pat 625 (625).

(6) Suit for redemption of mortgage furnishes one cause of action though suit includes original mortgage as well as deeds of further charge. ('04) 7 Oudh Cas 152 (156) (DB).

(7) A suit for redemption of a Malabar kanom, like any other suit for redemption of a possessory mortgage, can be valued under Section 7 (ix), Court-fees Act even though the plaintiff incorporates in his plaint a prayer for the taking of accounts and the payment of arrears of rent due from the Kanomdar and therefore such a suit does not embrace two distinct subjects. AIR 1951 Mad 187 (Pr 10) = ILR (1952) Mad 92 (FB).

(8) A suit for redemption of four usufructuary mortgages executed by the same set of mortgagors in favour of the same mortgagee on the same day in respect of the same property does not involve four distinct subjects but only one subject within the meaning of this section where the transaction is intended and is really a single transaction. AIR 1952 Mad 53 (Pr 2).

(9) Suit for redemption of usufructuary mortgage — Claim for damages for delay in payment of mortgagor's other creditors out of the consideration retained in the hands of defendant mortgagee to be set off against redemption amount determined — Such claim is a separate relief on which court-fee is payable. AIR 1947 Mad 435 (436).

9. Suits on several promissory notes, bonds, etc. — (1) Suit for recovery of money due on different promissory notes executed by defendant embraces distinct subjects within meaning of this section. AIR 1933 Mad 178 (178) (DB)  ('10) 5 Low Bur Rul 94 (98, 100) (FB). (Expression 'distinct subjects' is equivalent to 'distinct causes of action.')

(2) Suit on different hundis is governed by this section and separate court-fee is payable in respect of each hundi. ('87) 9 All 252 (253) (DB). (Each hundi affords a separate cause of action.)

(3) Plaintiff sues for three separate deposits — Suit embraces three distinct subjects, although suit is preceded by single demand for all deposits. AIR 1931 Mad 712 (712, 713).

(4) In suit on promissory note claim based on original obligation sought to be added — Plaintiff must pay fresh court-fee. AIR 1931 Mad 533 (534).

10. Suit for possession and mesne profits. — (1) Suit for possession and mesne profits does not embrace distinct subjects within meaning of this section. AIR 1942 Oudh 412 (413) (DB). (Vide U. P. Amendment.)  AIR 1951 Trav-Co 142 (Pr 13) = 1950 Trav-Co LR 581 (DB)  AIR 1930 Mad 833 (834) = 54 Mad 7 (FB)  AIR 1922 Pat 359 (361) = 4 Pat LJ 195 (DB)  ('94) 16 All 401 (408, 409)  ('82) 8 Cal 593 (596, 597) (FB).

[But see AIR 1942 Cal 40 (41).]

(2) Suit for ejectment of monthly tenant and for arrears of rent — Claim for ejectment arising on denial of plaintiff's title and upon service of notice — Section 17 applies. AIR 1949 All 348 (Pr 5) = ILR (1948) All 27.

[See also AIR 1957 Andh Pra 1004 (1005).]

(3) In a case arising under Section 13 of the Hyderabad Court-fees Act, where the words used are 'cause of action' and not 'subject', it was held that the two expressions are not synonymous and the court-fee payable in such a suit would be on total value of the two reliefs for possession and mesne profits which flow from the same cause of action. AIR 1953 Hyd 156 (Pr 6) = ILR (1953) Hyd 117 (DB).

(4) Where in a suit for possession and mesne profits filed by a widow against the adopted son an alternative prayer for possession by partition of half share in property in case defendant's adoption by her husband is held to be valid, is also claimed, no separate or additional court-fee is payable on the alternative relief either under Section 7 (iv-B) (d) or Section 7 (v), Court-fees Act, as amended in U. P. ILR (1949) All 79 (82) (DB).

11. Balance due on khata, suit for. — (1) Suit for balance due on Khata — Court-fee is not payable on each item in khata but only on total amount due. AIR 1922 Bom 376 (377) = 46 Bom 142 (FB).

12. Suit for specific performance and possession. — (1) Suit for specific performance of contract of sale and possession does not embrace distinct subjects within meaning of this section. AIR 1924 Mad 360 (362) = 47 Mad 150 (DB)  AIR 1950 Nag 226 (Pr 12) = ILR (1950) Nag 336. (Court-fee is payable on consideration for contract— AIR 1920 Oudh 167 = 23 Oudh Cas 388, Dissented.)

[But see AIR 1920 Oudh 167 (168) = 23 Oudh Cas 388. (14 Cal LJ 159, Dissented from.)]

13. Suit for partition. — (1) A suit for partition is by its very nature not a composite suit and it cannot be treated as such for purposes of Section 17 merely because it comprises movable and immovable properties. There is a single cause of action and such a suit should be referable to a single provision of the Court-fees Act. AIR 1947 Bom 259 (261) (FB).

(2) Suit for joint possession and partition embraces two distinct subjects for purpose of this section. AIR 1924 Pat 558 (559) = 3 Pat 618 (DB).

[But see ILR (1949) All 79 (82) (DB).]

14. Value for jurisdiction. — (1) Value for purposes of jurisdiction is quite irrespective of value for purposes of court-fees under Section 17. ('10) 1910 Pun LR No. 56, p. 142 (144) = 1910 Pun Re No. 41 (DB).

15. "Distinct subjects" — Illustrative cases. — (1). Distinct subjects — Co-sharer landlord sued for his share of rent making other co-sharer pro forma defendant — Defendant co-sharer prayed that he be added as plaintiff and decree for his share be also granted — Claims of both co-sharers held distinct subjects within Section 17. AIR 1943 Pat 356 (357) = 22 Pat 275.

(2) Suit by reversioner for declaration that settlement deed executed by last male holder was not binding on him and also for specific performance of agreement executed by last male holder — Held, separate court-fees were payable. AIR 1938 Mad 241 (242) (DB).

(3) Suit by 73 persons for declaration that each plaintiff has raiyati-jote interest in one out of 73 plots of land and for declaration that compromise decree is not binding on them, held to be suit embracing 73 distinct subjects. AIR 1935 Cal 573 (575) = 63 Cal 163 (DB).

(4) Suit by creditor against principal debtor and several persons who guaranteed amount, by separate pronotes or mortgages is suit embracing distinct subjects. AIR 1915 Low Bur 97 (99) = 8 Low Bur Rul 219 (FB).

(5) Plaintiff's father executed two gift deeds in favour of their mother. The mother sold them under sale-deeds on various dates to defendants 1, 2, 3, 4, 5th defendant's husband and 35th defendant. Defendants 6 to 32 were alienees from the 5th defendant's husband. The plaintiffs brought a suit for declaration that the alienation in favour of the different defendants were not binding on them — Held, that the plaintiffs had a separate cause of action against each of the alienees in respect of the property alienated in his favour; that each declaration related to a 'distinct subject' within the meaning of Section 17 of the Court-fees Act; and that the plaintiffs should therefore, pay court-fee in respect of each declaration. AIR 1954 Mad 594 (Pr 50) = ILR (1954) Mad 289 (FB).

(6) Where four separate orders were placed by the Collector with the petitioner for supply of wheat to four districts, each of them would be a distinct subject, being a distinct transaction with a distinct cause of action, though the contracting parties are the same. AIR 1957 Mad 163 (163).

(7) In the absence of anything in the Rules under Section 16 of the Bar Councils Act (1926) to show a different intention, the proper course to adopt is to follow the principle underlying Section 11 of the Trav-Co. Court-fees Act and to calculate advocate's fee on each claim separately and not on the aggregate value of all the claims in the suit. AIR 1957 Trav-Co 170 (171) = ILR (1956) Trav-Co 808 (DB).

(8) Several inams under separate inam deeds resumed by single order — Single suit brought by the several persons affected for setting aside order of resumption

18. Written examinations of complainants.—When the first or only examination of a person who complains of the offence of wrongful confinement, or of wrongful restraint, or of any offence other than an offence for which police officers may arrest without a warrant, and who has not already presented a petition on which a fee has been levied under this Act, is reduced to writing under the provisions of the *Code of Criminal Procedure, the complainant shall pay a fee of eight annas, unless the Court thinks fit to remit such payment.

and declaring it illegal and a nullity — All persons not interested in each of the inams and all the inams not the joint or common property of all of them — There is no single cause of action for suit and decree is passed in a suit brought by only one of them or a few of them could not enure to the benefit of all. AIR 1953 Mad 888 (Prs 8, 10) = ILR (1953) Mad 655.

(9) Suit by quondam minor to set aside various alienations made at different times by the guardian — Court-fee is payable separately on the several alienations. AIR 1953 Mad 592 (Pr 1).

(10) Application by T and B for leave to sue in forma pauperis — Death of B before disposal of application — Application rejected — T allowed to pay court-fee on moiety of his share — Later B's widow applying for being added as plaintiff — Her prayer allowed — She ought to pay court-fee separately on value of her moiety share because though plaint was written on one paper they were really two plaints constituting distinct subjects — Order demanding payment of difference between court-fee payable on value of entire property and court-fee already paid by T held wrong. AIR 1949 Pat 425 (Pr 3) = 28 Pat 299 (DB).

(11) Subjects not distinct — Administration suit — Prayer for declaring will void and for order that property be handed over to executors — Suit does not embrace distinct subjects. AIR 1936 Bom 353 (356) (DB).

(12) In mortgage suit minor defendants — Guardian entered into compromise and preliminary and final decree passed — Minors filed suit to set aside compromise, preliminary and final decrees — Held, suit did not embrace distinct subjects. AIR 1932 All 485 (487) = 54 All 812 (FB).

(13) Suit by land-holder against ryots under Section 193, Madras Estates Land Act, for enhancement of rent — Ground for enhancement same for all — Suit does not comprise "distinct subjects". AIR 1932 Mad 667 (668, 669).

(14) Suit for possession against different persons in possession of different parcels of land on allegation that land belonged to plaintiff and defendants in conspiracy with each other have dispossessed plaintiff is suit on single cause of action. AIR 1928 Pat 274 (276) = 7 Pat 402 (DB).

(15) Suit by reversioner against several trespassers occupying different portions of property. Since each trespass gives rise to a different cause of action, the plaintiff has to pay court-fee on the aggregate value of the properties. AIR 1966 All 522 (525) = 1966 All LJ 64 (DB).

(16) Suit to recover losses in respect of several consignments against Railway Company — One notice given — Held, suit does not embrace distinct subjects. AIR 1924 Pat 596 (597) (DB).

(17) Suit for pre-emption of two village shares sold under one sale — There is only one cause of action. ('04) 27 All 186 (189) (DB).

(18) Suit for profits for several years — Court-fee is payable on aggregate amount and not separately on profits of each year. ('85) 7 All 761 (763) (DB).

(19) A executing will and creating trust and during minority of his brother's son B appointing C as testamentary guardian — In execution of money decree against C, property sold and purchased by D — D later selling to E and F separately and E and F put in possession of their separate portions — Suit by B for recovery of possession, alleging that C had no saleable interest in the property, that the sale was void and would not confer title on D to be validly conveyed to others — Suit valued under Section 7 (v) and court-fee paid on consolidated market value of property — Suit held did not embrace distinct subjects but only one subject — Allegation in plaint that E and F were not bona fide transferees for value from ostensible owner did not alter basis of suit. AIR 1950 Mad 155 (Pr 2).

(20) It is well settled that the heirs of a deceased partner have a single cause of action against the surviving partners for account. AIR 1959 Mad 387 (388) = (1958) 2 Mad LJ 442. (ILR 25 Mad 26, Rel. on.)

1. Government, whether exempt from liability to pay court-fee.
2. Clause (i).
3. Clause (iii).
4. Clause (viii).
5. Clause (xvii).
6. Clause (xviii).
7. Clause (xx).
8. Applications not falling under any clause.

1. Government, whether exempt from liability to pay court-fee.— (1) The Government when a party to a litigation has to pay court-fees in the same way as any other party. ('02) 25 Mad 457 (467) (DB).

(2) Where a political suit properly instituted in a Special Court and governed by the provisions of Saurashtra Ordinance 72

(iii) Written statements called for by the Court after the first hearing of a suit.

(v) Plaints in suits tried by §Village Munsifs in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

(vi) Plaints and processes in suits before District Panchayats in the same Presidency.

(vii) Plaints in suits before Collectors under Madras Regulation 12 of 1816.

(viii) Probate of a will, letters of administration, *†[and, save as regards debts and securities, a certificate under Bombay Regulation 8 of 1827], where the amount or value of the property in respect of which the probate or letters or certificate shall be granted does not exceed one thousand rupees.

(ix) Application or petition to a Collector or other officer making a settlement of land-revenue, or to a Board of Revenue, or a Commissioner of Revenue, relating to matters connected with the assessment of land or the ascertainment of rights thereto or interests therein, if presented previous to the final confirmation of such settlement.

of 1949 was transferred to the Court of the Civil Judge, after the Special Court had already examined certain witnesses, the Civil Court could not ask the plaintiff to value his plaint for purposes of jurisdiction and pay court-fees thereon. AIR 1952 Sau 102 (Pr 5) (DB). (Plaint in political suit — Exemption under Rule 17 of the Western India States Agency Political Rules.)

2. Clause (i). — (1) A vakalatnama or mukhtarnama is a kind of power-of-attorney and hence the exemption under this clause will apply to a vakalatnama or mukhtarnama executed by any person mentioned in the clause for the purpose of instituting or defending a suit. AIR 1937 Nag 65 (66) = ILR (1937) Nag 494  AIR 1926 Pat 246 (247) = 5 Pat 255.

3. Clause (iii). — (1) The clause applies to written statements filed in miscellaneous cases. AIR 1934 All 332 (333) = 56 All 747. (Written statements filed in answer to an application by Official Liquidator of a company to set aside transfers as fraudulent.)

(2) A written objection to an award made in a pending suit does not come under this clause and requires court-fee under Article 1 (b), Sch. II. Such a document is an "application" within Sch. II, Article 1. AIR 1928 Sind 87 (88) = 23 Sind LR 91 (DB).

(3) Award filed in Court — Objection denying reference and award — Nature of — Exemption from court-fee under Section 19 (iii) — Sch. II, Article 18 (1) does not apply.

Held, on facts that the objection was in the nature of a written statement falling within the exemption under Sec. 19 (iii) and was not an application to set aside the award within Sch. II, Article 18 (1), Court-fees Act, and therefore, no court-fee was payable on such objection. AIR 1962 All 75 (77) = 1961 All LJ 559.

(4) As there is no express provision for the levy of court-fee on written statements filed at or before the first hearing of the suit after the repeal of Section 120, Civil P. C., 1859, no court-fee is now chargeable on them and it cannot be inferred that because Section 19 (iii) exempts written statements filed after the first hearing, written statements filed at or before the first hearing require court-fee. ('83) 12 Cal LR 366 (369, 370) (DB)  ('81) 5 Bom 400 (402, 403) (DB).

(5) A written statement pleading a set-off or counter-claim is chargeable with ad valorem court-fee under Article 1 of Sch. I (as amended in 1908). If a claim made in the written statement does not amount to a set-off or counter claim it will not be chargeable with any court-fee. AIR 1941 Nag 138 (140) = ILR (1941) Nag 194 (DB). (Suit on mortgage — Subsequent mortgagee claiming to be allowed to pay off prior mortgage and to have decree in his favour for combined amounts of two mortgages — No court-fee is payable on the claim under the subsequent mortgage inasmuch as claim is neither set-off nor counter-claim.)  ILR (1948) 1 Cal 321 (325, 326) (DB). (Suit by prior mortgagee — Puisne mortgagee impleaded in suit — Setting up his mortgage in written statement is not setting up a counter claim — Court-fee is chargeable.)  AIR 1937 Lah 62 (62). (Plea in written statement that mutual claims of plaintiff and defendant had been adjusted is not plea of set-off and no court-fee is payable on written statement.)  AIR 1933 Sind 247 (249) (DB). (Suit for accounts — It is not incumbent on defendant to pay court-fee on written statement filed by him claiming decree for such sum as may be found due to him on settlement of accounts.)

(x) Application relating to a supply for irrigation of water belonging to Government.

(xi) Application for leave to extend cultivation, or to relinquish land, when presented to an officer of land-revenue by a person holding, under direct engagement with Government, land of which the revenue is settled, but not permanently.

(xii) Application for service of notice of relinquishment of land or of enhancement of rent.

(xiii) Written authority to an agent to distrain.

(xiv) First application (other than a petition containing a criminal charge or information) for the summons of a witness or other person to attend either to give evidence or to produce a document or in respect of the production or filing of an exhibit not being an affidavit made for the immediate purpose of being produced in Court.

(xv) Bail bonds in criminal cases, recognizances to prosecute or give evidence, and recognizances for personal appearance or otherwise.

(xvi) Petition, application, charge or information respecting any offence when presented, made or laid to or before a police officer, or to or before the *‡Heads of Villages or the *§Village Police in the territories respectively subject to the Governors in Council of Madras and Bombay.

(xvii) Petition by a prisoner, or other person in duress or under restraint of any Court or its officers.

(xviii) Complaint of a public servant (as defined in the Indian Penal Code), a municipal officer, or an officer or servant of a Railway Company.

(xix) Application for permission to cut timber in Government forests, or otherwise relating to such forests.

(xx) Application for the payment of money due by Government to the applicant.

(xxi) Petition of appeal against the chaukidari assessment under ††Act No. 20 of 1856, or against any municipal tax.

Section 19 — Note 3 (contd.)

(6) A defendant in a partition suit asking for separation of his share in his written statement is not required to pay any court-fee. [But see ('99) 23 Bom 184 (186) (DB).]

(7) Partition suit by co-tenant — Defendant in his written statement pleading that plaintiff should give account of rents which he recovered in capacity as manager of property — Defendant held must value relief and pay necessary court-fee on it. AIR 1933 Sind 304 (304, 305).

(8) Where in a suit to recover price of a thing supplied the defendant in his written statement alleges non-supply and claims certain sum as loss, it is a clear case of set-off and he must pay ad valorem court-fee on amount claimed. AIR 1958 All 574 (574).

4. Clause (viii). — (1) The amount or value of the property contemplated by this clause is the net value obtained by deducting the value of the debts and expenses referred to in annexure B of Sch. III from the gross value of the assets to be disclosed in annexure A of the same schedule. Consequently, no court-fee will be chargeable when such net value of the property does not exceed one thousand rupees. AIR 1918 All 306 (307) = 40 All 279 (DB)  AIR 1916 Cal 543 (545). [See ('01) 24 Mad 241 (242) (DB). (Petitioner was directed on termination of suits referred to in petition to file in Court statement showing result of the suit.)]

5. Clause (xvii). — (1) Petition mentioned in the clause must be one in respect of, or connected with, or arising out of the matter in connexion with which petitioner is in prison, duress or under restraint. Prisoner or person in duress or under restraint wishing to file civil suit or appeal against decree passed in such suit is not exempt under this clause and cannot file the suit or appeal without paying necessary court-fee required under the Act. AIR 1942 All 45 (46) = ILR (1941) All 793.

(2) An application by a prisoner for setting aside the order of acquittal of the opposite parties and for their being convicted and sentenced according to law does not fall within the clause as it does not ask for any relief affecting him in his capacity as a prisoner. AIR 1936 All 318 (318) = 58 All 871 = 37 Cri L Jour 566.

(3) Section 19 (xvii) cannot be interpreted as applying to criminal matters alone. Where a judgment-debtor, while in custody applied, under Chap. XX, Civil P. C. to be declared insolvent and on the application being refused by lower Court appealed against the order, it was held that the case was governed by this clause and the memorandum of appeal was exempt from court-fee. ('84) 10 Cal 61 (62).

(4) The petition, in order to be exempt from court-fee under this clause, must have been filed when the petitioner is actually in prison, duress or under restraint. A petition written when the petitioner is in prison, duress or under restraint but filed when he is not in prison, duress or under restraint will not be exempt under this clause. AIR 1942 All 45 (46) = ILR (1941) All 793.

(5) The person released on probation, by an appellate Court after maintaining his conviction, on terms contained in condition 4 of Form C of the Probation Rules, is under restraint of Court and can move the High Court in revision without payment of Court-fee thereon. Manipur and Tripura:

In Section 19,—

(i) Clauses (v), (vi) and (vii) shall be omitted;

(ii) in clause (viii), for the words beginning with "Probate of a will" and ending with "Regulation VIII of 1827", the words "Probate of a will and letters of administration" shall be substituted and omit the words "or certificate";

(iii) in clause (xvi), the words beginning from "or to or before the Heads of villages" and ending with "Madras and Bombay", shall be omitted;

(iv) in clause (xxi), omit the words "the chaukidari assessment under Act 20 of 1856, or under"; and

(v) omit clauses (xxiii) and (xxiv).—See G.S.Rs. 1119, 1120, Gaz. of Ind., d. 1-7-1963, Pt. II, Sec. 3 (i), Ext., pp. 501 and 531 (w.e.f. 15-7-1963).

Orissa:

In Section 19, in clause (viii), for the words "one thousand rupees", substitute the words "two thousand rupees".—Orissa Act 11 of 1967, S. 3 (20-7-1967).

Note.—Bihar and Orissa Act II of 1922, T. N. Act V of 1922 and C. P. and Berar Act 16 of 1935 have been repealed in their application to Orissa by Orissa Act 11 of 1967, S. 2 and Sch.

6. Clause (xviii). — (1) A complaint by an official in an official capacity does not require court-fee stamp. AIR 1930 All 820 (821) = 53 All 208 = 32 Cri L Jour 306.

(2) A complaint brought by a Municipal Officer is also exempted. It has been held that no process fee is leviable on a complaint made by the Municipal Officer ('93) 16 Mad 423 (424) (DB).

7. Clause (xx). — (1) An application for refund of court-fees under Section 13 of the Act is covered by this clause and no court-fee is chargeable on such application. AIR 1932 All 590 (591) = 54 All 790.

(2) An application to the High Court for refund on money deposited in the Court towards costs of preparation of paper book of a Privy Council appeal is not an application for payment of money due by Government to the applicant within the meaning of this clause and hence is not exempt from payment of court-fee. AIR 1923 Cal 599 (600) (DB).

8. Application not falling under any clause. — (1) Where a certain sum is payable to a party under the order of the Court, and the Court has already pronounced as to the right of the party concerned to receive that sum, the application for refund thereafter is in pursuance of such an order and cannot come under the category of a petition under Sch. II, Article 1 (d). The reason why no provision has been made under Section 19 is that the documents covered therein are those which but for the exemption would come under one or other provisions of the Court-fees Act, and would thus be chargeable with the proper court-fee required. AIR 1961 Pat 245 (246) = ILR 38 Pat 1230 (DB).

For clause (iii) the following clause was substituted, viz.:—

> "(iii) Written statement not being one mentioned in Art. 2-A, Sch. I, nor one containing a counter-claim, set-off or a prayer other than a prayer for instalments or relating to costs of the suit."—U. P. Act XIX of 1938 (9-1-1939).

West Bengal:

In item (viii), for the words "one thousand rupees", the words "two thousand rupees" were substituted.—Bengal Act IV of 1922 (29-3-1922).

In item (i), after the words "power-of-attorney", the words "or other written authority" were inserted; and after item (xxiv), the following paragraph was added, viz.:—

> "(xxv) Petitions of appeal by servants of the Government or a Court of Wards against orders of dismissal, reduction or suspension; copies of such orders filed with such appeals and applications for obtaining such copies."—Bengal Act VII of 1935, (2-5-1935).

*CHAPTER III-A

PROBATES, LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION AND CERTIFICATES OF ADMINISTRATION

19-A. Relief where too high a court-fee has been paid.—Where any person on applying for the probate of a will or letters of administration has estimated the property of the deceased to be of greater value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has consequently paid too high a court-fee thereon, if within six months after the true value of the property has been ascertained, such person produces the probate or letters to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority †[for the local area] in which the probate or letters has or have been granted, and delivers to such Authority a particular inventory and valuation of the property of the deceased, verified by affidavit or affirmation, and if such Authority is satisfied that a greater fee was paid on the probate or letters than the law required,

the said Authority may—

(a) cancel the stamp on the probate or letters if such stamp has not been already cancelled;

Section 19-A — Note 1

(1) Where the property to be valued is a debt the applicant is not bound to value it at its face value but is entitled to state what he considers to be the fair value of it (according to the chances of its recovery, etc.), and to apply on that basis. If the Revenue authority is not satisfied with the estimate he can deal with the matter under Section 19-H. If too low a value is placed on the debt, further duty must be paid under Section 19-E and if too high a value is placed on it part of the duty must be refunded under Section 19-A — This applies to a judgment-debt also. AIR 1931 Bom 419 (420) = 55 Bom 844.

(2) The court-fee is chargeable on the value of the estate as at the date of application. Subsequent changes in value do not alter the amount of fee payable. ('12) 14 Ind Cas 804 (806) (Burma).

(3) Transfer of suit to High Court under Clause 13 of the Letters Patent (Cal.) — Section 19-A does not apply. AIR 1955 Cal 52 (Pr 17).

(4) The inherent power of a Court to remit or refund Court-fees is confined only to fees which have been illegally or erroneously assessed or collected and does not extend to fees which have been paid or collected in accordance with the provisions of the Court-fees Act. AIR 1958 Punj 38 (42) = ILR (1958) Punj 104 (FB).

(5) Application for probate or Letters of Adiministration — Excess valuation of property by an applicant — Correct valuation made after grant of probate or Letters of Administration as per the practice followed in Calcutta — Refund of excess Court-fee — Chief Controlling Revenue Authority need not insist for amendment of valuation by the High Court. (1967) 71 Cal WN 239.

(b) substitute another stamp for denoting the court-fee which should have been paid thereon; and

(c) make an allowance for the difference between them as in the case of spoiled stamps, or repay the same in money, at his discretion.

STATE AMENDMENT

Uttar Pradesh:

At the end of clause (c), the following matter was inserted after substituting a comma for the fullstop:—

"after deducting ten naye paise for each rupee or fraction thereof."—U. P. Acts 19 of 1938 (9-1-1939) and 20 of 1958, Section 3.

19-B. Relief where debts due from a deceased person have been paid out of his estate.—Whenever it is proved to the satisfaction of such Authority that an executor or administrator has paid debts due from the deceased to such an amount as, being deducted out of the amount or value of the estate, reduces the same to a sum which, if it had been the whole gross amount or value of the estate, would have occasioned a less court-fee to be paid on the probate or letters of administration granted in respect of such estate than has been actually paid thereon under this Act, such Authority may return the difference, provided the same be claimed within three years after the date of such probate or letters.

But when, by reason of any legal proceeding, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available, and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said term of three years, the said Authority may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to be reasonable under the circumstances.

[Cf. Bom. Act 36 of 1959, S. 22; Him. Pra. Act 8 of 1968, S. 20; Jammu and Kashmir Act 7 of 1977 Svt., S. 19-B; Andh. Pra. Act 7 of 1956, S. 53; Ker. Act 10 of 1960, S. 56 (2) (a); T. N. 19-C. Relief in case of several grants.—Whenever [ * *] a grant of probate or letters of administration has been or is made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate, and the full fee chargeable under this Act has been or is paid thereon, no fee shall be chargeable under the same Act when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

SECTION 19-C — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope.
2. Increase in value of property or scale of fees — Applicability of this section.
3. Illustrative cases.
4. "Full fee chargeable under this Act has been paid".
5. "Same property belonging to the same estate".
6. Power of appointment.

1. Scope.— (1) The section was enacted to provide for avoidance of payment of court-fees over again in cases, in which after a grant of probate or letters of administration on payment of the full fee prescribed, a fresh grant of probate or letters of administration becomes necessary, e. g., where probate is revoked. AIR 1920 Pat 273 (274) = 5 Pat L Jour 36 (DB).

(2) The principle on which the is granted under the section is that the time of the fresh grant there is no new succession or devolution of the estate. AIR 1916 Cal 290 (292) = 43 Cal 625 (DB).

Whenever such a grant has been or is made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fees then actually paid under this Act shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of property belonging to the same estate, identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

(3) The law in England is also the same and no stamp duty is payable on subsequent grants. See AIR 1916 Cal 290 (292) = 43 Cal 625 (DB).

2. Increase in value of property or scale of fees — Applicability of this section. — (1) Where proper court-fee has been once paid, no additional fee is payable at the time of the subsequent grant, even though the value of the property has increased or the scale of fees payable has been enhanced during the interval. ('08) 4 Low Bur Rul 255 (255)  AIR 1916 Cal 290 (291) = 43 Cal 625 (DB).

3. Illustrative cases. — (1) The section is wide in terms and applies to all cases where a subsequent grant has to be made after full court-fee has been paid at the time of a previous grant. AIR 1925 Rang 217 (217, 218) = 3 Rang 90 (DB)  AIR 1920 Pat 273 (274) = 5 Pat L Jour 36 (DB).

(2) When there are several executors and probate is granted first to one on payment of full fee and then to another, no fresh court-fee is payable at the time of the second grant. ('71) 15 Suth WR 496 (496).

(3) No fresh fee is payable on a subsequent application for letters of administration de bonis non. AIR 1925 Rang 217 (217, 218) = 3 Rang 90 (DB)  AIR 1920 Pat 273 (274) = 5 Pat L Jour 36 (DB).

(5) When first application for letters of administration in respect of part of property is made by a creditor and then a subsequent application in respect of the whole of the property is made by the Administrator-General, in computing the fee payable on the second application, fee paid on the first application by the creditor is to be deducted. ('71) 8 Beng LR (App) 43 (44).

4. "Full fee chargeable under this Act has been paid". — (1) This section applies only when the first and the subsequent grants have been made after the Court-fees Act has come into force and ad valorem fee has been paid at the time of the previous grant under the Court-fees Act. AIR 1925 Rang 217 (218) = 3 Rang 90 (DB)  AIR 1916 Cal 290 (291) = 43 Cal 625 (DB).

(2) Where the fee paid on the previous application was not ad valorem but a fixed fee, under the law then in force and the second application is made after the Court-fees Act came into force, no relief against payment of ad valorem court-fee under the Act can be granted under this section. (3) The fact that duty has been paid in England cannot be a ground for claiming exemption under the section as the fee paid in England is not a "fee chargeable under this Act". ('76) 1 Cal 168 (174) (DB)  ('79) 4 Cal 725 (726).

5. "Same property belonging to the same estate". — (1) When the first and subsequent grants are in respect of succession to different deceased persons, full court-fee is payable on both the grants though the grants may relate to the same property. AIR 1920 Pat 273 (274) = 5 Pat L Jour 36 (DB).

6. Power of appointment. — (1) A by will giving general power of appointment to B over Rs. 7,000 — On A's death, his will proved and probate fee paid on Rs. 7,000 — B executed will in which she exercised power of appointment and died — B's executor applying for probate of her will — Power of appointment created by A's will is "property" within Sch. Same as that of Assam — See G. S. Rs. 1119-1120, Gaz. of Ind., 1-7-1963, Pt. II, S. 3 (i), Ext., pp. 501 and 531 (w.e.f. 15-7-1963).

*[19H. Notice of application for probate or letters of administration to be given to Revenue-authorities, and procedure thereon.—(1) Where an application for probate or letters of administration is made to any Court other than a High Court, the Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Collector.

(2) Where such an application as aforesaid is made to a High Court, the High Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority †[for the local area in which the High Court is situated].

Section 19-G — Note 1

(1) Word "mistake" used in this section has same meaning as in Section 19-E. AIR 1928 Lah 947 (949).

Section 19-H — Note 1

(1) Object of this section is to safeguard revenue and not to delay grant of probate or letters. ('28) 32 Cal WN 799 (804)  AIR 1925 Cal 1201 (1203) =

(3) The Collector within the local limits of whose revenue-jurisdiction the property of the deceased or any part thereof is, may at any time inspect or cause to be inspected, and take or cause to be taken copies of, the record of any case in which application for probate or letters of administration has been made; and if, on such inspection or otherwise, he is of opinion that the petitioner has underestimated the value of the property of the deceased, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the petitioner (either in person or by agent) and take evidence and inquire into the matter in such manner as he may think fit, and, if he is still of opinion that the value of the property has been underestimated, may require the petitioner to amend the valuation.

(4) If the petitioner does not amend the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may move the Court before which the application for probate or letters of administration was made, to hold an inquiry into the true value of the property:

Provided that no such motion shall be made after the expiration of six months from the date of the exhibition of the inventory required by Section 277 of the ‡Indian Succession Act, 1865, or as the case may be, by Section 98 of the ‡Probate and Administration Act, 1881.

(5) The Court, when so moved as aforesaid, shall hold, or cause to be held, an inquiry accordingly, and shall record a finding as to the true value, as near as may be, at which the property of the deceased should have been estimated. The Collector shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.

(6) For the purposes of any such inquiry, the Court or person authorized by the Court to hold the inquiry may examine the petitioner for probate or letters of administration on oath (whether in person or by commission), and may take such further evidence as may be produced to prove the true value of the property. The person authorized as aforesaid to hold the inquiry shall return to the Court the evidence taken by him and report the result of the inquiry, and such report and the evidence so taken shall be evidence in the proceeding, and the Court may record a finding in accordance with the report, unless it is satisfied that it is erroneous.

(7) The finding of the Court recorded under sub-section (5) shall be final, but shall not bar the entertainment and disposal by the Chief Controlling Revenue-authority of any application under Section 19-E.

(8) The §[State Government] may make rules for the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3).]

STATE AMENDMENT

Uttar Pradesh:

For sub-section (1) the following sub-section was substituted, viz. :—

"(1) No order entitling the petitioner to the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be made upon an application for such grant until the petitioner has filed in the Court, in the form set forth in the third schedule, a valuation, according to the market rates current on the date of the application of all the assets and liabilities of the deceased in India at the time of the latter's death, and the Court is satisfied that the fee mentioned in Article 11 of the first schedule has been paid on such valuation.

Explanation.—If at the time of his death, the deceased was a member of a joint Hindu family governed by the Mitakshara Law, such portion of the assets and liabilities of the family as would have been allotted to the deceased in a partition made immediately before his death, shall be deemed to be the assets and liabilities of the deceased within the meaning of this sub-section." — U. P. Act 19 of 1938 (9-1-1939).

Section 19-I — Synopsis (contd.)

9. Date of valuation is date of application.

10. "The Court is satisfied . . . . valuation."

11. Affidavit (Sch. III).

12. Probate or letters in respect of portion of estate.

13. Property situate in different States of India or both in India, and abroad.

14. Non-compliance with section — Power of appellate Court.

15. Court not prevented from hearing application.

16. Conditional order for grant of probate.

17. Order requiring payment of court-fee before certain date.

18. Sub-section (2).

19. Appeal from order passed in probate or letters of administration proceedings.

1. Scope. — (1) Section is mandatory. 1937-2 Mad LJ 899 (900).

(2) Court-fees Act, does not authorise making of orders. It only prohibits the grant of letters of administration so long as the petitioner has not filed valuation and has not paid the court-fee payable on such valuation. An order requiring the petitioner to pay Court-fee is not an order contemplated by Section 19-I at all. If the petitioner does not file the valuation or does not pay court-fee, the District Judge can only refuse letters of administration to him. AIR 1965 All 211 (215) = 1964 All LJ 830 (DB).

(3) Court must be satisfied that fee mentioned in Sch. I, Article 11 has been paid on valuation of property in form set forth in Sch. III. AIR 1938 Mad 486 (488)  AIR 1925 Cal 1201 (1203)  52 Cal 87 (DB)  AIR 1924 Cal 987 (988) (DB).

(4) Valuation may be filed and fees may be paid even after application is made. AIR 1943 Cal 19 (21) = ILR (1942) 2 Cal 194  ('11) 14 Oudh Cas 13 (22) (DB)  ILR (1956) Punj 1356 (1358).

(5) It is clear from Section 19-I Court Fees Act that Annexure of Schedule in petition for probate is enjoined for Court-fee purposes — In granting probate, Court commits mistake if it makes the schedule part of probate — Mistake can be amended by High Court under inherent powers. AIR 1965 Punj 138 (140) = 66 Pun LR 1220.

(6) Court-fee on probates or letters of administration is payable under this section and not under Section 6. ('13) 17 Cal WN 21 (24) (DB).

[But see AIR 1935 All 449 (450) (DB).]

(5) Section 19-I makes payment of the court-fees mentioned in Item No. 11 to the first schedule to the Court-fees Act a condition precedent to the making of an order for the grant of representation. The section, however, does not make payment of the estate duty a condition precedent to the grant of a representation. AIR 1958 Cal 403 (404).

2. Section is retrospective. — (1) This section lays down procedure only and hence operates retrospectively. (1900) 1900 Pun Re No. 26 p. 91 (91, 92) (DB).

3. Applicability to High Court. — (1) Taxing Officer's decision that no duty is payable is final under Section 5 and cannot be reviewed under Section 19-I by Judge in Chambers when application for grant is laid before him in ordinary course of non-contentious business. AIR 1925 Cal 1201 (1204) = 52 Cal 871 (DB).

4. Application in forma pauperis. — (1) Application for grant of probate or letters of administration made — Court can entertain application in forma pau-peris and make further order granting probate or letters of administration to applicant without payment of any duty by him under Sch. I, Article 11. AIR 1938 Mad 486 (488).

5. Liability for court-fee, if depends on necessity of probate or letters. — (1) Liability to pay fee prescribed by Sch. 1, Article 11 does not depend upon whether obtaining of probate or letters of administration is necessary but upon fact of probate or letters of administration having been applied for in respect to property. AIR 1935 All 449 (450) = 57 All 881 (DB).

6. Court-fee on application for probate. — (1) Court-fee is charged on probate and not on application for or order granting probate. AIR 1945 Bom 1 (3) = ILR (1945) Bom 783 (DB).

7. Grant of letters to administrator pendente lite. — (1) Proceedings pending for grant of letters of administration made for appointment of administrator pendente lite — Court-fees must be paid on such appointment. AIR 1926 Rang 89 (90) (DB).

8. Valuation of property and payment of fees. — (1) Net total after deduction of total of items in Annexure B from that in Annexure A is valuation on which fee mentioned in Sch. I, Article 11 is to be paid. AIR 1942 Lah 173 (176) = ILR (1942) Lah 717 (FB).

(2) Under Section 19-I (i) the court-fee on an application for the grant of probate bears a direct relation to the valuation of the property and is levied "on such valuation". This intention of the Legislature should be steadily kept in mind in interpreting Article 11 (U. P.) of the first schedule. AIR 1957 All 207 (209) (DB).

(3) Property which deceased gifted away to petitioner is not required to be set forth in Annexure A. AIR 1934 Oudh 72 (74) = 9 Luck 370 (DB).

(4) Death of husband — Burmese Buddhist wife applying for letters of administration — She must pay duty only on other half which belonged to her husband. AIR 1919 Low Bur 118 (118).

(5) Government and Railway Provident Fund money is not liable to duty, when application for letters of administration is made in respect of estate of deceased. AIR 1928 Rang 312 (313) = 6 Rang 558.

(6) Money vested in nominee is not liable to duty. AIR 1930 Cal 252 (253) (DB). (Nominee cannot be compelled to take out letters of administration — Railway Company — Employer can only insist on proof of identity.)  AIR 1926 Nag 306 (307)  AIR 1925 Nag 108 (108).

(7) If Railway company refuses to pay money to nominee without production of letters of administration or probate it may be mentioned among assets of deceased but no fee will be payable thereon. AIR 1925 Nag 108 (108).

[See also AIR 1930 Cal 252 (253) (DB). (Provident fund mentioned — It cannot be held to have been included as "assets" of the deceased.)]

[But see AIR 1930 Oudh 145 (147) = 5 Luck 712 (FB)  AIR 1939 Sind 52 (57) = ILR (1939) Kar 359. (Nominee cannot get succession certificate in respect of amount without payment of court-fee.)]

(8) Person not dependant or nominee — Provident fund money over Rs. 5,000 — He can get money only by producing probate, letters of administration or succession certificate and has to pay fee on amount of fund when applying for probate, etc. AIR 1933 Sind 101 (101) = 26 Sind LR 429.

(9) Private provident fund — Money does not vest in dependant or nominee of depositor or subscriber — Private company creating fund does not hold it as trustee for dependant or nominee — Court-fee is payable on probate or letters of administration. AIR 1928 Rang 312 (313) = 6 Rang 558.

(10) Judgment-debt need not be valued at its face value but value may be put on it according to chances of recovering it. AIR 1931 Bom 419 (420) = 55 Bom 844.

(11) Widow applied for certificate of administration — Objection raised that sum of money secured on bond in name of widow belonged to estate of deceased — Widow denied this — Held until contrary was proved fee should be paid on valuation of estate excluding bond-debt. ('80) 5 Cal LR 368 (369) (DB).

(12) Mere fact that property is subject of litigation will not in itself make it impossible for value of property being assessed for purpose of duty on probate or letters of administration. ('01) 24 Mad 241 (242) (DB)  AIR 1956 Bom 404 (Pr 3) (DB).

(13) Deceased's estate worth Rs. 125 and chose in action claiming Rs. 17,000 — Petitioner assessing under Rs. 1,000 — Probate or letters of administration may be issued without payment of fee as provided by Section 19 (VIII). ('01) 24 Mad 241 (242) (DB)  ('96) 23 Cal 577 (579) (DB).

(14) A person by will conveyed property in trust for A for life and thereafter for such person as A should appoint and A exercised such power by his will — Property in which A had only life-interest with general power of appointment is not "property" within meaning of Schedule I, Article 11 and is not liable to probate duty. AIR 1933 Cal 924 (925, 926) = 60 Cal 1016.

(15) No duty is payable in respect of membership card of association. AIR 1942 Bom 33 (34).

(16) Petitioner stated amount of assets which he expected to realize. Mere fact that he is prepared to allow other persons to retain and administer amount recovered by them before grant of probate does not entitle him to evade duty in respect of latter amount and duty must be paid on entire sum. AIR 1931 Lah 310 (312) = 12 Lah 584 (DB).

(17) Petitioner can deduct amount of debts due from deceased from gross value of estate. AIR 1916 Cal 543 (545)  AIR 1914 Cal 40 (45).

(18) It is not necessary for the purpose of deducting the amount of debts from the gross value of the estate that the debts should be capable of being enforced. It is sufficient if they are debts which in law the executor would be entitled to pay out of the estate of the deceased. AIR 1950 Bom 74 (Prs 2, 3) (DB).

(19) Court-fee mentioned in section is to be calculated according to law in force on date of grant and not that in force on the date of the application. AIR 1944 All 119 (120) = ILR (1944) All 229 (DB)  AIR 1927 Bom 643 (643) = 52 Bom 61 (DB)  AIR 1945 Pat 361 (362) = 24 Pat 171  AIR 1945 Pat 86 (86)= 23 Pat 672.

[But see AIR 1924 Cal 987 (988) (DB)  AIR 1945 Bom 1 (5) = ILR (1945) Bom 783 (DB).]

(20) The court-fee payable under Schedule I. Article 11 on the valuation fixed by the Court is to be paid before the hearing of the proceedings (which in the very nature of things, includes the order of the Court entitling the petitioner to the grant of probate or letters of administration) and not just before the issue of a probate to the applicant. AIR 1955 Pat 362 (Prs 6, 9) = 34 Pat 205 (DB).

(21) It has been held that a nominee in respect of a policy of insurance does not become the owner of the money payable under the policy merely by reason of the nomination. The policy-holder continues to be the owner up to the end of his life and has full power of disposal over it. Hence, the money payable under the policy is to be treated as a part of the testator's assets and court-fee is to be paid on it under this section. AIR 1953 All 721 (Pr 7).

(22) A petitioner for the probate of a will is not liable under any provision of law to pay the amount of court-fee out of his own property. These sums are to be paid out of the deceased's estate. AIR 1956 All 152 (Pr 3).

(23) Dividends payable on the shares which the deceased held in certain mills would naturally form accretions to the estate unless they have been lawfully subtracted from it. The mere fact that those dividends were remitted abroad by the mills would not make any difference when the mills had no legal authority to do so. The duty must be paid on them. AIR 1956 Mad 200 (Pr 3) = ILR (1956) Mad 220.

9. Date of valuation is date of application. — (1) Value of property of deceased for purposes of calculation of court-fees under Schedule I, Article 11 is its value at date of application for probate or letters of administration and not its value at time of death of deceased. AIR 1933 Lah 936 (937, 938) = 14 Lah 526  AIR 1921 Pat 206 (208) = 6 Pat LJ 411 (DB)  AIR 1956 Mad 277 (Prs 23, 24) (DB)  AIR 1952 All 639 (Pr 1).

(2) Subsequent changes in value of property do not alter amount of fee payable. ('12) 14 Ind Cas 804 (804, 807) (Bur).

10. "The Court is satisfied ...... valuation." — (1) Court cannot check correctness of valuation. ('28) 32 Cal WN 799 (802, 803)  AIR 1925 Cal 1201 (1203) = 52 Cal 871 (DB).

(2) Question whether property is or is not trust property and was or was not rightly included in Annexure B of valuation filed by petitioner falls under this section and must be decided by Court before granting probate or letters of administration. AIR 1939 Pat 126 (127) = 17 Pat 542  AIR 1928 Lah 947 (949).

11. Affidavit (Sch. III). — (1) The mere fact, that a sum has been collected by the executor before obtaining probate and this has been excluded from the affidavit of assets, will not either make the affidavit not being in proper form or affect the question of jurisdiction of the Probate Court. AIR 1956 Mad 274 (Pr 7).

(2) The mere fact that an executor has been able to obtain payment of an interest which accrued to him after the death of the testator is not enough for excluding it from the computation of the value for the purpose of probate duty. The interest received by him after the death of the testator and before the application for probate is to be included in the affidavit of assets and court-fee paid on the same. AIR 1956 Mad 277 (Prs 23, 24) (DB).

12. Probate or letters in respect of portion of estate. — (1) Application for probate or letters relates to portion of estate — Valuation and court-fee need not be in respect of whole estate. AIR 1925 Lah 493 (493).

(2) Testator appointing 20 sole executors — Widow and daughters in possession of substantial portion of property — Probate held cannot be granted to executors in respect of portion only and they are liable to pay court-fee on en-

14. Non-compliance with section — Power of appellate Court. — (1) Application for probate not in proper form made and granted — Previous proceedings are not nullity — Judge can allow petitioner to make good defects. AIR 1936 Sind 150 (153) = 30 Sind LR 201 (DB).

15. Court not prevented from hearing application.— (1) This section does not say that Court shall not try application until conditions are fulfilled. AIR 1943 Cal 19 (21) = ILR (1942) 2 Cal 194  ('11) 14 Oudh Cas 14 (22) (DB)  ILR (1956) Punj 1356 (1358).

16. Conditional order for grant of probate. — (1) The section does not authorise a court to pass a conditional order entitling the petitioner to the grant of probate and directing that probate be granted to him on payment of the requisite court-fee. AIR 1948 All 268 (272) = ILR (1948) All 598 (DB).

17. Order requiring payment of court-fee before certain date. — (1) The court can require the payment of court-fee at any stage before it passes an order entitling the petitioner to the grant of probate. Thus, an order requiring the payment of court-fee before the date of final hearing of the application would be justified under the terms of the section. AIR 1948 All 268 (273) = ILR (1948) All 598 (DB).

(2) Executor cannot be compelled to pay probate duty until Collector has finished his work with regard to valuation of property. AIR 1929 Cal 733 (734) (DB).

(3) Grant cannot be delayed on ground that there was no motion made by Collector. AIR 1918 Cal 510 (511) (DB).

19. Appeal from order passed in probate or letters of administration proceedings. — (1) Different views are held as to provisions applicable to appeal from order passed in probate or administration proceedings.

(a) Schedule II, Article 17 (VI) applies. ('13) 35 All 448 (450) (DB).

(b) Schedule II, Article 1 applies. ('11) 21 Mad LJ 481 (482) (DB). (16 Bom 408 and 23 Cal 723, Relied on.)

(c) Schedule II, Article 11 applies. AIR 1938 Rang 141 (145) = 1938 Rang LR 72.

(1) Sub-section (1) of this section does not refer to penalties imposed under Section 19-E of Act. AIR 1916 Cal 797 (799) = 43 Cal 230 (DB).

(2) Costs of inquiry under Section 19-H cannot be recovered from petitioner under this section. AIR 1923 Cal 406 (407) = 50 Cal 239 (DB).

CHAPTER IV

PROCESS-FEES

20. Rules as to cost of processes.—The High Court shall, as soon as may be, make rules as to the following matters :—

(i) The fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by such Court in its appellate jurisdiction, and by the other Civil and Revenue Courts established within the local limits of such jurisdiction;

(ii) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Criminal Courts established within such limits in the case of offences other than offences for which police-officers may arrest without a warrant; and

(iii) the remuneration of the peons and all other persons employed by leave of a Court in the service or execution of processes.

The High Court may from time to time alter and add to the rules so made.

Confirmation and publication of rules.

All such rules, alterations and additions shall, after being confirmed by the [State Government] †[ * *], be published in the ‡[Official Gazette], and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Section 20 — Note 1

(1) The Court of a Special Judge under the Bengal Tenancy Act is a Civil Court within the meaning of the section. AIR 1931 Cal 572 (573) = 58 Cal 995. (In appeals before the special Judge, process-fees for notices on respondents should be paid according to the scale laid down in the High Court Rules framed under the section. Rule 65 of the rules framed by the Government under Section 189 of the Bengal Tenancy Act is not applicable to such a case.)

(2) Custody fees in respect of movables attached in execution proceedings are covered by the section. AIR 1937 Cal 86 (87) = ILR (1937) 1 Cal 624 (DB).

(3) A commission to make a local investigation is not a process within the meaning of the section. ('90) 17 Cal 281 (284) (DB).

(4) Poundage-fees are process-fees levied under rules made under the section. AIR 1927 Bom 17 (18, 19) (DB).

(5) An order issued by the Court for the sale of property in its custody during the pendency of the suit either by the process establishment or by officer specially appointed under Rule 197 (Madras Civil Rules of Practice) is a process within this section — Sale is chargeable with poundage — Fixing of remuneration for the person conducting sale does not excuse payment of poundage-fee. AIR 1945 Mad 238 (239) = ILR (1945) Mad 816.

(6) The High Court has no power to relax or remit the process-fees prescribed under the Rules made under this section. Order 48 Rule 1 of the Civil Procedure Code gives no such power. AIR 1930 Mad 381 (382) = 53 Mad 262 (FB)  AIR 1927 Pat 318 (318)  ('99) 26 Cal 124 (125, 126) (DB).

(7) Offences under Sections 406 and 420, Penal Code are cognizable and so no process fee has to be paid by the complainant for serving and executing processes issued for compelling the attendance of the accused, and the order discharging the accused for non-payment of process fee is not sustainable. ILR (1954) Punj 645 (648).

(8) General Letter No. 4 (Civil) 1942 issued by the Registrar. Appellate Side High Court, under which conveyance charges can be levied in respect of processes issued on persons resident in Calcutta through the Presidency Small Cause Court is an administrative order and not a rule made by the Calcutta High Court under Section 20 of the Court-fees Act and therefore does not legalize the demand for conveyance charges for processes not in suits or proceedings under the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act. ILR (1948) 1 Cal 438 (440) (DB).

Until such rules shall be so made and published, the fees now leviable for serving and executing processes shall continue to be levied, and shall be deemed to be fees leviable under this Act.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Punjab, Haryana, Chandigarh:

The words 'and revenue' occurring between the words 'civil' and 'Courts' in item one of the section were repealed. — Punjab Land Revenue Act 17 of 1887 (23-9-1887): Act 31 of 1966, S. 88 (1-11-1966).

Uttar Pradesh:

For the existing heading of Chapter IV the heading "Power to make Rules" was substituted. For Section 20 the following section was substituted, viz.:

"20. Power of High Court to make rules.—The High Court may make rules to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters, viz.:

(a) the fees payable for serving and executing processes issued by such Court in its appellate jurisdiction and by the Civil and Criminal Courts established within the local limits of such jurisdiction;

(b) the remuneration of persons employed by the Courts mentioned in clause (a) in the service or execution of processes;

(c) the fixing by District and Sessions Judges and District Magistrates of the number of process-servers necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued from their respective Courts and Courts subordinate thereto; and

(d) the display in each Court of a table in the English and Vernacular languages showing the fees payable for the service and execution of processes.

All such rules shall be subject to the confirmation of the Provincial Government and on such confirmation shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall thereupon have effect as if enacted in this Act." — U. P. Act 19 of 1938 (9-1-1939).

Section 20-A

Delhi:

Same as that of Punjab — See Notification No. 189/38, Gaz. of Ind., 1939, Pt. I page 911.

The following section was added as Section 20-A after Section 20:

"20-A. Exemption for certain processes.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding section or in the rules made thereunder, no fees shall be charged for serving and executing processes on behalf of—

(a) the prosecution in any criminal proceedings taken on information presented or complaint made by a public officer acting in his official capacity, and

(b) a liquidator or an arbitrator appointed under the provisions of the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912.

(2) The Provincial Government may by notification determine what persons shall be deemed to be public officers for the purpose of the preceding sub-section." — Punjab Acts 4 of 1939 (24-4-1939) and 1 of 1942 (24-2-1942): Act 31 of 1966, S. 88 (1-11-1966).

21. Tables of process-fees.—A table in the English and Vernacular languages, showing the fees chargeable for such service and execution, shall be exposed to view in a conspicuous part of each Court.

STATE AMENDMENT

Uttar Pradesh:

For Section 21 the following section was substituted ::

"21. (1) The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may, with the previous sanction of the Provincial Government, make rules consistent with this Act to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters, viz. :

(a) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority and by the Revenue Courts established within the local limits of its jurisdiction;

(b) the remuneration of the persons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of such processes;

(c) the fixing by Collectors of the number of persons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of such processes;

(d) the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of the powers conferred on them by sub-section (iii) of Section 19-H;

(e) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act;

(f) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act;

(g) the keeping of accounts of all stamps used under this Act;

CHAPTER V

OF THE MODE OF LEVYING FEES

STATE AMENDMENT

Section 24-A

Uttar Pradesh:

The following section was inserted as Section 24-A at the beginning of Chapter V, viz.:—

> "24-A. Control of Court-fee and Inspectorate of Stamps.—The levy of fees under this Act shall be under the general control and superintendence of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, who may be assisted in their supervision thereof by the Chief Inspector of Stamps and by as many Inspectors of Stamps as the State Government may appoint in this behalf or by any other subordinate agency appointed for the purpose.

The Chief Inspector of Stamps and Inspectors of Stamps shall have access to all records, and shall be furnished with all such information as may be required by them for the performance of their duties under this Act."—U. P. Act 19 of 1938, (9-1-1939).

25. Collection of fees by stamps.—All fees referred to in Section 3 or chargeable under this Act shall be collected by stamps.

26. Stamps to be impressed or adhesive.—The stamps used to denote any fees chargeable under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive, or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the [°][appropriate Government] may, by notification in the [†][Official Gazette], from time to time direct.[‡]

[°] Substituted for "Local Government" by A. O., 1937.

[†] Substituted 'Local Gazette', ibid.

[‡] For Rules as to levy of court-fees by adhesive and impressed stamps, see Gaz. of Ind., 1883, Pt. I, page 189.

27. Rules for supply, number, renewal and keeping accounts of stamps.—The [°][appropriate Government] may, from time to time, make rules[†] for regulating—

(a) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act;

(b) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act;

(c) the renewal of damaged or spoiled stamps; and

(d) the keeping accounts of all stamps used under this Act:

Section 25 — Note 1

(1) Payment of court-fees made in the form of money — Such payment was treated as equivalent to the payment of court-fees. AIR 1928 Pat 29 (30) = 6 Pat 602 (DB)  ('69) 3 Beng LR (App) 72 (73) (DB).

(2) Where there is a dispute as to the amount of court-fee payable on an appeal to the High Court, the Taxing Officer has no power to order the appellant to deposit in Court as a condition precedent to the hearing of the appeal, a sum equal to the amount admitted by the appellant to be payable as court-fee. AIR 1928 Pat 29 (30) = 6 Pat 602 (DB).

Section 26 — Note 1

(1) The Government has no power to require that the stamps should bear the words "court-fees". Such a requisition, if not complied with, will not invalidate the stamp. ('95) 19 Bom 145 (149) (DB).

(2) Neither Section 26 nor Section 27 (b) authorise the appropriate Government to make rules providing that a Court-fee stamp which is not overprinted with the name of certain State would not be usable in the Courts of that State. AIR 1969 Delhi 130 (132).

(3) A plaint was originally instituted in the Small Cause Court at Simla (Punjab), with court-fee stamps pertaining to the Punjab Government. The plaint was subsequently returned for presentation to a Himachal Court. It was then presented to the Subordinate Judge of Theog and decreed by him in due course. It was contended that the latter Court could not proceed with the suit, because the plaint bore Punjab stamps and not Himachal stamps. It was held that having regard to peculiar circumstances of the case and the practice which was in vogue in the Himachal State prior to July 1953, of using stamps of other States the objection as to court-fees should be overruled and credit should be given to the plaintiff for the court-fee paid in the Simla Court. AIR 1956 Him Pra 38 (Pr 3).

(1) Under the section Government is given power to make rules, inter alia, as to the number of stamps to be used to denote a particular amount of court-fee. ('71) 16 Suth WR 153 (153) (DB).

(2) The use of stamps which are not of the correct denomination according to rules made by Government under the section will not be sufficient compliance with the provisions of the Act as to the payment of court-fees and the document in question must be treated as not stamped. AIR 1931 Nag 94 (95) = 26 Nag LR 263  AIR 1931 Pat 39 (40).

(3) The Court may give time for the rectification of the defect. AIR 1931 Nag 94 (95) = 26 Nag LR 263.

(4) Where stamps of the required denominations are not available, stamps of lower denomination may be used. AIR 1937 Mad 266 (267)  ('71) 16 Suth WR 152 (152) (DB).

[See also AIR 1931 Pat 113 (113). (Certificate from one stamp vendor not sufficient — Plaintiff should try to get requisite stamp from other vendors in the locality.)  AIR 1931 Pat 39 (39).

Provided that, in the case of stamps used under Section 3 in a High Court, such rules shall be made with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of such Court.

All such rules shall be published in the ‡[Official Gazette], and shall thereupon have the force of law.

[*] Substituted for "Local Government" by A. O., 1937. For definition of "Appropriate Government", see Section 1-A.

[†] For Rules under Section 27, see different Local Rules and Orders.

[‡] Substituted for "Local Gazette" by A. O., 1937.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Manipur and Tripura:

In Section 27,—

(i) for the words 'appropriate Government', substitute the words 'Central Government' and

(ii) in the Proviso, for the words "Chief Justice of such Court", substitute the words "Judicial Commissioner".—See G.S.Rs. 1119-1120, Gaz. of Ind., 1-7-1963, Pt. II, Sec. 3 (i), Ext., pp. 501-531 (w.e.f. 15-7-1963)

Uttar Pradesh:

This section was repealed.—U. P. Act 19 of 1938 (9-1-1939).

28. Stamping documents inadvertently received.—No document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act shall be of any validity, unless and until it is properly stamped.

But, if any such document is through mistake or inadvertence received, filed or used in any Court or office without being properly stamped, the presiding Judge or the head of the office, as the case may be, or, in the case of a High Court, any Judge of such Court, may, if he thinks fit, order that such document be stamped as he may direct; and, on such document being stamped accordingly, the same

(Held that in this case the proper stamp for the plaint as it was originally filed was of a value above that which licensed stamp vendors were permitted to sell at the place and that the petitioners ought to have obtained it from the treasury.)]

(5) Stamps of wrong denomination used originally — Stamps of correct denomination supplied subsequently — Original stamps cannot be returned to the party nor has the Court power to order a refund of court-fees — But Court can issue certificate in favour of the party which he may use in applying to the Revenue authorities for a refund. AIR 1934 Nag 263 (263, 264) = 31 Nag LR 82  AIR 1931 Pat 113 (114)  AIR 1931 Pat 39 (40).

(6) Where a plaint which does not bear stamps of the proper denomination is returned for presentation to the proper Court under Order 7, Rule 10 of the Civil Procedure Code and is re-presented in such Court, the fact that the Court which returned the plaint did not raise any objection as regards the stamps does not preclude the Court of re-presentation from taking such objection. AIR 1931 Pat 39 (40).

(7) The words "for use in the High Court only" impressed on the back of court-fee stamps do not invalidate the stamps if used in the lower Courts. AIR 1926 Pat 408 (408).

(8) Rules under framed by Delhi Government and notified on 29-3-1954 are ultra vires its rule-making power. AIR 1969 Delhi 130 (132).

STATE AMENDMENT

Manipur and Tripura:

In Section 28, in paragraph 2, for the words 'High Court' and 'any Judge of such Court', substitute the words "the Court of the Judicial Commissioner for Manipur/Tripura" and "the Judicial Commissioner".—See G.S.Rs. 1119-1120, Gaz. of Ind., 1-7-63, Pt. II, Sec. 3 (i), Ext., pp. 501 and 531 (w.e.f. 15-7-1963).

Section 28 (contd.)

2. Failure to pay proper court-fee — Effect. — (1) Where a plaint or other document requiring court-fee has not been properly stamped the Court cannot dispose of the matter on the merits. AIR 1917 Low Bur 179 (180).

[See also ('12) 15 Ind Cas 526 (528) (Oudh). (Defendant claiming set-off but no court-fee paid — Set-off cannot be allowed.)]

(2) Court-fee on some of reliefs only paid — Whole appeal should not be dismissed — Appellant must be heard in respect of relief on which Court-fee was paid. 1961 Raj LW 641 = ILR (1962) 12 Raj 159.

(3) Where a decree is passed in a suit instituted on an insufficiently stamped plaint, the decree will not be void. AIR 1928 Lah 221 (223).

(4) Where the Court finds it has no jurisdiction to entertain the suit, there is no objection to its returning the plaint under Order 7, Rule 10 of the Civil Procedure Code for presentation to the proper Court although the full court-fee has not been paid. AIR 1931 Mad 69 (70, 71)  ('29) 57 Mad LJ (NRC) 33 (33). (It is not proper for a Court to ask the plaintiff to pay deficit court-fee and to reject the plaint on failure to pay the same.)

(5) Different views are held as to whether the failure to pay proper court-fee makes the suit one not instituted for purposes of limitation.

(a) The validity of a suit for purposes of limitation is not affected by the fact that sufficient court-fee on the plaint is not paid at the time of its presentation. AIR 1937 Pat 550 (552, 553) = 16 Pat 600 (SB)  ('09) 32 Mad 305 (306, 307) (FB)  ('05) 27 All 197 (199, 200) (DB).

(b) The presentation of a plaint which is not properly stamped is not a valid presentation for purposes of limitation. ('36) 9 RM 208 (208) (DB)  ('26) 96 Ind Cas 433 (435) (DB) (Cal)  AIR 1920 Lah 24 (24)  ('90) 12 All 129 (142) (FB)  AIR 1969 Punj 308 (310). (AIR 1938 Lah 361 (FB) doubted in view of AIR 1958 SC 767.)

3. "Properly stamped." — (1) Unless the proper stamps are used to denote the court-fees, the document will not be properly stamped within the meaning of the section. AIR 1934 Nag 263 (264) = 31 Nag LR 82  AIR 1931 Pat 113 (113, 114)  ('02) 6 Cal WN 785 (786).

4. "Mistake or inadvertence." — (1) Mistake is not mere forgetfulness. It is a slip, made not by design but by mischance. ('07) 29 All 749 (763) (FB).

(2) A mistake of law is a mistake within the meaning of the section. ('02) 25 Mad 380 (382, 383) (DB).

[See however ('54) Madh BLJ 1954 HCR 1097 (1098). (Miscellaneous appeal filed on court-fee of Rs. 2 instead of Rs. 2-8-0 — Court-fees Act in force for more than 2 years — Contention that appeal on insufficient court-fee was filed in ignorance cannot be accepted — Ignorance of law is no excuse.)]

(3) A mistake or inadvertence on the part of the Court or its officers is within the section. ('02) 1902 All WN 153 (153) (DB)  1931 All WN 21 (21) (DB)  AIR 1968 All 216 (222, 223) = 1967 All LJ 612 (FB). (AIR 1962 All 268, Overruled.)

(4) The mistake may, in its origin be the mistake of the plaintiff, but by the time the plaint has been registered the mistake becomes that of the Court or its officers. ('07) 29 All 749 (762) (FB)  AIR 1970 Tripura 26 (29).

(5) The requirement of certain court-fee on the decree and judgment accompanying a memo of appeal is primarily for fiscal purposes and a deficiency especially when due to accidental oversight is not material. The defect is more or less formal and of a most unsubstantial nature and the Court has certainly discretion under this section and S. 149, Civil P. C. to get the defect remedied by having the deficiency in the court-fee made good. AIR 1955 Ajmer 64 (Pr 5).

5. Head of the office.— (1) The Registrar as the Head of the High Court office by virtue of Section 28 has the power to collect the proper court-fee in respect of an appeal memorandum which through mistake or inadvertence has been filed already and accepted as having been sufficiently stamped. AIR 1951 Orissa 150 (Pr 4) = ILR (1950) Cut 497.

6. Payment of deficit court-fee under the section — Effect. — (1) On deficit court-fee being made up under the orders of the Court, the plaint or other document in question and every proceeding relative thereto is rendered as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance. AIR 1931 Rang 38 (38) = 8 Rang 538 (DB)  ('07) 1907) Pun Re No. 123, p. 600 (607) (DB)  ('79) 2 All 682 (685) (FB)  AIR 1968 All 216 (224) = 1967 All LJ 612 (FB). (AIR 1962 All 268 Overruled on another point.)  AIR 1967 Goa 99 (100) (FB).

(2) Where the Court once exercises its discretion and allows the deficit court-fee to be made up, it cannot go back on its own order subsequently. ('07) 1907 Pun Re No. 123, p. 600 (603, 607) (DB)  ('02) 1902 All WN 153 (153) (DB).

(3) Where the deficit court-fee is paid within the time fixed by the Court or enlarged by it, the suit or other proceeding will not be barred by limitation although at the time when the deficit court-fee is paid the period of limitation has expired. ('07) 1907 Pun Re No. 123, p. 600 (607) (DB).

(4) Appeal from appellate decree of single Judge — Memorandum with deficit court-fee filed on 8-11-62 — Deficit made good on 20-12-62 and appeal admitted on 3-1-63 on 13-11-62 the U. P. Act 14 of 1962 coming into force taking away the jurisdiction of the court to hear such appeals — Held, that no appeal was pending on 12-11-62 within Section 3 (2) of the U. P. Act — The appeal held not maintainable. AIR 1964 All 552 (553) = 1964 All LJ 537 (FB). (AIR 1951 All 64 (FB), Held, required reconsideration.)

7. Stage at which deficit court-fee may be ordered to be paid. — (1) The appellate Court can accept deficit court-fee. ('02) 25 Mad 380 (382, 383) (DB).

(2) Opportunity to make up deficiency of court-fee can be given at any stage. ILR (1959) 9 Raj 306.

(3) Action under the section can be taken after the admission of an appeal. AIR 1943 Pat 102 (104) = 21 Pat 720.

(4) To record findings on all issues and after dismissing suit on merits, to require payment of additional court-fee is illegal and contrary to correct procedure. AIR 1938 Lah 311 (312)  AIR 1935 Lah 75 (76).

[See also AIR 1921 Pat 88 (89) = 6 Pat L Jour 293 (FB). (Appellate Court — Question of court-fee in lower Court — Ordinarily question must be decided as a preliminary point — But Court has discretion to postpone decision.)]

(5) Once the case has been disposed of, the Court becomes functus officio and has no longer any jurisdiction to require the payment of any court-fees. AIR 1939 Sind 279 (280) = ILR (1939) Kar 469 (DB)  AIR 1933 Lah 208 (208)  AIR 1933 Mad 321 (321)  AIR 1925 Lah 131 (131).

[But see ('85) 7 All 528 (532, 534) (DB).]

(6) Where a Court finds after the hearing of a case that a larger amount is due to the plaintiff or appellant than what he has paid court-fee for the proper course for the Court is to post the case for orders and to require the party to pay additional court-fees and then only to pronounce judgment. AIR 1933 Mad 330 (331) = 56 Mad 705 (DB).

(7) After pronouncing judgment the Court has no power to call upon a party to pay deficit court-fees. AIR 1938 All 546 (548)  AIR 1932 Pat 228 (231) = 11 Pat 532 (DB).

[See also ('06) 30 Cal 516 (519) (DB).]

(8) On objection by the Stamp Reporter, an appellant was ordered to pay ad valorem court-fee on his memorandum of appeal and to raise the question of sufficiency of court-fee at the hearing of the appeal. The additional court-fee was deposited. But the case was heard and disposed of and decree passed without the question of court-fee being raised. Thereafter, the appellant applied for refund of the amount deposited. It was held that the Court was bound to consider the question of sufficiency of court-fee on the appeal. ('13) 18 Cal L Jour 133 (136) (DB).

(9) The expiry of limitation for the proceeding is no bar to the acceptance of court-fee. ('02) 25 Mad 380 (382, 383) (DB).

(10) Where a plaint is rejected for non-payment of deficient court-fees within the time granted by the Court and a fresh plaint is thereon presented, the Court can treat the court-fee already paid as part of the court-fee necessary for the fresh plaint. AIR 1935 All 985 (986).

(11) Neither the Court-fees Act nor the Rules of the Original Side of the High Court state that the exhibits or the depositions or the minutes must be stamped right at the moment when they are tendered as exhibits or at the moment when the witness is giving his deposition or at the moment when the court minutes are being taken down. The rules recognise that time appointed thereunder can always be relaxed by the Judge for the purpose of realising either unpaid or insufficiently paid court-fees or stamps at any time before the order is either completed or given effect to. AIR 1956 Cal 619 (620).

(12) Where the written statement filed by the defendant is treated as the plaint in the cross-suit instituted by him, the Court may in its discretion under Section 149, Civil P. C., allow him to pay court-fee even after the decree in the suit. AIR 1956 J and K 38 (40).

(13) Where the plaintiff omits to amend the suit valuation and pay court-fee on the enhanced rent in spite of the defendant's contention regarding court-fee, a decree cannot be given to the plaintiff for claiming enhanced rent on payment of the necessary court-fee in the High Court. AIR 1955 Trav-Co 167 (Prs 3, 4).

8. Power of appellate Court to require payment of deficient court-fee in lower Court. — (1) Where an insufficiently stamped document has been acted upon in the lower Court and the appellate Court discovers the mistake when the appeal is filed, it cannot be said that the document is received etc., by mistake or inadvertence in the appellate Court. AIR 1927 Cal 775 (775) (DB).

(2) Under Section 149 of the Civil Procedure Code the appellate Court's power is wider and is not limited to the cases contemplated by Section 12 (ii) or by the second paragraph of this section. AIR 1930 Cal 787 (793, 794) = 58 Cal 474 (DB)  AIR 1921 Pat 88 (89) = 6 Pat L Jour 293 (FB)  AIR 1968 All 216 (222). (AIR 1962 All 268, Overruled.)

(3) The fact that the plaint was held to be a valid document by the Court receiving it neither precludes the Court of appeal from judging its validity nor absolves it from the duty of doing so. If the Court of appeal finds that the plaint is invalid by reason of not being properly stamped it has to ignore the plaint altogether unless and until it is properly stamped. It cannot be said that if the document is not to be used in appeal the Court of appeal cannot make a direction under second paragraph of Section 28. AIR 1968 All 216 (222) = 1967 All LJ 612 (FB). (AIR 1962 All 268, Overruled.)

(4) The power of the appellate Court to direct payment of Court-fee on a document is not dependent whether the document may be or intended to be 'used' in appeal. AIR 1968 All 216 (222) = 1967 All LJ 612 (FB). (AIR 1962 All 268, Overruled.)

(5) The powers under Order 7, Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code can be exercised by the appellate Court. AIR 1921 Pat 88 (90) = 6 Pat L Jour 293 (FB).

(6) Under Section 28 the Court in which an insufficiently stamped document has been received, filed or used by mistake or inadvertence has the power to grant time to make good the deficiency. But as a document received or filed in the Court below may be "used" in an appellate Court, the appellate Court has power under this section to direct that deficiency may be made good provided the document is used in such Court. AIR 1957 All 63 (65) (DB).

(7) After an appeal has been decided, the appellate Court becomes functus officio and has no right to direct recovery of deficit court-fee either on the plaint or on the memorandum of appeal. AIR 1957 Pat 533 (533, 534) (DB).

(8) Appeal by defendants — Sufficient Court-fee not paid on appeal — Court finding, during arguments, that sufficient Court-fee not paid on plaint also — Court rejecting the plaint — Held, Court in the first instance should have asked the defendants/Appellants to pay deficit Court-fees on appeal and after such payment should have asked plaintiff/Respondent to pay deficit Court-fee on plaint and only on plaintiff's failure to do so should have rejected the plaint — Held, further, order of the Court rejecting the plaint at the outset is revisable. AIR 1968 Manipur 1 (3).

9. Court of revision — Power of.—(1) It has been held that a Court of Revision has power to require payment of court-fees that ought to have been paid in the lower Court. AIR 1915 Cal 701 (702) (DB). Section 28-A

Madhya Pradesh:

After Section 28, the following section was inserted as Section 28-A, viz.:—

"28-A. Recovery of deficient or unpaid court-fees.—(1) If, on examination of the records of a civil, criminal or revenue case which has been disposed of, a public officer finds that the fee payable under the Act or the rules made thereunder on any document filed, exhibited or recorded therein has not been paid or has been insufficiently paid, he shall report the\ fact to the presiding officer of the Court or to the revenue officer concerned.,

(2) Such presiding officer or revenue officer, after satisfying himself of the correctness of such report, shall record a provisional finding that the proper fee has not been paid and determine the amount of the fee payable and the person from whom the fee or the difference thereof, if any, shall be recoverable.

(3) After recording a finding under sub-section (2), the presiding officer or the revenue officer shall issue a notice to the person referred to in that sub-section to show cause why he should not be ordered to pay the fee determined thereunder, and, if sufficient cause is not shown, the presiding officer or revenue officer shall confirm the finding and make an order requiring such person to pay the proper fee before a date to be specified in that notice.

(4) If such person fails to pay the fee in accordance with the notice issued under sub-section (3), it shall, on the certificate of such presiding officer or revenue officer, be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue."—C. P. Act 9 of 1938 (17-4-1938).

Orissa:

Section 28-A is the same as that of Madhya Pradesh—Orissa Act 13 of 1957, S. 2, (24-7-1957).

STATE AMENDMENT

Section 30-A

Uttar Pradesh:

After Section 30, the following section was inserted:—

"30-A. Where allowance is made in this Act for damaged or spoiled stamps or where refund is permitted on the strength of certificate granted by a Court, the Collector may, on the application of the holder of the same and after satisfying himself about the genuineness of the certificate or the stamps produced, give in lieu thereof the same amount or value in stamps of the same or any other description or if the applicant desires, the same amount or value in money, provided that in the latter case a deduction shall be made of 'ten naye paise' for each rupee or fraction thereof. No such deduction shall, however, be made where refund is claimed in respect of court-fee paid in pursuance of an order of the Court which has been varied or reversed in appeal."—U. P. Section 30-A (Uttar Pradesh) — Note 1

(1) The jurisdiction or the duty of a Collector under Section 30-A to pay the money exists only where refund is permitted on the strength of a certificate granted by a Court, i. e., where there exists a statutory provision allowing refund on the strength of certificate. The only provisions which permit refund on the strength of a certificate are those contained in Sections 13, 14 and 15. In the State of Uttar Pradesh a Court has no inherent power to grant a certificate for refund of court-fee. If a Court grants a certificate under Section 151, the Collector before whom it is produced is not bound by any law to honour it and to give money to the party producing it. SCHEDULE I

AD VALOREM FEES

NOTE.—By section 14 of the Indian Coinage Act, 1906, newly Inserted by the Indian Coinage (Amendment) Act, 1955 (31 of 1955), decimal system of coinage is introduced in India. Section 14 of the Indian Coinage Act is as follows :

> "14. Decimal System of coinage.—(1) The rupee shall be divided into one hundred units and the new coin representing such unit may be designated by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette, under such name as it thinks fit, and the rupee, half rupee and quarter-rupee shall be respectively equivalent to one hundred, fifty and twenty-five such new coins and shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) and sub-section (2) of section 13 and to the extent specified therein, be a legal tender in payment or on account accordingly.
> (2) All coins issued under the authority of this Act in any denominations of annas, pice and pies shall, to the extent specified in section 13, be a legal tender in payment or on account at the rate of sixteen annas, sixty-four pice or one hundred and ninety-two pies to one hundred new coins referred to sub-section (1), calculated in respect of any such single coin or number of such coins, tendered at one transaction, to the nearest new coin, or where the new coin above and the new coin below are equally near, to the new coin below.
> (3) All references in any enactment or in any notification, rule or order under any enactment or in any contract, deed or other instrument to any value expressed in annas' pice and pies shall be construed as references to that value expressed in new coins referred to in sub-section (1) converted thereto at the rate specified in sub-section (2)."

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 14 above, the Central Government has designated the new coin representing each of the one hundred units into which a rupee is divided under that sub-section as a "NAYA PAISA."—S. R. O. 1150. The Indian Coinage (Amendment) Act, 1955, came into force on the 1st day of April 1957.—S. R. O. 1149. Published in Gaz. Ind., Extra., 14-5-1956, Pt. II-S. 3, page 883.

The direction given in sub-section (3) of section 14 above is generally to be followed, unless a different direction is given by any Act passed by State Legislature: for example, in the States of Madhya Pradesh; Orissa and Rajasthan, Acts have been passed by the respective Legislatures of those States wherein specific table showing how the old coins are to be converted into new coins are given. In all these cases the column of the "Proper Fee" in both the Schedules and Tables is given in the new coinage as directed by these State enactments.

1. Scope. — (1) The article will not apply unless the fee is made leviable by some provision in the body of the Act. AIR 1941 Nag 129 (130). (Section 4, Court-fees Act does not apply to an appeal from decree passed by District Judge under Section 14, C. P. Local Fund Audit Act — No ad valorem fee leviable on such appeal.)

(2) Article 1 presupposes that the subject-matter in dispute in the appeal is capable of execution. A dispute as to whether a person was a displaced person under the Displaced Persons (Debts Adjustment) Act, 1951, is plainly incapable of money value. AIR 1958 Cal 675 (678) (DB).

(3) The difference between Section 7 (iv) (c) and Article 1, Schedule 1 of the Court-fees Act is that though under both court-fee is required to be paid on ad valorem basis yet the valuation under S. 7 (10) (c) is the valuation at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or memo of appeal but under Article 1, Schedule 1, ad valorem fee has to be paid on the amount of value of the subject-matter in dispute. AIR 1966 Madh Pra 169 (171) = 1964 MPLJ 553 (DB).

(2) The words "the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute" in the article mean with reference to an appeal the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute in the appeal and not the suit out of which the appeal arises. AIR 1953 SC 28 (Pr 7) = 1953 SCR 197.

(3) A defendant-appellant has to pay only the court-fee that is required to be paid according to law in respect of the subject-matter of the suit. The mere fact that the plaintiff has over-valued the property claimed or paid a higher court-fee than required by law does not bind the defendant. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 671 (671, 672).

(4) When the subject-matter in dispute in appeal is not different from the subject-matter in dispute in the suit in the Trial Court the appeal will be governed for purposes of court-fee by the some provisions as the suit though the amount of court-fee leviable in appeal may be different. (12) Suit for recovery of Rs. 6709 advanced on pledge of articles was filed by the plaintiff. The amount was decreed to be recovered by sale of articles and no personal decree was passed. There was an appeal by the plaintiff which was valued at Rs. 2250 and a personal decree was granted. There was a second appeal by defendant. It was held that value of appeal would be approximate amount which may remain unrealised after sale of articles unless the defendant could show that articles were likely to fetch higher value, value placed by plaintiff should be considered proper in second appeal and defendant would be liable to pay ad valorem court-fee thereon. 1955 Raj LW 35 (35).

(13) When a sub-tenant wants a declaration of a right of tenancy there is no objective standard of the value of the right claimed and therefore the appellant in such a case is free to value his relief claimed in the memorandum of appeal as he thinks fit. ('58) 62 Cal WN 47 (48) (DB).

(14) Where in a reference under Section 18, Land Acquisition Act, the Additional District Judge accepts as correct the amount awarded by the Collector and a claimant appeals under Section 54 of the Act, merely raising the question of title, the value of the appeal is the entire amount of the compensation awarded. AIR 1951 Pat 608 (Pr 5).

(15) The word 'judgment' used in R. 5 of (Allahabad) Rules of Court, Chap. VII includes a decree and the Rule provides for an appeal to be from a judgment and the decree based thereon. Hence, when an appeal is preferred under Rule 5, the Court-fee is exigible under Sch. I, Item 1 and not under Sch. II, Item 11 of the Court-fees Act, on the memorandum of appeal. 1961 All WR (HC) 521 = 1961 All LJ 561 (563).

(16) Where a judgment conclusively determines the rights of parties with regard to matters in controversy in the suit and also contains all the criteria of a decree, the case quite clearly falls within the purview of Art. 1, Sch. 12. Subsequent interest. — (1) No court-fee is payable on a plaint in respect of interest accruing after the institution of the suit. AIR 1937 Nag 6 (8, 9)  AIR 1934 Pat 571 (573) = 14 Pat 4 (SB). (Overruling on this point AIR 1922 Pat 387 = 1 Pat 19 and AIR 1920 Pat 376 = 5 Pat L Jour 235 by implication.)  AIR 1954 Trav-Co. 174 (Pr 4) = ILR (1952) Trav-Co 750 (DB)  AIR 1953 Kutch 46 (Pr 3).

(2) The following are the views on the question whether court-fee is leviable in Appeal in respect of interest subsequent to institution of suit:

(a) A plaintiff-appellant claiming future interest is bound to pay on the appeal court-fee on the amount of interest claimed up to the date of the presentation of the appeal. AIR 1937 Nag 6 (8, 9)  Madh B LJ 1954 HCR 1699 (1701)  ('36-43) Tax Dec (Nag) 12 (16). (But not on future interest beyond that date.)  AIR 1919 Oudh 305 (305) = 22 Oudh Cas 1.

[See also AIR 1953 Kutch 46 (Pr. 4). (Where the question of future interest is decided it becomes a subject-matter in dispute in appeal and interest pendente lite is ascertainable.)]

(b) Plaintiff's claim as to interest from institution of suit till realization refused — Appeal claiming same—Ad valorem court-fee on the interest calculated up to the date fixed for redemption—As regards interest accruing subsequently till realization, Court-fee of Rs. 10 is payable under Schedule II, Article 17 (vi). AIR 1943 Lah 275 (280, 281) = ILR (1944) Lah 24 (FB)  AIR 1945 Pat 145 (146) = 23 Pat 905. (Ad Valorem court-fee on pendente lite interest.)

(c) Mortgage decree allowing interest up to date fixed for redemption — Appeal claiming interest up to realization — The proper court-fee is Rs. 10 under Sch. II, Article 17 (vi). AIR 1943 Lah 275 (280) = ILR (1944) Lah 24 (FB)  (1905) 27 All 559 (561) (DB)

(d) In an appeal by the debtor, if the amount declared by the Court to be due at the date of the decree can be ascertained by reference to the judgment, the court-fee on the appeal should be computed according to the decretal amount including the interest up to the decree, but no court-fee need be paid in regard to the interest accruing subsequently. AIR 1930 Oudh 329 (329) = 6 Luck 34 (DB).

(e) Mortgage decree passed awarding interest up to date fixed for redemption — Defendant appealing from the decree — Court-fee on the appeal must be paid in respect of it. (1913) 35 All 94 (98) (DB)  AIR 1947 All 295 (296).

[See AIR 1937 Nag 6 (8, 9). (Mortgage decree for amount including interest from date of suit till date of payment — Defendant appealing seeking to reduce redemption amount without disputing the claim as to future interest — Held, court-fee was payable on difference between amount decreed and amount alleged to be due.)] valorem court-fee on appeals against orders dismissing their applications. AIR 1956 Punj 153 (155).

(6) Application under Section 10, Displaced Persons (Debts Adjustment) Act rejected on ground that applicant is not displaced person — Appeal can be filed with court-fee provided in Schedule II, Art. 11. AIR 1957 Raj 146 (148) = ILR (1957) 7 Raj 168 (FB).

(7) An order under Section 18 (1) of the Displaced Persons (Debts Adjustment) Act rejecting the application on the ground that the loss did not take place in the circumstances specified in Section 18 (1) could not be said to be a decree. The party was entitled to file an appeal against such order on a Court-fee stamp of Rs. 2 and was not liable to pay ad valorem Court-fee. 1958 Raj LW 222 = ILR (1958) 8 Raj 216 (219) (DB).

(8) An appeal filed under Rule 25 of the Rules sanctioned by H. E. H. the Nizam for recovery of arrears of rent and ejectment from premises belonging to the City Improvement Board against an order directing delivery of possession is chargeable with a fixed court-fee under Schedule II, Article 11. AIR 1954 Hyd 81 (Pr. 9) = ILR (1954) Hyd 36 (FB).

(9) An award made by an arbitrator acting under the Punjab Requisitioning and Acquisition of Immoveable Property Act is neither a decree nor an order having the force of a decree. AIR 1957 Punj 32 (34) = ILR (1957) Punj 142 (DB).

(10) Sale of Property by A to B — Certain amount left with B for certain purpose — C in execution of his decree against A attaching amount in hands of B — Objection by B allowed — Appeal by C allowed and B's objection dismissed — Order being against garnishee has force of decree under Order 21, Rule 103, Civil P. C. — Ad valorem court-fee is payable on appeal from such order AIR 1948 All 307 (308) = ILR (1948) All 207 (DB).

(11) Decree under Section 14, U. P. Encumbered Estates Act in favour of daughter of original creditor on his death — Objection that decree should have been in objector's favour and not in daughter's favour — Objection dismissed — Order has the force of a decree under Section 14 of the Act and appeal therefrom is governed by this Article. AIR 1949 All 270 (271) = ILR (1949) All 885.

(12) Order under Section 235 of Companies Act (1913) read with Section 45-H of Banking Companies Act (1949) is not a decree within meaning of Schedule I, Article 1 — It is doubtful whether such an order will fall under Schedule 2, Article 11 — In absence of any definite rule Court-fee paid as on appeal from order held sufficient. ILR (1961) 11 Raj 16 (22).

(13) Schedule I, Article 1 (as amended in U. P.) — Order granting of letters of Administration is an order having the force of a decree—Court-fee on an appeal from such an order would be payable under Schedule II, Article 1 (e) (5). Articles 2-A and 2-B

After Article 2 the following articles were inserted, viz. :

"2-A. Application or written statement by a defendant in a suit for partition praying for partition of his share in the property sought to be partitioned.	... ...	The same fee which would have been payable on a plaint if such defendant instituted a suit for partition." —U. P. Act 2 of 1936. [2-4-1936.]
"2-B. Memorandum of appeal filed under section 23 of the United Provinces Agriculturists' Relief Act, 1934.	... ...	The same fee as would be leviable on a memorandum of appeal under Art. 1." —U. P. Act 19 of 1938. [9-1-1939.]

Schedule I, Article 2 — Note 1

(1) Suit based on title and not on dispossession under Section 9, Specific Relief Act — This article will not apply and full court-fee will have to be paid. ('94) 1894 Bom PJ 346 (DB).

Schedule I, Article 1-A (U. P.) — Note 1

(1) Sch. I, Article 2-A (U. P.) — Stamp Act (1899), Article 45 and Section 2 (15) — Partition — Final decree in partition suit — Execution by defendant — Stamp Duty under Section 45 Stamp Act paid by plaintiffs — Defendant need not pay court-fee in order to have this share separately allotted to him. -- Sch. I, Art. 2-A does not apply where defendant merely seeks execution of partition decree. 1964 All LJ 1013 (1015) (DB).

(2) When in a suit for partition, the defendants apply for the preparation of final decree by separation of their share, they desire to be treated as co-plaintiffs and their share separately allotted to them. Plaintiffs and also defendants standing in the category of plaintiffs must pay Court-fee before their prayer can be granted. Similarly stamp-duty, if any, payable at the time of the passing of the final decree shall also be payable by them. AIR 1966 All 601 (602).

Schedule I, Article 2-B (U. P.) — Note 1

(1) Application for redemption under U. P. Agriculturists' Relief Act — Decree conditional on payment of amounts due under mortgage and under deeds of further charge — Appeal contesting liability under deeds of further charge — Ad valorem court-fee should be paid on difference between amounts decreed and amount which is admitted. AIR 1941 Oudh 447 (448) (DB).

(2) Appeal under Section 23, U. P. Agriculturists' Relief Act — Valuation of appeal should be based not on full amount but on subject-matter in dispute in appeal within the meaning of this Article. AIR 1946 All 304 (305) = ILR (1946) All 409 (DB).

(3) The dismissal of an application under Section 12 of the Agriculturists' Relief Act on the merits on the finding that the transaction was not a mortgage but a sale is as much a decree as the order allowing the application. Even if it is an order in form it has the force of a decree. An appeal both against the dismissal of an application under Section 12 of the Agriculturists' Relief Act as well as against the order allowing the application is maintainable under Section 23 of the Act. Under Article 2-B of Schedule I of the Court-fees Act, as amended by U. P. Act (XIX of 1938), the memorandum of appeal filed under Section 23 of the U. P. Agriculturists' Relief Act (1934) has to be stamped with the same fee as would be leviable on the memorandum of appeal as under Article 1, Sch. I, Article 11, Sch. II does not apply. AIR 1954 All 184 (Pr 2) (DB).

Schedule 1, Article 2-B (U. P.) — Note 1

(4) Proceedings under Section 12, U. P. Agriculturists' Relief Act are not suit. Where appeal is from a decree in proceedings on an application and Section 12, Section 7 (ix) which fixes an artificial value for the subject-matter in dispute in "suits" against a mortgagee for the recovery of the property mortgaged cannot apply to the appeal. In the appeal under Section 23 of the Agriculturists' Relief Act the appellant is bound to pay court-fee on the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute in appeal and not on the principal amount secured under the mortgage. The subject-matter in dispute in appeal would be the market value of the property in respect of which the right of redemption granted by the lower Court is sought to be set aside in appeal. Schedule I, Arts. 4 & 5 — Synopsis (contd.)
randum of appeal"

3. Computation of time.
4. Application for review in forma pauperis.
5. Insufficiently stamped application for review.

1. Scope. — (1) Decision attacked not a decree but only an order — These articles will not apply and application will be liable to be stamped merely as application under Sch. II, Article 1 with fixed court-fee. Thus, an application for review of an interlocutory order is only liable to court-fee as an application under Sch. II, Article 1. (1909) 31 All 262 (264) *° AIR 1957 Pat 143 (144, 145). (The order directing a compromise to be recorded under Order 23, Rule 3 being not a decree, but an order, Article 4 of Sch. I of the Court-fees Act will not apply to the application for review of the order passed under Order 23, Rule 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure. To such a case Sch. II, Article 1 (b) of the Court-fees Act will apply.)

(2) Order dismissing appeal for non-payment of court-fees or for non-compliance with order for security under Order 41, Rule 10 of Civil P. C. — Application for review is not governed by these articles but by Sch II, Article 1. AIR 1941 Mad 836 (837, 838) = ILR (1941) Mad 954 (FB)

(3) Application for restoration of appeal dismissed for default in payment of printing costs, etc., is not application for review coming under these articles. AIR 1939 Pat 678 (680, 681) = 19 Pat 159 (FB). (AIR 1926 Pat 27 = 4 Pat 704, Overruled and AIR 1938 Pat 111 = 17 Pat 252. Impliedly overruled.) °° AIR 1932 Cal 770 (771, 772) = 59 Cal 1334 (DB) *° AIR 1932 Cal 641 (641).

(4) Dismissal of appeal under Order 41, Rule 11 — Application for review comes within these articles. AIR 1926 Cal 638 (639) (See AIR Commentaries on the Civil Procedure Code, Order 41, Rule 11, N 8.)

(5) It has been held that assuming that the articles apply to applications, when the judgment is passed on the basis of an application, like an application under Order 23, Rule 3, then the fee is payable on the application and not on the plaint on the basis of which the suit was instituted, and in which the application under Order 23, Rule 3 was made. Therefore, the court-fee payable under Article 4 on the application for review of the order passed under Order 23, Rule 3 would be the fee leviable on the application under Order 23, Rule 3, and not on the plaint in the suit itself. AIR 1957 Pat 143 (144, 145).

(6) Where by mistake, one of the items was not included in the preliminary decree passed in a suit for partition of joint family properties and the plaintiff applied for amendment of the decree — Held, that the amendment application for inclusion of such item in the decree should have been allowed and no court-fee as for review ought to have been demanded from the plaintiff AIR 1955 Andhra 215 (Pr 2).

2. "Fee payable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal." — (1) The following views are held as to the interpretation of the above words:—

(a) The above words mean plaint or memorandum of appeal, as the case may be, in the proceeding giving rise to the review application. (1909) 31 All 294 (299) *° AIR 1958 Pat 587 (Pr 6) (FB) (The words mean the plaint or memorandum of appeal which has given rise to the judgment under review and not any other plaint or memorandum of appeal.) °° AIR 1952 All 224 (Pr 5) = ILR (1952) 2 All 193 (FB) *° AIR 1954 Raj 84 (Pr 4) = ILR (1953) 3 Raj 387 (DB) °° AIR 1930 Cal 631 (632) = 57 Cal 679 (DB) *° AIR 1929 Cal 470 (471) = 57 Cal 154 (DB) °° AIR 1937 Lah 439 (440, 441) = ILR (1937) Lah 238 (DB) °° AIR 1925 Pat 368 (368) (DB) *° AIR 1943 Oudh 225 (225) (DB) °° AIR 1924 Oudh 108 (109) = 26 Oudh Cas 33 (DB) °° AIR 1933 Nag 207 (208) (DB) *° ('36-43) Tax Dec (Nag) 81 (82).

(b) The said words mean imaginary plaint or memorandum of appeal seeking same relief as is sought in application for review. AIR 1927 Mad 360 (361) = 50 Mad 488 (DB) °° AIR 1954 Trav-Co 48 = ILR (1952) Trav-Co 557 (DB). (AIR 1927 Mad 360 = 50 Mad 488, Foll.) °° (1880) 4 Bom 26 (28) *° AIR 1933 Rang 203 (203) = 11 Rang 120 °° ('36-43) Tax Dec (Nag) 16 (18).

(i) Review from decision in second appeal — Court-fee payable is that on the memorandum of second appeal and not that on first appeal. (1889) 11 All 176 (179) (SB).

(ii) Application for review of decree passed in suit seeking part of relief sought in plaint and directed against portion of decree — Full Court-fee payable on such plaint must be paid if application falls under Article 4. AIR 1937 Lah 439 (441) = ILR (1937) Lah 238 (DB) *° AIR 1952 All 224 (Pr 5) = ILR (1952) 2 All 193 (FB) °° AIR 1930 Cal 631 (632) = 57 Cal 679 (DB) °° (1909) 31 All 294 (299).

(iii) Fee payable is that leviable on plaint or memorandum of appeal and not fee actually levied. AIR 1937 Lah 439 (440, 441) = ILR (1937) Lah 238 (DB) *° AIR 1924 Cal 881 (883) (DB) °° (1909) 31 All 294 (299). (Word "leviable" was used in order to provide for application for review by defendant or respondent in case of suit or appeal in forma pauperis.)

(iv) Where the petitioner is aggrieved by the acceptance of the cross-objections and variation of the lower Court's decree by the acceptance, it has been held that the fee leviable on the review petition which has been filed after 90 days would be the one which was paid on the cross-objections by the defendant respondent. AIR 1955 Raj 165 (Prs 6, 7) = 1955 Cri L Jour 1392 = ILR (1954) 4 Raj 818 (DB).

(v) Fee payable is that payable on date on which plaint or memorandum of appeal was actually presented. AIR 1933 All 20 (21) = 54 All 1092 *° AIR 1924 Cal 881 (884, 885) (DB).

(2) Application for review presented more than 90 days after dismissal by High Court of second appeal under Civil P. C., Order 41, Rule 11 (1) — Court-fee payable is according to Article 4. AIR 1926 Cal 638 (640).

(3) Review application filed before ninety days — Though review relates only to a part of the relief granted by the judgment, one half of the court-fee payable on the plaint or memorandum of appeal in the suit or the appeal in which the judgment was passed must be paid on the application. (1964) 30 Cut LT 190 (192). (AIR 1926 Mad 360, Dissented from.)

(4) Application for review filed on 90th day, 89th day being holiday — The Court-fee payable is according to Article 4 of Sch. I of Court-fees Act — General Clauses Act (1897), Section 10, does not apply. ILR (1960) 10 Raj 218 (220).

3. Computation of time. — (1) The period of 90 days mentioned in Articles 4 and 5 is to be counted from the date of the decree which under the law is to be the date of the judgment, and not from the date when the decree is actually prepared. AIR 1955 Raj 165 (Pr 5) = 1955 Cri L Jour 1392 = ILR (1954) 4 Raj 818 (DB).

(2) In calculating the period of 90 days for the purpose of these two articles the question whether the application is barred by limitation or not is immaterial. ILR (1955) 5 Raj 765 (768). (The question of payment of court-fees is and must be governed by the provisions of the Court-fees Act and not by the Limitation Act. Section 29 (2) of the Limitation Act must be held to make a provision for limitation only in so far as a special or local law may prescribe for any suit, appeal or application, a period of limitation different from that prescribed under the Limitation Act.)

(3) Fact that Court was closed on last day of period of 90 days is immaterial for the purpose of these two articles. AIR 1941 Nag 236 (238) = ILR (1941) Nag 392 (DB) °° AIR 1957 Pat 143 (145) °° AIR 1955 Trav-Co 185 (Prs 4, 5) = ILR (1954) Trav-Co 155 (DB). (Where an application for review is presented on the 92nd day, preceding three days being holidays, court-fee as provided by Article 4 has to be paid and Section 4, Limitation Act, will be of no avail.) *° AIR 1951 Mad 262 (Pr 2) = ILR (1951) Mad 709 (DB). (But in such a case, a certificate under Section 14 can be granted the default not being due to any laches on the part of the applicant.) °° AIR 1935 Nag 164 (165) = 31 Nag LR 260 °° ('12) 15 Cal L Jour 505 (506, 507) (DB) *° (1886) 9 Mad 134 (134) (DB) °° (1882) 9 Cal LR 479 (480) (DB) °° (1879) 1879 Pun Re No 39, p. 107 (108).

(4) Time required for obtaining copies of decree and judgment cannot be deducted in calculating period of 90 days. AIR 1941 Nag 236 (238) = ILR (1941) Nag 392 (DB) *° (1899) 2 Oudh Cas 302 (303) °° ('94) 7 CPLR 111 (112).

(5) If on date of application for review, period of 90 days has elapsed from date of judgment, application for review will come under Article 4 and not under Article 5 although ninety days have not elapsed from date on which decree was signed. AIR 1924 Cal 994 (995) (DB).

(6) Presentation to Stamp Reporter is presentation for purpose of these articles. AIR 1924 Cal 994 (995) (DB).

4. Application for review in forma pauperis. — (1) Application for review of judgment passed in suit or appeal in forma pauperis must be considered to be one in continuation of suit or appeal and is maintainable without payment of any Court-fee. AIR 1936 Cal 752 (753) (DB) °° (1898) 20 All 410 (411) (DB).

[But see AIR 1930 Rang 280 (281) = 8 Rang 428 (DB).]

6. Copy or translation of a judgment or order not being, or having the force of, a decree.	When such judgment or order is passed by any Civil Court other than a High Court, or by the presiding officer of any Revenue Court or Office, or by any other Judicial or Executive Authority –
	(a) If the amount or value of the subject-matter is fifty or less than fifty rupees.	Four annas.
	(b) If such amount or value exceeds fifty rupees.	Eight annas.
	When such judgment or order is passed by a High Court.	One rupee.

AMENDMENTS

Andaman and Nicobar : Pondicherry.

In Art. 1 of Sch. II in the column of "Proper Fee" for the words "One anna," "One anna", "Eight annas" and "One rupee" opposite clauses (a), (b), (c) in the second column substitute the words "Twelve naye paise," "Twelve naye paise," "In the case of a complaint or charge of an offence presented to a Criminal Court; one rupee, and in other cases seventy-five naye paise" and "One rupee fifty naye paise" respectively. And for clause (d) of the entries in the second column and the entry in the third column corresponding to that clause substitute the following entries namely,—

"(d) (i) When presented to the High Court under section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for revision of an order –
(a) When the value of the suit to which the order relates does not exceed Rs. 1,000;	Five rupees.
(b) When the value of the suit exceeds Rs. 1 000;	Ten rupees.
(ii) When presented to the High Court otherwise than under that section;	Two rupees."

—Reg. II of 1957 S. 16. [1-8-1957] : Act 26 of 1968 S. 3 & Sch. Pt. II [18-12-1968].

Schedule II, Article 1 (contd.)

8. Application for copy of order.— (1) An application for a copy of an order passed by an Assistant Commissioner of Income-tax is governed by paragraph 5, Clause (a). AIR 1937 Lah 876 (878) = ILR (1938) Lah 229 (DB)  AIR 1932 Pat 103 (105) = 11 Pat 40 (DB).

(2) See also the following case: AIR 1956 Mad 597 (598, 599) = ILR (1957) Mad 97.

9. Petition informing Court of compromise.— (1) A petition informing the Court of an agreement into which the parties have entered for the compromise of the suit is chargeable under para 2, Cl. (b). (1885) 8 Mad 15 (17). (Parties praying for removal of suit from file.)  AIR 1918 All 307 (308) = 40 All 19 (DB). (Parties praying for a decree in terms of compromise.)

(2) An order directing a compromise to be recorded under Order 23, Rule 3 being not a decree, but an order, Art. 4 of Schedule I of the Court-fees Act will not apply to the application for review of the order passed under Order 23, Rule 3 of the Civil P. C., and to such a case, Schedule II, Article 1 (b) Act will apply. AIR 1957 Pat 143 (145).

10. Application for transfer of a case.— (1). Fifteen suits were tried analogously and dismissed. They were governed by the same judgment. Two appeals against the dismissal were filed in the High Court and thirteen in the District Court. The appellant subsequently made an application to the High Court praying for the transfer of the thirteen appeals in the District Court to the High Court and for analogous trial of them with the two appeals in High Court. It was held that the application for transfer of the thirteen appeals could not be considered as an independent application for transfer but must be treated as an application made in the appeals pending before the High Court with thirteen prayers for transfer and was properly stamped with a single stamp of Rs. 2. AIR 1940 Cal 84 (85) = ILR (1939) 2 Cal 264 (DB).

11. Objection to award.— (1) A written objection to an award made in a pending suit is an "application" and chargeable under Clause (b). AIR 1928 Sind 87 (88) = 23 Sind LR 91 (DB)  AIR 1946 Mad 104 (105).

12. Revision petitions.— (1) The word "proceeding" is used as meaning a proceeding in the nature of a suit (such as probate) and not a proceeding in the suit (such as execution proceeding) and both the words "suit" and "proceeding" are used as comprising the entire litigation commencing with the filing of the plaint or petition in the trial Court down to the stage when ultimate decision is reached in the final Court of appeal or revision. AIR 1942 Mad 390 (391). (Case under State amendment Clause (d) (i).)

(2) A writ petition under Article 227 of the Constitution, wherein the Judicial Commissioner's Court is requested to set aside the order of the District Judge, acting as an appellate authority under the East Punjab Urban Rent Restriction Act, as applied to Himachal Pradesh, would be governed not by Article 22, Schedule II, but by Article 1 (d) (iii), (Himachal Pradesh). AIR 1955 Him Pra 41 (Pr. 1).

(3) The definition of the word 'suit in Section 2, Clause (ii), has to be read subject to the overriding clause in the section itself namely — "Unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context" The word 'suit' in Schedule II, Article 1, Clause (d) can never mean appeal. In all cases of Civil Revision, whether against original order or appellate order, they have to be valued for the purpose of Court-fee according to the value of the suit and not on the value of appeal. ILR (1962) Cut 929 = (1963) 29 Cut LT 49 (53) (Orissa).

Schedule II, Article 1 — Note 12 (contd.)

(4) A Revision petition filed under Section 35 of the Delhi and Ajmer Rent Control Act is in no sense a petition for the exercise of High Court's revisional jurisdiction either under Sec. 44 of the Punjab Courts Act or Section 115, Civil P. C. The general provision in respect of petitions filed in the High Court is contained in Schedule II, Article 1, Court-fees Act. Therefore these petitions do not have to bear ad valorem Court-fee on the value of the subject-matter of the suits and the proper Court-fee payable thereon is the same as payable on other petitions to High Court mentioned in Schedule II, Article 1, Court-fees Act. AIR 1962 Punj 378 (378) = ILR (1962) 2 Punj 93 (DB).

13. Application under Trusts Act.— (1) Application under Section 74 of the Trust Act for the appointment of a trustee — Clause (d) of the Article will apply when such applications are presented to the High Court. AIR 1934 Oudh 118 (121) = 9 Luck 507.

14. Application for writs under Constitution of India. — (1) An application for relief under Article 227 of the Constitution of India made to the High Court should be stamped with a Court-fee of Rs. 2 only under Article 1 (d) (ii) of Schedule II as amended in Bengal and not on the basis of an application under Section 115 of the Civil P. C. (1950) 54 Cal WN 795 (796) (DB).

(2) As amended by U. P. Act (Second Amendment) Act, 1958 — Petition under Article 226 does not come under Section 4 — Court-fee payable is not under Clause (e) of Article 1 of Schedule II but under Rule 40, Chapter VIII of Rules of Court. AIR 1960 All 179 (184).

15. Petition for dissolution of marriage.— (1) A petition for dissolution of marriage under the Colonial Divorce Jurisdiction Act, 1926, is in the nature of a suit and is not a mere petition. Article 17 (vi) and not Article 1 of Schedule II applies to such a petition. AIR 1946 Pat 401 (402) = 25 Pat 194.

(2) A petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 must be regarded as a petition of the nature described in Article 1 (b) of Schedule II of the Court-fees Act and is liable to Court-fees accordingly. (4) Where the mortgage debt mentioned in the preliminary decree of redemption is deposited in Court beyond the time prescribed and in the appeal 'filed against the final decree for foreclosure subsequently passed the amount of debt is not in dispute but only a subsidiary or ancillary question is to be considered, the appeal filed on a fixed Court-fee of Rs. 20 is sufficient and no ad valorem Court-fee is payable. AIR 1962 Madh Pra 237 (238, 239) = 1961 Jab LJ 1267.

Schedule II, Article 17 (i) — Note 1

(1) A summary decision is the decision of a Court which hears and determines the matter, but does not finally conclude the parties. (1870) 5 Beng LR 162 (166) (FB).

[See AIR 1940 Cal 215 (217) (DB). (The definition of 'Summary decision' in 5 Beng LR 162 (FB) accepted.)]

(2) A suit under Order 21, Rule 63 of the Civil Procedure Code is governed for purposes of Court-fees by this clause. (1908) 35 Cal 202 (206) = 35 Ind App 22 (PC). (Reversing 31 Cal 511.)  AIR 1941 Cal 28 (29)  AIR 1941 Pat 174 (175) (DB)  AIR 1955 Punj 104 (Pr. 8) (DB)  AIR 1939 Pat 571 (572) = 18 Pat 323 (DB)  AIR 1933 Mad 439 (440) = 56 Mad 716  AIR 1959 Mad 155 (156) = (1959) 1 Mad LJ 151.

(3) Suit and a decree before Madras Court Fees Act, 1955 came into force — Claim petition under Order 21, Rule 58 decided in 1961 — A claim suit under Order 21, Rule 63 — Claim suit is not

continuation of the original suit — Court-fee in the suit under Order 21, Rule 63 is to be paid under Section 41 (2) of the Madras Court Fees Act 14 of 1955 and not under the Court Fees Act (1870), Article 17 (1). (1965) 78 Mad LW 497 (497, 498) = (1965) 2 Mad LJ 449.

(4) A suit under Order 21, Rule 63 would only come under this clause though it seeks, under Section 53 of the Transfer of Property Act, to avoid a deed of transfer executed by the judgment-debtor. AIR 1934 Rang 332 (333) = 12 Rang 670  AIR 1947 Mad 275 (276).

[But see (1894) 16 All 308 (310) (FB).]

(5) Suit by unsuccessful decree-holder under Order 21, Rule 63, Civil P. C., with a prayer that declaration be made that he will be entitled to execute the decree. The prayer does not alter its character to bring it within this clause. AIR 1925 Pat 44 (46, 47) = 3 Pat 795  (1894) 16 All 308 (310) (FB). (2 All 720, Dissented from.)

(6) Suit by defeated claimant — The clause applies though sale has taken place in execution of the decree. AIR 1923 Pat 152 (152).

(7) Suit by defeated claimant — Delivery of possession made in pursuance of the decree does not take it out of this clause. AIR 1941 Pat 174 (175) (DB).

(8) Even if the objector plaintiff also asks for possession, the suit is governed by this clause. (1886) 10 Bom 610 (613) (FB).

(9) The mere fact that the judgment-debtor is made a party to the suit cannot alter the nature of the suit. AIR 1933 All 249 (250) = 55 All 315 (FB). (17 All 69, Not Approved.)

[But see AIR 1915 Mad 591 (591). (17 All 69, Followed.)  (1894) 16 All 308 (310) (FB). (There are two declarations in such a case.)]

(10) Objector suing under Order 21, Rule 63, Civil P. C., making judgment-debtor party alleging that he is only the ostensible owner and seeking possession as the real owner. The suit will not fall under this clause. AIR 1918 Pat 605 (606). (Held, Section 7 (iv) (c) applied.)

(11) A suit under Order 21, Rule 103 is a suit to set aside a summary decision and falls under this clause even though plaintiff prays for possession. AIR 1938 Nag 300 (302) = ILR (1939) Nag 422  AIR 1945 All 111 (112, 113) = ILR (1945) All 68.

[But see (1900) 22 All 384 (386) (DB). (Section 7 (iv) (c) applied.)]

(12) Where a suit under Order 21, Rule 103 relates to two separate adverse orders against the plaintiff he is liable to pay a separate amount of Rs. 10 in respect of each order impeached. AIR 1935 Sind 129 (131).

(13) Suit under Civil P. C., Order 21, Rule 103, for avoiding summary order of executing Court under Order 21, Rule 98 — Suit in substance not one for avoiding decree passed in favour of decree-holders but only to secure reversal of order passed by executing Court — Case is governed by Schedule 2, Article 17 (i) and not Section 7 (iv-A) — Moreover special provisions in Schedule 2, Article 17 (i) override Section 7 (iv-A). AIR 1945 All 111 (112, 113) = ILR (1945) All 68.

(14) Summary decision by a Revenue Court — The fact that the party was given an opportunity to object or that he has a right of appeal to a superior Revenue Court will not take away its summary character. AIR 1940 Cal 215 (217) (DB).

(15) A suit filed under Section 169 (3) of the C. P. Land Revenue Act to set aside an order passed by the Revenue Court is governed by this article and not by Section 7 (iv) (c) even though the plaintiff has to establish his title in order to secure the relief claimed by him. AIR 1951 Nag 289 (Prs. 6, 8) = ILR (1951) Nag 76.

(16) A plaint or a memorandum of appeal in a suit for declaration that the certificate issued against the plaintiff under the Rajasthan Public Demands Recovery Act should be declared void and ineffective is chargeable with a fixed Court-fee under Schedule II Article 17 (i) and not with ad valorem Court-fee under Schedule I, Article 1. The issue of a certificate amounts to a summary decision of a Revenue Court within the meaning of Schedule II, Article 17 (i). AIR 1960 Raj 171 (172, 173) = 1960 Raj LW 236 (DB). (AIR 1957 Raj 277, Overruled.)

(17) A suit under Section 25 of the Boundary marks Act, 28 of 1860 is a suit to set aside a summary decision of a Revenue Court within the meaning of Article 17 (i) of Schedule II. (1882) 4 Mad 204 (208) (DB).

(18) A suit under Section 25-A of the Sonthal Parganas Settlement Regulation, 3 of 1872 is governed by Clauses (i) and (ii) of this Article 6. AIR 1936 Pat 171 (172) = 15 Pat 386.

(19) Suit for declaration that plaintiff is nearest reversionary heir filed before summary decision under Section 194, Succession Act — Plaint amended after summary decision without adding a prayer to set aside that decision. Suit held not one under Schedule II, Article 17 (i). AIR 1946 Pat 408 (410, 411) (DB).

(20) The clause applies to appeals in the suits mentioned therein. (1880) 4 Bom 515 (523) (FB).

(21) The clause will apply whether appeal is by a plaintiff whose suit is dismissed or by defendant against whom the suit is decreed. But if the nature of the dispute in the appeal is different, this clause will not apply. AIR 1939 Pat 571 (572) = 18 Pat 323 (DB).

(22) Where the plaintiff's property is attached at the instance of a creditor of its ostensible owner and the plaintiff asks only for the release of his property from attachment, the Court-fee payable would be Rs. 10 under Schedule II, Article 17 (i) of the Court-fees Act.

If the ostensible owner is also joined as a party to the suit and a prayer is made against him for recovery of possession, the Court-fee payable would be calculated upon the value of the property in accordance with Section 7 (iv) (c) of the Act.

If in such a suit the plaintiff is defeated and he prefers an appeal he must pay Court-fees on the value of the property plus Rs. 10 for declaration.

If the plaintiff succeeds in the suit and an appeal is preferred by the defendants, the Court-fee to be paid must be regulated by consideration of the relief sought in appeal.

If the attaching creditor appeals the Court-fee payable would be Rs. 10 only.

If the ostensible owner appeals, the Court-fee payable would be the Court-fee calculated upon the value of the property. AIR 1913 Pat 605 (606) (DB).

(23) The suit contemplated by Sec. 88 (6-D), Criminal P. C., is a suit to obtain a declaratory decree where no consequential relief is asked for within the meaning of Article 17-A (Mad.) of Schedule II, Article 17 (i) would not apply because the attachment is ordered not by a Civil Court, nor by a revenue Court but by a Criminal Court. AIR 1954 Mad 290 (Pr. 4).

(24) Suit for cancellation of a certificate under Section 22 of Madhya Bharat Public Demands Recovery Act is a suit contemplated by Article 17 (i) of Schedule 2 to the Court Fees Act, and payment of fixed Court-fee under Article 17 (i), Schedule 2 is sufficient. 1968 Jab LJ 995 (1001) = 1968 MPLJ 680 (DB).

Schedule II, Article 17 (ii) — Note 1

(1) A suit against the government for settlement of fair rent by altering or setting aside the rents already settled is one for a declaratory decree with the consequential relief of amendment of the Record of Rights. (1910) 11 Cal L Jour 158 (158) (DB).

(2) A suit for declaration of title to certain land and that the Record of Rights is null and void is a suit for declaration with consequential relief. (1929) 118 Ind Cas 357 (358) (DB) (Cal).

(3) Suit for declaration of title to certain land with prayer for cancellation of mutation is one for declaration as the latter relief is redundant. AIR 1936 Pesh 140 (141) (DB)  ('36-43) Tax Dec (Nag) 64 (66, 67).

(4) Suit for partition of watan property on allegation that plaintiff has been validly adopted into the family — Plaintiff not in actual possession of suit properties — Plaintiff should be considered as a coparcener and to be in possession constructively through defendants — He merely seeks to disrupt the joint possession and convert the same into separate possession — Relief comes within scope of Article 17 (ii). AIR 1962 Mys 53 (56) = 1962 (1) Cri LJ 441 = 39 Mys LJ 830 (DB).

Schedule II, Article 17 (iii) — Note 1

(1) It depends upon the construction of the relief claimed by the plaintiff to see whether the plaintiff has claimed a declaration simpliciter or also some consequential relief in addition to it. The plaint has to be seen in order only to construe the prayer and not in order to spell out of the prayer something which is not contained in it. AIR 1967 Punj 263 (266, 267) = (1967) 69 Pun LR (D) 52 (FB). (On facts Court-fee paid under Article 17 (iii) was held sufficient.)

(2) Where a transaction is void ab initio, fixed Court-fee under Schedule 2, Article 17 is payable for a suit for a declaration to that effect. But where a transaction is not void ab initio and is alleged to be vitiated on grounds like fraud or misrepresentation, a suit for declaring the transaction void is not covered by Schedule 2, Article 17. In such a suit, the Court is called upon to make a proper declaration as distinguished from recording a mere finding that the transaction is void and in such suit Court-fee must be paid on ad valorem basis.

Though one of the grounds of challenge of the sale deed may fall under Schedule 2, Article 17, the second ground falls under Section 7 (iv) (c) and hence ad valorem fee alone is payable. AIR 1968 Pat 187 (187).

(3) Suit for declaration of title to property and to set aside order of attachment and sale of property before filing a claim petition under Order 21, Rule 58 — Prayer for possession added subsequently —Such a suit cannot be called a suit under Order 21, Rule 63 and proper Court-fee payable is under Sec. 7 (iv) (c) and not a fixed fee under Article 17 (iii), Schedule 2 of the Act. AIR 1968 Manipur 1 (3).

(4) Suit for declaration of title to property and permanent injunction restraining the defendant from attaching it is a suit for declaration and consequential relief — Such a suit is not a suit for setting aside a summary decision under Article 17 (i) but is governed by Section 7 (iv) (c). AIR 1965 Madh Pra 4 (5) = 1964 MPLJ 362.

(5) Suit for declaration and injunction — Injunction not dependent on declaration — Relief for injunction could be valued for purposes of court-fee under Section 7 (iv-B) (b) and not under Section 7 (iv) (a) and the relief for declaration could be valued under Article 17 (iii) of Schedule 2. AIR 1963 All 86 (89) = 1961 All LJ 763 (DB).

(6) Suit for mere declaration that an attachment is illegal is not equivalent for purposes of Court-fee to a suit for setting it aside — Plaintiff cannot be asked to pay ad valorem Court-fee on the ground that the result may involve the setting aside of the impugned attachment. AIR 1960 All 688 (691) = 1960 All LJ 687.

(7) Suit to declare rights of plaintiff to certain properties — Plaintiff also seeking declaration that a decree passed in a prior suit declaring defendant as owner as invalid and ineffective on the ground of fraud — The present plaintiff could have appealed against the decree in the prior suit by paying Court-fee under Article 17 (iii) — The present suit is also maintainable on a declaratory court-fee. AIR 1965 All 10 (13) = 1964 All LJ 498.

(8) Suit for declaration of sale deed unauthorised, void, illegal and ineffective against plaintiff is for adjudicating the sale deed void or voidable and squarely falls under Section 7 (iv-A) (U. P. and Article 17 (iii) does not come into play. AIR 1968 All 216 (220) = 1967 All LJ 612 (FB). (AIR 1956 All 168, Overruled.)

(9) Suit by stranger styled as one for cancellation of sale-deed — Relief claimed to the effect that sale deed was void and inoperative against plaintiff — Suit must be treated for Court-fee, as for simple declaration under Schedule II, Article 17 (iii). AIR 1965 J and K 33 (35) = 1964 Kash LJ 397.

(10) Suit for declaration that the plaintiff is a mutawalli of the wakf Estate — No averment in the plaint that the office carries any salary or any other emoluments — Suit is incapable of valuation — Suit is for a mere declaratory decree without any consequential relief and is governed by Schedule 2, Article 17 (iii). ILR (1962) 1 Cal 75 (80) (DB).

(11) Suit for declaration — Demarcating line between suit under Section 7 (iv) (c) and one under Schedule II, Article 17 (iii) — Suit for declaration that decree passed in previous partition is not binding — It was not possible to say that the necessary consequence of the grant of declaration prayed for would be to set aside the decree — Held, that Court-fee paid under Article 17 (iii) was proper. AIR 1961 Pat 470 (472) = ILR 39 Pat 571.

(12) Suit for declaration that previous decree for partition was null and void and be set aside and for reopening of partition — Allegations in plaint showing that plaintiffs were parties to previous decree — Reliefs for setting aside decree and for fresh partition are consequential to main declaratory relief that decree was null and void — Section 7 (iv) (c) applies — Schedule II, Article 17 (iii) and (vi) not applicable. AIR 1965 Punj 1 (10, 11, 12) = ILR (1964) 2 Punj 886 (FB).

(13) Revenue sale of touzi — Possession delivered to auction-purchaser — Estate taken over by State under Orissa Estates Abolition Act (1 of 1952) — Suit for setting aside sale — Court-fee paid as in declaratory suit — Consequential relief not necessary — Court-fee held sufficient. ILR (1961) Cut 478 (483) (DB).

(14) Suit for declaration that a Zarpeshgi deed executed by him in favour of defendant was without consideration and did not confer any title upon the defendant — Document void ab initio and no prayer for its cancellation necessary — Court-fee on the declaratory relief only is payable. 1958 BLJR 190 (191).

(15) The other members of the joint Hindu Family can ask for a decree of declaration to the effect that the alienation made by the Manager representing himself as the sole owner of the property is null and void as against them, without asking for any consequential relief, such as setting aside the decree passed against the Manager in connection with such alienation. Court-fee on suit for such declaratory decree is to be paid under Art. 17(iii) of Schedule II and not under Section 7 (iv) (c) of the Court-fees Act. (1967) 69 Punj LR 445 (453) (DB). (AIR 1932 Lah 132. AIR 1936 Lah 166. AIR 1941 Lah 97, Diss.)

(16) Suit for declaration simpliciter — The fact that the claim would be incompetent for failure of plaintiff to seek further consequential relief which he was able to claim does not affect the question of Court-fee and he will be liable to pay Court-fee under Article 17 (iii) of Schedule 2 provided the relief asked is not a garb for real substantial or consequential relief intended to be claimed. AIR 1967 Madh Pra 221 (224, 230) = 1967 MPLJ 242 (DB).

(17) A suit by a minor member of Joint Hindu Family governed by Benaras School — Prayer that the sale of family property by his elder brother as karta was not binding on the family not being for legal necessity or benefit of the family — Alternative prayer that the sale is ineffective and void against plaintiff's share — Suit is for mere declaration and Court-fee payable is under Article 17 (iii) of Schedule 2 and not under Sec. 7 (iv) (c). AIR 1967 Madh

Pra 221 (224, 227) = 1967 MPLJ 242 (DB).

(18) Memorandum of appeal against an order of apportionment of compensation under any law relating to acquisition of land for public purpose is governed by Section 8 read with Article 1, Schedule 1 and Article 17 (iii) of Schedule 2 does not apply. AIR 1961 Him Pra 30 (32).

Schedule II, Article 17 (iv) — Note 1

(1) Fixed fee of Rs. 10 for a suit to set aside an award irrespective of the value of the subject-matter involved. (1908) 35 Cal 202 (207) = 35 Ind App 22 (PC). (Awards may be of value of Rs. 10 or of value of Rs. 1,00,000.)

(2) The word "award" in this clause, applies to awards in arbitration proceedings. AIR 1924 Mad 84 (84)  (1908) 35 Cal 202 (207) = 35 Ind App 22 (PC).

(3) Any judicial decision which is not a decree might be considered an award for the purpose of this clause. AIR 1941 Nag 243 (244) = ILR (1942) Nag 636. (Award by Registrar of Co-operative Societies is an award within this clause.)

(4) Suit for declaration that an award is ultra vires must be treated as one to set it aside under this clause. AIR 1924 Sind 105 (110) = 17 Sind LR 15  AIR 1941 Nag 243 (245) = ILR (1942) Nag 636.

(5) Where an award is enforceable as a decree this clause does not apply. 1957 MPLJ 46 (48) (Nag).

(6) One of the reliefs sought by the plaintiff was a declaration that the order of the Deputy Registrar directing the plaintiff to pay Rs. 1,271-8-0 to an Association with Rs. 50 as costs was null and void and was not binding on the plaintiff. It was held that the suit could not be described as a suit to set aside any award of the Registrar as there was no award by him. A suit of this kind was governed by Clause (4) (c) of Section 7. 1957 MPLJ 46 (48) (Nag). (AIR 1941 Nag 243, Not foll.)

(7) In an appeal from an award preferred to High Court under Section 54 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, where the claimant merely raised the question of title, it was held that Schedule 2, Article 17 (iii) or (iv) did not apply as the proceeding in which the award was given could not be described as a suit and that the provisions of Section 26 (a) of that Act did not make the proceeding a suit. AIR 1951 Pat 608 (Pr. 3).

Schedule II, Article 17 (v) — Note 1

(1) There can only be a suit for a declaration that an alleged adoption is invalid or never in fact took place, and not to set aside the adoption. (1886) 13 Cal 308 (319, 320) = 13 Ind App 84 (PC).

(2) A suit by adopted son for declaration that he is such and possession is not a suit for possession in which the question of title rises incidentally but is a declaratory suit for title first and for the consequential relief of possession. AIR 1923 Pat 100 (101) = 5 Pat L Jour 339 (DB).

(3) A suit for cancellation of a deed of adoption should be stamped, whether under Sch. II. Art. 17, Cl. (v) or under Section 7 (iv) (c), at Rs. 10 only. AIR 1937 Rang 400 (400).

(4) Defendant left in possession of immovable property left by his adoptive father under a solenama between him and plaintiff — Plaintiff seeking to set aside the solenama cannot frame the suit as for setting aside the adoption under this clause. (1874) 22 Suth WR 338 (340) (DB).

(5) Rule framed in Central Provinces under Section 9, Suits Valuation Act, that a declaratory suit in respect of adoption should be valued at Rupees four hundred and in cases where title to property is affected at the then value of such property for the purposes of that Act as well as this Act, though is inconsistent with this clause, has the force of law. AIR 1930 Nag 73 (85, 86) (DB)  AIR 1949 Nag 263 (264) = ILR (1948) Nag 932  AIR 1930 Nag 20 (20) (DB)  AIR 1920 Nag 233 (234). (Suit for declaration that defendant was never adopted falls under this rule — Court fee on the value of property to be paid.

(6) Under Article 17-A, Cl. (iii), Sch. I. of the Madras Amendment a fixed fee of fifteen rupees is payable when the plaint is presented to or the memorandum of appeal is against the decree of a District Munsif's Court or the City Civil Court. When the plaint is presented to or the memorandum of appeal is against the decree of a District Court or a Sub-Court, a fixed fee of one hundred rupees is payable if the value for purposes of jurisdiction is less than ten thousand rupees but a fixed fee of five hundred rupees is payable if it is ten thousand rupees or upwards. AIR 1935 Mad 279 (279) (DB).

(7) In valuing for purposes of jurisdiction, a suit for a declaration that an adoption is invalid, computation has to be made of the value of the interest that would be lost to the alleged adopted son if the adoption be declared invalid. AIR 1928 Mad 1294 (1295) = 52 Mad 340  (1883) 6 Mad 192 (196) (DB). (Valuation to be made of interest that will be acquired in a suit to declare adoption valid.)

(8) The calculation is to be made on the market-value of the property which is affected by the declaration being granted or refused. AIR 1935 Mad 279 (279) (DB)  AIR 1928 Mad 1294 (1296) = 52 Mad 340.

(9) Suit for declaration that plaintiff's husband was adopted to one R — The subject-matter of the suit was the fact and validity of adoption — Held, that suit was for a declaration without consequential relief. AIR 1927 Mad 563 (563, 565) = 50 Mad 646 (DB)  AIR 1925 Mad 1223 (1224) (DB). (Suit for setting aside adoption and alienation.)

(10) A suit for a declaration that a deed of adoption executed by a widow should not, after her death or re-marriage, affect the reversionary rights of the plaintiff is not a suit for "annulling an adoption" within the meaning of the rule framed by the Lahore High Court but one for a declaration that the adoption should not affect plaintiff's reversionary rights. AIR 1925 Lah 229 (230) = 5 Lah 440 (DB).

(11) The fee prescribed under Art. 17, Cl. (5) of Sch. 2 of Court-fees Act (as amended) in Bombay is not an ad valorem fee, and hence Section 8, Suits Valuation Act will not apply. AIR 1945 Bom 474 (475) (DB). (Dissenting from AIR 1944 Bom 316 (318).) Case prior to Bombay Act 36 of 1959.

SCHEDULE II, ARTICLE 17 (vi) — SYNOPSIS

1. Scope.
2. Suit relating to public or private trusts.
3. Suit for removal of karnavan.
4. Suit for restitution of conjugal rights.
5. Appointment of receiver.
6. Suit under Section 77, Registration Act.
7. Suit for partition.
8. Proceedings under Hindu Marriage Act (1955).
9. Suits or appeals not capable of money valuation.

1. Scope. (1) For the applicability of this clause the suit must be incapable of valuation in terms of money and must not be otherwise provided for by this Act. These conditions must co-exist. AIR 1943 Pat 433 (438)  AIR 1957 Cal 651 (653) (DB)  AIR 1935 Cal 338 (342, 343) (DB)  (1928) 29 Pun LR 322 (327)  (1912) 39 Cal 906 (911, 913) (DB).

(2) Where the subject-matter in dispute is capable of being estimated at a money value and has been provided in Section 7 (vi-A) (U. P.) and Section 7 (iv-A) (2) (U. P.), Art. 17 has no application. Since under Art. 17, the same court-fee is payable on a memorandum of appeal as on the plaint, it is impossible to apply the article to a memorandum of appeal if it was not applicable to the plaint as where the subject-matter of the suit could be estimated at a money value or if it was provided for in the Act. 1958 All WR (HC) 356 (357).

(3) Where a relief which would by itself have come under this clause is coupled with a declaration and is sued for as a consequential relief based on a declaratory decree, this clause will not apply to the suit but the suit will come under Section 7 (iv) (c). AIR 1949 Nag 347 (Pr. 8) = ILR (1949) Nag 195.

(4) Where an approximate valuation is possible this clause will not apply. AIR 1942 Mad 152 (153). (Decree granting certain sum but refusing first charge — Appeal against prayer in respect of first charge — Relief held capable of valuation — But see AIR 1958 Cal 453 which held such relief as incapable of valuation.)  AIR 1958 Cal 675 (677) (DB). (Dispute in appeal with regard to status of appellant, namely whether he was displaced person under Displaced Persons (Debts Adjustment) Act — Subject-matter in appeal is incapable of money value — Case held fell under Art. 17 (vi)  AIR 1954 All 188 (190). (Relief, in substance, combination of two reliefs i. e., relief for possession of land and relief for demolition — Former relief held was governed by Section 7 (v) (1) (c) and the latter by Art. 17 (vi) of Sch. 2.)  AIR 1953 Mad 576 (Pr. 20). (An administration suit for division of the assets of a deceased person amongst his heirs should be valued under Art. 17-B. Sch. 2 of Court-fees Act.)  AIR 1951 Orissa 183 (1) (Pr. 1) = ILR (1950) Cut 351. (The mere fact that the land is declared inalienable by the provision in any enactment does not render it incapable of valuation.)  1949 Trav-Co LR 95 (100. 101) (DB). (Decree for redemption with condition superadded — Appeal seeking to avoid condition — Court-fee payable is one under Art. 17 (vi).  AIR 1941 Mad 313 (314)  AIR 1935 Cal 338 (342. 343) (DB). (4) A suit was brought for recovery of Rs. 6709 advanced on pledge of articles. The amount was decreed to be recovered by sale of articles but no personal decree was passed. Appeal by plaintiff was valued by him at Rs. 2250 and a personal decree was granted. There was a second appeal by the defendant on which he paid Rs. 10 under Sch. 2, Art. 17 (vi) on the ground that subject-matter of appeal was incapable of valuation — Held, that the value of appeal would be approximate amount which may remain unrealised after sale of articles. Unless defendant could show that articles were likely to fetch higher value, value placed by plaintiff should be considered proper in second appeal and defendant would be liable to pay 'ad valorem' court-fee thereon. 1955 Raj LW 35 (35).

(5) Suit by plaintiffs for reliefs (a) that it be declared that plaintiff No. 2 was agent of plaintiff No. 1 and (b) that property be taken from management of defendant and handed over to plaintiff No. 2 on behalf of plaintiff No. 1 — Relief (a) held should be valued under Sch. (Suit by reversionary heir for appointment of receiver of properties in possession of widow. AIR 1922 Pat 61, Overruled.)

(2) Where the appointment of the Receiver is asked for along with a declaration and as consequential on the declaration, the suit will come under Section 7 (iv) (c) and will be chargeable with an ad valorem court-fee according to the amount at which the plaintiff values the relief in his plaint. AIR 1917 Mad 134 (134).

(3) The plaintiff claiming to be the owner of suit holdings in the possession of defendants, claimed that the defendants were lessees under him and that they had executed lease deeds in his favour agreeing to pay fixed rates of rent. His only allegation was that the defendants had conspired together to claim the entire ownership in the lands and the crops in themselves and to cheat him of his lands and rents. He prayed for the appointment of a receiver for harvesting the crops, so that the rents stipulated for in the lease deeds might be safeguarded. He did not pray for the recovery of rents because they had not yet fallen due — Held, that the plaintiff ought, in the circumstances of this case, to pray for a declaration that he was the owner of the suit lands in question and that he had leased them out to the defendants, as his tenants, stipulating for the rents mentioned in the lease deeds, and then to pray for the appointment of a receiver to harvest the crops, as a consequential relief, since the defendants had conspired together to remove and appropriate the entire crops for themselves. In this view, he must pay court-fee under Section 7 (iv) (c) and not under Art. 17-B of Sch. II (Mad). AIR 1956 Mad 7 (Pr. 4) = ILR (1956) Mad 1378.

8. Proceeding under Hindu Marriage Act (1955). — (1) Hindu Marriage Act (1955), Section 28 — Proceeding under latter Act is suit, though initiated by application — Appeals against decree thereunder — Court-fee is payable under Sch. II, Art. 17 (vi) — Sch. II, Arts. 1 (f) and 11 are not applicable 1967 Jab LJ 712 (720). (AIR 1962 Pat 489, Diss. from.)

(2) Application under Section 13 (1) of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 is not otherwise provided for by the Court-fees Act and therefore requires to be stamped as a mere petition under Art. 1 (b), Sch. 2 and not under Art. 17 (vi) of Sch. 2. AIR 1959 Pat 186 (187) = ILR 37 Pat 83 (DB).

(3) Application for divorce and damage under Sec. 13 of Hindu Marriage Act — Dismissal — Appeal from the order of dismissal cannot be treated as an appeal from original decree — The appeal is one contemplated by Art. 11, Sch. 2 and not by Art. 17 (vi) so far as relief of divorce is concerned — The claim for damages is not a claim flowing from the main relief — It must be treated as a money claim and for that relief ad valorem court-fee would be necessary. AIR 1962 Pat 489 (491) = ILR 41 Pat 757 (DB).

9. Suits or appeals not capable of money valuation. — (1) Final decree in suit for accounts providing that if certain additional court-fee is not paid within certain time decree is to become null and void—Appeal by plaintiff claiming that condition attached to decree was void — Sch. II. Art. 17 (vi) applies and a fixed fee of Rs. 10 on memo of appeal is sufficient because relief claimed is not capable of money valuation and there is no other provision in Court-fees Act for such relief. ILR (1960) 10 Raj 60 (66).

(2) Suit for separate possession of share in joint property as contra-distinguished from joint family property — Plaintiff neither in actual or constructive possession — Section 7 (iv) (b) and Art. 17 (vi) do not apply — Court-fee payable is ad valorem under Section 7 (v). 1962 Raj LW 357 (359).

(3) Appeal against preliminary decree in suit for redemption — No dispute about right of redemption or principal amount — Appeal claiming change in directions to Commissioner — Relief incapable of valuation — Court-fee is payable under Sch. 2, Art. 17 (vi) and not under Section 7 (ix). AIR 1960 Madh Pra 292 (293) = 1960 MPLJ 886 (DB).

(4) Where all that the appellant decree-holder wants in the appeal from a money decree directing payment in instalments with a default clause and providing for interest, is to recover the whole decretal amount at once avoiding the instalments, the relief is not capable of being valued in money and the memorandum of appeal must be treated as under Art. 17 (vi). Sch. 2. AIR 1961 Raj 184 (185, 186) = 1960 Raj LW 539 (DB).

(5) Suit for injunction restraining defendant from taking steps to recover certain amount from plaintiff and interfering with plaintiff's possession of certain property — Held, suit fell under Art. 17 (vi), Sch. 2 read with Section 7 (iv) (d). AIR 1959 Madh Pra 253 (255) = 1959 MPLJ 388.

Schedule II, Article 17 (vi) — Note 9 (contd.)

(6) (as amended in Madras) — Art. 17-B has to be read as not to come in conflict with Art. 1 of Sch. 1. ILR (1967) 1 Ker 310 (312).

(7) (as amended in Madras) — "Where it is not possible to estimate at a money value the subject-matter in dispute" — Expression must be read as qualifying the words "plaint or memorandum of appeal" and not the word "suit" — Words "in every suit" have been interposed to make the article applicable only to memoranda of appeal in suits and not in other proceedings. ILR (1967) 1 Ker 310 (314).

(8) (as amended in Madras) — Fact that subject-matter in dispute in plaint was not capable of being valued in money is entirely irrelevant while fixing Court-fee on memorandum of appeal. ILR (1967) 1 Ker 310 (312). (AIR 1950 Mad 353 and (1953) 1 MLJ 135, Dissent from.)

Schedule II, Art. 17 (vii) — Note 1

(1) (as amended in U. P.) — Memorandum of appeal under Section 299, Succession Act against an order on a petition under Section 278 of that Act — Proceedings are not instituted by plaint nor can the appeal be said to arise out of any such suit — Art. 17 (vii) Sch. 2 does not apply—Court-fee is payable under Art. 1 (e) (5), Sch. 2 — Court-fee payable — Art. 1 (e) (5) applies. AIR 1963 All 153 (158, 159) = 1962 All LJ 1135 (FB). (ILR 35 All 448 Overruled.)

(2) (as amended in U. P.) Ad valorem fees under Sch. 1 — Suit for declaration and consequential relief — Appeal — Court-fees — Ad valorem fees payable only if value of the relief could be ascertained — Otherwise Court-fee is payable under Art. 17 (vii) of Sch. II to the Act. AIR 1968 All 94 (95).

Schedule II. Article 17-A (Orissa) — Note 1

(1) Column 3 of Art. 17-A (Orissa Amendment) cannot be read disjunctively from column 1. Art. 17-A does not contemplate that the jurisdictional value in column 3 will be something different from what is indicated in column 1. Therefore in a partition suit governed by Art. 17-A the memorandum of appeal is chargeable with the same Court-fee as that on the plaint, the jurisdictional value being the same. AIR 1969 Orissa 167 (168, 169) = 35 Cut LT 327.

(2) Proceedings under Section 295 of the Indian Succession Act even though become contentious cannot be treated as a suit for court-fee purposes and court-fee payable, on a memorandum of appeal from an order refusing to grant probate, is under Art. 11, Sch. 2 and not under Art. 17-A, Sch. 2. AIR 1967 Orissa 41 = 33 Cut LT 13 (DB)  AIR 1969 Orissa 265 (265, 266) = 35 Cut LT 461.

(3) For the purpose of determining the appropriate provision of the Court-fees Act applicable to a suit, the frame of the suit is the criterion. Where the frame of the suit is for partition and separate allotment of properties alleged to be in joint possession, even though possession may be constructive. The application of Art. 17-A is attracted. AIR 1969 Orissa 265 (266) = 35 Cut LT 461.

(4) (Orissa) — Suit for partition of joint family property — Allegation of certain alienations being fraudulent — Plaintiff not a party to various alienations — Plaintiff was not bound to pray for setting aside the alienations — Deeds of alienations not acted upon — Proper court-fee is that for a pure suit for partition — Section 7 (iv) (c) does not apply. AIR 1962 Orissa 47 (48, 49) = ILR (1960) Cut 704.

(5) Partition suit — Alienations made by defendant set out as forming cause of action — Suit held for partition and not for declaration of title with consequential relief -- Fixed court-fee under Art. 17-A payable — Section 7 (iv) (c) does not apply. AIR 1963 Orissa 120 (121) = ILR (1963) Cut 206.

(6) Suit for declaration of title and possession after removal of structure by defendant put up on encroached land — Commission appointed by trial Court finding that land of plaintiff was encroached — Defendant cannot for the first time in second appeal raise point that plaintiff has not paid separate court-fee under Sch. 2, Art. 17-A for removal of structure. AIR 1965 Orissa 130 (131) = ILR (1964) Cut 886.

(7) (As amended by Orissa Act (5 of 1939) — Order refusing to grant probate of will — Appeal against such order is governed by Art. 11 and not by Art. 17-A, Sch. 2 which applies only to suits instituted on plaints or appeals arising out of such suits. AIR 1967 Orissa 41 (43, 44) = 33 Cut LT 13.

sharer. If he is, Sch. II, Art. 17 (va) will apply. If he is not Section 7 (vi-A) will apply. AIR 1958 Cal 537 (538) (DB).

(2) The expression "to enforce a right to a share in any property" in cl. (va) means to enforce a right to a share in a property which stands in the names of others, including strangers. All that is necessary to attract the operation of this clause is that the plaintiff should seek to enforce a right to a share in that property on the ground that it is joint family property and that he is in possession. AIR 1958 Cal 537 (538) (DB).

(3) In order to bring a case under the second alternative of Clause (va) of Art. 17, three elements are necessary: (1) the suit must be to enforce a share in any property, (2) that property must be joint family property, (3) the plaintiff must be in possession of the property of which he claims to be a co-sharer. If these three conditions are satisfied it does not matter whether the partition suit involves a decision on the title of a stranger. AIR 1957 Cal 651 (653) (DB).

(4) Partition suit — Stranger impleaded as one of defendants — Suit involving construction of document in which stranger defendant, is interested — Determination not involving cancellation or setting aside of such document — Suit does not go out of purview of the clause. — Ad valorem Court-fee not necessary. [THE] ANDHRA COURT-FEES AND SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1956

[22nd March, 1956.]

An Act to amend and consolidate the law relating to court-fees and valuation of suits in the State of Andhra Pradesh.

Whereas it is necessary and expedient to amend and consolidate the law relating to court-fees and valuation of suits in the State of Andhra Pradesh.

Be it enacted in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Andhra Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act, 1956.

°[(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Andhra Pradesh.]

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the State Government may, by notification† in the Andhra Gazette, appoint.

[°] See Andh. Pra. Act IV of 1958, S. 2.

[†] This Act came into force on 1-5-1956—Notifn. G.O. Ms. No. 1070, Home (Courts V), 28-4-1956—Andhra Gaz., Pt. II, Extra, dated 29-4-1956.

2. Application of Act.—(1) The provisions of this Act shall not apply to documents presented or to be presented before an officer serving under the Central Government.

(2) The provisions of this Act relating to the levy of fee shall be subject to the provisions of any other law relating to the levy of fee in respect of proceedings under such law.

3. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(i) "appeal" includes a cross-objection;

(ii) "Court" means any Civil, Revenue or Criminal Court and includes a Tribunal or other authority having jurisdiction under any special or local law to decide questions affecting the rights of parties;

(iii) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act; and

(iv) expressions used and not defined in this Act or in the Madras General Clauses Act, 1891 (Madras Act I of 1891), but defined in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the said Code.

CHAPTER II

LIABILITY TO PAY FEE

4. Levy of fee in Courts and public offices.—No document which is chargeable with fee under this Act shall—

(i) be filed, exhibited or recorded in, or be acted on or furnished by, any Court including the High Court, or

(ii) be filed, exhibited or recorded in any public office, or be acted on or furnished by any public officer, except on payment of the fee chargeable in respect of such document under this Act:

Section 2 — Note 1

(1) Under sub-section (2), the law relating to the levy of fee should be in respect of proceedings under such law i.e., the same law under which the fee is levied. Sub-section (2) does not save rule made by High Court for payment of Court-fee on writ applications. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 123 (127) = 1957 Andh LT 403 (DB).

Section 4 — Note 1

(1) Where the revision petitioner has to file a certified copy of judgment it will have to be duly stamped unless the

Provided that a document in respect of which the proper fee has not been paid may be filed or exhibited in a Criminal Court if the Court deems it necessary in the interests of justice to do so.

5. Collection of proper fee on documents.—When a document on which the whole or any part of the fee payable under this Act has not been paid is produced or received in any Court or public office, the Court or the head of the office may, at any time direct the person by whom such fee is payable to pay the fee or part thereof, as the case may be, within such time as may be fixed; and upon such payment, the document shall be dealt with as if the full fee had been paid in the first instance.

6. Multifarious suits.—(1) In any suit in which separate and distinct reliefs based on the same cause of action are sought, the plaint shall be chargeable with a fee on the aggregate value of the reliefs:

Provided that if a relief sought is only ancillary to the main relief, the plaint shall be chargeable only on the value of the main relief.

(2) Where more reliefs than one based on the same cause of action are sought in the alternative in any suit, the plaint shall be chargeable with the highest of the fees leviable on the reliefs.

(3) (a) Where a suit is based on two or more distinct and different causes of action and separate reliefs are sought in respect thereof, either alternatively or cumulatively, the plaint shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees that would be chargeable on the plaints under this Act if separate suits were instituted in respect of the several causes of action:

Provided that, where the causes of action in respect of reliefs claimed alternatively against the same person arise out of the same transaction, the plaint shall be chargeable only with the highest of the fees chargeable on them.

(b) Nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to affect any power conferred upon a Court by Rule 6 of Order II in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908).

(4) The provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis to memoranda of appeals, applications, petitions and written statements.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, a suit for possession of immovable property and for mesne profits therefrom shall be deemed to be based on the same cause of action.

7. Determination of market value.—Save as otherwise provided, where the fee payable under this Act depends on the market value of any property, such value shall be determined as on the date of presentation of the plaint.

8. Set-off or counter-claim.—A written statement pleading a set-off or counter-claim shall be chargeable with fee in the same manner as a plaint.

Section 4 — Note 1 (contd.)

Court chooses to apply proviso to Sec. 4 to such a copy. AIR 1966 Andh Pra 137 (139) = 1966 Cri LJ 512 = (1966) 1 Andh WR 196.

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) Where 'A' a surety for the judgment debtors paid the sum to the decree-holder and sued the judgment-debtors for the sum and prayed for sale of properties mortaged under five different mortgages executed to secure that sum as collateral securities, it was held that the cause of action was the claim for money secured and the different mortgages did not constitute different causes of action and the plaintiff was therefore not bound to pay separate court-fee on each of the mortgages as constituting different causes of action. (1963) 1 Andh WR 195 (201).

(2) Suit to recover money due under several policies — Cause of action for each policy is separate and distinct — Court-fee is payable under Section 6 (3) on amount due under each policy valued separately and not on the aggregate amount. AIR 1963 Andh Pra 63 (65) = (1962) 2 Andh WR 15.

9. Documents falling under two or more descriptions.—A document falling within two or more descriptions in this Act shall, where the fees chargeable thereunder are different, be chargeable only with the highest of such fees:

Provided that, where one of such descriptions is special and another general, the fee chargeable shall be the fee appropriate to the special description.

CHAPTER III

DETERMINATION OF FEE

10. Statement of particulars of subject-matter of suit and plaintiff's valuation thereof.—In every suit in which the fee payable under this Act on the plaint depends on the market value of the subject-matter of the suit, the plaintiff shall file with the plaint, a statement in the prescribed form, of particulars of the subject-matter of the suit and his valuation thereof unless such particulars and the valuation are contained in the plaint

11. Decision as to proper fee.—(1) (a) In every suit the Court shall, before ordering the plaint to be registered, decide on the allegations contained in the plaint and on the materials furnished by the plaintiff the proper fee payable thereon.

(b) The decision of the Court under clause (a) regarding the proper fee payable shall be subject to review from time to time as occasion requires.

(2) Any defendant may plead that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient. All questions arising on such pleas shall be heard and decided before the hearing of the suit as contemplated by O. 18 in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908). If the Court decides that the subject-matter of the suit is not properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient, the Court shall fix a date before which the subject-matter of the suit shall be valued in accordance with the Court's decision and the deficit fee shall be paid.. If within the time allowed, the subject-matter of the suit is not valued in accordance with the Court's decision or if the deficit fee is not paid, the plaint shall be rejected and the Court shall pass such order as it deems just regarding costs of the suit.

(3) (a) A Court of Appeal, in which an appeal is filed, may, either of its own motion or on the application of any party, consider the correctness of any order passed by the lower Court regarding the fee payable on the plaint or written statement or in any other proceeding in the lower Court and determine the proper fee payable thereon.

Explanation.—The power exercisable by a Court of Appeal under this clause shall be exercisable even if the appeal relates only to a part of the subject-matter of the suit.

Section 9 — Note 1

(1) Assuming that a memorandum of appeal under Cl. 15, Letters Patent is covered by Section 49 and Article 3 the fee chargeable under Article 3, sub-rule (iii) (A) (2) (b) has to be paid by virtue of Section 9 of the Court-fees Act. 1961 Andh LT 650 (652) = (1961) 2 Andh WR 113 (DB).

Section 11 — Note 1

(1) Finality as regards court-fee — Suit filed after Andhra Pradesh came into force — Valuation given in plaint found proper by trial Court — Question can be re-opened subsequently. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 90.

(2) Section 11 of the Court-fees Act does not empower the Court to direct the plaintiff, in suits governed by Sections 32 and 33 of the Act to amend the estimate given in the plaint and pay court-fee on the value of the share so amended. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 449 (451, 452) = (1962) 1 Andh LT 348.

(3) Where a final decree is passed and the plaintiff is directed to pay additional court-fee on the amount of mesne profits as ascertained the result of failure to pay the additional court-fee is that the execution of the decree cannot proceed unless the Court-fee is paid. ILR (1963) Andh Pra 560 (564).

(b) If the Court of Appeal decides that the fee paid in the lower Court is not sufficient, the Court shall require the party liable to pay the deficit fee within such time as may be fixed by it.

(c) If the deficit fee is not paid within the time fixed and the default is in respect of a relief which has been dismissed by the lower Court and which the appellant seeks in appeal, the appeal shall be dismissed, but if the default is in respect of a relief which has been decreed by the lower Court, the deficit fee shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

(d) If the fee paid in the lower Court is in excess of the proper fee, the Court shall direct the refund of the excess to the party who is entitled to it.

(4) Any question relating to the value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be heard and decided before the hearing of the suit as contemplated by Order 18 in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908).

12. Relinquishment of portion of claim.—A plaintiff who has been required to pay additional fee may relinquish a part of his claim and apply to have the plaint so amended that the fee paid is sufficient for the claim made in the plaint as amended. The Court may allow such application on such terms as it considers just, the Court may permit the plaintiff at any later stage of the suit to add to the claim the part so relinquished on payment of the additional fee.

13. Fee payable on written statements.—Where fee is payable under this Act on a written statement filed by a defendant the provisions of Section 11 shall apply to the determination and levy of the fee payable on such written statement, the defendant concerned being regarded for the said purpose as the plaintiff and the plaintiff or the co-defendant or the third party against whom the claim is made being regarded as the defendant.

14. Fee payable on appeals, etc.—The provisions of Sections 10 to 12 relating to the determination and levy of fee on plaints in suits shall apply mutatis mutandis to the determination and levy of fee in respect of a memorandum of appeal, cross-objection or other proceeding in second appeal or in an appeal under the Letters Patent.

15. Fee payable on petitions, applications, etc.—The provisions of Sections 10 to 12 shall apply to the determination and levy of fee in respect of petitions, applications and other proceedings in Courts in the same way as they apply to the determination and levy of fee on plaints in suits.

16. Court-fee Examiners.—(1) The High Court may depute officers to be designated Court-fee Examiners to inspect the records of subordinate Courts with a view to examine the correctness of the valuation of subject-matter and sufficiency of fee in respect of proceedings in such Courts, and orders, if any, passed by the Courts in relation thereto.

(2) Questions relating to valuation of subject-matter and sufficiency of fee in respect of proceedings in a Court raised in reports submitted by such Court-fee Examiners shall be heard and decided by such Courts.

17. Inquiry and commission.—For the purpose of deciding whether the subject-matter of a suit or other proceeding has been properly valued or whether the fee paid is sufficient the Court may hold such inquiry as it considers necessary and may, if it thinks fit issue a commission to any person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court.

18. Notice to the State Government.—In any inquiry relating to the fee payable on a plaint, written statement, petition, memorandum of appeal or other document, or to the valuation of the subject-matter of the claim to which the plaint, written statement, petition, memorandum of appeal or other document relates, in so far as such valuation affects the fee payable, the Court may, if it considers it just or necessary to do so, give notice to the State Government, and where such notice is given, the State Government shall be deemed to be a party to the suit or other proceeding as regards the determination of any question in the enquiry aforesaid and the Court's decision on such question shall, where it passes a decree or final order in such suit or proceeding, form part of such decree or final order.

CHAPTER IV

COMPUTATION OF FEE

19. Fee how computed.—The fee payable under this Act shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, Chapter VI, Chapter VIII and Schedules I and II.

20. Suits for money.—In a suit for money (including a suit for damages or compensation, or arrears of maintenance, of annuities, or of other sums payable periodically, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed.

21. Suits for immovable property.—Subject to the other provisions of this Act, in a suit relating to immovable property, fee shall be computed on three-fourths of the market value of the property.

22. Suits for maintenance and annuities.—In the suits hereinafter mentioned, fee shall be computed as follows :—

(a) in a suit for maintenance, on the amount claimed to be payable for one year;

(b) in a suit for enhancement or reduction of maintenance, on the amount by which the annual maintenance is sought to be enhanced or reduced;

(c) in a suit for annuities or other sums payable periodically, on five times the amount claimed to be payable for one year :

Provided that, where the annuity is payable for less than five years, the fee shall be computed on the aggregate of the sums payable.

23. Suits for movable property.—(1) In a suit for movable property other than documents of title, fee shall be computed—

(a) where the subject-matter has a market value, on such value; or

(b) where the subject-matter has no market value, on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or at which such relief is valued by the Court, whichever is higher.

Section 19 — Note 1

(1) The words 'this Act" in the expression "Court fee payable under this Act" in Section 19 include not only the sections of the Act but also the Schedules of the Act. AIR 1957 Andh Pra 123 (126) = 1957 Andh LT 403 (DB).

Section 20 — Note 1

(1) Money decree — Nature of the suit is not changed — Court fee payable is ad valorem. (1960) 2 Andh WR 372 (375).

Section 22 — Note 1

(1) Merely because none of the provisions of Sections 20 to 46 have no application to a suit containing relief prayed for in appeal it cannot be held that the Court fee on a memo of appeal is payable under the resudiary provision under Section 47 of the Act even though the memo of appeal contemplates a value for the subject matter in dispute. AIR 1968 AP 239 (246) = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

Section 23 — Note 1

(1) The shares of a limited company fall within the definition of "document of title". When the pledged movables are documents of title Section 23 (2) (b) of the Act will be applicable. AIR 1964 Andh Pra 201 (204, 205) = (1963) 1 Andh LT 452.

(2) Merely because none of the provisions of Sections 20 to 46 of the Act do

(2) (a) In a suit for possession of documents of title, fee shall be computed on one-fourth of the amount or of the market value of the property secured by the document where the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document is denied:

Provided that where such denial relates only to a portion of the amount or property, fee shall be computed on one-fourth of such portion of the amount or on one-fourth of the market value of such portion of the property.

(b) In a suit for possession of documents of title, where the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document is not denied, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or at which such relief is valued by the Court, whichever is higher.

Explanation.—The expression "document of title" means a document which purports or operates to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest, whether vested or contingent, in any property.

24. Suits for declaration.—In a suit for a declaration with or without consequential relief, not falling under Section 25—

(a) where the prayer is for a declaration and for possession of the property to which the declaration relates, fee shall be computed on the market value of the movable property or three fourths of the market value of the immovable property or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher;

b) where the prayer is for a declaration and for consequential injunction and the relief sought is with reference to any immovable property, fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher;

c) where the prayer relates to the plaintiff's exclusive right to use, sell, print or exhibit any mark, name, book, picture, design or other things and is based on an infringement of such exclusive right, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the not apply to a suit containing a relief prayed for in appeal, it cannot be held that the Court-fee on a memo of appeal is payable under Section 47 of the Act even though the memo contemplates a value for the subject-matter in dispute. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 (246) = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

(1) If the relief asked for is one of declaration then Section 24 applies though incidentally the relief of injunction is also asked for. (1968) 1 Andh WR 305 (307).

(2) Suit for declaration and possession of land — Suit returned for presentation to proper Court — Passing of Andhra Court Fees and Suits Valuation Act, 1956 before representation of plaint — Court-fee payable on representation in proper Court is according to Section 24 (9) of the Act of 1956. AIR 1963 Andh Pra 68 (69) = (1962) 1 Andh LT 461.

(3) Suit for declaration by a mutawalli for declaration in respect of property belonging to a Darga and injunction against defendant who are not trustees — Suit falls under Section 24 (b) of the Court-fee Act. (1965) 2 Andh LT 353 = (1965) 2 Andh WR 374 (375).

(4) To bring case under Clause (b) declaratory decree must be with respect to immoveable property — Suit for decree for money — Case cames under Clause (d). (1968) 1 Andh WR 305 (307).

(5) Section 24 (d) does not lay down any basis for valuation. It does not furnish any guidance either to the plaintiff or to the Court in valuing the declaratory relief. In the absence of any rules in this respect the Court should exercise its discretion judicially and in so doing it should value the relief on a reasonable basis which can be the advantage to be derived by the plaintiff by the relief he seeks. (1965) 1 Andh LT 50 = (1965) 1 Andh WR 138 (141). ((1960) 2 Andh WR 434 (435), Dissented from.)  (1968) 2 Andh LT 54 (55)  1960 Andh LT 258 (261) = (1960) 1 Andh WR 350  (1960) 1 Andh WR 106 (108) = 1960 Andh LT 53  (1960) 1 Andh WR 350 (352) = 1960 Andh LT 258.

(6) The discretion should be exercised judicially and in exercising it the Court would do well to take into consideration the previous state of the law applicable to such a case and also the context in which clause (d) stands. (1960) 2 Andh WR 434 (435) = 1960 Andh LT 991.

plaint or at which such relief is valued by the Court, whichever is higher;

(d) in other cases, whether the subject-matter of the suit is capable of valuation or not, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or at which such relief is valued by the Court, whichever is higher

25. Adoption suits.—In a suit for a declaration involving a question as to the factum or validity of an adoption, fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the movable and immovable property involved in, or affected by, such declaration or on rupees five hundred whichever is higher.

26. Suits for injunction.—In a suit for injunction—

(a) where the relief sought relates to any immovable property, and where the plaintiff's title to the property is denied, fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees two hundred, whichever is higher

(b) where the relief sought relates to the plaintiff's exclusive right to use, sell, print or exhibit any mark, name, book, picture, design or other thing and is based on an infringement of such exclusive right, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or at which such relief is valued by the Court, whichever is higher;

(c) in any other case, whether the subject-matter of the suit has a market value or not, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or at which such relief is valued by the Court, whichever is higher.

(7) In a suit for declaration cancelling the notification of the Government declaring a certain village as a zamindari estate the plaintiff has to pay court-fee under Section 24 (d) of the Andhra Court-fees Act as the clause covers all cases of declaration with or without consequential relief not covered by Cls. (a) and (b) and whether the subject matter is or is not capable of valuation. AIR 1963 Andh Pra 25 (26, 27) = (1962) 2 Andh LT 4.

(8) Suit for declaration that the order of collector was illegal and without jurisdiction — Subject matter of suit capable of being valued or not — Section 24 (d) is attracted. (1968) 1 Andh WR 296 (298).

(9) Merely because none of the provisions of Sections 20 to 46 have no application to a suit containing relief prayed for in appeal, it cannot be held that the Court-fee on a memo of appeal is payable under the residuary provision under Section 47 of the Act even though the memo of appeal contemplates a value for the subject matter in dispute. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 (246) = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

(10) Suit on mortgage — Defendants 3 and 4 added as puisne mortgagees and defendant 5 added having a mortgage prior to the plaintiff over a certain item in plaintiff's mortgage — Decree directing payment to defendants 3 and 4 after plaintiff's claim was satisfied — Further direction that if they wanted to proceed against property over which defendant 5 had a charge they should pay him first — Appeal against this direction — The relief is for a declaration to avoid the need to pay defendant 5 — Relief falls under Section 24 (d) read with Section 49 and Court-fee has to be paid under Sch. 1, Art. 1. (1968) 2 Andh WR 104 (108, 111) = (1968) 1 Andh LT 290.

(1) The fact that before decreeing a suit for injunction the Court may have to go into the question of plaintiff's right or title to the property does not make a suit for injunction one for a declaration or one other than for injunction. The Court-fee payable is therefore, under Section 26 (c) and not under Section 27. (1966) 2 Andh WR 106 (107) = (1966) 2 Andh LT 167.

(2) A suit for perpetual injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with plaintiffs possession and management of the property is to be valued in accordance with Section 26 (a) of the Act. (1965) 2 Andh WR 217 (219).

(3) Suit for injunction restraining defendant from interfering with possession of land — Value of subject-matter in suit shall not be less than half the value of the property calculated under Rule 2 of Andhra Rules. (1958) 2 Andh WR 486 = ILR (1958) Andh Pra 519 (523). (Case before the Act 1959.)

27. Suits relating to trust property.—(1) In a suit for possession or joint possession of trust property or for a declaration, with or without consequential relief, between trustees or rival claimants to the office of trustee or between a trustee and a person who has ceased to be a trustee, fee shall be computed on one-fifth of the market value of the property subject to a maximum fee of rupees two hundred or where the property has no market value, on rupees one thousand.

(2) Where the property has no market value, value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be the amount stated in the plaint.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, property comprised in a Hindu, Muslim or other religious or charitable endowment shall be deemed to be trust property and the manager of any such property shall be deemed to be the trustee thereof.

28. Suits for possession under the Specific Relief Act, 1877.—In a suit for possession of immovable property under Section 9 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877 (Central Act 1 of 1877),* fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees two hundred, whichever is higher.

29. Suits for possession not otherwise provided for.—In a suit for possession of immovable property not otherwise provided for, fee shall be computed on three-fourths of the market value of the property or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher.

30. Suits relating to easements.—In a suit relating to an easement by the dominant or the servient owner, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or at which such relief is valued by the Court, whichever is higher;

Section 27 — Note 1

(1) Merely because none of the provisions of Sections 20 to 46 of the Act do not apply to a suit containing a relief prayed for in appeal it cannot be held that the Court fee on a memo of appeal is payable under Section 47 of the Act even though the memo of appeal contemplates a value for the subject matter in dispute. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 (246) = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

(2) Suit for permanent injunction cannot be considered as suit for declaration within the meaning of Section 27 (1) only because before decreeing the suit the Court may have to go into the question of the plaintiff's right or title to the property. (1966) 2 Andh WR 106 (107) = (1966) 2 Andh LT 167.

(3) Where the Court-fee is payable at a fixed rate the value for jurisdiction has to be at $^3/_4$th of the market value of course subject to the provisions of Section 27 which provides for the contingency where even market value could not be fixed). (1959) 2 Andh WR 238 (239, 240).

(4) Section 27 deals with declaration with or without relief regarding trust property between trustees or rival claimants to the office of trustee or between a trustee and a person who has ceased to be a trustee. Mutawalli of Darga or Mosque cannot be held to be a trustee. A suit for declaration by a mutawalli does not fall under Section 27. (1965) 2 Andh WR 374 (375) = (1965) 2 Andh LT 353.

Section 28 — Note 1

(1) Merely because none of the provisions of Sections 20 to 46 of the Act have any application to a suit containing a relief prayed for in appeal it cannot be held that a Court-fee on a memo of appeal is payable under the residuary provision under Section 47 of the Act even though the memo of appeal contemplates a value for the subject matter in dispute. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 (246) = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

Section 29 — Note 1

(1) Merely because none of the provisions of Sections 20 to 46 of the Act have any application to a suit containing a relief prayed for in appeal it cannot be held that Court-fee on a memo of appeal is payable under the residuary provision under Section 47 of the Act even though the memo of appeal contemplates a value for the subject matter in dispute. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 (246) = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

(2) Suit for specific performance of an agreement of sale and for possession — Suit falls under Section 39 and not under Section 29 because the relief of possession is a part of the specific performance of a contract for sale — Separate Court-fee for the relief of possession need not be paid even though the subsequent vendee is also impleaded as party to the suit. Separate Court-fee for the relief of possession need not be paid. (1967) 2 Andh WR 117 (117).

Provided that, where compensation is claimed in addition to the relief relating to such easement, fee shall be paid on the amount claimed as compensation in addition to the fee payable on the relief relating to the easement.

31. Suits relating to mortgages.—(1) In a suit to recover the money due on a mortgage, whether the sale of the mortgaged property is prayed for or not, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed.

(2) If the holder of a prior mortgage or charge impleaded as a defendant in such a suit prays in his written statement for the determination of the amount due on his mortgage or charge and for a direction in the decree for the payment of such amount to him, fee shall be payable on the written statement computed on the amount claimed :

Provided that, where the holder of the prior mortgage or charge has paid a fee in any other proceeding on the claim to which his written statement relates, credit shall be given for the fee paid by him in such other proceeding.

(3) Where, in such a suit, the mortgaged property is sold and the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge applies for payment to him out of the sale proceeds, of the amount due on his mortgage or charge, such holder of the prior or subsequent mortgage or charge shall pay on his application a fee computed on the amount claimed by him :

Provided that, where the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge is a party to the suit in which the sale was held and has paid fee on the written statement filed by him in the suit, no fee shall be payable by him on the application for payment out of the sale proceeds :

Provided further that, where the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge, not being a party to the suit in which the sale is held, has paid a fee in any other proceeding on the claim to which his application relates, credit shall be given for the fee paid by him in such other proceeding.

(4) In a suit by a co-mortgagee, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed on the entire mortgage :

Provided that, where any other co-mortgagee impleaded as defendant in such suit claims on the entire mortgage a sum larger than that claimed in the plaint the difference between the fee computed on the entire sum claimed in such defendant's written statement and the fee computed on the entire sum claimed in the plaint shall be payable on the written statement.

(5) (a) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee to recover the amount claimed on the sub-mortgage by sale of the mortgagee's interest in the mortgaged property, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed under the sub-mortgage.

(b) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee, if the prayer is for the sale of the property mortgaged to the original mortgagee and the original mortgagor is also impleaded as a defendant, fee shall be computed on the entire amount claimed on the original mortgage which is sub-mortgaged to him.

(6) Where the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge is impleaded in a suit by a co-mortgagee to which sub-section (4) applies, or in a suit by a sub-mortgagee to which sub-section (5) applies, the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a written statement or an application filed by such holder of mortgage or charge.

(7) Where the original mortgagee who is impleaded in a suit to which the provisions of sub-section (5) (b) apply claims on the mortgage sub-mortgaged by him a larger amount than is claimed in the plaint, the provisions of sub-section (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis to the written statement of such original mortgagee.

Section 31 — Note 1

(1) Loan secured on basis of transfer of shares of limited company — Ownership in the shares not transferred but possession of the shares transferred — The transaction is a pledge and not a mortgage — Court-fee payable in a suit for redemption of pledge will not be under Section 31 (8) but under Section 23 (1) of the Act. AIR 1964 Andh Pra 201 (205, 206) = (1963) 1 Andh LT 452.

(8) In a suit against a mortgagee for redemption of a mortgage, fee shall be computed on the amount due on the mortgage as stated in the plaint or on one fourth of the principal amount secured under the mortgage, whichever is higher:

Provided that where the amount due on the mortgage is found to be more than the amount on which fee has been paid by the plaintiff, no decree shall be passed until the deficit fee is paid:

Provided further that, in the case of any usufructuary or anomalous mortgagee, if the plaintiff prays for redemption as well as for accounts of surplus profits, fee shall be levied separately on the relief for accounts as in a suit for accounts.

(9) In a suit by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage or, in the case of a mortgage by conditional sale, to have the sale declared absolute, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed in the plaint.

32. Suits for accounts.—(1) In a suit for accounts, fee shall be computed on the amount estimated in the plaint.

(2) Where the amount payable to the plaintiff as ascertained in the suit is in excess of the amount as estimated in the plaint, no decree directing payment of the amount as so ascertained shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the amount so ascertained, is paid.

(3) Where in any such suit it is found that any amount is payable to the defendant, no decree shall be passed in his favour until he pays the fee due on the amount.

(4) Where or not a decree is passed under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), the fee payable under either of the said sub-sections shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

33. Suits for dissolution of partnership.—(1) In a suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts or for accounts of dissolved partnership, fee shall be computed on the value of the plaintiff's share in the partnership as estimated by the plaintiff.

(2) If the value of the plaintiff's share as ascertained in the suit exceeds the value as estimated in the plaint, no decree, or where there has been a preliminary decree, no final decree shall be passed in favour of the plaintiff, no payment shall be made out of the assets of the partnership and no property shall be allotted towards the plaintiff's share, until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the value so ascertained, is paid.

(3) No final decree shall be passed in favour of a defendant, no payment shall be made out of the assets of the partnership and no property shall be allotted towards his share in any such suit until the fee computed on the amount or value of his share of the assets of the partnership is paid.

Section 32 — Note 1

(1) Under Ss. 32 (1) and 33 (1) it is for the plaintiff to estimate the relief he asked for and it is not open to the Court to direct the plaintiff to amend the valuation and pay higher Court-fee. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 449 (451, 452) = (1962) 1 Andh LT 348.

(2) Section does not envisage passing of another judgment after deficit Court-fee is paid — Direction to pass final decree after deficit Court-fee is paid is not judgment. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 138 (140).

Section 33 — Note 1

(1) Under Section 33 (1) the plaintiff is entitled to estimate the value of his share in the partnership — Such an estimate may be right or wrong and may be excessive or inadequate. It is not open to the Court to consider whether that estimate is bona fide or mala fide. (1960)

(4) Whether or not a decree is passed payment made or property allotted under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), the fee payable under either of the said sub-sections shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

34. Partition suits.—(1) In a suit for partition and separate possession of a share of joint family property or of property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who has been excluded from possession of such property, fee shall be computed on the market value of the movable property or three-fourths of the market value of the immovable property included in the plaintiff's share.

(2) In a suit for partition and separate possession of joint family property or property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who is in joint possession of such property, fee shall be paid at the following rates:

When the plaint is presented to—

(i) a District Munsif's Court—	Rupees fifty.
(ii) a Subordinate Judge's Court or a District Court. —	Rupees one hundred if the value of plaintiff's share is less than Rupees 10,000. Rupees two hundred if the value is not less than Rs. 10,000.

(3) Where, in a suit falling under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the plaintiff or the defendant seeks also cancellation of decree or other document of the nature specified in Section 37, separate fee shall be payable on the relief of cancellation in the manner specified in that section.

35. Suits for joint possession.—In a suit for joint possession of joint family property or of property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who has been excluded from possession, fee shall be computed on the market value of the movable property or three-fourths of the market value of the immovable property included in the plaintiff's share.

36. Administration suits.—(1) In a suit for the administration of an estate fee shall be levied on the plaint at the rates specified in Section 47.

(2) Where any amount or share or part of the assets of the estate is found due to the plaintiff, and the fee computed on the amount or the market value of such share or part of the assets exceeds the fee paid on the plaint, no payment shall be made and no decree directing payment of money or confirming title to such share or part of the assets shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee computed on the amount or value of such share or part of such assets is paid.

(3) No payment shall be made and no decree directing payment of money or confirming title to any share or part of the assets of the estate shall be passed in favour of a defendant in a suit for administration until the fee computed on the amount or value of such share or part of such assets is paid by such defendant.

(4) In computing the fee payable by a plaintiff or by a defendant under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) credit shall be given for the fee, if any, paid by

(2) Suit for accounts of dissolved partnership — Valuation by plaintiff — Power of Court to direct plaintiff to amend valuation — Section 11 whether applicable. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 449 = (1962) 1 Andh LT 348.

Section 34 — Note 1

(1) Purchaser of an undivided interest who is in possession need not pay ad valorem Court-fee under Section 7 (v) Court Fees Act (Central Act of 1870) on his memo of appeal from a decision on a suit for partition — Court-fee paid under Article 17-B (Madras) on memo of appeal was held adequate. ILR (1963) 1 An Pra 830 (832) = AIR 1960 Andh Pra 313 (315) = 1960 Andh LT 180. (Case before the Andhra Court-fees Act, 1956.)

(2) The memorandum of appeal is not defective inasmuch as no ad valorem court-fee is paid separately in regard to the claim as to costs. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 397 (398) = (1962) 1 Andh WR 203.

such plaintiff or by such defendant in any other proceeding in respect of the claim on the basis of which such amount or share or part of the assets of the estate becomes due to such plaintiff or to such defendant.

(5) Whether or not payment is made or decree passed under sub-sec. (2) or sub-section (3), the fee payable under either of the said sub-sections shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

37. Suits for cancellation of decrees, etc.—(1) In a suit for cancellation of a decree for money or other property having a money value, or other document which purports or operates to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest in money, movable or immovable property, fee shall be computed on the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value shall be deemed to be—

(a) if the whole decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, the amount or value of the property for which the decree was passed or other document was executed:

(b) if a part of the decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, such part of the amount or of the value of the property.

(2) If the decree or other document is such that the liability under it cannot be split up and the relief claimed relates only to a particular item of property belonging to the plaintiff or to the plaintiff's share in any such property, fee shall be computed on the value of such property or share or on the amount of the decree, whichever is less.

Explanation.—A suit to set aside an award shall be deemed to be a suit for cancellation of a decree within the meaning of this section.

38. Suits to set aside attachment, etc.—(1) In a suit to set aside an attachment by a Civil or Revenue Court of any movable or immovable property or of any interest therein or of any interest in revenue, or to set aside an order passed on an application made to set aside the attachment, fee shall be computed on the amount for which the property was attached or on one-fourth of the market value of the property attached, whichever is less.

(2) In a suit to set aside any other summary decision or order of a Civil or Revenue Court, if the subject-matter of the suit has a market value, fee shall be computed on one-fourth of such value, and in other cases, fee shall be payable at the rates specified in S. 47.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, the Registrar of Co-operative Societies shall be deemed to be a Civil Court.

Section 37 — Note 1

(1) Suit by creditor of the defendant for cancellation of the deed of settlement executed between the defendant and his father — The creditors not being a party to the settlement deed could not ask for cancellation of the deed Section 37 Court-fees Act did not apply but S. 24 (d) applied. 1960 Andh LT 258 (259) = (1960) 1 Andh WR 350.

(2) Suit for dissolution of partnership and for accounts— Court-fees paid under Section 37 — Subsequently plaintiff filed an application for amendment of plaint by adding three reliefs — Cancellation of (1) dissolution of partnership (2) Release deed and (3) Power of Attorney as being void and illegal — No separate court-fee need be paid on those reliefs. (1967) 2 Andh WR 49 (52).

(3) Suit for cancellation of deed of exchange — Plaintiff claiming property in Schedule 'A' and willing to surrender property in Schedule B in his possession — Plaintiff has to pay Court-fee on the full value of the property in Schedule 'A' and not only on the difference between the value of the two properties. AIR 1959 Andh Pra 495 (496).

Section 38 — Note 1

(1) Original suit filed under the old Act — Claim proceedings under Order 21, R. 58 started after the Act came into force — Claim suit under O. 21, Rule 63 filed when the new Act had come into force — Claim suit decreed — Appeal against the decree in claim suit — Claim suit under Order 21, Rule 63 cannot be called to be a continuation of the original suit. The appeal arising out of a suit has to be valued according to the new Act Section 38 (1). (1966) 2 Andh WR 469 (471).

39. Suits for specific performance.—In a suit for specific performance, with or without possession, fee shall be payable—

(a) in the case of a contract of sale, computed on the amount of the consideration;

(b) in the case of a contract of mortgage, computed on the amount agreed to be secured by the mortgage;

(c) in the case of a contract of lease, computed on the aggregate amount of the penalty or premium, if any, and of the average of the annual rent agreed to be paid;

(d) in the case of a contract of exchange, computed on the amount of the consideration, or as the case may be, on the market value of the movable property or three-fourths of the market value of the immovable property sought to be taken in exchange;

(e) in other cases, where the consideration for the promise sought to be enforced has a market value, computed on the market value of the movable property or three-fourths of the market value of the immovable property or where such consideration has no market value, at the rate specified in Section 47.

40. Suits between landlord and tenant.—(1) In the following suits between landlord and tenant, namely :—

(a) for the delivery by a tenant of the counter-part of a lease or for acceptance of patta in exchange for a muchilika;

(b) for the enhancement of rent;

(c) for the delivery by a landlord of a lease or for obtaining a patta in exchange for a muchilika;

for a declaration that the property in dispute is not liable to be sold in execution of the decree and for a prepetual injunction, the proper court-fee is that prescribed by Clause (1) of Article 17 of Schedule II of the Court-fee Act. 1958 Andh LT 764 (766). (Case under the old Act.)

(3) Merely because Sections 38 (2) and 39 (e) refer to Section 47 for the determination of Court-fee in cases where the market value cannot be ascertained it does not follow that Section 47 deals with the subject matter of disputes which are incapable of valuation. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

(1) Where in a suit for specific performance of a contract of sale of land measuring 5 acres, the contract with regard to 0.80 cent was performed and the trial Court decreed the suit in respect of 4.18 acres of land and the defendent appealed, it was held that the appellant was liable to pay Court-fee on the value of 4.18 acres of land and not on the value of 5 acres. The court-fee need be paid on the relief of costs also. ILR (1963) Andh Pra 927 = (1963) 1 Andh WR 118 (120).

(2) Suit for specific performance of a family arrangement — Consideration for agreements of compromise can be valued at the value of property which was the subject matter of the dispute in the deed, — The case falls under Section 39 and not under Section 47 of the Act. (1965) 1 Andh WR 138 (140) = (1965) 1 Andh LT 50 (DB).

(3) Specific performance of an agreement of sale and for possession — Suit falls under Section 39 — Fact that possession asked for against subsequent vendor does not affect the position as the relief of possession is only a part of the specific performance. (1967) 2 Andh WR 117 (119)  AIR 1966 Andh Pra 110 (111) = (1965) 1 Andh LT 229.

(4) Under Section 39 (e) when it is provided that where the consideration has no market value Court-fee has to be computed as specified in Section 47 it is only dealing with the enforcement of the consideration for the promise relating to the property, which may or may not have any value in the market but nonetheless which can be valued in money. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 (247) = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

(5) Merely because Sections 38 (2) and 39 (e) refer to Section 47 for the determination of Court-fee in cases where the market value cannot be ascertained it does not follow that Section 47 deals with the subject matter of disputes which are incapable of valuation. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

(d) for the recovery of possession of immovable property from which a tenant has been illegally ejected by the landlord;

(e) for establishing or challenging a right of occupancy;

fee shall be levied on the amount of rent for the immovable property to which the suit relates, payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

(2) In a suit for recovery of immovable property from a tenant including a tenant holding over, fee shall be computed on the premium, if any, and on the rent payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

Explanation.—Rent includes also damages for use and occupation payable by a tenant holding over.

(3) In an appeal from a suit to contest a distraint under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of Section 95 of the Madras Estates Land Act, 1908 (Madras Act 1 of 1908), or to contest the right of sale under Section 112 of that Act, fee shall be charged on the amount of the arrears for which the distraint has been made or the sale is proposed to be held.

41. Suits for mesne profits.—(1) In a suit for mesne profits or for immovable property and mesne profits therefrom, fee shall, in respect of mesne profits, be computed on the amount claimed as mesne profits. If the profits ascertained to be due to the plaintiff are in excess of the profits as claimed, no decree shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid.

(2) Where a decree directs an enquiry as to the mesne profits which have accrued on the property, whether prior or subsequent to the institution of the suit, no final decree shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits accrued due till the date of such decree is paid.

(3) Where, for a period subsequent to the date of the decree or final decree, such decree or final decree directs payment of mesne profits at a specified rate, such decree or final decree shall not be executed until the fee computed on the amount claimed in execution is paid.

(4) Whether or not a decree is passed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or executed under sub-section (3), the fee payable under any of the said sub-sections shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

42. Suits under the Madras Survey and Boundaries Act, 1923.—In a suit under Section 14 of the Madras Survey and Boundaries Act, 1923 (Madras Act VIII of 1923) fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property affected by the determination of the boundary or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher.

43. Suits to alter or cancel entry in a register.—In a suit to alter or cancel any entry in a register of the names of proprietors of revenue-paying estates, the fee payable shall be fifteen rupees.

44. Suits relating to public matters.—In a suit for relief under Section 14 of the Religious Endowments Act, 1863 (Central Act XX of 1863), or under Section 91 or Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), the fee payable shall be fifty rupees.

Section 41 — Note 1

(1) Decree for possession — Direction under Order 20, Rule 12 for ascertainment of future mesne profits — Defendant ordered to deposit certain amount as part of future mesne profits — Amount deposited accordingly and was withdrawn by decree-holder — Suit not governed by Andhra Court Fees Act but by Court Fees Act (1870) as amended in Madras — Decree-holder need not pay Court-fee on the amount withdrawn under Section 11 of that Act as mesne profits were yet to be ascertained. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 372 (373).

45. Interpleader suits.—(1) In an interpleader suit, fee shall be payable on the plaint at the rates specified in Section 47.

(2) Where issues are framed regarding contentions of the claimants, fee shall be computed on the amount of the debt or the money or the market value of the movable property or three-fourths of the market value of the immovable property, which forms the subject-matter of the suit. In levying such fee, credit shall be given for the fee paid on the plaint; and the balance of the fee shall be paid in equal shares by the claimants who claim the debt or the sum of money or the property adversely to each other.

(3) Value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be the amount of the debt, or the sum of money or the market value of the movable property or three-fourths of the market value of the immovable property to which the suit relates.

46. Third party proceedings.—In third party proceedings, fee shall be levied on one-half of the value of the contribution or indemnity claimed against a third party or against a co-defendant if a claim is made against him;

Provided that, if the suit against the defendant who has filed the third party notice is dismissed, wholly or in part, he shall be entitled to a refund of the whole or a proportionate part of the fee paid by him.

Explanation.—The provisions of this section shall also apply to counter-claims made in third party proceedings.

47. Suits not otherwise provided for.—In suits not otherwise provided for, fee shall be payable at the following rates :—

When the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute—

(i) is less than Rs. 3,000	Rupees fifty.
(ii) is not less than Rs. 3,000, but does not exceed Rs. 5,000.	Rupees one hundred.
(iii) exceeds Rs. 5,000 but does not exceed Rupees 10,000.	Rupees two hundred.
(iv) exceeds Rs. 10,000.	Rupees three hundred.

48. Fee on memorandum of appeal against order relating to compensation.—The fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of property for public purposes shall be computed on the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

Section 47 — Note 1

(1) Suit for specific performance of a family arrangement — Consideration for agreements of compromise can be valued at the value of the property which was the subject matter of the dispute in the deed — Case falls under Section 39 and not under Section 47 of the Act. (1965) 1 Andh WR 138 (140) = (1965) 1 Andh LT 50 (DB).

(2) Order rejecting the plaint under Order 7, Rule 11 (a) and (d) — Appeal against the order — No Court-fee need be paid on the appeal since there is no provision in the Act. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB). (Per Kumarayya J. contra.)

(3) Merely because Article 17-B of Schedule II of Madras Court Fees Act corresponds to Section 47 of the Andhra Court Fees Act it would not follow that all suits for declaration which were previously valued under Article 17-B have perforce to be valued under Section 47 of the Act — Substance of the relief prayed for in the plaint should be looked to determine the class under which the suit falls. AIR 1963 Andh Pra 25 (27) = (1962) 2 Andh LT 4.

Section 48 — Note 1

(1) Award under Section 26 of Land Acquisition Act is an 'order' within the meaning of Section 48 of Andhra Court Fees Act — An appeal against such award — Court-fee payable on memorandum of appeal is on the difference between the amount awarded and amount claimed. AIR 1964 Andh Pra 216 (222) = (1964) 1 Andh WR 185 (DB). (Overruled on another point in AIR 1970 AP 139.)

(2) Grant of interest under Section 34 of the Land Acquisition Act — Cross objections to claim such interest — Interest is not included in compensation

49. Appeals.—The fee payable in an appeal shall be the same as the fee that would be payable in the Court of first instance on the subject-matter of the appeal :

Provided that, in levying fee on a memorandum of appeal against a final decree by a person whose appeal against the preliminary decree passed by the Court of first instance or by the Court of appeal is pending, credit shall be given for the fee paid by such person in the appeal against the preliminary decree.

Explanation (1) — Whether the appeal is against the refusal of a relief or against the grant of the relief, the fee payable in the appeal shall be the same as the fee that would be payable on the relief in the Court of first instance.

Explanation (2) — Costs shall not be deemed to form part of the subject-matter of the appeal except where such costs form themselves the subject-matter of the appeal or relief is claimed as regards costs on grounds additional to, or independent of, the relief claimed regarding the main subject-matter in the suit.

Explanation (3) — In claims which include the award of interest subsequent to the institution of the suit, the interest accrued during the pendency of the suit till the date of decree shall be deemed to be part of the subject-matter of the appeal except where such interest is relinquished.

Explanation (4) — Where the relief prayed for in the appeal is different from the relief prayed for or refused in the Court of first instance, the fee payable in the appeal shall be the fee that would be payable in the Court of first instance on the relief prayed for in the appeal.

Explanation (5) — Where the market value of the subject-matter of the appeal has to be ascertained for the purpose of computing or determining the fee payable, such market value shall be ascertained as on the date of presentation of the plaint.

and hence Court-fee need not be paid on it. AIR 1969 Andh Pra 55 (59) = (1968) 2 Andh LT 148 (FB).

(3) Solatium as awarded under S. 23 is not part of award within meaning of Section 26 — Appeal to High Court — No court-fee is payable on difference of solatium as a result of increase in compensation awarded by Court and that awarded by Collector. AIR 1970 Andh Pra 139 (140). (AIR 1964 Andh Pra 216, Overruled; AIR 1930 Mad 45, Dissented from.)

Section 49 — Note 1

(1) The Andhra Court Fees Act (1956) was extended to Telangana area with effect from 1-4-1958 — Section 49 will not therefore, apply to suits or appeals instituted in that area before that date. AIR 1960 Andh Pra 319 (319) = 1960 Andh LT 210.

(2) The provision in Section 49 is a general provision while Article 3, Sch. 2 is a special provision dealing with appeals against certain types of orders — An appeal from an order in a miscellaneous civil proceeding filed before High Court under Clause (15), Letters Patent falls under Article 3, Schedule 2 and not under Section 49. (1961) 1 Andh LT 650 = (1961) 2 Andh WR 113 (115) (DB).

(3) An appeal against an award under Section 26 of Land Acquisition Act is an appeal against an order within Section 48 of the Court Fees Act, Section 49 of the Act does not apply to such appeals. AIR 1964 Andh Pra 216 (222) = (1964) 1 Andh WR 185 (DB).

(4) Appeal against final decree filed while appeal against preliminary decree pending before court — Case comes within Proviso to Sec. 49 and credit must be given for the court-fee already paid by appellant — Appeal preferred against preliminary decree. (1967) 1 Andh WR 369 (370).

(5) Order rejecting plaint under O. 7, Rule 11 (a) — Appeal against such order — Article 3 of Sch. II of the Act — Not applicable to such cases — No court-fee is payable on memorandum of appeal in such cases. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 (266) = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

(6) Decree for partition and direction for ascertainment of mesne profits — No specific provision in the Andhra Court Fees Act — Explanation 1, Section 49 cannot be applied on analogy — No court-fee is payable with respect to the direction regarding enquiry into mesne profits. (1965) 2 Andh WR 124 (125) = (1965) 2 Andh LT 185.

CHAPTER V

VALUATION OF SUITS

50. Suits not otherwise provided for.—(1) If no specific provision is made in this Act or in any other law regarding the value of any suit for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts, value for that purpose and value for the purpose of computing the fee payable under this Act shall be the same.

(2) In a suit where fee is payable under this Act at a fixed rate, the value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be the market value of the movable property or three-fourths of the market value of the immovable property or, where it is not possible to estimate it at a money value the amount stated in the plaint.

51. Procedure where objection is taken on appeal or revision that a suit or appeal was not properly valued for jurisdictional purposes.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 99 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908) an objection that, by reason of the over-valuation or under-valuation of a suit or appeal, a Court of first instance or lower appellate Court, which

(7) Under Section 49 the court-fee payable in appeal is the same as payable in the Court of first instance. Appeal against an order of rejection of plaint and also claiming decree on findings reached by trial Court on other issues as well — Memorandum. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 (242) = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

(8) Where in an appeal the costs themselves form the subject matter of the appeal the court-fee has got to be paid on the relief of costs. (1963) 1 Andh WR 118 (120) = ILR (1963) Andh Pra 927.

(9) Interest granted under Section 34 of the Land Acquisition Act does not form part of the compensation awarded under the Act. In an appeal from such award no court-fee on the amount of interest need be paid. Section 49 does not apply to such an appeal. AIR 1969 Andh Pra 55 = (1968) 2 Andh LT 148 (FB).

(10) In accordance with Explanation 3 to Section 49 the appellant should pay court-fee on the interest accrued from the date of the institution of the suit till the date of the decree and not till the date of filing an appeal. (1965) 2 Andh LT 199 = (1965) 2 Andh WR 466 (467).

(11) Under Explanation 3 of Section 49 when the appeal raises a controversy as to interest pendente lite, interest accrued from the date of the suit until the date of the decree appealed from has to be included in the valuation of the appeal whether the appeal is preferred by the plaintiff or the defendant. (1966) 1 Andh WR 149 (152) (DB).

(12) Second appeal relating only to accounting for a portion of the period for which accounts were claimed in the plaint — Second appeal by defendants — Defendant appellants paid court-fee on the valuation of the accounting period which was the subject matter of appeal at the rate adopted by the plaintiff in the suit — Court-fee paid was held sufficient in conformity with Explanation 4 to Section 49. (1963) 1 Andh LT 203 = (1963) 1 Andh WR 158 (161).

(13) Order determining mesne profits made by insolvency Court under Secs. 4 and 5 of the Insolvency Act — Mesne profits determined — Decree by Insolvency Court — Appeal from decree — Had the decree not been passed the Court-fee paid under Schedule 2, Article 3 (i) would have been adequate — Passing of the decree not necessary — Section 49 was not attracted — Court-fee paid under Sch. 2, Article 3 (i) held adequate. (1968) 1 Andh WR 312 (314).

Section 50 — Note 1

(1) The value that has been specifically mentioned in Section 50 (1) is that adopted for computing the court-fee payable under the Act. Therefore the value for jurisdiction in the case of immovable property in a partition suit shall be that computed at $^{3}/_{4}$ of the market value. (1959) 2 Andh WR 238 (239).

(2) Appeal from an order rejecting plaint — Appeal incapable of valuation — Section 50 (2) cannot be invoked to make Section 47 applicable to such cases. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 (247) = (1968) 2 Andh WR 301 (FB).

(3) Where it is clear that the value of the subject matter for determining the jurisdiction has to be assessed according to the mode prescribed in suits valuation Act any departure therefrom cannot be permitted in law. AIR 1966 Andh Pra 66 (69) = (1965) 2 Andh LT 106 (DB).

(4) In a case governed by Section 50 (1) the value of the subject matter for determining the jurisdiction shall be the same and not different from the value of the subject matter for computing court-fee. Section 50 (1) does not refer to the market value at all as Section 50 (2). AIR 1966 Andh Pra 66 (69) = (1965) 2 Andh LT 106 (DB).

had no jurisdiction with respect to the suit or appeal, exercised jurisdiction with respect thereto shall not be entertained by an appellate Court, unless—

(a) such objection was taken in the Court of first instance at or before the hearing at which issues were first framed or in the lower appellate Court in the memorandum of appeal to that Court, or

(b) the appellate Court is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that the suit or appeal was over-valued or under-valued and that the over-valuation or under-valuation thereof has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit or appeal on its merits.

(2) Where such objection was taken in the manner mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1), but the appellate Court is not satisfied as to both the matters mentioned in clause (b) of that sub-section, it shall, if it has before it the materials necessary for the determination of the other grounds of appeal to itself, dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction in the Court of first instance or lower appellate Court.

(3) Where such objection was taken in that manner and the appellate Court is satisfied as to both those matters, it shall, if those materials are not before it, proceed to deal with the appeal or remand the suit or appeal for disposal in accordance with the directions of the appellate Court.

(4) The provisions of this section with respect to an appellate Court shall, so far as may be, apply to a Court exercising revisional jurisdiction under any law for the time being in force.

CHAPTER VI

52. Application for probate or letters of administration.—(1) Every application for the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be accompanied by a valuation of the estate in duplicate in the Form set forth in Part 1 of Schedule III.

(2) On receipt of such application, the Court shall send a copy thereof and of the valuation to the Collector of the district in which the estate is situated, or if the estate is situated in more than one district to the Collector of the district in which the portion of the estate, the aggregate value of which is the highest, is situated.

53. Levy of fee.—(1) The fee chargeable for the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be calculated at the rate or rates specified in the Article 6 of Schedule I—

(a) where the application is made within one year of the date of death of the deceased, on the market value of the estate on such date; or

(b) where the application is made after the expiry of one year from such date, on the market value of the estate on the date of application:

Section 52 — Note 1

(1) Application for probate of a will to be effective throughout India — Court directing the applicant to deposit into Court court-fee on valuation of property as required under Sections 52 and 53 even before an order for grant of probate was made — The Court has no jurisdiction to give such direction at that stage. Sections 52 and 53 do not warrant such a procedure at all. (1968) 1 Andh WR 370 (373).

Section 53 — Note 1

(1) Application for probate of a will to be effective throughout India — Court directing the applicant to deposit into Court court-fee on valuation of property as required under Sections 52 and 53 even before an order for grant of probate was made — The Cout has no jurisdiction to give such direction at that stage. Sections 52 and 53 do not warrant such a procedure at all. (1968) 1 Andh WR 370 (373).

Provided that no fee shall be leviable under this Chapter on any property held in trust not beneficially or with general power to confer a beneficial interest.

Explanation.—Any member of a joint Hindu family governed by the Mitakshara Law who applies for probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of a deceased member of the joint family shall pay a fee on the value of the share in the joint property which the deceased would have received if a partition of the property had been made immediately before his death.

(2) For the purpose of the computation of fee—

(a) the value of the items mentioned in Annexure B to Part I of Schedule III shall be deducted from the value of the estate:

Provided that when an application is made for probate or letters of administration in respect of only part of an estate, no debt, no expenses connected with any funeral rites or ceremonies and no mortgage encumbrance on any part of the estate other than that in respect of which the application is made shall be deducted:

Provided further that when, after the grant of a certificate under Part X of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (Central Act 39 of 1925), regarding any property included in an estate, a grant of probate or letters of administration is made in respect of the same estate, the fee payable for the latter grant shall be reduced by the amount of the fee paid for the former grant;

(b) the power of appointment which the deceased had over any property or which was created under a will shall be taken into account, the value being taken to be the value of the property forming the subject-matter of the power.

54. Grant of probate.—(1) The grant of probate or letters of administration shall not be delayed by reason of the reference to the Collector under sub-section (2) of Section 52; but the Court shall not grant probate or letters of administration unless it is satisfied that the fee chargeable under this Act has been paid on the basis of the net value of the estate as furnished in the valuation accompanying the application or in the amended valuation filed under sub-section (3) of Section 56.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Court may, without the payment of the proper fee, grant probate or letters of administration to the Administrator-General in his official capacity on his giving an undertaking to the satisfaction of the Court that the said fee will be paid within such time as may be fixed by the Court.

55. Relief in cases of several grants.—(1) Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration has been made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate and the full fee payable under this Act in respect of the application for such grant has been paid thereon, no fee shall be payable when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

(2) Whenever such grant has been made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fee actually paid under this Act for such grant shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of the property belonging to the same estate identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

(1) From the provisions in Section 54 and S. 56 it is seen that the fee prescribed by Article 6, Sch. 1 has to be paid only after the Court orders the grant of probate and before they are actually granted. (1968) 1 Andh WR 370 (373).

56. Inquiry by the Collector.—(1) The Collector to whom a copy of the application and of the valuation has been sent under sub-section (2) of Section 52, shall examine the same and may make or cause to be made by any officer subordinate to him such inquiry, if any, as he thinks fit as to the correctness of the valuation or where a part only of the property is situated in his district, of the valuation of that part, and may require the Collector of any other district in which any part of the property is situated to furnish him with the correct valuation thereof.

(2) Any Collector required under sub-section (1) to furnish the correct valuation of any property shall comply with the requisition after making or causing to be made by any officer subordinate to him such inquiry, if any, as he thinks fit.

(3) If the Collector is of opinion that the applicant has underestimated the value of the property of the deceased, he may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the applicant, either in person or by his agent, and take evidence and inquire into the matter in such manner as he may think fit, and if he is still of opinion that the value of the property has been underestimated, may require the applicant to amend the valuation, and, if the application for probate or letters of administration is pending in Court, to file a copy of the amended valuation in such Court.

(4) If, in any such case, the probate or letters of administration has or have been granted and the applicant amends the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector and the Collector finds that the fee payable according to the true value of the estate has not been paid in full, he shall proceed under sub-section (4) of Section 58, and if the fee paid is in excess of that payable according to the true value of the estate, the excess fee shall be refunded to the applicant.

(5) (a) If the applicant does not amend the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector shall move the Court to which the application for probate or letters of administration was made for holding an inquiry into the true value of the property.

(b) The Collector shall not move the Court under clause (a) after the expiry of six months from the date on which the inventory required by Section 317 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (Central Act 39 of 1925), is exhibited.

57. Application to Court and powers of Court.—(1) The Court shall, when moved by the Collector under sub-section (5) of Section 56, hold or cause to be held by any Court or officer subordinate to it an inquiry as to the true value at which the estate of the deceased should have been estimated. The Collector shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.

(2) For the purposes of any such inquiry the Court, or any Court or officer subordinate to it authorised by the Court to hold the inquiry, may examine the applicant on oath either in person or by commission, and may take such further evidence as may be produced to prove the true value of the estate, and where the inquiry has been entrusted to a Subordinate Court or officer, such Court or officer shall return to the Court the evidence taken and report the result of the inquiry and such report and the evidence so taken shall be evidence in the proceedings.

(3) The Court on the completion of the inquiry or on receipt of the report referred to in sub-section (2), as the case may be, shall record a finding as to the true value at which the estate should have been estimated and such finding shall be final.

(4) The Court may make such order as to the costs of the inquiry as it thinks fit.

Section 56 — Note 1

(1) From the provisions in Section 54 and Section 56 it is seen that the fee prescribed by Article 6, Schedule I has to be paid only after the Court orders the grant of probate and before they are actually granted. (1968) 1 Andh WR 370 (373).

58. Provision for cases where insufficient fee has been paid.—(1) Where insufficient fee has been paid on any probate or letters of administration on account of any mistake or of want of knowledge at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator, acting under such probate or letters, applies to the Collector in the Form set forth in Part II of Schedule III and pays within six months of the discovery of the mistake or of any effects not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, the difference between the fee which ought to have been paid in the first instance on such probate or letters and the fee actually paid, the Collector shall, if satisfied that insufficient fee was paid in the first instance on account of a mistake and without any intention to defraud or to delay the payment of the proper fee, cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped.

(2) If, in a case falling under sub-section (1), the executor or administrator does not, within the six months referred to in that sub-section, pay the deficit fee, he shall forfeit a sum equal to five times the deficit fee.

(3) If on application being made under sub-section (1) the Collector is satisfied that the application was not made within six months of the discovery of the mistake or of further effects not included in the original valuation or that the payment of insufficient fee in the first instance was not due to a bona fide mistake, he shall cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment of the deficit fee together with a penalty not exceeding five times such fee.

(4) If, after the grant of probate or letters of administration of an estate, it is found by the Collector that a fee less than that payable according to the true value of the estate has been paid, he shall cause the probate or letters to be properly stamped on payment of the deficit fee, and if he is satisfied that the original undervaluation was not bona fide, he shall levy in addition a penalty not exceeding five times the deficit fee.

(5) The Board of Revenue may remit the whole or any part of the amount forfeited under sub-section (2) or of any penalty under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4).

59. Administrator to give proper security before letters are stamped.—Where insufficient fee has been paid in the first instance on letters of administration, the Collector shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in the manner aforesaid unless the administrator has given such security to the Court granting the letters of administration as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased had then been ascertained.

60. Relief when fee has been paid in excess.—(1) If, at any time after the grant of the probate or letters of administration of an estate, it is discovered that fee has been paid in excess of what was payable according to the true value of the estate, the executor or administrator, as the case may be, may apply for a refund to the Collector to whom a copy of the valuation of the estate was sent under sub-section (2) of Section 52. The application shall be accompanied by an amended valuation in the Form set forth in Part II of Schedule III together with the probate or letters of administration upon which a refund is sought.

(2) If the Collector is satisfied that the amended valuation is correct, he shall—

- (i) endorse a certificate on the stamped probate or letters of administration to the effect that so much of the fee represented by the stamp or stamps used has been refunded; and
- (ii) refund the difference between the fee originally paid and that which should have been paid:

Provided that no refund shall be granted under this section unless the application for refund is made within three years of the date of the grant of the probate or letters of administration or within such further period as the Collector may allow:

Provided further that if, by reason of any legal proceedings, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid or his effects have not been recovered and made available and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said period of three years, the Collector may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to him to be reasonable under the circumstances.

(3) If the Collector refuses to grant a refund, the executor or administrator, as the case may be, may apply to the Board of Revenue for an order of refund. An application for such refund shall be accompanied by an amended valuation in the Form set forth in Part II, Schedule III.

61. Recovery of penalties, etc.—Any fee found to be payable by an applicant for probate or letters of administration or by an executor or administrator, or any costs under sub-section (4) of Section 57 or any penalty or forfeiture payable by any such executor or administrator may on the certificate of the Board of Revenue, be recovered from the executor or administrator as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

62. Powers of Board of Revenue.—The powers and duties of the Collector under this Chapter shall be subject to the control of the Board of Revenue.

CHAPTER VII

REFUNDS AND REMISSIONS

63. Refund in cases of rejection of plaint, etc., for delay.—(1) Where a plaint or memorandum of appeal is rejected on the ground of delay in its representation or where the fee paid on a plaint or memorandum of appeal is insufficient and the deficit fee is not paid within the time allowed by the Court, or the delay in payment of the deficit fee is not condoned, and the plaint or Memorandum of appeal is consequently rejected, the Court may, in its discretion, direct the refund of the plaintiff or the appellant, of the fee, either in whole or in part, paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal which was rejected.

(2) Where a memorandum of appeal is rejected on the ground that it was not presented within the time allowed by the law of limitation, one-half of the fee shall be refunded.

64. Refund in cases of Remand.—(1) Where a plaint or memorandum of appeal rejected by the lower Court is ordered to be received, or where a suit is remanded in appeal for a fresh decision by the lower Court, the Court making the order or remanding the appeal may direct the refund to the appellant of the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal; and, if the remand is on second appeal, also on the memorandum of appeal in the first appellate Court and, if the remand is in Letters Patent Appeal, also on the memorandum of second appeal and memorandum of appeal in the first appellate Court.

(2) Where an appeal is remanded in Second Appeal or Letters Patent Appeal for a fresh decision by the lower appellate Court, the High Court remanding the appeal may direct the refund to the appellant of the full amount of fee paid on

(1) Court has no inherent power to sanction refund of court-fee apart from matters mentioned in Sections 63 to 66 of Andhra Courts-fees and Suits Valuation Act. AIR 1965 Andh Pra 395 (397) = (1965) 1 Andh WR 262 (DB).

Section 64 — Note 1

(1) (Per Division Bench) — Section 64 cannot govern tax revision cases. There is no provision in Madras General Sales Tax Act for refund of Court-fee in revision cases. The High Court cannot also make an order for refund under its inherent powers in such cases. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 86 (96, 97) = 1960 Andh LT 802 (FB)  AIR 1965 Andh Pra 395 (397)  (1965) 1 Andh WR 262 (DB).

the memorandum of Second Appeal if the remand is in Second Appeal, and of the full amount of fee paid on the Memorandum of Second Appeal and the Memorandum of Letters Patent Appeal if the remand is in Letters Patent Appeal:

Provided that no refund shall be ordered if the remand was due to the fault of the party who would otherwise be entitled to a refund:

Provided further that, if the order of remand does not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the refund shall not extend to more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on that part of the subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

65. Refund in cases of review.—Where an application for review of judgment is admitted on the ground of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record and on rehearing, the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on that ground, it shall direct refund to the applicant of so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under Article 11 (g) and (u) of Schedule II.

66. Refund of fee paid by mistake or inadvertence.—The fee paid by mistake or inadvertence shall be ordered to be refunded.

67. Exemption of certain documents.—Nothing contained in this Act shall render the following documents chargeable with any fee:—

(i) memorandum of appearance filed by advocates or pleaders when appearing for persons proceeded against in criminal cases;

(ii) application or petition to a Collector or other officer making a settlement of land revenue, or to the Board of Revenue relating to matters connected with the assessment of land, or with the ascertainment of rights thereto or interest therein, if presented previous to the final confirmation of such settlement;

(iii) application for supply of water belonging to Government for irrigation;

(iv) application for leave to extend cultivation or to relinquish land, when presented to an officer of land revenue by a person holding, under a direct engagement with Government, land of which revenue is settled but not permanently;

(v) application for service of notice of relinquishment of land or of enhancement of rent;

(vi) written authority to an agent to distrain;

(vii) first application (other than a petition containing a criminal charge or information) for the summons of a witness or other person to give evidence or to produce a document or for the production or filing of an exhibit not being an affidavit made for the immediate purpose of being produced in Court;

(viii) bail bonds in criminal cases other than bail bonds in village courts, recognizances to prosecute or give evidence and recognizances for personal appearance or otherwise;

Section 66 — Note 1

(1) Section 66 has nothing to do with a mistake in the selection of remedy but relates only to cases where mistake has been committed in payment of court-fee i.e., where payment is made though it is not due or where the court-fee has been paid in excess. (1957) 1 Andh WR 167 (168).

Section 67 — Note 1

(1) There is nothing in Section 66 which limits it to prisoners detained in prison on conviction. Even under trial prisoners who are confined can avail of this exception. No court-fee is therefore payable on an application under Article 226 made by a detenu in prison. (1967) 1 Andh WR 263 = (1967) 2 Andh LT 28.

(2) Revision petition by complainant against dismissal of complaint—Memo of appearance on his behalf is chargeable with Court-fee under Art. 16 — Exemption under Section 67 (1) not available. AIR 1968 Andh Pra 239 (239) = (1965) 2 Andh LT 223 (DB).

(ix) petition, application, charge or information respecting any offence when presented, made or laid to or before a police officer, or to or before the heads of villages or the village police;

(x) petition by a prisoner or other person in duress or under restraint of any Court or its officer;

(xi) complaint of a public servant as defined in the Indian Penal Code (Central Act 45 of 1860) or an officer of the State Railway relating to matters arising out of, or in connexion with, the discharge of his official duty;

(xii) application for the payment of money due by the Government to the applicant, other than an application for refund of lapsed deposit made six months after the date on which the amount lapsed to the Government;

(xiii) petition of appeal against any municipal tax;

(xiv) application for compensation under any law for the time being in force relating to the acquisition of property for public purposes;

(xv) petition or appeal by a Government servant or a servant of the Court of Wards when presented to any superior officer or Government against orders of dismissal, reduction or suspension; copies of such orders filed with such appeals, and applications for obtaining such copies.

68. Power to reduce or remit fees.—The State Government may, by notification in the Andhra Gazette, reduce or remit, in the whole or in any part of the territory of this State, or any of the fees chargeable under this Act, and may, in like manner, cancel or vary such notification.

CHAPTER VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

69. Collection of fees by stamps.—All fees chargeable under this Act shall be collected in stamps.

70. Stamps to be impressed or adhesive.—The stamps used to denote any fee chargeable under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the State Government may, by notification in the Andhra Gazette, from time to time, direct.

71. Amended document.—Where any document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act is amended merely for correcting a mistake and making it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp.

72. Cancellation of stamp.—(1) No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or office until the stamp has been cancelled.

(2) The officer appointed from time to time by the Court or the head of the office shall, on receiving any such document, effect forthwith such cancellation by punching out the figure-head so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched, and the part removed by punching shall be destroyed.

Section 68 — Note 1

(1) Suit presented at Madras returned for re-presentation in proper Court — Suit represented in Andhra State Court after Andhra Court Fees Act 1956 had come in force — Court-fee stamps purchased in Madras were admitted at the time of re-presentation. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 65 (68) = 1961 Andh LT 705.

Section 69 — Note 1

(1) Section 69 does not contain a provision that the stamps should be purchased within the territory of the State. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 65 = 1961 Andh LT 705.

73. Deduction to be made.—Where allowance is made in this Act for damaged or spoiled stamps, or where fee already paid is directed to be refunded to any person by an order of Court, the Collector may, on the application of the person concerned, pay to him the amount of fee or where damaged or spoiled stamps are produced, he may, after satisfying himself about their genuineness, give in lieu thereof the same amount or value in stamps of the same or any other description, or if the applicant so desires, the same amount or value in money provided that in all cases where money is paid in cash, a deduction shall be made of six naye paise for each rupee or fraction thereof. No such deduction shall, however, be made where refund is claimed in respect of any fee paid in pursuance of an order of Court which has been varied or reversed in appeal.

74. Penalty.—Any person appointed to sell stamps, who disobeys any rule made under this Act, and any person not so appointed, who sells or offers for sale any stamps, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

75. Power of High Court to make rules.—(1) The High Court may make rules to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the High Court in its appellate jurisdiction and by the Civil and Criminal Courts subordinate thereto;
- (b) the remuneration of persons employed by the Courts mentioned in clause (a) in the service or execution of processes;
- (c) the fixing by District and Sessions Judges and District Magistrate of the number of process-servers necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued from their respective Courts and the Courts subordinate thereto;
- (d) the display in each Court of a table in English and in the local language or languages showing the fees payable for the service and execution of processes.

(2) All rules made under sub-section (1) shall be subject to confirmation by the State Government with or without modification and on such confirmation they shall be published in the Andhra Gazette and shall thereupon have effect as if enacted in this Act.

76. Power of Board of Revenue to make rules.—(1) The Board of Revenue may, with the previous sanction of the State Government, make rules consistent with this Act to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters. namely:—

- (a) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Board of Revenue and by the Revenue Courts;
- (b) the remuneration of persons employed for the service and execution of such processes;
- (c) the fixing by Collectors of the number of persons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of such processes ;
- (d) the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of their powers under Chapter VI;
- (e) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act;
- (f) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act;
- (g) the keeping of accounts of all stamps used under this Act;
- (h) the circumstances in which stamps may be held to be damaged or spoiled;

(i) the circumstances in which, the manner in which, and the authorities by which, allowance for used, damaged or spoiled stamps may be made;

(j) the regulation of the sale of stamps to be used under this Act, the persons by whom alone such stamps, may be sold and the duties and remuneration of such persons;

Provided that, in the case of stamps used in the High Court, such rules shall be made with the concurrence of the Chief Justice.

(2) All rules made under this section shall be published in the Andhra Gazette and on such publication, shall have effect as if enacted in this Act.

77. Power of Government to make rules.—(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Andhra Gazette, make rules to carry out generally the purposes of this Act.

(2) All notifications and rules made under this section shall, as soon as may be, after they are made, be placed on the table of the Legislative Assembly for fifteen days, and shall be subject to such modification, whether by way of repeal or amendment, as the Legislative Assembly may make during the session in which they are so laid.

78. Continuance in force of existing rules.—Until rules are framed under Sections 75, 76 and 77 and until notifications are issued under Section 68, the rules and notifications now in force in respect of matters referred to in those sections, shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act, continue in force.

79. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Court-fees Act, 1870 (Central Act 7 of 1870), in its application to the State of Andhra and in relation to the fees and

Section 77 — Note 1

(1) In the absence of rules framed under this section the Court can use its discretion in valuing the suits falling under Section 24 (d). 1960 Andh LT 258 (261) = (1960) 1 Andh WR 350.

Section 79 — Note 1

(1) Andhra Court Fees and Suits Valuation Act which came into force on 1-5-1956 cannot be given retrospective operation in view of saving clause in Section 79 of the Act. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 372 (374).

(2) Writ of certiorari proceeding arising out of a proceeding pending in the inferior Court at the time of coming into force of the Act of 1956 — Section 79 (2) attracted — Court-fee is to be paid under the old law. (1960) Andh LT 186 (187).

[See however AIR 1958 Andh Pra 267 (269) = (1957) 2 Andh WR 349. (A writ petition is not the continuation of the original proceeding. It is an independent proceeding unconnected with the merits of the lis; Therefore provisions of Sec. 79 (2) have no application to a writ proceeding.)]

(3) Original suit before the commencement of the Act of 1956 — Claim application under Order 21, Rule 58 filed before the Act of 1956 allowed after the Act came in force — Suit under Order 21, Rule 63 to set aside claim order filed after the commencement of the Act of 1956 — Held, the suit under Order 21, Rule 63 to set aside the claim order was in the nature of appeal as against the claim proceedings and the provisions of the Old Act applied. (1959) 2 Andh WR 330 (331) = 1959 Andh LT 782.

(4) Original suit filed before the Act of 1956 came into force — Claim application under Order 21, Rule 58 filed after the Act came into force — Claim suit under Order 21, Rule 63 — Decree — Appeal against — Claim suit under O. 21, Rule 63 cannot be called to be a continuation of original suit — Appeal arising out of suit under Order 21, Rule 63 has to be valued under the Act of 1956. (1966) 2 An WR 469 (471).

(5) Suit presented in Madras City Civil Court returned for presentation to proper Court on 29-11-1957 — Suit represented in Andhra Pradesh Court on 7-12-1957 when Andhra Court Fees Act had come into force — Though the Central Court Fees Act as amended in Madras was repealed by Andhra Act, the plaintiff was given credit for the court-fee paid in the Madras Court. AIR 1962 Andhra Pra 65 (67, 68, 69) = 1961 Andh LT 705.

(6) Telangana area formed part of Andhra State on 1-11-1956 — The laws prevailing in that territory were preserved under States Reorganisation Act till competent Legislatures made adaptations — Hyderabad Court Fees Act continued to apply till adaptations — Writ petition for mandamus arising out of Telangana area — Hyderabad Court Fees Act will apply and not Andhra Pradesh Court Fees and Suits Valuation Act — Schedule 2 Serial No. 1 (d) applied. (1) Application for probate to have effect throughout India — Caveat not entered — Court-fee is payable under Section 2, Article 17 (k) (i). (1968) 1 Andh WR 370 (371).

(2) An application containing objections to the filing of an award under the Arbitration Act has to be in writing accompanied by Court-fee paid under Section 2, Article 11 (m) of Andhra Court-fees Act, 1956. AIR 1960 Andh Pra 576 (578) = 1960 Andh LT 88.

(3) Article 11 (q) applies only to orders passed by Small Cause Courts which are not decrees. (1965) 2 Andh WR 149 (151) = ILR (1966) Andh Pra 1057.

(4) Writ petition by detenues — Court-fee under Sch. 2. Article 11 (s) not required — There is nothing in Sec. 67 which limits it to prisoners detained in prison on conviction. (1967) 2 Andh LT 28 (30) = (1967) 1 Andh WR 263.

(5) It is apparent from a reading of Article 11 (s) that the word 'writ' in that Article does not refer to a writ of mandamus, quo warranto, certiorari or prohibition alone. It is a word having a wider import, which includes an order or direction in the nature of a writ or which sub-serves the purpose of a writ. The intention of the Legislature was that remedies under Article 226 were intended to be covered by Article 11 (s) of the Court-fees Act. (1969) 2 Andh WR 473 (474).

(6) All petitions under Article 226 of the Constitution asking for relief in the nature of writ or order or direction fall under Sch. 2, Article 11 (s) and not under Sch. 2, Article 11 (u). (1964) 2 Andh WR 290 (292).

(7) An appeal from a decree of Small Cause Courts falls under Article 11 (u), Sch. 2: (1965) 2 Andh WR 149 (151) = ILR (1966) Andh Pra 1057.

4. Procedure in case of difference as to necessity or amount of fee.—(1) When any difference arises between the Officer whose duty it is to see that any fee is paid under this Chapter, and any suitor or attorney, as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof, the question shall, when the difference arises in the High Court, be referred to the taxing officer, whose decision thereon shall be final subject to revision, on an application, made within sixty days from the date of the decision, by the suitor or attorney or such officer as may be appointed in this behalf by the State Government, by the Chief Justice or by such Judge of the High Court as the Chief Justice shall appoint either generally or specially in this behalf. The Chief Justice shall declare who shall be taxing officer, within the meaning of this sub-section.

(1) Plaint is a statement in writing of the cause of action in a suit. A third party notice is not included in the definition of plaint given in Clause (e) in Section 2 of the Act. AIR 1966 Bom 126 (127) = 67 Bom LR 644 (DB).

(2) When any such difference arises in the Court of Small Causes of Bombay, the question shall be referred to the Clerk of the Court, whose decision thereon shall be final, subject to revision, on an application, made within sixty days from the date of the decision by the party concerned or such officer as may be appointed in this behalf by the State Government, by the Chief Judge of the Small Cause Court, or by such Judge of that Court as the Chief Judge shall appoint either generally or specially in this behalf.

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, sub-section (2) which was omitted by Guj. A. L. O., 1960, and inserted by Guj. Act 29 of 1962, S. 4 is practically the same as in Maharashtra with this difference that for the words "of Bombay, the question shall be referred to the Clerk of the Court", words "of Ahmedabad, the question shall be referred to the Registrar" are substituted and for the words "by the Chief Judge of Small Cause Court", words "by the Chief Judge of the said Court of Small Causes" are there—Guj. Act 29 of 1962, S. 4 (6-9-1962).

CHAPTER III

COMPUTATION OF FEES

5. Fees on documents filed, etc., in Courts or in public offices.—(1) No document of any of the kinds specified as chargeable in the first or second Schedule to this Act annexed shall be filed, exhibited or recorded in any Court of Justice, or shall be received or furnished by any public officer, unless in respect of such document there has been paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated by either of the said schedules as the proper fee for such document.

(2) When any difference arises between the officer whose duty it is to see that any fee is paid under this Act and any suitor or his pleader, as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof, the question shall, when the question arises in the High Court, be referred to the taxing officer whose decision thereon shall be final, subject to revision, on an application, made within sixty days from the date of the decision, by the suitor or his pleader or such officer as may be appointed in this behalf by the State Government, by the Chief Justice or by such Judge of the High Court as the Chief Justice shall appoint either generally or specially in this behalf.

(3) When any such difference arises in the City Civil Court, Bombay, the question shall be referred to the Registrar of the City Civil Court whose decision shall be final, subject to revision, on an application, made within sixty days from the date of the decision, by the party concerned or such officer as may be appoint-

(1) Third party notice will attract duty under Section 5 (1) of the Act if it can be said to be a document of any kind specified in Schedule 1 or 2 of the Act. Third party notice is not a plaint or an application to the Court attracting duty but a praecipe addressed to the prothonotary of the High Court and accompanying the third party notice is liable to Court fee as an application. AIR 1966 Bom 126 (127) = 67 Bom LR 644.

(2) The effect of Sections 5, 6 and 49 read together is that all documents presented after the new Act came into force are to be charged under the new Act — Suit filed before the new Act came into force — Appeal filed after the new Act came into force — Computation of the claim involved in appeal should be made in accordance with the provisions of new Act. AIR 1963 Guj 40 (44, 45) = (1963) 4 Guj LR 317 (DB).

(3) Prima facie a public officer who receives or furnishes documents chargeable in fees decides the question of sufficiency of the fee in respect of the document. Section 5 does not confer on a Court of law or even on any other public officer to consider the question of insufficiency of fees paid in respect of chargeable documents once received or furnished by a public officer. AIR 1967 Bom 224 (226) = 68 Bom LR 555. (Reference by Collector under Section 18 of Land Acquisition Act — Court has no jurisdiction to decide sufficiency of Court-fee stamp on reference application received by collector.)

(4) Section 5 has no retrospective effect. (1961) 63 Bom LR 667 = 1961 Nag LJ 436 (442) (DB).

ed in this behalf by the State Government, by the Principal Judge or such other Judge of the said Court as the Principal Judge shall appoint either generally or specially in this behalf.

(4) When such difference arises in any other Court, the question shall be referred to the final decision of the Judge presiding over such Court.

(5) Nothing in this section shall affect the provisions of the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882, in its application to the State of Bombay.

Gujarat

In sub-sections (3) and (5) which were omitted by Guj. A. L. O., 1960, were re-inserted in the same words as in Maharashtra except that for the words "in the City Civil Court, Bombay", the words "in the Ahmedabad City Civil Court" are to be read and in sub-section (5), for 'Bombay', the word 'Gujarat' has to be substituted.—Guj. Act 29 of 1962, S. 5 (6-9-1962).

6. Computation of fees payable in certain suits.—The amount of fee payable under this Act in the suits next hereinafter mentioned shall be computed as follows:—

For moneys.—(i) In suits for money (including suits for damages or compensation, or arrears of maintenance, of annuities, or of other sums payable periodically)—according to the amount claimed;

For maintenance and annuities.—(ii) In suits for maintenance (with or without a prayer for the creation of a charge), and for annuities or other sums payable periodically according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit and such value shall be deemed to be, in the case of a suit for maintenance, the amount claimed to be payable for one year and in any other case, ten times such amount:

Provided that if in a suit for maintenance the plaintiff obtained decree for maintenance, the defendant shall be liable to make good the deficit, if any, between the fee payable on ten times the amount awarded for one year and the fee already paid by the plaintiff; and the amount of such deficit shall, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue;

For other movable property having a market value.—(iii) In suits for movable property other than money, where the subject-matter has a market-value—according to such value at the date of presenting the plaint;

Against recovery of any money due as a tax, etc.—(iv) (a) In suits for declaration to obtain adjudication against recovery of money from the plaintiff, whether the recovery is as land revenue or arrears of land revenue or tax or duty or cess or fee or fine or penalty or under any decree or order of a Court or any certificate or award other than under the Arbitration Act, 1940.

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) The combined effect of Sections 5, 6 and 49 when read together would be that all documents presented after the Act are to be charged under the new Act. AIR 1963 Guj 40 (45) = (1963) 4 Guj LR 317 (DB).

(2) The suit for declaration to fall under the clause must be one in which the question of ownership or title was in question. AIR 1965 Guj 204 (207) = (1965) 6 Guj LR 44 (DB).

(3) It is only in cases where a suit is filed for a declaration of the nature of tenancy on any relief founded on it that Clause (d) of sub-section (iv) of Sec. 6 comes into operation. It does not apply where a declaration of a mere tenancy is sought. AIR 1963 Bom 235 (235) = 64 Bom LR 765.

(4) Plaintiff claiming right to continue in uninterrupted possession of suit land and right to challenge any sale in contravention of rights conferred on him under Bombay Tenancy and Agricultural Lands Act — Rights claimed by plaintiffs are incapable of monetary evaluation — Provisions of Section 6 (iv) (j) and not (d) apply. (1969) 71 Bom LR 582 (584).

(5) Suit, not for a declaration but for injunction only — Section 6 (iv) (d) has no application. AIR 1969 Bom 423 (426) = 71 Bom LR 340.

(6) Suit for declaration of title with a relief of possession — Valuation for or in any other manner—one-fourth of ad valorem fee leviable on the amount sought to be recovered according to the scale prescribed under Article 1 of Schedule I with a minimum fee of fifteen rupees:

Provided that when in addition any consequential relief other than possession is sought, the amount of fee shall be one-half of ad valorem fee on the amount sought to be recovered:

Provided further that when the consequential reliefs also sought include a relief for possession, the amount of fee shall be the full ad valorem fee on the amount sought to be recovered;

Similar claim in respect of movable property.—(b) In suits for declaration similar to those falling under sub-paragraph (a) in respect of movable property —one-fourth of ad valorem fee leviable on the value of the movable property subject to the minimum fee as under sub-paragraph (a):

purposes of Court-fee — Section 6 of Bombay Court Fees Act corresponds to Section 7 (iv) (c) of Court Fees Act (1870), but whole arrangement is substantially altered—Court is not bound to accept valuation put by plaintiff in view of the Section 6 (iv) (d). (1968) 9 Guj LR 194 (198, 199) = ILR (1968) Guj 99 (DB).

(7) Where the plaintiffs file a suit for a declaration that certain sale effected by defendant in favour of defendant 2 was void and ineffective and for an injunction restraining defendants from proceeding further with the completion of the alleged sale, the suit falls under Section 7 (iv) (c). The suit cannot be regarded as one falling under Schedule 2, Article 17 (iv) to set aside an alienation. Nor does it fall under Schedule 2, Article 17 (vii). AIR 1959 Bom 517 (519) = 60 Bom LR 587 (DB). (Case under old Act.)

(8) Suit for declaration that the deed of assignment executed by defendant is void against the plaintiff — Not susceptible to monetary valuation and is governed by Section 6 (iv) (j) of the Act as the subject-matter of the suit is not the property comprised in the deed but declaration only. AIR 1969 Bom 66 (69) = 70 Bom LR 359.

(9) Suit for injunction — Court on construction of plaint coming to the conclusion that it was really a suit for possession — Suit should not be dismissed because Court-fee on relief of injunction only was paid — Court can direct the plaintiff to pay as in a suit for possession. AIR 1966 Bom 113 (115) = 67 Bom LR 452 (DB).

(10) Suit for declaration that plaintiff is benamidar having no interest in suit transactions — Suit dismissed — Suit falls under Section 6 (iv) (j) — Appeal — Court-fee payable on memorandum of appeal — Claim of plaintiff not susceptible to money value — Special provisions in Section 6 (iv) (j) of the Bombay Court Fees Act prevail against Sch. 1, Article 1 of Court-fees Act (1870). AIR 1966 Guj 159 (162) = (1965) 6 Guj LR 855 (DB).

(11) Suit for recovery of possession of mortgaged property from mortgagee — In view of general principles of construction general Clause (v) must apply to all cases except those falling within Clause (x). AIR 1969 Bom 395 (396) = 71 Bom LR 279 (DB).

(12) Market value of the property means the value of the property which a willing purchaser would pay to a willing seller for the property on the day the suit is filed. AIR 1966 Bom 113 (115) = 67 Bom LR 452.

(13) Suit for declaration, injunction, partition of immovable joint family property — Suit falls under Section 7 (iv) (b) and (c) and not under Section 7 (v) or Article 17 (vii) of Schedule II of Court-fees Act. AIR 1963 Guj 291 (298) = (1963) 4 Guj LR 1022. (Case under old Act.)

(14) Suit for injunction — Prayer for asking defendants to discontinue attachment -- Prayer is equivalent to prayer for setting aside attachment — Suit falls under Section 6 (ix). AIR 1969 Bom 423 (427) = 71 Bom LR 340.

(15) Suit for recovery of possession of mortgaged property from mortgagee — Covered by Clause (x) — Even if technically the suit may not be a redemption suit under Section 62, T. P. Act, for purposes of Court-fees Act it does not make any distinction between a suit for possession simpliciter from mortgagee on ground that the mortgage is satisfied and a suit for redemption as such. AIR 1969 Bom 395 (396) = 71 Bom LR 279 (DB).

(16) Appeal from a decree for redemption by defendant — Defendant-appellant claiming right to remain in possession as tenant — The appeal falls under Section 6 (xii) (d) of the Act as if the landlord had filed a suit for recovery of possession and the defendant was defending the suit, since the right of redemption was not in dispute. AIR 1963 Bom 235 (236) = 64 Bom LR 765.

Provided that when in addition any consequential relief other than possession is sought, the amount of fee shall be one-half of ad valorem fee leviable on the value of such property:

Provided further that when the consequential reliefs also sought include a relief for possession, the amount of fee shall be the full ad valorem fee leviable on such value;

For status with monetary attribute.—(c) In suits for declaration of the status of plaintiff, to which remuneration, honorarium, grant, salary, income, allowance or return is attached, one-fourth of ad valorem fee leviable on the emoluments or return for one year:

Provided that when in addition any consequential relief other than possession is sought, the amount of fee shall be one-half of ad valorem fee on such emoluments or value of return:

Provided further that when the consequential reliefs also sought include a relief for possession, the amount of fee shall be the full ad valorem fee on such emoluments or value of return;

For ownership etc., of immovable property etc.—(d) In suits for declaration in respect of ownership, or nature of tenancy, title, tenure, right, lease, freedom or exemption from, or non-liability to attachment with or without sale or other attributes, of immovable property, such as a declaration that certain land is personal property of the Ruler of any former Indian State or public trust property or property of any class or community—one-fourth of ad valorem fee leviable for a suit for possession on the basis of title of the subject-matter, subject to a minimum fee of eighteen rupees and seventy-five naye paise:

Provided that if the question is of attachment with or without sale the amount of fee shall be the ad valorem fee according to the value of the property sought to be protected from attachment with or without sale or the fee of fifteen rupees, whichever is less:

Provided further that, where the defendant is or claims under or through a limited owner, the amount of fee shall be one-sixth of such ad valorem fee, subject to the minimum fee specified above:

Provided also that in any of the cases falling under this clause except its first proviso, when in addition any consequential relief other than possession is sought the amount of fee shall be one-half of ad valorem fee and when the consequential reliefs also sought include a relief for possession the amount of fee shall be the full ad valorem fee;

Declaration for easements etc.—(e) In suits for declaration of easement or right to benefits arising out of immovable property, with or without an injunction or other consequential relief, the amount of fee shall be as shown in the Table below :—

Gujarat

In its application to the State of Gujarat, in the table below sub-clause (e) of clause (iv) in column 1—

(i) in entry (a) for "Municipal Corporations of Greater Bombay, Ahmedabad, Poona and Nagpur" substitute "Municipal Corporation of Ahmedabad;"

(ii) in entry (b) omit 'Sholapur,' 'Kolhapur,' 'Nasik,' 'Thana,' 'Dhulia,' 'Jalgaon,' 'Kalyan,' 'Akola,' 'Amraoti,' 'Aurangabad and Jalna;"

(iii) in entry (c), for "State of Bombay" substitute "State of Gujarat." — Guj. A. L. O. 1960, S. 3 and Schedule (1-5-1960).

For other status without monetary attribute.—(f) In suits for declaration of status to which no direct monetary attribute is attached such as a declaration that the plaintiff is a married husband or wife of the defendant or divorced husband or wife of the defendant or a declaration about legitimacy of children or about citizenship rights or about an adoption—thirty rupees.

Provided that where injunction or other consequential relief is also sought in such case, the amount of fee shall be fifty rupees;

For charge on property.—(g) In suits for declaration of a charge in favour of the plaintiff on movable or immovable property—one-half of ad valorem fee payable on the charge amount.

Provided that where injunction or other consequential relief is also sought in such cases, the amount of fee shall be the full ad valorem fee payable on the charge amount;

For periodical money returns.—(h) In suits for declaration in respect of periodical charge or money return in favour of or against the plaintiff—One-half of ad valorem fee payable on the charge for 5 years if the charge is annual and on the charge for one year if the period of the charge is less than one year;

*[For voidance of sale, contract for sale, etc.—(ha) In suits for declaration that any sale, or contract for sale, or termination of contract of sale, of any moveable or immoveable property is void—one-fourth of ad valorem fee leviable on the value of the property;

(hb) In suits for declaration that any proceedings for compulsory acquisition of any moveable or immoveable property are void—one-fourth of ad valorem fee leviable on the value of the property.]

[*] Inserted by the Maha. Act IX of 1970, S. 4 (a) (16-3-70).

For accounts.—(i) In suits for accounts—according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or memorandum of appeal, subject to the provisions of Section 8, and subject to a minimum fee of twenty rupees;

For other declarations.—(j) In suits where declaration is sought, with or without injunction or other consequential relief and the subject-matter in dispute is not susceptible of monetary evaluation and which are not otherwise provided for by this Act — [ad valorem fee payable, as if the amount or value of the subject-matter was three hundred rupees;] — In all suits under clauses (a) to (i), the plaintiff shall state the amount at which he values the relief sought, with the reasons for the valuation; [] Substituted for 'thirty-rupees' by Maha. Act IX of 1970, S. 4 (b) (16-3-70).

For possession of lands, houses and gardens.—(v) In suits for the possession of lands, houses and gardens—according to the value of the subject-matter, and such value shall be deemed to be, where the subject-matter is a house or garden—according to the market value of the house or garden and where the subject-matter is land, and—

(a) where the land is held on settlement for a period not exceeding thirty years and pays the full assessment to Government—a sum equal to twelve and a half times the survey assessment;

(b) where the land is held on a permanent settlement or on a settlement for any period exceeding thirty years, and pays the full assessment to Government—a sum equal to twenty times the survey assessment; and

(c) where the whole or any part of the annual survey assessment is remitted—a sum computed under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b), as the case may be, in addition to twenty times the assessment, or the portion of assessment, so remitted;

To enforce a right of pre-emption.—(vi) In suits to enforce a right of pre-emption — according to the value (computed in accordance with paragraph (v) of this section) of the land, house or garden in respect of which the right is claimed;

For share in joint property.—(vii) In suit for partition and separate possession of a share of joint family property or of joint property, or to enforce a right to a share in any property on the ground that it is joint family property or joint property whether or not the plaintiff is in actual or constructive possession of the property of which he claims to be a coparcener or co-owner—according to the value of the share in respect of which the suit is instituted;

Explanation.—For the purposes of this paragraph, if the property in which a share is claimed consists of or includes any land assessed to land revenue for the purpose of agriculture, the value of such land shall be deemed to be the value as determined under paragraph (v) of this section;

For interest of assignee of land revenue.—(viii) In suits for the interest of an assignee of land revenue,—fifteen times his net profits as such for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint;

To set aside an attachment.—(ix) In suits to set aside an attachment of land or of an interest in land or revenue—according to the amount for which the land or interest was attached:

Provided that, where such amount exceeds the value of the land or interest, the amount of fee shall be computed as if the suit were for the possession of such land or interest;

To redeem.—(x) In suits against a mortgagee for the recovery of the property mortgaged, and in suit by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage,

To foreclose.—or, when the mortgage is made by conditional sale, to have the sale declared absolute—

according to the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage;

For specific performance.—(xi) In suits for specific performance—

(a) of a contract of sale—according to the amount of consideration.

(b) of a contract of mortgage—according to the amount agreed to be secured,

(c) of a contract of lease—according to the aggregate amount of the fine or premium (if any) and of the rent agreed to be paid during the first year of the term,

(d) of an award—according to the amount or value of the property in dispute;

Between landlord and tenant.—(xii) In the following suits between landlord and tenant:—

(a) for the delivery by a tenant of the counterpart of a lease,

(b) to enhance the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy,

(c) for the delivery by a landlord of a lease,

(d) for the recovery of immovable property from a tenant, including a tenant holding over after the determination of a tenancy,

(e) to contest a notice of ejectment,

(f) to recover the occupancy of immovable property from which a tenant has been illegally ejected by the landlord, and

(g) for abatement of rent—

according to the amount of the rent of the immovable property to which the suit refers, payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

7. Fee on memorandum of appeal against order or award relating to compensation in certain cases.—(1) The amount of fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of land for public purposes shall be computed according to the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

(2) The amount of fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against an award of a Claims Tribunal preferred under Section 110-D of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1939, shall be computed as follows:

(i) If such appeal is preferred by the insurer or owner of the motor vehicle — the full ad valorem fee leviable on the amount at which the relief is valued in the memorandum of appeal according to the scale prescribed under Article 1 of Schedule I;

(ii) If such appeal is preferred by any other person—one-half of ad valorem fee leviable on the amount at which the relief is valued in the memorandum of appeal according to the said scale:

Provided that if such person succeeds in the appeal, he shall be liable to make good the deficit, if any, between the full ad valorem fee payable on the relief awarded in the appeal according to the said scale and the fee already paid by him; and the amount of such deficit shall, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

8. Inquiry as to valuation of suits.—If the Court is of opinion that the subject-matter of any suit has been wrongly valued or if an application is made to the Court for the revision of any valuation made, the Court may revise the valuation and determine the correct valuation and may hold such inquiry as it thinks fit for such purpose.

9. Investigation to ascertain proper valuation.—(1) For the purpose of the inquiry under Section 8 the Court may depute, or issue a commission to any suitable person to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court. Such report and any evidence recorded by such person shall be evidence in inquiry.

(2) The Court may, from time to time, direct such party to the suit as it thinks fit to deposit such sum as the Court thinks reasonable as the costs of the

(1) The expressions 'amount awarded' and 'amount claimed' in Section 7 (1) of Bombay Court Fees Act do not include interest awarded or interest claimed. AIR 1965 Guj 212 (213) = (1964) 5 Guj LR 862 (DB).

(2) Appeal against the order awarding compensation under Land Acquisition Act — Court-fee is to be paid on the difference between the amount of compensation awarded and the amount of compensation claimed in appeal. AIR 1967 Guj 182 (183) = (1966) 7 Guj LR 689.

Section 8 — Note 1

(1) The section enables a Court whenever a question of valuation of the subject-matter of the suit is raised to decide the same. The manner of enquiry is left to the Court. AIR 1966 Bom 113 (115) = 67 Bom LR 452 (DB).

(2) Suit for declaration and injunction that a sale deed effected by 1st defendant in favour of defendant 2 was illegal, ineffective and void and for injunction — Valuation put by plaintiff not shown to be wrong — The Court is incompetent to revise it under Sec. 8-A of the Court Fees Act 1870 as amended by Bombay Act 12 of 1954. AIR 1959 Bom 517 (519) = 60 Bom LR 587 (DB). (Case under old law.)

inquiry, and if the costs are not deposited within such time as the Court shall fix, may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, reject the plaint or as the case may be, the appeal, if such party is the plaintiff or the appellant and in any other case, may recover the costs as a public demand:

Provided that when any plaint or appeal is rejected under this section the, court-fee already paid shall not be liable to be refunded.

10. Power of persons making inquiry under Sections 8 and 9.—(1) The Court, when making an inquiry under Section 8 and any person making an investigation, under Section 9 shall have respectively for the purposes of such inquiry or investigation, the powers vested in a Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely:

(a) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath or affirmation;

(b) compelling the production of documents or material objects;

(c) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses;

(d) taking or receiving evidence on affidavits.

(2) An inquiry or investigation referred to in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of Sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code.

11. Costs of inquiry as to valuation and refund of excess fee.—If in the result of an inquiry under Section 8 the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has been under-valued, the Court may order the party responsible for the undervaluation to pay all or any part of the costs of the inquiry.

If in the result of such inquiry the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has not been undervalued the Court may, in its discretion, order that all or any part of such costs shall be paid by Government or by any party to the suit at whose instance the inquiry has been undertaken and if any amount exceeding the proper amount of fee has been paid shall refund the excess amount so paid.

12. Appointment of inspecting officers and recovery in cases reported by them.—(1) The State Government may appoint generally, or in any case, or for any specified class of cases in any local area, one or more officers to be called inspecting officers.

(2) The inspecting officer may, subject to the control of the Court concerned examine the records of any case which is pending or has been disposed of, with a view to finding out whether proper fees have been paid therein.

(3) If on such examination, the inspecting officer finds that the fee payable under this Act on any document filed, exhibited or recorded in such case has not been paid or has been insufficiently paid, he shall report the fact to the presiding officer of the Court.

(4) Such presiding officer after satisfying himself of the correctness of such report, shall record a provisional finding that the proper fee has not been paid and determine the amount of the fee payable and such further sum as he thinks reasonable as the costs of the inquiry and the person from whom the fee, or the difference thereof, if any, and the costs shall be recoverable.

(5) After recording a finding under sub-section (4), the presiding officer shall issue a notice to the person referred to in that sub-section to show cause why he should not be ordered to pay the fee and the costs determined hereunder, and, if sufficient cause is not shown, the presiding officer shall confirm the finding and make an order requiring such person to pay the proper fee and the costs before a specified date.

(6) If such person fails to pay the fee and the costs in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (5), they shall, on the certificate of such presiding officer, be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

13. Taxing of court-fees and their recovery in suits for mesne profits or account.—(1) In a suit for the recovery of possession of immovable property and mesne profits or for mesne profits or for an account, the difference, if any, between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits or amount found due shall, on delivery of judgment, be taxed by the Court and shall be leviable from the plaintiff and if not paid by him within thirty days from the date of the judgment be recoverable according to the law and under the rules for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue.

(2) The Court shall send a copy of the decree passed in such suit to the Collector.

(3) No decree for mesne profits passed in any such suit by the Court shall be executed, until a certificate to the effect that such difference is paid or recovered, signed by the Court which passed the decree or by the Collector who recovered the amount, is produced along with the application for such execution.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, "plaintiff" includes any party to a suit to whom any profits or amount are or is found to be due.

14. Decision of questions as to valuation.—(1) Every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under this Chapter on a plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint or memorandum as the case may be, is filed, and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the suit.

(2) But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided to the detriment of the revenue, it shall require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided.

15. Refund of fee paid on memorandum of appeal.—If an appeal or plaint, which has been rejected by the lower Court on any of the grounds mentioned in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, is ordered to be received, or if a suit is remanded in appeal, on any of the grounds mentioned in Rule 23 of Order 41 in the first Schedule to the same Code for a second decision by the lower Court, the Appellate Court shall grant to the appellant a certificate, authorising him to receive back from the Collector the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal:

Provided that if, in the case of a remand in appeal the order of remand shall not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the certificate so granted shall not authorize the appellant to receive back more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on the part or parts of such subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

16. Refund of fee on application for review of judgment.—Where an application for review of judgment is presented on or after the ninetieth day from the date of the decree, the Court, unless the delay was caused by the applicant's laches, may, in its discretion, grant him a certificate authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee which would have been payable had it been presented before such day.

17. Refund where Court reverses or modifies its former decision on ground of mistake.—Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted, and where, on the rehearing, the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact, the applicant shall be entitled to a certificate from the Court authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under the second Schedule to this Act, No. 1, clause (c) or cl. (f).

But nothing in the former part of this section shall entitle the applicant to such certificate where the reversal or modification is due, wholly or in part, to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing.

*[17-A. Period of limitation for refund of fees under Section 15, 16 or 17.—Where a certificate is granted to any person under Section 15, 16 or 17, no fee thereunder shall be refunded, unless such person presents it to the Collector, or such other authority as may be prescribed by rules, for encashment, within two years from the date of issue of the certificate by the Court.]

[*] Inserted by Maha. Act 18 of 1966, S. 2 (16-6-1966).

18. Multifarious suits.—Where a suit embraces two or more distinct subjects, the plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees to which the plaints or memoranda of appeal in suits embracing separately each of such subjects would be liable under this Act.

Nothing in the former part of this section shall be deemed to affect the power conferred by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, Schedule I, Order 2, Rule 6.

19. Written examinations of complainants.—When the first or only examination of a person who complains of the offence of wrongful confinement, or of wrongful restraint, or of any offence other than an offence for which police officers may arrest without a warrant, and who has not already presented a petition on which a fee has been levied under this Act, is reduced to writing under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the complainant shall pay a fee of one rupee unless the Court thinks fit to remit such payment.

20. *[(1)] Exemption of certain documents.—Nothing contained in this Act shall render the following documents chargeable with any fee:—

(i) Power-of-attorney to institute or defend a suit when executed by a member of any of the Armed Forces of the Union not in civil employment.

(ii) Application for certified copies of documents or for any other purpose in the course of a criminal proceeding presented by or on behalf of the State Government to a criminal Court.

(iii) Written statements called for by the Court after the first hearing of a suit.

(iv) Probate of a will, letters of administration, and, save as regards debts and securities, a certificate under Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827† or any corresponding law in force, where the amount or value of the property in respect of which the probate or letters or certificates shall be granted does not exceed one thousand rupees.

(v) Application or petition to a Collector or other officer making a settlement of land revenue, or to a Board of Revenue, or a Commissioner of Revenue, relating to matters connected with the assessment of land or the ascertainment of rights thereto or interest therein, if presented, previous to the final confirmation of such settlement.

(vi) Application relating to a supply for irrigation of water belonging to Government.

(vii) Application for leave to extend cultivation, or to relinquish land, when presented to an officer of land revenue by a person holding, under direct engagement with Government, land of which the revenue is settled, but not permanently.

(viii) Application for service of notice of relinquishment of land or of enhancement of rent.

(ix) Written authority to an agent to distrain.

(x) Petition, application, charge or information respecting any offence when presented, made or laid to or before a Police Officer, or to or before the Heads of Villages or the Village Police.

(xi) Petition by a prisoner, or other person in duress or under restraint of any Court or its Officer.

(xii) Complaint of a public servant (as defined in the Indian Penal Code), a municipal Officer, or an officer or servant of a Railway Company.

(xiii) Application for the payment of money due by Government to the applicant.

(xiv) Petition of appeal against any municipal tax.

(xv) Applications for compensation under any law for the time being in force relating to the acquisition of property for public purposes other than those chargeable under Article 15 of Schedule I.

*[(2) Nothing contained in this Act shall render an application to the Court under Section 543 of the Companies Act, 1956, chargeable with any fees:

Provided that, if the applicant succeeds, the person, director, managing agent, Secretary and treasurer, manager, liquidator or officer of the company concerned against whom an order is made by the Court under that section, shall be liable to pay the fee leviable on a plaint in a suit for the same relief as is ordered by the Court; and the amount of such fee shall, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.]

PROBATES, LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION AND CERTIFICATES OF ADMINISTRATION

21. Relief where too high a court-fee has been paid.—Where any person on applying for the probate of a will or letters of administration has estimated the property of the deceased to be of greater value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has consequently paid too high a court-fee thereon, if, within six months after the true value of the property has been ascertained, such person produces the probate or letters to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority for the local area in which the probate or letters have or has been granted, and delivers to such Authority a particular inventory and valuation of the property of the deceased, verified by affidavit or affirmation, and if such Authority is satisfied that a greater fee was paid on the probate or letters than the law required, the said Authority may—

(a) cancel the stamp on the probate or letters if such stamp has not been already cancelled;

(b) substitute another stamp for denoting the court-fee which should have been paid thereon; and

(c) make an allowance for the difference between them as in the case of spoiled stamps, or repay the same in money, at his discretion.

22. Relief when debts due from a deceased person have been paid out of his estate.—Whenever it is proved to the satisfaction of such Authority that an executor or administrator has paid debts due from the deceased to such an amount as, being deducted out of the amount or value of the estate, reduces the same to a sum which, if it had been the whole gross amount or value of the estate, would have occasioned a less court-fee to be paid on the probate or letters of administration granted in respect of such estate than has been actually paid thereon under this Act, such Authority may return the difference, provided the same be claimed within three years after the date of such probate or letters.

But when, by reason of any legal proceeding, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available, and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said term of three years, the said Authority may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to be reasonable under the circumstances.

23. Relief in case of several grants.—Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration has been or is made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate, and the full fee chargeable under this Act has been or is paid thereon, no fee shall be chargeable under the same Act when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

Whenever such a grant has been or is made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fees then actually paid under this Act shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of property belonging to the same estate, identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

24. Probates declared valid as to trust property though not covered by court-fee.—The probate of the will or the letters of administration of the effects of any person deceased heretobefore or hereafter granted shall be deemed valid and available by his executors or administrators for recovering, transferring or assigning any movable or immovable property whereof or whereto the deceased was possessed or entitled either wholly or partially as a trustee, notwithstanding the amount or value of such property is not included in the amount or value of the estate in respect of which a court-fee was paid on such probate or letters of administration.

25. Provision for case where too low a court-fee has been paid on probates, etc.—Where any person on applying for probate or letters of administration has estimated the estate of the deceased to be of less value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has in consequence paid too low a court-fee thereon, the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority for the local area in which the probate or letters has or have been granted may, on the value of the estate of the deceased being verified by affidavit or affirmation, cause the probate or letters of administration to be duly stamped on payment of the full court-fee which ought to have been originally paid thereon in respect of such value and of the further penalty, if the probate or letters is or are produced within one year from the date of the grant, of five times, or, if it or they is or are produced after one year from such date, of twenty times, such proper court-fee, without any deduction of the court-fee originally paid on such probate or letters:

Provided that if the application be made within six months after the ascertainment of the true value of the estate and the discovery that too low a court-fee was at first paid on the probate or letters, and if the said Authority is satisfied that such fee was paid in consequence of a mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, and without any intention of fraud or to delay the payment of the proper court-fee, the said Authority may remit the said penalty, and cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment only of the sum wanting to make up the fee which should have been at first paid thereon.

26. Administrator to give proper security before letters stamped under Section 25.—In case of letters of administration on which too low a court-fee has been paid at first, the said Authority shall not cause the same to be fully stamped in a manner aforesaid until the administrator has given such security to the Court by which the letters of administration have been granted as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased had been then ascertained.

27. Executors, etc., not paying full court-fee on probates, etc., within six months after discovery of underpayment.—Where too low a court-fee has been paid on any probate or letters of administration in consequence of any mistake, or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator acting under such probate or letters does not, within six months after the discovery of the mistake or of any effects not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, apply to the said Authority and pay what is wanting to make up the court-fee which ought to have been paid at first on such probate or letters, he shall forfeit the sum of one thousand rupees and also a further sum at the rate of ten rupees per cent on the amount of the sum wanting to make up the proper court-fee.

28. Notice of applications for probate or letters of administration to be given to Revenue authorities, and procedure thereon.—(1) Where an application for probate or letters of administration is made to any Court other than the High Court, the Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Collector.

(2) Where such an application as aforesaid is made to the High Court, the High Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.

(3) The Collector within the local limits of whose revenue jurisdiction the property of the deceased or any part thereof is, may at any time inspect or cause to be inspected, and take or cause to be taken copies of, the record of any case in which application for probate or letters of administration has been made; and if on such inspection or otherwise, he is of opinion that the petitioner has underestimated the value of the property of the deceased, the Collector shall forward his report, giving therein his reasons for his opinion and his estimate of the true valuation, to the Prothonotary of the High Court or the Court, as the case may be, serving at the same time a copy of his report on the petitioner.

(4) If within thirty days from the date of receipt of the copy of the Collector's report served on him under sub-section (3), the petitioner does not file in Court his objections to the Collector's valuation, the Court shall make an order amending the petitioner's valuation in accordance with the report of the Collector.

(5) If within the aforesaid period the petitioner files in Court his objection, the Court shall hold, or cause to be held, an inquiry in accordance with the provisions of Ss. 9, 10 and 11 as if the application were a suit, and shall record a finding as to the true value as near as may be, at which the property of the deceased should have been estimated. The Collector shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.

(6) The finding of the Court recorded under sub-section (5) shall be final, but shall not bar the entertainment and disposal by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority of any application under Section 25.

(7) The State Government may make rules for the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3).

29. Payment of court-fee in respect of probate and letters of administration.—(1) No order entitling the petitioner to the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be made upon an application for such grant until the petitioner has filed in the Court a valuation of the property in the form set forth in the Third Schedule, and the Court is satisfied that the fee mentioned in No. 10 of the First Schedule has been paid on such valuation.

(2) The grant of probate or letters of administration shall not be delayed by reason of any report made by the Collector under Section 28, sub-section (3).

30. Recovery of penalties, etc.—(1) Any excess fee found to be payable on an inquiry held under Section 28, and any penalty or forfeiture under Section 27 may, on the certificate of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, be recovered from the executor or administrator as if it were an arrear of land revenue by any Collector

(2) The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may remit the whole or any part of any such penalty or forfeiture as aforesaid or any part of any penalty under Section 25 or of any court-fee under Section 25 in excess of the full court-fee which ought to have been paid.

31. Sections 5 and 40 not to apply to probates or letters of administration.—Nothing in Section 5 or Section 40 shall apply to probates or letters of administration.

CHAPTER V

PROCESS FEES

32. Rules as to cost of processes.—The High Court shall make rules as to the following matters:—

(i) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by such Court in its appellate jurisdiction, and by the other Civil and Revenue Courts established within the local limits of such jurisdiction;

(ii) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Criminal Courts, established within such limits in the case of offences other than offences for which police officers may arrest without a warrant; and

(iii) the remuneration of the peons and all other persons employed by leave of a Court in the service or execution of processes.

The High Court may from time to time alter and add to the rules so made.

Confirmation and publication of rules.—All such rules, alterations and additions shall, after being confirmed by the State Government, be published in the Official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

33. Tables of process-fees.—A table in the English and regional languages, showing the fees chargeable for such service and execution shall be exposed to view in a conspicuous part of each Court.

34. Number of peons in District and subordinate Courts.—Subject to rules to be made by the High Court and approved by the State Government, every District Judge, the Principal Judge of the Bombay City Civil Court and every Magistrate of a District shall fix, and may from time to time alter the number of peons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued out of his Court, and each of the Courts subordinate thereto;

Number of peons in mofussil Small Cause Courts.—and for the purposes of this section, every Court of Small Causes established under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, shall be deemed to be subordinate to the Court of the District Judge.

In its application to the State of Gujarat, in Section 34, after the words "every District Judge," insert the words "the Principal Judge of the Ahmedabad City Civil Court".—Guj. Act 29 of 1962, S. 6 (6-9-1962).

35. Number of peons in Revenue Courts.—Subject to rules to be framed by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority and approved by the State Government, every officer performing the functions of a Collector of a District shall fix, and may from time to time alter, the number of peons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued out of his Court or the Courts subordinate to him

OF THE MODE OF LEVYING FEES

36. Rate of fee in force on date of presentation of document to be applicable.—All fees shall be charged and collected under this Act at the rate in force on the date on which the document chargeable to court-fee is or was presented.

37. Collection of fees by stamps.—All fees referred to in Section 3 or chargeable under this Act shall be collected by stamps.

38. Stamps to be impressed or adhesive.—The stamps used to denote any fees chargeable under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive or partly impressed or partly adhesive, as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette from time to time, direct.

39. Rules for supply, number, renewal and keeping accounts of stamps.—The State Government may, from time to time, make rules for regulating—

(a) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act,

(b) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act,

(c) the renewal of damaged or spoiled stamps, and

(d) the keeping accounts of all stamps used under this Act:

Provided that in the case of stamps used under Section 3 in the High Court, such rules shall be made with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of such Court.

All such rules shall be published in the Official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

40. Stamping documents inadvertently received.—No document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act shall be of any validity, unless and until it is properly stamped.

But, if any such document is through mistake or inadvertence received, filed or used in any Court or office without being properly stamped, the presiding Judge or the head of the office, as the case may be, or, in the case of the High Court, any Judge of such Court, may, if he thinks fit, order that such document be stamped as he may direct; and, on such document being stamped accordingly, the same and every proceeding relative thereto shall be as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance.

41. Amended document.—Where any such document is amended in order merely to correct a mistake and to make it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp.

Section 36 — Note 1

(1) The provision of the section by itself is not sufficient to indicate a necessary intention to affect the vested rights even in the matter of rates charged. (1961) 63 Bom LR 667 = 1961 NLJ 436 (443).

Section 40 — Note 1

(1) Question of sufficiency of stamps for document received by public officer is to be finally decided by public officer alone — The Court before which the documents have come has no authority to decide the question — If the Court of law thinks the document insufficiently stamped it should refer it back to the public officer for the purpose. AIR 1967 Bom 224 (226, 227) = 68 Bom LR 555. (Reference by collector under Section 18 Land Acquisition Act — Court to which reference is made has no power to decide sufficiency of Court-fee stamp on the reference application received by collector.)

(2) An application to the collector for making a reference to a Court of law under Section 18 of Land Acquisition Act — Application insufficiently stamped — The defect does not render the application inherently invalid — Defect can be cured under Section 40. AIR 1967 Bom 224 (227) = 68 Bom LR 555.

[See however AIR 1967 Guj 154 (187) = (1966) 7 Guj LR 879 (DB). (Application without proper stamp is no application at all.)]

42. Cancellation of stamp.—No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or office until the stamp has been cancelled.

Such officer as the Court or the head of office may from time to time appoint shall, on receiving any such document, forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figurehead so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched, and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

CHAPTER VII
MISCELLANEOUS

43. Repayment of fee in certain circumstances.—(1) When any suit in a Court *[or any proceeding instituted by presenting a petition to a Court under the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955,] is settled by agreement of parties before any evidence is recorded, or any appeal or cross-objection is settled by agreement of parties before it is called on for effective hearing by the Court, half the amount of the fee paid by the plaintiff, *[petitioner], appellant, or respondent on the plaint, *[petition,] appeal or cross-objection, as the case may be, shall be repaid to him by the Court:

Provided that no such fee shall be repaid if the amount of fee paid does not exceed five rupees or the claim for repayment is not made within one year from the date on which the suit, *[proceeding,] appeal or cross-objection was settled by agreement.

(1) Effective hearing means hearing relating to merits of appeal and consists of Court applying its mind to merits of case. AIR 1967 Bom 411 (412) = 69 Bom LR 184 (DB).

(2) Appeal withdrawn long before the new Act came into force — Application for refund made after the new Act, 1959 came in force — Section 43 of the Act or notification thereunder does not apply — No provision for refund on appeals in the old Act — No refund allowed. AIR 1961 Guj 31 (33) = (1960) 1 Guj LR 193  (1962) 40 Mys LJ 263 (267) (DB).

(3) Suit compromised after framing of issue or recording of evidence — Plaintiff is not entitled to refund of Court-fees. AIR 1960 Mys 215 (216) = 38 Mys LJ 171. (Case under old law.)

(4) In cases of suits allowed to be filed in forma pauperis it is not necessary for the application of Section 31, Court-fees Act 1870 (as amended by Bombay Act 12 of 1954) that the Court-fee should be paid before the settlement of issues or recording of evidence but that it should be recovered from the plaintiff. AIR 1962 Bom 23 (27) = 63 Bom LR 307. (Case under old Act.)

(5) Neither the section, S. 31 of Act 1870 as amended by Act 22 of 1954 nor the Notification No. 1123/7, dated 26th March, 1954 issued by the Bombay Government indicate that an application for the repayment of the specified portion of the institution fee is necessary. ('58) 60 Bom LR 869 (872). (Even assuming that such an application by the plaintiff is necessary an application made some days after the suit actually reached hearing and was dismissed is not incompetent.)

(6) After an application for refund of Court Fee is made ordinarily, it would not be necessary to record any oral evidence, to prove that the suit was got dismissed but a satisfactory affidavit setting out all the necessary material facts would be sufficient. It may become necessary in exceptional cases, that the contents of the affidavit may call for the taking of oral evidence to satisfy the Court that the dismissal of a suit for want of prosecution was got or brought about or procured by the plaintiffs deliberately and intentionally. (1958) 60 Bom LR 869 (872). (Case under Section 31 of the Court-fees Act (1870 as amended in Bombay in 1954.)

(7) Looking to the phraseology of Item 3 of the schedule annexed to the notification No. 1123/7, dated 26-3-1954 issued by the Bombay Government under Section 31. (2) it is clear that the item applies only to cases of intentionally bringing about a dismissal. The plaintiff would be entitled to obtain refund of the institution fee as the language of the notification does not warrant its application being confined to cases of dismissal of suits for non-prosecution brought about by the active conduct of the plaintiff but also to cases dismissed by passive conduct by not appearing at the hearing. (1958) 60 Bom LR 869 (872). (Case under Court-fees Act 1870, as amended in Bombay in 1954, Sec. 31)

(2) The State Government may, from time to time, by order,† provide for repayment to the plaintiffs, *[petitioners,] appellants or respondents of any part of the fee paid by them on plaints, *[petitions], appeals or cross-objections, in suits, *[proceedings] or appeals disposed of under such circumstances, and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the order.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, effective hearing shall exclude the dates when the appeal is merely adjourned without being heard or argued.

44. Admission in criminal cases of documents for which proper fee has not been paid.—Whenever the filing or exhibition in a Criminal Court of a document in respect of which the proper fee has not been paid is, in the opinion of the presiding Judge, necessary to prevent a failure of justice, nothing contained in Section 5 shall be deemed to prohibit such filing or exhibition.

45. Sale of stamps.—(1) The State Government may, from time to time, make rules for regulating the sale of stamps to be used under this Act, the persons by whom alone such sale is to be conducted, and the duties and remuneration of such persons.

(2) All such rules shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall thereupon have the force of law.

(3) Any person appointed to sell stamps who disobeys any rule made under this section, and any person not so appointed who sells or offers for sale any stamp, shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

46. Power to reduce or remit fees.—The State Government may, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette, reduce or remit, in the whole or in any part of the territories under its administration all or any of the fees mentioned in the First and Second Schedules to this Act annexed, and may in like manner cancel or vary such order.

47. Saving of fees to certain officers of High Court.—Nothing in Chapters II and VI of this Act applies to the fees which any officer of the High Court is allowed to receive in addition to a fixed salary.

(1) Collector or Special Officer acting under Section 18 of Land Acquisition Act not a Civil Court—Gujarat Government notification No. CFA 1061/3529 D/- 13-9-63 issued under S. 46 applied only to documents filed in Civil Courts or Criminal Courts—Remittance on application filed under Section 18, Land Acquisition Act could not be claimed — Subsequent notification dated 14-6-1965 amending earlier notification and making it applicable to applications before Land Acquisition Officer — Remittance on such application can now be claimed — Notification dt/- 14-6-1965 not retrospective. AIR 1967 Guj 154 (158) = (1966) 7 Guj LR 879 (DB).

(1) Right to continue appeal under the law relating to Court fees which governed the said right at the date when the suit was filed not taken away expressly or by implication by new law —

Provided that such repeal shall not affect the previous operation of any of the laws so repealed and anything done or any action taken (including any appointment, notification, order, rule, form, application, reference, notice, report or certificate made or issued) under any such law shall in so far as it is not inconsistent with provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provision of this Act and shall continue to be in force accordingly, unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under this Act:

Provided further that all the fees shall be charged and collected under this Act at the rate in force on the date on which the document chargeable to court-fee is or was presented.

(2) (a) All stamps in denominations of annas four or multiples thereof shall be deemed to be stamps of the value of twenty-five naye paise or, as the case may be, multiples thereof and valid accordingly.

(b) If any person is possessed of a stamp or stamps in any denominations, other than denominations of annas four or multiples thereof, and such stamp or stamps has or have not been spoiled, the Collector shall repay to such person the value of such stamp or stamps in money calculated in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 14 of the Indian Coinage Act, 1906, upon such person delivering up, within six months from the commencement of this Act, such stamp or stamps to the Collector.

50. Amendment of Suits Valuation Acts.—On the commencement of this Act, the laws specified in col. 3 of Schedule V hereto annexed shall be amended in the manner and to the extent specified in col. 4 thereof.

51. No stamp duty payable where court-fee paid in suit for partition.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Bombay Stamp Act, 1958 where court-fee is paid in a suit for partition in accordance with the provisions of clause (vii) of Section 6 of this Act, no stamp duty shall be payable on a final order for effecting a partition passed by any Revenue Authority or any Civil Court under Article 46 in Schedule I to the Bombay Stamp Act, 1958.

52. Rules made by Government to be laid before State Legislature.—All rules made by the State Government under this Act shall be laid before each House of the State Legislature as soon as may be after they are made and shall be subject to such modifications as the State Legislature may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

The old law continues to govern the right of appeal — The provisions of Chapter III and Section 36 do not affect such right. 1961 Nag LJ 436 (439, 442, 443) = 63 Bom LR 667.

(2) The first part of the proviso saves the vested rights brought in existence by the previous operation of the repealed law. (1961) 63 Bom LR 667 = 1961 NLJ 436 (445) (DB).

(3) The meaning and effect of the two provisos is that in suits instituted before the coming into force of the new Act the computation of the claim involved in the suit will be in accordance with the provisions of the repealed Act throughout all stages of the suit including final appeal while the rates of Court fees which will be chargeable on the documents filed after the commencement of the new Act will be according to the rates prescribed in the new Act. 1961 NLJ 436 (445) = 63 Bom LR 667 (DB)  AIR 1963 Guj 40 (45) = (1963) 4 Guj LR 317 (DB)  AIR 1962 Bom 106 (120, 121) = 63 Bom LR 834 (DB). (The Act is retrospective only with reference to the rates of Court-fees to be charged but. it is not retrospective with regard to the computation of the claim.)  AIR 1961 Guj 144 (148, 149) = (1962) 2 Guj LR 227 (FB). (1960 Guj LR 208, Overruled.)

(4) An application under Section 433 of the Companies Act filed before the Act 36 of 1956 — Appeal from an order refusing to wind up company filed after the Act 36 of 1956 came into force — Appeal is governed by the Court-fees Act 1870 as amended in Bombay by Act 12 of 1954 which was in force at the time of making the application. AIR 1966 Mys 150 (151) = (1965) 1 Mys LJ 557 (DB). (Case under old Act.)

Schedule I, Article 16

(1) Levy imposed by Schedule I, Article 16 of the Act is neither a tax nor a fee in the strict sense of the term and is within the competence of the State Legislature under Schedule 7, List 2, Entry 3. AIR 1962 Bom 106 (114) = 63 Bom LR 834 (DB).

(2) Article is not discriminatory and does not offend Art. 14. AIR 1962 Bom 106 (155) = 63 Bom LR 834 (DB).

(3) Application by an assessee under Section 66, Income Tax Act after the new Act came into force — Assessment proceedings commenced under the old law — Article 16, Schedule I will not apply — Schedule 2, Article 1 (d) of old Act will apply because Article 16, Schedule 1 changes the classification of the item and shifts it from schedule of fixed fee to schedule of ad valorem fee. AIR 1962 Bom 106 (120, 121) = 63 Bom LR 834 (DB).

(4) The word assessed relates to the stage of assessment i.e., when the amount of assessment is particularised and the precise amount of fee is fixed. The proper meaning of the Article is that ad valorem Court fee is leviable on the amount of tax in dispute and not on any other amount. AIR 1961 Guj 144 (150, 151) = (1961) 2 Guj LR 227 (FB).

[THE] HIMACHAL PRADESH COURT-FEES ACT, 1968

An Act to levy court-fees in the Union Territory of Himachal Pradesh.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of Himachal Pradesh in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE HIMACHAL PRADESH COURT-FEES ACT, 1968.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Union Territory of Himachal Pradesh.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "High Court" means the High Court of Delhi;

(b) "Official Gazette" means the Rajpatra, Himachal Pradesh;

(c) "State Government" means the Lieutenant Governor of the Union Territory of Himachal Pradesh.

CHAPTER II

FEES IN THE HIGH COURT

3. Levy of fees in the High Court.—The fees payable for the time being to the clerks and officers of the High Court or chargeable in that Court under No. 9 of the First, and Nos. 7, 10, 11, 16 and 17 of the Second Schedule to this Act annexed shall be collected in the manner hereinafter appearing.

4. Fees on documents filed, etc., in the High Court in its ordinary and extraordinary jurisdiction.—No document of any of the kinds specified in the First or Second Schedule to this Act annexed, as chargeable with fees, shall be filed, exhibited or recorded in, or shall be received or furnished by, the High Court in any case coming before such Court,—

(a) in the exercise of its ordinary or extraordinary original civil jurisdiction; or

(b) in the exercise of its jurisdiction as regards appeals from the Courts subject to its superintendence; or

(c) in the exercise of its jurisdiction as a Court of reference or revision; or

(d) in the exercise of its jurisdiction to issue directions, orders or writs under the Constitution of India; or unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated by either of the said schedules as the proper fee for such document.

(e) in the exercise of its jurisdiction in any other manner;

5. Procedure in case of difference as to necessity or amount of fee.—(1) When any difference arises between the officer whose duty it is to see that any fee is paid under this chapter and any suit or attorney, as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof, the question shall, when the difference arises in the High Court, be referred to the Taxing Officer, whose decision thereon shall be final, except when the question is, in his opinion, one of general importance, in which case he shall refer it to the final decision of the Chief Justice of the High Court or of such Judge of the High Court as the Chief Justice shall appoint either generally or specially in this behalf.

(2) The Chief Justice of the High Court shall declare who shall be the Taxing Officer for the purpose of sub-section (1).

FEES IN OTHER COURTS AND IN PUBLIC OFFICES

6. Fees on documents filed, etc., in mofussil Courts or in public offices.—Except in the High Court, no document of any of the kinds specified as chargeable in the First or Second Schedule to this Act annexed shall be filed, exhibited or recorded in any Court of Justice, or shall be received or furnished by any public officer, unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated by either of the said Schedules as the proper fee for such document.

7. Computation of fees payable in certain suits.—The amount of fee payable under this Act in the suits next hereinafter mentioned shall be computed as follows:—

for money;

(i) In suits for money (including suits for damages or compensation, or arrears of maintenance, of annuities, or of other sums payable periodically)—according to the amount claimed;

for maintenance and annuities;

(ii) (a) In suits for maintenance and annuities or other sums payable periodically—according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value shall be deemed to be ten times the amount claimed to be payable for one year;

(b) In suits for reduction or enhancement of maintenance and annuities or other sums payable, periodically—according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit and such value shall be deemed to be ten times the amount sought to be reduced or enhanced for one year;

for other movable property having a market-value;

(iii) In suits for movable property other than money, where the subject-matter has a market-value—according to such value at the date of presenting the plaint;

(iv) In suits—

for movable property of no market-value;

(a) for movable property where the subject-matter has no market-value, as, for instance, in the case of documents relating to title; to enforce a right to share in joint family property;

(b) to enforce the right to share in any property on the ground that it is joint family property;

for a declaratory decree and consequential relief;

(c) to obtain a declaratory decree or order, where consequential relief is prayed;

for an injunction;

(d) to obtain an injunction;

for easements;

(e) for a right to some benefit (not herein otherwise provided for) to arise out of land; and

for accounts;

(f) for accounts;

according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or memorandum of appeal;

In all such suits the plaintiff shall state the amount at which he values the relief sought:

Provided that the minimum court-fee in each case shall be thirteen rupees:

Provided further that in suit coming under sub-clause (c), in cases where the relief sought is with reference to any property, such valuation shall not be less than the value of the property calculated in the manner provided for by paragraph (v) of this section;

For possession of land, houses and gardens;

(v) In suits for the possession of land, houses and gardens—according to the value of the subject-matter and such value shall be deemed to be—where the subject-matter is land, and—

(a) where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government; or forms part of such an estate and is recorded in the Collector's register as separately assessed with such revenue.

and such revenue is permanently settled—ten times the revenue so payable;

(b) where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government or forms part of such estate and is recorded as aforesaid; and such revenue is settled, but not permanently—ten times the revenue so payable;

(c) where the land pays no such revenue, or has been partially exempted from such payment, or is charged with any fixed payment in lieu of such revenue;

and net profits have arisen from the land during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint—fifteen times such net profits, but where no such net profits have arisen therefrom—the amount at which the Court shall estimate the land with reference to the value of similar land in the neighbourhood;

(d) where the land forms part of an estate paying revenue to Government, but is not a definite share of such estate and is not separately assessed as above mentioned—the market-value of the land;

Explanation.—The word "estate", as used, in this paragraph, means any land subject to the payment of revenue, for which the proprietor or a farmer or ryot shall have executed a separate engagement to Government, or which, in the absence of such engagement, shall have been separately assessed with revenue;

for houses and gardens;

(e) where the subject-matter is house or garden—according to the market-value of the house or garden;

enforce a right of pre-emption;

(vi) In suits to enforce a right of pre-emption—according to the value (computed in accordance with paragraph (v) of this section) of the land, house or garden in respect of which the right is claimed;

for interest of assignee of land revenue;

(vii) In suits for the interest of an assignee of land revenue—fifteen times his net profits as such for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint;

to set aside an attachment;

(viii) In suits to set aside an attachment of land or of an interest in land or revenue—according to the amount for which the land or interest was attached:

Provided that, where such amount exceeds the value of the land or interest, the amount of fee shall be computed as if the suit were for the possession of such land or interest;

to redeem;

(ix) In suits against a mortgagee for the recovery of the property mortgaged—according to half the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage:

to foreclose;

and in suits by mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage, or, where the mortgage is made by conditional sale, to have the sale declared absolute—according to the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage;

for specific performance;

(x) In suits for specific performance,—

(a) of a contract of sale—according to the amount of the consideration;

(b) of a contract of mortgage—according to the amount agreed to be secured;

(c) of a contract of lease—according to the aggregate amount of the fine or premium (if any) and of the rent agreed to be paid during the first year of the term;

(d) of an award—according to the amount or value of the property in dispute;

between landlord and tenant;

(xi) In the following suits between landlord and tenant:—

(a) for the delivery by tenant of the counterpart of a lease;

(b) to enhance the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy;

(c) for the delivery by a landlord of a lease;

(d) for the recovery of immovable property from a tenant, including a tenant holding over after the determination of a tenancy;

(e) to contest a notice of ejectment;

(f) to recover the occupancy of immovable property from which a tenant has been illegally ejected by the landlord; and

(g) for abatement of rent—according to the amount of the rent of the immovable property to which the suit refers payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

8. Fee on memorandum of appeal against order relating to compensation.— The amount of fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of land for public purposes, shall be computed according to the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

9. Power to ascertain net profits or market-value.—If the Court sees reason to think that the annual net profits or the market-value of any such land, house or garden as is mentioned in Section 7, paragraphs (v) and (vi), have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court may, for the purpose of computing the fee payable in any suit therein mentioned, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary, and to report thereon to the Court.

10. Procedure where net profits or market-value wrongly estimated.—(1) If in the result of any such investigation the Court finds that the net profits or market value have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court, if the estimation has been excessive, may in its discretion refund the excess paid as such fee but, if the estimation has been insufficient, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the said market-value or net profits been rightly estimated.

(2) In such case the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid and if the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

11. Procedure in suits for mesne profits or account when amount decreed exceeds amount claimed.—(1) In suits for mesne profits or for immovable property and mesne profits, or for an account, if the profits or amount decreed are or is in excess of the profits claimed or the amount at which the plaintiff value the relief sought, the decree shall not be drawn up until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits or amount so decreed shall have been paid to the proper officer.

(2) Where the amount of mesne profits is left to be ascertained in the course of the execution of the decree, if the profits so ascertained exceed the profits claimed, the further execution of the decre shall be stayed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid and if the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

12. Decision of questions as to valuation.—(1) Every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under this Chapter on a plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint or memorandum, as the case may be, is filed, and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the suit.

(2) But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided to the detriment of the revenue, it shall require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided, and the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 10 shall apply.

13. Refund of fee paid on memorandum of appeal.—If an appeal or plaint, which has been rejected by the lower Court on any of the grounds mentioned in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, is ordered to be received, or if a suit is remanded in appeal under Order XLI, Rule 23, of the First Schedule to that Code for a second decision by the lower Court, the appellate Court shall grant to the appellant a certificate, authorising him to receive back from the Collector the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal:

Provided that if, in the case of a remand in appeal, the order of remand shall not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the certificate so granted shall not authorise the appellant to receive back more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on the part or parts of such subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

14. Refund of fee paid on application for review of judgment.—Where an application for a review of judgment is presented on or after the ninetieth day from the date of the decree, the Court, unless the delay was caused by the applicant's laches, may, in its discretion, grant him a certificate authorising him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee which would have been payable had it been presented before such day.

15. Refund where Court reverses or modifies its former decision on ground of mistake.—Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted, and where, on the rehearing, the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact, the applicant shall be entitled to a certificate from the Court authorising him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under the Second Schedule to this Act, No. 1, clause (b) or clause (d).

But nothing in the former part of this section shall entitle the applicant to such certificate where the reversal or modification is due, wholly or in part, to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing.

16. Multifarious suits.—Where a suit embraces two or more distinct subjects, the plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees to which the plaints or memoranda of appeal in suits embracing separately each of such subjects would be liable under this Act.

Nothing in the former part of this section shall be deemed to affect the power conferred by Order II, Rules 6, of the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

17. Written examinations of complainants.—When the first or only examination of person who complains of the offence of wrongful confinement, or of wrongful restraint, or of any offence other than an offence for which police officers may arrest without a warrant and who has not already presented a petition on which a fee has been levied under this Act, is reduced to writing under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 the complainant shall pay a fee of one rupee and twenty-five paise, unless the Court thinks fit to remit such payment.

18. Exemption of certain documents.—Nothing contained in this Act shall render the following documents chargeable with any fee :—

(i) Power-of-attorney to institute or defend a suit when executed by a member of any of the Armed Forces of the Union not in Civil employment.

(ii) Written statements called for by the Court after the first hearing of a suit.

(iii) Probate of a Will and letters of administration, where the amount or value of the property in respect of which the probate or letters shall be granted does not exceed thousand rupees.

(iv) Application or petition to a Collector or other Officer making a settlement of land-revenue, or to a Board of Revenue, or a Commissioner of Revenue, relating to matters connected with the assessment of land, or the ascertainment of rights thereto or interests therein, if presented previous to the final confirmation of such settlement.

Application relating to a supply for irrigation of water belonging to Government.

(vi) Application for leave to extend cultivation, or to relinquish land, when presented to an officer of land revenue by a person holding, under direct engagement with Government, land of which the revenue is settled, but not permanently.

(vii) Application for services of notice of relinquishment of land or of enhancement of rent.

(viii) Written authority to an agent to distrain.

(ix) First application (other than a petition containing a criminal charge or information) for the summons of a witness or other person to attend either to give evidence or to produce a document, or in respect of the production or filing of an exhibit not being an affidavit made for the immediate purpose of being produced in Court.

(x) Bail-bonds in criminal cases, recognizances to prosecute or give evidence, and recognizances for personal appearance or otherwise.

(xi) Petition, application, charge or information respecting any offence, when presented, made or laid to or before a police officer.

(xii) Petition by a prisoner, or other person in duress or under restraint of any Court or its officers.

(xiii) Compaint of a public servant as defined in the Indian Penal Code, 1860, a municipal officer, or an officer or servant of a Railway Company.

(xiv) Application for permission to cut timber in Government forests, or otherwise relating to such forests.

(xv) Application for the payment of money due by Government to the applicant.

(xvi) Petition of appeal against any municipal tax.

(xvii) Applications for compensation under any law for the time being in force relating to the acquisition of property for public purposes.

(xviii) Petitions under the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, Ss. 45 and 48.

CHAPTER IV

PROBATES, LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION AND CERTIFICATES OF ADMINISTRATION

19. Relief where too high a court-fee has been paid.—Where any person on applying for the probate of a Will or letters of administration has estimated the property of the deceased to be of greater value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has consequently paid too high a court-fee thereon, if within six months after the true value of the property has been ascertained, such person,—

(a) produces the probate or letters to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority for the local area in which the probate or letters has or have been granted;

(b) delivers to such Authority a particular inventory and valuation of the property of the deceased, verified by affidavit or affirmation, and

(c) if such Authority is satisfied that a greater fee was paid on the probate or letters than the law required,

the said Authority may—

(a) cancel the stamp on the probate or letters, if such stamp has not been already cancelled;

(b) substitute another stamp for denoting the court-fee which should have been paid thereon; and

c) make an allowance for the difference between them as in the case of spoiled stamps, or repay the same in money, at his discretion.

20. Relief where debts due from a deceased person have been paid out of his estate.—Whenever it is proved to the satisfaction of the Authority referred to in Section 19 that an executor or administrator has paid debts due from the deceased to such an amount as, being deducted out of the amount or value of the estate, reduces the same to a sum which, if it had been the whole gross amount or value of the estate, would have occasioned a less court-fee to be paid on the probate or letters of administation granted in respect of such estate than has been actually paid thereon under this Act, such Authority may return the difference, provided the same be claimed within three years after the date of such probate or letters.

But when, by reason of any legal proceeding, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available, and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said term of three years, the said Authority, may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to be reasonable under the circumstances.

21. Relief in case of several grants.—(1) Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration has been or is made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate, and the full fee chargeable under this Act has been or is paid thereon, no fee shall be chargeable under the same Act when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

(2) Whenever such a grant has been or is made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fees then actually paid under this Act shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of property belonging to the same estate, identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

22. Probates declared valid as to trust property though not covered by court-fees.—The probate of the Will, or the letters of administration of the effects of any person deceased heretofore or hereafter granted shall be deemed valid and available by his executors or administrators for recovering, transferring or assigning any movable or immovable property whereof or whereto the deceased was possessed or entitled, either wholly or partially as a trustee, notwithstanding the amount or value of such property is not included in the amount or value of the estate in respect of which a court-fee was paid on such probate or letters of administration.

23. Provision for case where too low a court-fee has been paid on probates, etc.—Where any person on applying for probate or letters of administration has estimated the estate of the deceased to be of less value than the same has afterward proved to be, and has in consequence paid too low a court-fee thereon, the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority for the local area in which the probate or letters has or have been granted may, on the value of the estate of the deceased being verified by affidavit or affirmation, cause the probate or letters of administration to be duly stamped on payment of the full court-fee which ought to have been originally paid thereon in respect of such value and of the further penalty, if the probate or letters is or are produced within one year from the date of the grant, of five times, or if it or they is or are produced after one year from such date, of twenty times, such proper court-fee, without any deduction of the court-fee originally paid on such probate or letters:

Provided that, if the application be made within six months after the ascertainment of the true value of the estate and the discovery that too low a court-fee was at first paid on the probate or letters, and if the said Authority is satisfied that such fee was paid in consequence of a mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, and without any intention of fraud or to delay the payment of the proper court-fee, the said Authority may remit the said penalty, and cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment only of the sum wanting to make up the fee which should have been at first paid thereon.

24. Administrator to give proper security before letters stamped under Section 23.—In case of letters of administration on which too low a court-fee has been paid at first, the said Authority shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in the manner referred to in Section 23 until the Administrator has given such security to the Court by which the letters of administration have been granted as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased had been then ascertained.

25. Executors, etc., not paying full court-fee on probates etc., within six months after discovery of under payment.—Where too low a court-fee has been paid on any probate or letters of administration in consequence of any mistake, or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, if any executor or acting under such probate or letters does not, within six months after the discovery of the mistake or of any effects not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, apply to the said Authority and pay what is wanting to make up the Court fee which ought to have been paid at first on such probate or letters, he shall forfeit the sum of one thousand rupees and also a further sum at the rate of ten rupees per cent, on the amount of the sum wanting to make up the proper court-fee.

26. Notice of applications for probate or letters of administration to be given to Revenue Authorities and procedure thereon.—(1) Where an application for probate or letters of administration is made to any Court other than the High Court, the Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Collector.

(2) Where such an application as aforesaid is made to the High Court, that Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.

(3) The Collector within the local limits of whose revenue jurisdiction the property of the deceased or any part thereof, is, may at any time inspect or cause to be inspected, and take or cause to be taken copies of, the record of any case in which application for probate or letters of administration has been made, and if, on such inspection or otherwise, he is of opinion that the petitioner has under-estimated the value of the property of the deceased, the Collector, may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the petitioner (either in person or by agent) and take evidence and inquire into the matter in such manner as he may think fit, and if he is still of opinion that the value of the property has been under-estimated, may require the petitioner to amend the valuation.

(4) If the petitioner does not amend the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may move the Court before which the application for probate or letters of administration was made, to hold an inquiry into the true value of the property :

Provided that no such motion shall be made after the expiration of six months from the date of the exhibition of the inventory required by Section 317 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925.

(5) The Court, when so moved as aforesaid, shall hold, or cause to be held, an inquiry accordingly, and shall record a finding as to the true value, as near as may be, at which the property of the deceased should have been estimated and the Collector shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.

(6) For the purposes of any inquiry under sub-section (5), the Court or any person authorised by the Court to hold the inquiry may examine the petitioner for probate or letters of administration on oath (whether in person or by commission), and may take such further evidence as may be produced to prove the true value of the property and such person shall return to the Court the evidence taken by him and report the result of the inquiry, and such report and the evidence so taken shall be evidence in the proceeding, and the Court may record a finding in accordance with the report, unless it is satisfied that it is erroneous.

(7) The finding of the Court recorded under sub-sec. (5) shall be final, but shall not bar the entertainment and disposal by the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority of any application under Section 23.

(8) The State Government may make rules for the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3).

27. Payment of court-fee in respect of probates and latters of administration.—(1) No order entitling the petitioner to the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be made upon an application for such grant until the petitioner has filed in the Court a valuation of the property in the form set forth in the Third Schedule, and the Court is satisfied that the fee mentioned in No. 9 of the First Schedule has been paid on such valuation.

(2) The grant of probate or letters of administration shall not be delayed by reason of any motion made by the Collector under sub-section (4) of Section 26.

28. Recovery of penalties etc.—(1) Any excess fee found to be payable on an inquiry held under sub-section (6) of Section 26 and any penalty or forfeiture under Section 25 may, on the certificate of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, be recovered from the executor or administrator as if it were an arrear of land-revenue by any Collector.

(2) The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may remit the whole or any part of any such penalty or forefeiture as aforesaid, or any part of any penalty under Section 23 or of any court-fee under Section 23 in excess of the full court-fee which ought to have been paid.

29. Sections 6 and 37 not to apply to Probates or letters of administration.—Nothing in Section 6 or Section 37 shall apply to probates or letters of administration.

CHAPTER V

PROCESS FEES

30. Rules as to costs of process.—(1) The High Court shall, as soon as may be, make rules as to the following matters, namely :—

(a) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by such Court in its appellate jurisdiction, and by the other Civil Courts established within the local limits of such jurisdiction;

(b) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Criminal Courts established within such limits in the case of offences other than offences for which police officers may arrest without a warrant; and

(c) the remuneration of the peons and all other persons employed by leave of a Court in the service or execution of processes.

(2) The High Court may from time to time alter or add to the rules made under sub-section (1).

(3) All rules made under sub-section (1) and all alterations and additions made under sub-section (2) shall, after being confirmed by the State Government, be published in the Official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

(4) Until any rules are made and published under this section, the fees leviable immediately before the commencement of this Act for serving and executing processes continue to be levied, and shall be deemed to be fees leviable under this Act.

31. Exemption for certain processes.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 30 or in the rules made thereunder, no fees shall be charged for serving and executing processes on behalf of—

(a) the prosecution in any criminal proceedings taken on information presented or complaint made by a public officer acting in his official capacity; and

(b) a liquidator or an arbitrator appointed under the provisions of the Himachal Pradesh Co-operative Societies Act, 1956.

(2) The State Government may by notification in the Official Gazette determine what persons shall be deemed to be public officers for the purpose of sub-section (1).

32. Tables of process fees.—A table in the English and Vernacular languages, showing the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes shall be exposed to view in a conspicuous part of each Court.

33. Number of peons in District and Subordinate Courts.—(1) Subject to such rules as may be made by the High Court, and approved by the State Government every District Judge and every Magistrate of a District shall fix, and may from time to time alter, the number of peons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued out of his Court and each of the Courts subordinate thereto.

(2) For the purposes of this section, every Court of Small Causes established under Section 5 of the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887 shall be deemed to be subordinate to the Court of the District Judge.

CHAPTER VI

OF THE MODE OF LEVYING FEES

34. Collection of fees by stampes.—All fees referred to in Section 3 or chargeable under this Act shall be collected by stamps:

Provided that if the presiding Judge or the Head of the Office as the case may be or in the case of the High Court, any Judge of such Court, may if he is satisfied that court-fee stamps are not available with the Stamp Vendor on the date of filing of the document to be stamped, order that the court-fees be collected in cash in any Government treasury and the receipt or challan therefor shall be duly given by the officer-in-charge thereof; and any such receipt or challan may be used for the purposes of this Act and the rules thereunder, as if the receipt or challan were a stamp duly issued under this Act by the State Government for the amount paid.

35. Stamps to be impressed or adhesive.—The stamps used to denote any fees chargeable under this Act shall be impressed, or adhesive, or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, from time to time direct.

36. Rules for supply, number, renewal and keeping accounts of stamps.—(1) The State Government may from time to time, make rules for regulating—

(a) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act;

(b) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act,

(c) the renewal of damaged or spoiled stamps; and

(d) the keeping accounts of all stamps used under this Act;

Provided that, in the case of stamps used under Section 3 in the High Court, such rules shall be made with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of such Court.

(2) All rules made under sub-section (1) shall be published in the Official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

37. Stamping documents inadvertently received.—No document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act shall be of any validity, unless and until it is properly stamped, but if any such document is through mistake or inadvertence received, filed or used in any Court or office, without being properly stamped, the presiding Judge or the head of the office, as the case may be, or, in the case of the High Court, any Judge of such Court may, if he thinks fit, order that such document be stamped as he may direct; and, on such document being stamped accordingly, the same and every proceeding relating thereto shall be as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance.

38. Amended document.—Where any such document is amended in order merely to correct a mistake and to make it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp.

39. Cancellation of stamp.—(1) No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or office until the stamp has been cancelled.

(2) Such officer as the Court or the head of the office may from time to time appoint shall, on receiving any such document, forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figure-head so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched, and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS

40. Admission in criminal cases of documents for which proper fee has not been paid.—Whenever the filing or exhibition in a Criminal Court of a document in respect of which the proper fee has not been paid is, in the opinion of the presiding Judge, necessary to prevent a failure of justice, nothing contained in Section 4 or Section 6 shall be deemed to prohibit such filing or exhibition.

41. Sale of stamps.—(1) The State Government may from time to time make rules for regulating the sale of stamps to be used under this Act, the persons by whom alone such sale is to be conducted, and the duties and remuneration of such persons.

(2) All such rules shall be published in the Official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

(3) Any person appointed to sell stamps who disobeys any rule made under this section, and any person not so appointed who sells or offers for sale any stamp, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

42. Power to reduce or remit fees.—The State Government may, from time to time by notification in the Official Gazette, reduce or remit, in the whole or in any part of the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh, all or any of the fees mentioned in the First and Second Schedules to this Act annexed, and may in like manner cancel or vary such order.

43. Saving of fees to certain officers of the High Court.—Nothing in Chapters II and VI of this Act shall apply to the fees which any officer of the High Court is allowed to receive in addition to a fixed salary.

44. Repeal and savings.—The Court-fees Act, 1870 as extended to the Union territory of Himachal Pradesh by the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs No. GSR-517 (F4/4/63-UTL-651,) dated 18th March, 1964 and the Court-fees Act, 1870 as in force in the territories transferred to that Union territory under Section 5 of the Punjab Reorganisation Act, 1966 are hereby repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not affect—

(a) the previous operation of the said Acts or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the said Acts; or

(c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment, incurred in respect of any offence committed against the said Acts; or

(d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid:

and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if the said Acts had not been repealed.

45. Levy of fees in certain suits etc., instituted before the commencement of this Act.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Acts repealed under Section 44, fees shall be levied in suits or other proceedings instituted on or after the 1st day of May, 1967 and pending immediately before the commencement of this Act in the High Court by virtue, and in the exercise, of its ordinary original civil jurisdiction as if this Act had been in force on the respective dates on which any such proceedings were instituted.

(2) Any fees levied in respect of suits or other proceedings instituted before the High Court by virtue, and in the exercise, of its ordinary original civil jurisdiction on or after the 1st day of May, 1967 and disposed of before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been levied in accordance with law.

where the subject-matter is land, and—

(a) [Omitted.]

(b) where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government or forms part of such estate and is recorded as separately assessed with such revenue;—eight times the revenue so payable,

(c) where the land pays no such revenue, or has been partially exempted from such payment, is a Jagir or a Dharmarth property or is charged with any fixed payment in lieu of such revenue, and net profits have arisen from the land during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint—

fifteen times such net profit:

but where no such net profits have arisen therefrom—

the amount at which the Court shall estimate the land with reference to the value of similar land in the neighbourhood;

(d) where the land forms part of an estate paying revenue to Government, but is not a definite share of such estate and is not separately assessed, the market-value of the land:

Explanation.—The word "estate", as used in this paragraph, means any land subject to the payment of revenue for which the proprietor or farmer or raiyat shall have executed a separate engagement to Government, or which, in the absence of such engagement, shall have been separately assessed with revenue;

(e) for houses and gardens;

where the subject-matter is a house or garden—according to the market-value of the house or garden;

(vi) to enforce a right of pre-emption;

In suits to enforce a right of pre-emption—according to the value (computed in accordance with paragraph v of this section) of the land, house or garden in respect of which the right is claimed;

(vii) for interest of assignee of land revenue;

In suits for the interest of an assignee of land revenue—fifteen times his net profits as such for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint;

In suits for Haq-i-Lambardari, maqaddami or a similar right—eight times the income of the Haq or right;

(viii) to set aside an attachment;

In suits to set aside an attachment of land or of an interest in land or revenue—according to the amount for which the land or interest was attached:

Provided that, where such amount exceeds the value of the land or interest, the amount of fee shall be computed as if the suit were for the possession of such land or interest;

(ix) to redeem;

In suits against a mortgagee for the recovery of the property mortgaged;

to foreclose;

and in suits by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage, or where the mortgage is made by conditional sale, to have the sale declared absolute—according to the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage;

(x) for specific performance;

In suits for specific performance—

(a) of a contract of sale—according to the amount of the consideration;

(b) of a contract of mortgage—according to the amount agreed to be secured;

(c) of a contract of lease—according to the aggregate amount of the fine or premium (if any) and of the rent agreed to be paid during the first year of the term;

(d) of an award—according to the amount or value of the property in dispute;

(xi) Between landlord and tenant;

In the following suits between landlord and tenant:—

(a) for the delivery by a tenant of the counterpart of a lease,

(b) to enhance the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy,

(c) for the delivery by a landlord of a lease,

(cc) for the recovery of immoveable property from a tenant including a tenant holding over after the determination of a tenancy,

(d) to contest a notice of ejectment,

(e) to recover the occupancy of immoveable property from which tenant has been illegally ejected by the landlord, and

(f) for abatement of rent—

according to the amount of the rent of the immoveable property to which the suit refers, payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

8. Fee on memorandum of appeal against order relating to compensation.—The amount of fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of land for public purposes shall be computed according to the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

9. Power to ascertain net profits or market-value.—If the Court sees reason to think that the annual net profits or the market-value of any such land, house or garden as is mentioned in Sec. 7, paragraphs 5 and 6, have or has been wrongly estimated, the Court may, for the purpose of computing the fee payable in any suit therein mentioned, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary, and to report thereon to the Court.

10. Procedure where net profits or market-value wrongly estimated.—(i) If in the result of any such investigation the Court finds that the market-value has been wrongly estimated, the Court, if the estimation has been excessive, may in its discretion refund the excess paid as such fee; but if the estimation has been insufficient, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the said market-value or net profits been rightly estimated.

(ii) In such case the suit shall be stayed until the additional fee is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed.

11. Procedure in suits for mesne profits or account when amount decreed exceeds amount claimed.—In suits for mesne profits or for immovable property and mesne profits, or for an account, if the profits or amount decreed are or is in excess of the profits claimed or the amount at which the plaintiff valued the relief sought, the decree shall not be executed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits or amount so decreed shall have been paid to the proper officer.

Where the amount of mesne profits is left to be ascertained in the course of the execution of the decree, if the profits so ascertained exceed the profits claimed, the further execution of the decree shall be stayed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court shall fix, the suit shall be dismissed:

Provided that, in suits under the Agriculturists' Relief Act, 1983, the decree shall be executed to the extent of the amount of the instalments which have become due on payment of the additional court-fee, if any, which is found payable when calculated on the amount for which execution is sought.

12. Decision of questions as to valuation.—(i) Every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under this Chapter, on a plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint or memorandum, as the case may be, is filed, and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the suit.

(ii) But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided to the detriment of the revenue, it shall require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided and the provisions of Section 10, paragraph (ii), shall apply.

13. Refund of fee paid on memorandum of appeal.—If an appeal or plaint, which has been rejected by the lower Court on any of the grounds mentioned in the Code of Civil Procedure, is ordered to be received, or if a suit is remanded in appeal, on any of the grounds mentioned in Order XLI, Rule 23 of the same Code for a second decision by the lower Court, the Appellate Court shall grant to the appellant a certificate, authorising him to receive back from the Collector the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal:

Provided that if, in the case of a remand in appeal, the order of remand shall not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the certificate so granted shall not authorise the appellant to receive back more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on the part or parts of such subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

14. Refund of fee on application for review of judgment.—Where an application for a review of judgment is presented on or after the ninetieth day from the date of the decree, the Court, unless the delay was caused by the applicant's laches, may, in its discretion, grant him a certificate authorising him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee which would have been payable had it been presented before such day.

15. Refund where Court reverses or modifies its former decision on ground of mistake.—Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted, and where, on the rehearing, the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact, the applicant shall be entitled to a certificate from the Court authorising him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under the Second Schedule to this Act No. 1, clause (b) or clause (d).

But nothing in the former part of this section shall entitle the applicant to such certificate where the reversal or modification is due, wholly or in part, to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing.

16. [Omitted.]

17. Multifarious suits.—Where a suit embraces two or more distinct subjects, the plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees to which the plaints or memoranda of appeal in suits embracing separately each of such subjects would be liable under this Act.

Nothing in the former part of this section shall be deemed to affect the power conferred by the Code of Civil Procedure, Order II, Rule 6.

18. Written examination of complainants.—When the first or only examination of a person who complains of the offence of wrongful confinement, or of wrongful restraint, or of any offence other than an offence for which the police officers may arrest without a warrant, and who has not already presented a petition on which a fee has been levied under this Act is reduced to writing under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the complainant shall pay a fee of one rupee, unless the Court thinks fit to remit such payment.

19. Exemption of certain documents.—Nothing contained in this Act shall render the following documents chargeable with any fee:—

(i) Power-of-attorney to institute or defend a suit when executed by an officer, warrant officer, non-commissioned officer or private of the Government's army not in civil employment.

(ii) [Omitted.]

(iii) Written statements called for by the Court after the first hearing of a suit.

(iv) to (vii) [Omitted.]

(viii) Probate of a will, letters of administration, where the amount or value of the property in respect of which the probate or letters or certificate shall be granted does not exceed one thousand rupees.

(ix) Application or petition to a Collector or other officer making a settlement of land revenue or to the Revenue Minister, relating to matters connected with the assessment of land or the ascertainment of rights thereto or interests therein, if presented previous to the final confirmation of such settlement.

(ix-a) Applications, appeals to the Income-tax Department in proceedings relating to assessment of income-tax or objections thereto.

(x) Application relating to a supply for irrigation of water belonging to Government.

(xi) Application for leave to extend cultivation, or to relinquish land, when presented to an officer of land revenue by a person holding, under direct engagement with Government, land of which the revenue is settled, but not permanently.

(xii) Application for service of notice of relinquishment of land or of enhancement of rent.

(xiii) Written authority to an agent to distrain.

(xiv) First application (other than a petition containing a criminal charge or information) for the summons of a witness or other person to attend either to give evidence or to produce document, or in respect of the production or filing of an exhibit not being an affidavit made for the immediate purpose of being produced in Court.

(xv) Bail bonds in criminal cases, recognizances to prosecute or give evidence, and recognizances for personal appearance or otherwise.

(xvi) Petition, application, charge or information respecting any offence when presented, made or laid to or before a Police Officer.

(xvi-a) Petition in a criminal case in which the Police may arrest without warrant.

(xvi-b) Copy to which Article 9 of the First Schedule of this Act applies furnished to an accused person in a warrant case.

(xvii) Petition by a prisoner, or other person in duress or under restraint of any Court or its officers.

(xviii) Complaint of a public servant (as defined in the Ranbir Dand Bidhi) a Municipal Officer, or of an official acting under Birds and Animals Game Protection Rules for breach of such rules.

(xix) Application for permission to cut timber in Government forests, or otherwise relating to such forests.

(xx) Application for the payment of money due by Government to the applicant.

(xxi) [Omitted.]

(xxii) Application for compensation under any law for the time being in force relating to the acquisition of property for public purposes.

(xxiii) [Omitted.]

CHAPTER III-A

PROBATES, LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION AND CERTIFICATES OF ADMINISTRATION

19-A. Relief where too high a court-fee has been paid.—Where any person on applying for the probate of a will or letters of administration has estimated the property of the deceased to be of greater value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has consequently paid too high a court-fee thereon, if, within six months after the true value of the property has been ascertained, such person produces the probate or letters to the Revenue Minister, and delivers to such authority a particular inventory and valuation of the property of the deceased, verified by affidavit or affirmation, and if such authority is satisfied that a greater fee was paid on the probate or letters than the law required,

the said authority may—

(a) cancel the stamp on the probate or letter if such stamp has not been already cancelled;

(b) substitute another stamp for denoting the court-fee which should have been paid thereon; and

(c) make an allowance for the difference between them as in the case of spoiled stamps, or repay the same in money, at his discretion.

19-B. Relief where debts due from a deceased person have been paid out of his estate.—Whenever it is proved to the satisfaction of such authority that an executor or administrator has paid debts due from the deceased to such an amount as, being deducted out of the amount or value of the estate, reduces the same to a sum which, if it had been the whole gross amount or value of the estate, would have occasioned a less court-fee to be paid on the probate or letters of administration granted in respect of such estate than has been actually paid thereon under this Act, such authority may return the difference, provided the same be claimed within three years after the date of such probate or letters.

But when, by reason of any legal proceedings, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available, and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said term of three years, the said authority may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to be reasonable under the circumstances.

19-C. Relief in case of several grants.—Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration has been or is made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate, and the full fee chargeable under this Act has been or is paid thereon, no fee shall be chargeable under the same Act when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

Whenever such a grant has been or is made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fees then actually paid under this Act shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of property belonging to the same estate, identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

19-D. Probates declared valid as to trust property though not covered by court-fee.—The probate of the will or the letters of administration of the effects of any person deceased heretofore or hereafter granted shall be deemed valid and available by his executors or administrators for recovering, transferring or assigning any movable or immovable property whereof or whereto the deceased was possessed or entitled, either wholly or partially as a trustee, notwithstanding the amount or value of such property is not included in the amount or value of the estate in respect of which a court-fee was paid on such probate or letters of administration.

19-E. Provision for case where too low a court-fee has been paid on probate, etc.—Where any person on applying for probate or letters of administration has estimated the estate of the deceased to be of less value than the same has afterwards proved to be and has in consequence paid too low a court-fee thereon, the Revenue Minister may, on the value of the estate of the deceased being verified by affidavit or affirmation, cause the probate or letters of administration to be duly stamped on payment of the full court-fee which ought to have been originally paid thereon in respect of such value and of the further penalty, if the probate or letters is or are produced within one year from the date of the grant, of five times, or if it or they is or are produced after one year from such date, of twenty times, such proper court-fee without any deduction of the court-fee originally paid on such probate or letters:

Provided that, if the application be made within six months after the ascertainment of the true value of the estate and the discovery that too low a court-fee was at first paid on the probate or letters and if the said authority is satisfied that such fee was paid in consequence of a mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased and without any intention of fraud or to delay the payment of the proper court-fee, the said authority may remit the said penalty, and cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment only of the sum wanting to make up the fee which should have been at first paid thereon.

19-F. Administrator to give proper security before letters stamped under Section 19-E.—In case of letters of administration on which too low a court-fee has been paid at first, the said authority shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in manner aforesaid until the administrator has given such security to the Court by which the letters of administration have been granted as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased had been then ascertained.

19-G. Executors, etc., not paying full court-fee on probates, etc., within six months after discovery of underpayment.—Where too low a court-fee has been paid on any probate or letters of administration in consequence of any mistake, or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator acting under such probate or letters does not within six months after the discovery of the mistake or of any effect not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, apply to the said authority and pay what is wanting to make up the court-fee which ought to have been paid at first on such probate or letters, he shall forfeit the sum of one thousand rupees and also a further sum at the rate of ten rupees per cent on the amount of the sum wanting to make up the proper court-fee.

19-H. Notice of applications for probate or letters of administration to be given to Revenue authorities, and procedure thereon.—(1) Where an application for probate or letters of administration is made to any Court other than the High Court, the Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Collector.

(2) Where such an application as aforesaid is made to the High Court, the High Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Revenue Minister.

(3) The Collector within the local limits of whose revenue jurisdiction the property of the deceased or any part thereof is, may at any time inspect or cause to be inspected, and take or cause to be taken copies of, the record of any case in which application for probate or letters of administration has been made; and if, on such inspection or otherwise, he is of opinion that the petitioner has underestimated the value of the property of the deceased, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the petitioner (either in person or by agent) and take evidence and inquire into the matter in such manner as he may think fit, and, if he is still of opinion that the value of the property has been underestimated, may require the petitioner to amend the valuation.

(4) If the petitioner does not amend the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may move the Court before which the application for probate or letters of administration was made, to hold an inquiry into the true value of the property:

Provided that no such motion shall be made after the expiration of six months from the date of the exhibition of the inventory required by Section 98 of the Probate and Administration Act.

(5) The Court, when so moved as aforesaid, shall hold, or cause to be held an inquiry accordingly, and shall record a finding as to the true value, as near as may be, at which the property of the deceased should have been estimated. The Collector shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.

(6) For the purposes of any such inquiry, the Court or person authorised by the Court to hold the inquiry may examine the petitioner for probate or letters of administration on oath (whether in person or by commission) and may take such further evidence as may be produced to prove the true value of the property. The person authorised as aforesaid to hold the inquiry shall return to the Court the evidence taken by him and report the result of the inquiry, and such report and the evidence so taken shall be evidence in the proceeding, and the Court may record a finding in accordance with the report, unless it is satisfied that it is erroneous.

(7) The finding of the Court recorded under sub-section (5) shall be final, but shall not bar the entertainment and disposal by the Revenue Minister of any application under Section 19-E.

(8) The Government may make rules for the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3).

19-I. Payment of court-fees in respect of probates and letters of administration.—(1) No order entitling the petitioner to the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be made upon an application for such grant until the petitioner has filed in the Court a valuation of the property in the form set forth in the Third Schedule, and the Court is satisfied that the fee mentioned in No. 11 of the First Schedule has been paid on such valuation.

(2) The grant of probate or letters of administration shall not be delayed by reason of any motion made by the Collector under Section 19-H, sub-section (4).

19-J. Recovery of penalties, etc.—(1) Any excess fee found to be payable on an inquiry held under Section 19-H, sub-section (6), and any penalty or forfeiture under Section 19-G may, on the certificate of the Revenue Minister, be recovered from the executor or administrator as if it were an arrear of land revenue by any Collector in any part of the State.

(2) The Revenue Minister may remit the whole or any part of any such penalty or forfeiture as aforesaid, or any part of any penalty under Section 19-E or of any court-fee under Section 19-E, in excess of the full court-fee which ought to have been paid.

19-K. Sections 6 and 28 not to apply to probates or letters of administration.—Nothing in Section 6 or Section 28 shall apply to probates or letters of administration.

CHAPTER IV

PROCESS FEES

20. Rules as to costs of processes.—The High Court shall, as soon as may be, make rules as to the following matters:—

(i) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by such Court in its appellate jurisdiction, and by the other Civil Courts established within the local limits of such jurisdiction;

(ii) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Criminal Court established within such limits in the case of offences other than offences for which Police officers may arrest without a warrant; and

(iii) the remuneration of the peons and all other persons employed by leave of a Court in the service or execution of processes.

The High Court may from time to time alter and add to the rules so made.

Confirmation and publication of rules

All such rules, alterations and additions shall, after being confirmed by the Government, be published in the Government Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

Until such rules shall be so made and published, the fees now leviable for serving and executing processes shall continue to be levied, and shall be deemed to be fees leviable under this Act.

21. Tables of process-fees.—A table in the English and vernacular languages, showing the fees chargeable for such service and execution, shall be exposed to view in a conspicuous part of each Court.

22. Number of peons in District and subordinate Courts.—Subject to rules to be made by the High Court and approved by the Government, every District Judge and every Magistrate of a District shall fix, and may from time to time alter, the number of peons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued out of his Court and each of the Courts subordinate thereto.

Number of peons in Small Cause Court and for the purposes of this section, every Court of Small Causes shall be deemed to be subordinate to the Court of the District Judge.

23. Number of peons in Revenue Court.—Subject to rules to be framed by the Revenue Minister and approved by the Government, every officer performing the functions of a Collector of a District shall fix, and may from time to time alter, the number of peons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued out of his Court or the Courts subordinate to him.

24. [Omitted.]

CHAPTER V

OF THE MODE OF LEVYING FEES

25. Collection of fees by stamps.—All fees referred to in Section 3 or chargeable under this Act shall be collected by stamps.

26. Stamps to be impressed or adhesive.—The stamps used to denote any fees chargeable under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the Government may, by notification in the Government Gazette, from time to time direct.

27. Rules for supply, number, renewal and keeping accounts of stamp.—The Government may, from time to time, make rules for regulating—

(a) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act,

(b) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act,

(c) the renewal of damaged or spoiled stamps and

(d) the keeping accounts of all stamps used under this Act.

All such rules shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

28. Stamping document inadvertently received.—No document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act shall be of any validity, unless and until it is properly stamped.

But, if any such document is through mistake or inadvertence received, filed or used in any Court or office without being properly stamped, the presiding Judge or the head of the office, as the case may be, or, in the case of the High Court, Judge of such Court, may, if he thinks fit, order that such document be stamped as he may direct; and, on such document being stamped accordingly, the same and every proceeding relative thereto shall be as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance.

29. Amended document.—Where any such document is amended in order merely, to correct a mistake and to make it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp.

30. Cancellation of stamps.—No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or office until the stamp has been cancelled.

Such officer as the Court or the head of the office may from time to time appoint shall, on receiving any such document, forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figurehead so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

CHAPTER VI

MISCELLANEOUS

31. Repayment of fees paid on applications to Criminal Courts.—(i) Whenever an application or petition containing a complaint or charge of an offence, other than an offence for which Police officers may arrest without warrant, is presented to a Criminal Court, the Court, if it convict the accused person, shall, in addition to the penalty imposed upon him, order him to repay to the complainant the fee, paid on such application or petition.

(ii) In the case mentioned in Section 18, the Court, if it convict the accused person, shall, in addition to the penalty imposed upon him, order him to repay to the complainant the fee, if any, paid by the latter for the examination.

(iii) When the complainant has paid fees for serving processes in either of the cases mentioned in the first and second paragraphs of this section, the Court, if it convict the accused person, shall, in addition to the penalty imposed upon him, order him to repay such fees to the complainant.

(iv) All fees ordered to be repaid under this section may be recovered as if they were fines imposed by the Court.

32. [Omitted.]

33. Admission in criminal cases of documents for which proper fee has not been paid.—Whenever the filing or exhibition in a Criminal Court of a document in respect of which the proper fee has not been paid is, in the opinion of the presiding Judge, necessary to prevent a failure of justice, nothing contained in S. 6 shall be deemed to prohibit such filing or exhibition.

34. Sale of stamps.—(1) The Government may from time to time make rules for regulating the sale of stamps to be used under this Act, under a licence on payment of fee to be prescribed, the persons by whom alone such sale is to be conducted, and the duties and remuneration of such persons.

(2) All such rules shall be published in the Government Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

(3) Any person appointed to sell stamps who disobeys any rule made under this section, and any person not so appointed who sells or offers for sale any stamp, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

35. Power to reduce or remit fees.—The Government may, from time to time by notification in the Government Gazette reduce or remit in the whole or in any part of the State, all or any of the fees mentioned in the First and Second Schedules to this Act annexed, and may in like manner cancel or vary such order.

The enactments mentioned in the schedule given below are repealed to the extent specified therein.

[THE] KERALA COURT-FEES AND SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1959

[27th July, 1960.]

An Act to amend and consolidate the law relating to court-fees and valuation of suits in the State of Kerala.

WHEREAS it is necessary and expedient to amend and consolidate the law relating to court-fees and valuation of suits in the State of Kerala;

BE it enacted in the Tenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE KERALA COURT-FEES AND SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1959.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Kerala.

(3) It shall come into force on such date[*] as the Government may, by notification in the Gazette, appoint.

2. Application of the Act.—(1) The provisions of this Act shall not apply to documents presented or to be presented before an officer serving under the Central Government.

(2) Where any other law contains provisions relating to the levy of fee in respect of proceedings under such other law, the provisions of this Act relating to the levy of fee in respect of such proceedings shall apply subject to the said provisions of such other law.

3. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,

(i) "appeal" includes a cross-objection;

[*] The date so appointed is the 1st February, 1962 — See Ker Gaz., Extra., dated 19-1-1962, Notifn. No. 10463/C2/60-1/Law.

(ii) "Court" means any Civil, Revenue, or Criminal Court and includes a Tribunal or other authority having jurisdiction under any special or local law to decide questions affecting the rights of parties;

(iii) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act; and

(iv) expressions used and not defined in this Act or in the Interpretation and General Clauses Act, 1125 [Act VII of 1125], but defined in the Code of Civil Procedure 1908 [Central Act V of 1908], shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the said Code.

CHAPTER II

LIABILITY TO PAY FEE

4. Levy of fees in Courts and public offices.—No document which is chargeable with fee under this Act shall—

(i) be filed, exhibited or recorded in, or be acted on or furnished by, any Court including the High Court, or

(ii) be filed, exhibited or recorded in any public office or be acted on or furnished by any public officer, unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated as chargeable under this Act :

Provided that whenever the filing or exhibition in a Criminal Court of a document in respect of which the proper fee has not been paid is in the opinion of the Court necessary to prevent a failure of justice, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prohibit such filing or exhibition.

5. Fees on documents inadvertently received.—When a document on which the whole or any part of the fee prescribed by this Act has not been paid is produced or has, through mistake or inadvertence, been received in any Court or public office, the Court or the head of the office may, in its or his discretion at any time, allow the person by whom such fee is payable or any interested party to pay the fee or part thereof, as the case may be, within such time as may be fixed; and upon such payment, the document shall have the same force and effect as if the full fee had been paid in the first instance.

6. Multifarious suits.—(1) In any suit in which separate and distinct reliefs are sought based on the same cause of action, the plaint shall be chargeable with a fee on the aggregate value of the reliefs :

Provided that, if a relief is sought only as ancillary to the main relief, the plaint shall be chargeable only on the value of the main relief.

(2) Where more reliefs than one based on the same cause of action are sought in the alternative in any suit, the plaint shall be chargeable with the highest of the fees leviable in respect of any one of the reliefs.

(3) Where a suit embraces two or more distinct and different causes of action and separate reliefs are sought based on them, either alternatively or cumulatively, the plaint shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees with which plaints would be chargeable under this Act if separate suits were instituted in respect of the several causes of action :

Provided that, where the causes of action in respect of reliefs claimed alternatively against the same person arise out of the same transaction, the plaint shall be chargeable only with the highest of the fees chargeable on them.

Nothing in the sub-section shall be deemed to affect any power conferred upon a Court under Rule 6 of Order II of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908).

(4) The provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis to memoranda of appeals, applications, petitions and written statements.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, a suit for possession of immovable property and for mesne profits shall be deemed to be based on the same cause of action.

7. Determination of market value.—(1) Save as otherwise provided, where the fee payable under this Act depends on the market value of any property, such value shall be determined as on the date of presentation of the plaint.

(2) The market value of land in suits falling under Sections 25 (a), 25 (b), 27 (a), 29, 30, 37 (1), 37 (3), 38, 45 or 48 shall be deemed to be ten times the annual gross profits of such land where it is capable of yielding annual profits minus the assessment if any made to the Government.

(3) The market value of a building shall in cases where its rental value has been entered in the registers of any local authority, be ten times such rental value and in other cases the actual market value of the building as on the date of the plaint.

(4) Where the subject-matter of the suit is only a restricted or fractional interest in a property, the market value of the property shall be deemed to be the value of the restricted or fractional interest and the value of the restricted or fractional interest shall bear the same proportion to the market value of the absolute interest in such property as the net income derived by the owner of the restricted or fractional interest bears to the total net income from the property.

8. Set off or counter claim.—A written statement pleading a set off or counter claim shall be chargeable with fee in the same manner as a plaint.

9. Documents falling under two or more descriptions.—Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section, a document falling within two or more descriptions in this Act shall, where the fees chargeable thereunder are different, be chargeable only with the highest of such fees·

Provided that, where one of such descriptions is special and another general, the fee chargeable shall be the fee appropriate to the special description.

CHAPTER III

DETERMINATION OF FEE

10. Statement of particulars of subject-matter of suit and plaintiff's valuation thereof.—In every suit in which the fee payable under this Act on the plaint depends on the market value of the subject-matter of the suit, the plaintiff shall file with the plaint, a statement in the prescribed form, of particulars of the subject-matter of the suit and his valuation thereof unless such particulars and the valuation are contained in the plaint.

11. Decision as to proper fee in the High Court.—Where in a suit instituted in the High Court, in which a fee is payable under this Act, any difference arises between the officer whose duty it is to see that proper fee is paid and any party as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof, the question shall be referred to the Taxing Officer who shall decide the same:

Provided that, if in the opinion of the Taxing Officer, the question is one of general importance, he may refer it to the Chief Justice of the High Court or such Judge or Judges of the High Court as the Chief Justice shall appoint, either generally or specially in this behalf:

Provided further that, when the case comes up for disposal before the Court, the decision of the Taxing Officer may be reviewed by the Court.

Section 10 — Note 1

(1) Determination of Court-fee — Allegations in the plaint and substance of the suit determine Court-fees — Truth or falsity of allegations in plaint need not be considered for valuation of suit. AIR 1967 Ker 176 (177) = 1967 Ker LT 1149.

12. Decision as to proper fee in other Courts.—(1) In every suit instituted in any Court other than the High Court, the Court shall before ordering the plaint to be registered, decide on the materials and allegations contained in the plaint and on the materials contained in the statement, if any, filed under Section 10, the proper fee payable thereon, the decision being however subject to review, further review and correction in the manner specified in the succeeding sub-sections.

(2) Any defendant may, by his written statement filed before the first hearing of the suit or before evidence is recorded on the merits of the claim but, subject to the next succeeding sub-section, not later, plead that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient. All questions arising on such pleas shall be heard and decided before evidence is recorded affecting such defendant, on the merits of the claim. If the Court decides that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient, the Court shall fix a date before which the plaint shall be amended in accordance with the Court's decision and the deficit fee shall be paid. If the plaint be not amended or if the deficit fee be not paid within the time allowed, the plaint shall be rejected and the Court shall pass such order as it deems just regarding costs of the suit.

(3) A defendant added after issues have been framed on the merits of the claim may, if the Court so permits, plead that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient. All questions arising on such pleas shall be heard and decided before evidence is recorded affecting such defendant, on the merits of the claim, and if the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient, the Court shall follow the procedure laid down in sub-section (2).

Explanation.—Nothing in this sub-section shall apply to a defendant added as a successor or a representative in interest of a defendant who was on record before issues were framed on the merits of the claim and who had an opportunity to file a written statement pleading that the subject-matter of the suit was not properly valued or that the fee paid was not sufficient.

(4) (a) Whenever a case comes up before a Court of Appeal, it shall be lawful for the Court, either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties, to consider the correctness of any order passed by the lower Court affecting the fee payable on the plaint or in any other proceeding in the lower Court and determine the proper fee payable thereon.

Explanation.—A case shall be deemed to come before a Court of Appeal even if the appeal relates only to a part of the subject-matter of the suit.

(b) If the Court of Appeal decides that the fee paid in the lower Court is not sufficient, the Court shall require the party liable to pay the deficit fee within such time as may be fixed by it.

(c) If the deficit fee is not paid within the time fixed and the default is in respect of a relief which has been dismissed by the lower Court and which the appellant seeks in appeal, the appeal shall be dismissed, but if the default is in respect of a relief which has been decreed by the lower Court, the deficit fee shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

(d) If the fee paid in the lower Court is in excess, the Court shall direct the refund of the excess to the party who is entitled to it.

(5) All questions as to value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts arising on the written statement of a defendant shall be heard and decided before evidence is recorded affecting such defendant, on the merits of the claim.

Explanation.—In this section, the expression "merits of the claim" refers to matters which arise for determination in the suit, not being matters relating to the frame of the suit, misjoinder of parties and causes of action, the jurisdiction of the Court to entertain or try the suit or the fee payable but inclusive of matters arising on pleas of res judicata, limitation and the like.

13. Additional fee on issues framed.—Where a party becomes liable to pay additional fee by reason of an issue framed in the suit, the provisions of the last foregoing section shall apply to the determination and levy of such additional fee subject to the modification that where the party liable does not pay such additional fee within the time allowed, the Court shall strike off the issue and proceed to hear and decide the other issues in the case.

14. Relinquishment of portion of claim.—A plaintiff who has been called upon to pay additional fee may relinquish a part of his claim and apply to have the plaint amended so that the fee paid would be adequate for the claim made in the plaint as amended. The Court shall allow such application on such terms as it considers just and shall proceed to hear and decide the claim made in the plaint as amended, provided that the plaintiff shall not be permitted at any later stage of the suit to add to the claim the part so relinquished.

15. Fee payable on written statements.—Where fee is payable under this Act on a written statement filed by a defendant, the provisions of Section 12 shall apply to the determination and levy of the fee payable on such written statement, the defendant concerned being regarded for the said purpose as the plaintiff and the plaintiff or the co-defendant or the third party against whom the claim is made being regarded as the defendant.

16. Fee payable on appeals, etc.—The provisions of Sections 10 to 14 relating to the determination and levy of fee on plaints in suits shall apply mutatis mutandis to the determination and levy of fee in respect of a memorandum of appeal, cross-objection or other proceeding in second appeal or in an appeal under Section 5 of the Kerala High Court Act, 1958.

17. Fee payable on petitions, applications, etc.—The provisions of Sections 10 to 14 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the determination and levy of fee in respect of petitions, applications and other proceedings in Courts in the same way as they apply to the determination and levy of fee on plaints in suits.

18. Curt-fee Examiners.—(1) The High Court may depute officers to be designated Court-fee Examiners to inspect the records of subordinate Courts with a view to examine the correctness of representations made to and orders passed by, Courts on questions relating to valuation of subject-matter and sufficiency of fee in respect of proceedings in such Courts and the Government shall, from time to time, fix the number of officers who may be so deputed to inspect the records.

(2) Questions raised in reports submitted by such Court-fee Examiners and relating to any suit, appeal or other proceeding pending in a Court shall be heard and decided by such Court; and for the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that in hearing and deciding a question raised in any such report, it shall be lawful for the Court to review an earlier decision given by the Court on the same question.

19. Inquiry and commission.—For the purpose of deciding whether the subject-matter of a suit or other proceeding has been properly valued or whether the fee paid is sufficient, the Court may hold such inquiry as it considers proper and may, if it thinks fit, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court and the Court may pass appropriate orders as to costs.

20. Notice to Government.—In any inquiry relating to the fee payable on a plaint, written statement, petition, memorandum of appeal or other document, or to the valuation of the subject-matter of the claim to which the plaint, written statement, petition, memorandum of appeal or other document relates, in so far as such valuation affects the fee payable, the Court may, if it considers it just or necessary to do so, give notice to the Government or to such officer as may be prescribed by the Government; and where such notice is given, the Government shall be deemed to be a party to the suit or other proceeding as respects the determination of the question or questions aforesaid; and the Court's decision on such question or questions shall, when it passes a decree or final order in such suit or proceeding, be deemed to form part of such decree or final order.

CHAPTER IV

COMPUTATION OF FEE

21. Fee how reckoned.—The fee payable under this Act shall be determined or computed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, Chapter VI, Chapter IX and Schedules I and II.

22. Suits for money.—In a suit for money including a suit for damages or compensation, or arrears of maintenance, of annuities, or of other sums payable periodically), fee shall be computed on the amount claimed.

23. Suits for maintenance and annuities.—In the suits hereinafter mentioned, fee shall be computed as follows :—

(a) In a suit for maintenance, on the amount claimed to be payable for one year;

(b) in a suit for enhancement or reduction of maintenance, on the amount by which the annual maintenace is sought to be enhanced or reduced;

(c) in a suit for annuities or other sums payable periodically, on five times the amount claimed to be payable for one year :

Provided that, where the annuity is payable for less than five years, the fee shall be computed on the aggregate of the sums payable :

Provided further that, a suit for enhancement of maintenance shall be instituted in a Court which will have jurisdiction to receive a suit for maintenance at the enhanced rate claimed and one for reduction of maintenance shall be instituted in a Court which will have jurisdiction to receive a suit for maintenance at the rate which is sought to be reduced.

24. Suits for moveable property.—(1) In a suit for moveable property other than documents of title, fee shall be computed—

(a) where the subject-matter has a market value, on such value; or

(b) where the subject-matter has no market value, on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint.

(2) (a) In a suit for possession of documents of title fee shall be computed on one-fourth of the amount or of the market value of the property secured by the document—

(i) where the plaint alleges denial of the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document, or

(ii) where an issue is framed regarding the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document :

Provided that, where the allegation in the plaint or the issue framed relates only to a portion of the amount or property, fee shall be computed on one-fourth of such portion of the amount or on one-fourth of the market value of such portion of the property.

(b) In a suit for possession of documents of title where the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document is not denied, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint.

Explanation I.—The expression "document of title" means a document which purports or operates to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest, whether vested or contingent, in any property.

Explanation II.—When the main document of title has been valued and court-fee paid on that basis, no additional court-fee shall be leviable on documents of title which are subsidiary title deeds.

25. Suits for declaration.—In a suit for a declaratory decree or order, whether with or without consequential relief, not falling under Section 26—

(a) where the prayer is for a declaration and for possession of the property to which the declaration relates, fee shall be computed on the market value of the property or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher;

(b) where the prayer is for a declaration and for consequential injunction and the relief sought is with reference to any immovable property, fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees three hundred whichever is higher;

(c) where the prayer relates to the plaintiff's exclusive right to use, sell, print or exhibit any mark, name, book, picture, design or other thing and is based on an infringement of such exclusive right, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees four hundred, whichever is higher;

(d) in other cases—

(i) where the subject-matter of the suit is capable of valuation, fee shall be computed on the market value of the property, and

(ii) where the subject-matter of the suit is not capable of valuation, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees three hundred whichever is higher.

26. Adoption suits.—In a suit for a declaration in regard to the validity or invalidity of an adoption or the factum of an adoption, fee shall be payable at the following rates :

(i) In a Munsiff's Court	Rupees fifty.
(ii) In a Sub-Court or a District Court	Rupees one hundred if the market value of the property involved in or affected by the relief is Rs. 10,000 or less and rupees five hundred if it is above Rs. 10,000.

27. Suits for injunction.—In a suit for injunction—

(a) where the relief sought is with reference to any immovable property, and

(i) where the plaintiff alleges that his title to the property is denied, or

(ii) where an issue is framed regarding the plaintiff's title to the property, fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees one hundred and fifty, whichever is higher;

(b) where the prayer relates to the plaintiff's exclusive right to use, sell, print or exhibit any mark, name, book, picture, design or other thing and is based on an infringement of such exclusive right, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees two hundred, whichever is higher;

(c) in any other case whether the subject-matter of the suit has a market value or not, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees one hundred and fifty, whichever is higher.

28. Suits relating to trust property.—In a suit for possession or joint possession of trust property or for a declaratory decree, whether with or without consequential relief in respect of it, between trustees or rival claimants to the office of trustee or between a trustee and a person who has ceased to be trustee, fee shall be computed on one-fifth of the market value of the property subject to a maximum fee of rupees two hundred or where the property has no market value, on rupees one thousand :

Provided that, where the property does not have a market value, value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be such amount as the plaintiff shall state in the plaint.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, property comprised in a Hindu, Muslim or other religious or charitable endowment shall be deemed to be trust property and the manager of any such property shall be deemed to be the trustee thereof.

29. Suits for possession under the Specific Relief Act, 1877.—In a suit for possession of immovable property under Section 9 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877 (Central Act I of 1877),* fee shall be computed on one-third of the market value of the property or on rupees one hundred and fifty, whichever is higher.

30. Suits for possession not otherwise provided for.—In a suit for possession of immovable property not otherwise provided for, fee shall be computed on the market value of the property or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher.

31. Suits relating to easements.—In a suit relating to an easement, whether by the dominant or the servient owner, or to a licence as defined in the law relating to easements for the time being in force, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint, or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher :

Provided that, where compensation is claimed besides other relief relating to such easement or licence, fee shall be paid on the amount claimed as compensation in addition to the fee payable on such other relief.

32. Pre-emption suits.—In a suit to enforce a right of pre-emption fee shall be computed on the amount of the consideration for the sale which the pre-emptor seeks to avoid or on the market value, whichever is less.

33. Suits relating to mortgages.—(1) In a suit to recover the money due on a mortgage, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed.

Explanation.—It is immaterial that sale of the mortgaged property is not prayed for.

(2) Where, in such suit, the holder of a prior mortgage or charge is impleaded and he prays in his written statement that the amount due on his mortgage or charge be determined and that the decree contains a direction for the payment of such amount to him, fee shall be payable on the written statement computed on the amount claimed :

Provided that, where the holder of the mortgage or charge has paid a fee in any other proceeding on the claim to which his written statement relates, credit shall be given for the fee paid by him in such other proceeding.

(3) Where, in such a suit, the mortgaged property is sold and the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge applies for payment to him, out of the sale proceeds, of the amount due on his mortgage or charge, such holder of the prior or subsequent mortgage or charge shall pay on his application a fee computed on the amount claimed by him :

Provided that, where such holder of the mortgage or charge is a party to the suit in which the sale was held and has paid fee on the written statement filed by him in the suit, no fee shall be payable by him on the application for payment out of the sale proceeds :

Provided further that, where the holder of the mortgage or charge, not being a party to the suit in which the sale is held, has paid a fee in any other proceeding on the claim to which his application relates, credit shall be given for the fee paid by him in such other proceeding.

(4) In a suit by a co-mortagee for the benefit of himself and other co-mortgagees, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed on the entire mortgage:

Provided that, where a co-mortgagee impleaded as defendant in such suit claims on the entire mortgage a larger sum than is claimed in the plaint, the difference between the fee computed on the entire sum claimed in such defendant's written statement and the fee computed on the entire sum claimed in the plaint shall be payable on the written statement.

Explanation.—Nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as affecting the law of limitation.

(5) (a) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee to recover the amount claimed on the sub-mortgage by sale of the mortgagee's interest in the mortgaged property, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed under the sub-mortgage.

(b) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee, if the prayer is for the sale of the property mortgaged to the original mortgagee and the original mortgagor is also impleaded as a defendant, fee shall be computed on the entire amount claimed on the original mortgage which is sub-mortgaged to him.

(6) Where the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge is impleaded in a suit by a co-mortgagee to which sub-section (4) applies, or in a suit by a sub-mortgagee to which sub-section (5) applies, the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a written statement or an application filed by such holder of mortgage or charge.

(7) Where the original mortgagee who is impleaded in a suit to which the provisions of sub-section (5) (b) apply claims on the mortgage sub-mortgaged by him a larger amount than is claimed in the plaint, the provisions of sub-section (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis to the written statement of such mortgagor.

(8) In a suit against a mortgagee for redemption of a mortgage, fee shall be computed on the amount due on the mortgage as stated in the plaint or on one-fourth of the principal amount secured under the mortgage, whichever is higher:

Provided that, where the amount due on the mortgage is found to be more than the amount on which fee has been paid by the plaintiff, no decree shall be passed until the deficit fee is paid:

Provided further that, in the case of a usufructuary or anomalous mortgage, if the plaintiff prays for redemption as well as for accounts of surplus profits, fee shall be levied separately on the relief for accounts as in a suit for accounts.

(9) In a suit by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage or, where the mortgage is made by conditional sale, to have the sale declared absolute, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed in the plaint by way of principal and interest.

34. Suits relating to kanams.—(1) A suit by a landlord for recovery of possession of property transferred by way of kanam or kanam-kuzhikanam shall be deemed to involve the reliefs of redemption and ejectment, and fee shall be levied in respect of each of the reliefs, that is to say on the kanartham in respect of the relief of redemption and on one year's michavaram or rent in respect of the relief of ejectment.

(2) If in any such suit, arrears of michavaram or rent or damages or both are also sought to be recovered, fee shall be levied also on the amount of such arrears or damages or both:

Provided that, where the plaintiff seeks to set off the kanartham and the value of the improvements due by him to the defendant against arrears of michavaram or rent due to him, fee shall be levied only on the balance claimed; and if the amount ascertained to be due to him exceeds the amount as estimated by the plaintiff, no decree shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the amount so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court may fix, the decree shall be limited to the amount to which the fee paid extends.

35. Suits for accounts.—(1) In a suit for accounts, fee shall be computed on the amount sued for as estimated in the plaint or on rupees three hundred whichever is higher.

(2) Where the amount payable to the plaintiff as ascertained in the suit is in excess of the amount as estimated in the plaint, no decree directing payment of the amount as so ascertained shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the amount so ascertained, is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court may fix, the decree shall be limited to the amount to which the fee paid extends.

(3) Where in any such suit it is found that any amount is payable to the defendant, no decree shall be passed in his favour until he pays the fee due on the amount.

36. Suits for dissolution of partnership.—(1) In a suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts or for accounts of dissolved partnership, fee shall be computed on the value of the plaintiff's share in the partnership as estimated by the plaintiff.

(2) If the value of the plaintiff's share as ascertained in the suit exceeds the value as estimated in the plaint no decree, or where there has been a preliminary decree, no final decree, shall be passed in favour of the plaintiff, no payment shall be made out of the assets of the partnership and no property shall be allotted as for the plaintiff's share, until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the value so ascertained, is paid.

(3) No final decree shall be passed, no money shall be paid and no allotment of property shall be made in favour of a defendant in any such suit as, for or on account of, his share of the assets of the partnership, until the fee computed on the amount or value of his share of the assets of the partnership is paid.

37. Partition suits.—(1) In a suit for partition and separate possesssion of a share of joint family property or of property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who has been excluded from possession of such property, fee shall be computed on the market value of the plaintiff's share.

(2) In a suit for partition and separate possession of joint family property or property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who is in joint possession of such property, fee shall be paid at the following rates :—

When the plaint is presented to—

(i) a Munsiff's Court	Rupees twenty.
(ii) a Sub-Court or a District Court	Rupees one hundred if the value of plaintiff's share is Rupees 10,000 or less; and Rupees two hundred if the value is above Rs. 10,000.

(1) Court-fee on partition suits — Section 37 (1) applies only if the plea is that plaintiff is excluded from possession of property — Mere exclusion from enjoyment of receipt of income from property or even exclusive use of property by co-sharer does not amount to exclusion of co-sharer so as to attract Section 37 (1) but only Section 37 (2). AIR 1967 Ker 176 (177) = 1967 Ker LT 1149.

(2) Decree in a partition suit — Decree directing defendent to pay mesne profits — Appeal by defendant — Relief against direction to pay mesne profits claimed — Mesne profits not falling under Order 20, Rule 12 — Mesne profits component part of the decree — Ad valorem Court-fee not payable — Court-fee held payable under Schedule 2, Article 17-B Madras Court Fees Act as the claim arose from a suit for partition. 1968 Ker LJ 549 (551) = 1968 Ker LR 598 (601). (Case decided against Court-fees Act 1870 as amended in Madras.)

(3) Where in a suit falling under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), a defendant claims partition and separate possession of his share of the property, fee shall be payable on his written statement computed on half the market value of his share or at half the rates specified in sub-section (2), according as such defendant has been excluded from possession or is in joint possesssion.

(4) Where, in a suit falling under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the plaintiff or the defendant seeks cancellation of decree or other document of the nature specified in Section 40, separate fee shall. be payable on the relief of cancellation in the manner specified in that section.

38. Suits for joint possession.—In a suit for joint possession of joint family property or of property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who has been excluded from possession, fee shall be computed on the market value of the plaintiff's share.

39. Administration suits.—(1) In a suit for the administration of an estate, fee shall be levied on the plaint at the rates specified in Section 50.

(2) Where any amount or share or part of the assets of the estate is found due to the plaintiff, and the fee computed on the amount or the market value of such share or part of the assets exceeds the fee paid on the plaint, no payment shall be made and no decree directing payment of money or confirming title to such share or part of the asset shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee computed on the amount or value of the property is paid.

(3) No payment shall be made, no decree directing payment of money or confirming title to any share or part of the assets of the estate shall be passed in favour of a defendant in a suit for administration, until the fee computed on the amount or value of such share or part of such assets is paid by such defendant.

(4) In computing the fee payable by a plaintiff or by a defendant under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), credit shall be given for the fee, if any, paid by such plaintiff or by such defendant in any other proceeding in respect of the claim on the basis of which such amount or share or part of the assets of the estate becomes due to such plaintiff or to such defendant.

40. Suits for cancellation of decrees, etc.—(1) In a suit for cancellation of a decree for money or other property having a money value, or other document which purports or operates to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest in money, movable or immovable property, fee shall be computed on the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value shall be deemed to be—

if the whole decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, the amount or value of the property for which the decree was passed or other document was executed;

if a part of the decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, such part of the amount or value of the property.

(2) If the decree or other document is such that the liability under it cannot be split up and the relief claimed relates only to a particular item of property belonging to the plaintiff or to the plaintiff's share in any such property, fee shall be computed on the value of such property or share or on the amount of the decree, whichever is less.

Explanation.—A suit to set aside an award shall be deemed to be a suit to set aside a decree within the meaning of this section.

(1) Decree or other document for property sought to be cancelled — It is market value (in absence of any indication to contrary) of property that counts for Court-fee purposes and not value as shown in decree or other document. 1966 Ker LJ 1109 (1110).

41. Suits to set aside attachment, etc.—(1) In a suit to set aside an attachment by a Civil or Revenue Court of any property, movable or immovable, or of any interest therein or of any interest in revenue, or to set aside an order passed on an application made to set aside the attachment, fee shall be computed on the amount for which the property was attached or on one-fourth of the market value of the property attached, whichever is less.

(2) In a suit to set aside any other summary decision or order of a Civil or Revenue Court, if the subject-matter of the suit has a market value, fee shall be computed on one-fourth of such value, and in other cases, fee shall be payable at the rates specified in Section 50.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, the Registrar of Co-operative Societies shall be deemed to be a Civil Court.

42. Suits for specific performance.—In a suit for specific performance, whether with or without possession, fee shall be payable—

(a) in the case of a contract of sale, computed on the amount of the consideration;

(b) in the case of a contract of mortgage, computed on the amount agreed to be secured by the mortgage;

(c) in the case of a contract of lease, computed on the aggregate amount of the fine or premium, if any, and of the average of the annual rent agreed to be paid;

(d) in the case of a contract of exchange, computed on the amount of the consideration, or as the case may be, on the market value of the property sought to be got in exchange;

(e) in other cases, where the consideration for the promise sought to be enforced has a market value, computed on such market value, or where such consideration has no market value, at the rates specified in Section 50.

43. Suits between landlord and tenant.—(1) In the following suits between landlord and tenant, namely :—

(a) for enhancement of rent;

(b) for recovery of immovable property from which a tenant has been illegally ejected by the landlord;

(c) for establishing or disproving a right of leasehold;

fee shall be levied on the amount of rent for the immovable property to which the suit relates, payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

(2) In a suit for recovery of immovable property from a tenant including a tenant holding over after the termination of a tenancy, fee shall be computed on the premium, if any, and on the rent payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

Explanation.—Rent includes also damages for use and occupation payable by a tenant holding over.

(3) In a suit for reduction or apportionment of rent, fee shall be levied on the amount of rent sought to be reduced or on the amount of rent that is sought to be apportioned.

44. Suits for mesne profits.—(1) In a suit for mesne profits or for immovable property and mesne profits, fee shall in respect of mesne profits be computed, where the amount is stated approximately and sued for, on such amount. If the profits ascertained to be due to the plaintiff are in excess of the profits as approximately estimated and sued for, no decree shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid.

(2) Where a decree directs an enquiry as to the mesne profits which have accrued on the property, whether prior or subsequent to the institution of the suit, no final decree shall be passed till the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of profits accrued due till the date of such decree is paid.

(3) Where, for a period subsequent to the date of the decree or final decree, such decree or final decree directs payment of mesne profits at a specified rate, such decree or final decree shall not be executed until the fee computed on the amount claimed in execution has been paid.

45. Suits under the Survey and Boundaries Act.—In a suit under Section 11 of the Madras Survey and Boundaries Act, 1923, Section 13 of the Travancore Survey and Boundaries Act of 1094 or Section 14 of the Cochin Survey Act, II of 1074, fee shall be computed on one half of the market value of the property affected by the determination of the boundary or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher.

46. Suits to alter or cancel entry in a register.—In a suit to alter or cancel any entry in a revenue register of the names of proprietors of the land or others interested in such land, the fee payable shall be fifteen rupees.

47. Suits relating to public matters.—In a suit for relief under Section 14 of the Religious Endowments Act, 1863 [Central Act XX of 1863], or under Section 91 or Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 [Central Act V of 1908] the fee payable shall be ten rupees.

48. Interpleader suits.—(1) In an interpleader suit, fee shall be payable on the plaint at the rates specified in Section 50.

(2) Where issues are framed as between the claimants, fee shall be payable computed on the amount of the debt or the money or the market value of the property, movable or immovable, which forms the subject-matter of the suit. In levying such fee, credit shall be given for the fee paid on the plaint; and the balance of the fee shall be paid in equal shares by the claimants who claim the debt or the sum of money or the property adversely to each other.

(3) Value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be the amount of the debt, or the sum of money or the market value of other property to which the suit relates.

49. Third party proceedings.—In third party proceedings, fee shall be levied on one half of the value of the contribution or indemnity claimed against a third party or against a co-defendant if a claim is made against him:

Provided that, if the suit against the defendant who has filed the third party notice is dismissed, wholly or in part, he shall be entitled to a refund of the whole or a proportionate part of the fee paid by him.

Explanation.—The provisions of this section shall also apply to counter-claims made in third party proceedings.

50. Suits not otherwise provided for.—In suits not otherwise provided for, fee shall be payable at the following rates:—

(i) In a Revenue Court	Rupees fifteen.
(ii) In a Munsiff's Court	Rupees thirty.
(iii) In a Sub-Court or a District Court	Rupees one hundred if the value of the subject-matter is Rs. 10,000 or less; and rupees two hundred if the value is above Rs. 10,000.

51. Fee on memorandum of appeal against order relating to compensation.—The fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of property for public purposes shall be computed on the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

52. Appeals.—The fee payable in an appeal shall be the same as the fee that would be payable in the Court of first instance on the subject-matter of the appeal :

Provided that, in levying fee on a memorandum of appeal against a final decree by a person whose appeal against the preliminary decree passed by the Court of first instance or by the Court of appeal is pending, credit shall be given for the fee paid by such person in the appeal against the preliminary decree.

Explanation (1).—Whether the appeal is against the refusal of a relief or against the grant of the relief, the fee payable in the appeal shall be the same as the fee that would be payable on the relief in the Court of first instance.

Explanation (2).—Costs shall not be deemed to form part of the subject-matter of the appeal except where such costs form themselves the subject-matter of the appeal or relief is claimed as regards costs on grounds additional to or independent of, the relief claimed regarding the main subject-matter in the suit.

Explanation (3).—In claims which include the award of interest subsequent to the institution of the suit, the interest accrued during the pendency of the suit till the date of decree shall be deemed to be part of the subject-matter of the appeal except where such interest is relinquished.

Explanation (4).—Where the relief prayed for in the appeal is difference from the relief prayed for or refused in the Court of first instance, the fee payable in the appeal shall be the fee that would be payable in the Court of first instance on the relief prayed for in the appeal.

Explanation (5).—Where the market value of the subject-matter of the appeal has to be ascertained for the purpose of computing or determining the fee payable, such market value shall be ascertained as on the date of presentation of the plaint.

Section 52 — Note 1

(1) Writ appeal under Section 5 of the Kerala High Court Act 5 of 1959 — Court-fees payable on writ appeal — Sch. 2. Art. 3 (iii) (a) (2) (c) which is a special provision applies and not Sec. 52 which is a general provision. 1965 Ker LT 69 = 1965 Ker LJ 33 (36).

(2) Table of costs is part of judgment and not of decree and therefore is not taxable. 1965 Ker LJ 33 (36) = 1965 Ker LT 69.

(3) Section 52 applies only to cases where Court-fee is computed "on the subject matter of the appeal". It does not apply to proceedings that all charged fixed fee irrespective of the subject-matter involved — In this view there is no contradiction between Section 52 and Schedule 2 of the Act. 1965 Ker LJ 33 (36) = 1965 Ker LT 69.

(4) In appeal defendant disputing whole of amount awarded to plaintiff — Amount of interest decreed for period subsequent to institution of suit up to the date of decree must be deemed to be part of subject-matter of appeal by reason of Section 52. Expl. (3). 1966 Ker LT 997 (998) = 1966 Ker LJ 1113.

(5) Applicability — Explanation applies whether appellant is plaintiff or defendant — That relinquishment of interest can only be by plaintiff does not make explanation any the less applicable to defendant's appeal. 1966 Ker LT 997 (997) = 1966 Ker LJ 1113.

(6) Order rejecting plaint under O. 7, Rule 11 (b) — Appeal from order — Section 52 of the Act does not apply — Section 52 contemplates a proceeding in the Court of first instance in respect of the subject-matter of the appeal—But there can be no proceeding instituted in the Court of first instance for the adjudication of the subject-matter in appeal viz., the adequacy of Court-fee paid and naturally no provision has been made for Court-fee payable in the Court of first instance in such a proceeding. AIR 1968 Ker 58 (59) = 1967 Ker LT 1009.

(7) Rejection of plaint under Order 7, R. 11(b), Civil Procedure Code— Appeal against the order — Amount of under-valuation determined — Article 1, Schedule 1 would apply without having recourse to Section 52. AIR 1968 Ker 58 (59) = 1967 Ker LT 1009.

(8) Rejection of plaint under Order 7, Rule 11(b) — Amount of under-valuation not determined — Appeal against the order of rejection — Subject-matter of the dispute in appeal is not capable of valuation — Schedule 1, Article 1 does not apply — Art. 3 (iii) (A) (i) would apply as the word 'order' in the Act includes orders which are decrees within Section 2 (2) of the Civil P. C. AIR 1968 Ker 58 (59) = 1967 Ker LT 1009.

CHAPTER V

VALUATION OF SUITS

53. Suits not otherwise provided for.—(1) In a suit as to whose value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts, specific provision is not otherwise made in this Act or in any other law, value for that purpose and value for the purpose of computing the fee payable under this Act shall be the same.

(2) In a suit where fee is payable under this Act at a fixed rate, the value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be the market value or where it is not possible to estimate it at a money value, such amount as the plaintiff shall state in the plaint.

54. Procedure where objection is taken on appeal or revision that a suit or appeal was not properly valued for jurisdictional purposes.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 99 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), an objection that by reason of the overvaluation or undervaluation of a suit or appeal, a Court of first instance or lower appellate Court which had no jurisdiction with respect to the suit or appeal exercised jurisdiction with respect thereto shall not be entertained by an appellate Court, unless—

(a) the objection was taken in the Court of first instance at or before the hearing at which issues were first framed and recorded, or in the lower appellate Court in the memorandum of appeal to that Court, or

(b) the appellate Court is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that the suit or appeal was overvalued, or undervalued and that the overvaluation or undervaluation thereof has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit or appeal on its merits.

(2) If the objection was taken in the manner mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1), but the appellate Court is not satisfied as to both the matters mentioned in clause (b) of that sub-section and has before it the materials necessary for the determination of the other grounds of appeal to itself, it shall dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction in the Court of first instance or lower appellate Court.

(3) If the objection was taken in that manner and the appellate Court is satisfied as to both those matters and has not those materials before it, it shall proceed to deal with the appeal under the rules applicable to the Court with respect to the hearing of appeals, but if it remands the suit or appeal, or frames and refers issues for trial, or requires additional evidence to be taken, it shall direct its order to a Court competent to entertain the suit or appeal.

(4) The provisions of this section with respect to an appellate Court shall, so far as they be made applicable, apply to a Court exercising revisional jurisdiction under Sec. 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), or other enactment for the time being in force.

CHAPTER VI

PROBATES, LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION AND CERTIFICATES OF ADMINISTRATION

55. Application for probate or letters of administration.—(1) Every application for the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be accompanied by a valuation of the estate in duplicate in the form set forth in Part I of Schedule III.

Section 55 — Note 1

(1) Under Section 55 of Kerala Act 10 of 1960 an application for grant of letters of administration shall be accompanied by an affidavit of valuation of the estate in the form set forth in Part I of Schedule 3 — No question of adjudication of title in respect of properties for which letters of administration are claimed arises in these proceedings. AIR 1969 Ker 256 (259).

(2) On receipt of such application, the Court shall send a copy thereof and of the valuation to the Collector of the district in which the estate is situated, or if the estate is situated in more than one district, to the Collector of the district in which the most valuable portion of the immovable property included in the estate is situated.

56. Levy of fee.—(1) The fee chargeable for the grant of probate or letters of administration shall comprise—a fee at the rate or rates prescribed in Article 6 of Schedule I, computed—

(a) where the application is made within one year of the date of death of the deceased, on the market value of the estate on such date; or

(b) where the application is made after the expiry of one year from such date, on the market value of the estate on the date of the application:

Provided that property held in trust not beneficially or with general power to confer a beneficial interest shall not be liable to any fee under this Chapter.

Explanation.—Any member of a joint Hindu family governed by the Mitakshara Law who applies for probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of a deceased member of the joint family shall pay a fee on the value of the share in the joint property which the deceased would have received if a partition of the property had been made immediately before his death.

(2) For the purpose of the computation of fee—

(a) the value of the items mentioned in Annexure B to Part I of Schedule III shall be deducted from the value of the estate:

Provided that, when an application is made for probate or letters of administration in respect of part only of an estate, no debt, no expenses connected with any funeral rites or ceremonies and no mortgage encumbrance on any part of the estate other than that in respect of which the application is made shall be deducted:

Provided further that when, after the grant of a certificate under Part X of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (Central Act XXXIX of 1925), in respect of any property included in an estate, grant of probate or letters of administration is made in respect of the same estate, the fee payable in respect of the latter grant shall be reduced by the amount of the fee paid in respect of the former grant;

(b) the power of appointment which the deceased had over property or which was created under a will shall be taken into account, the value being taken to be value of the property forming the subject-matter of the power.

57. Grant of probate.—The grant of probate or letters of administration shall not be delayed by reason of the reference to the Collector under Section 55, sub-section (2), or of a motion by the Collector under Section 59, sub-section (5); but the Court shall make no grant of probate or letters of administration until it is satisfied that a fee not less than that prescribed by this Act has been paid on the basis of the net value of the estate as furnished in the valuation accompanying the application, or in the amended valuation filed under Section 59, sub-section (3):

Provided that the Court may grant probate or letters of administration notwithstanding that the prescribed fee has not been paid, to the Administrator-General in his official capacity on his giving an undertaking to the satisfaction of the Court that the said fee will be paid within such time as may be fixed by the Court.

58. Relief in cases of general grants.—(1) Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration has been made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate and the full fee payable under this Act in respect of the application for such grant has been paid thereon, no fee shall be payable when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

(2) Whenever such grant has been made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fee actually paid under this Act in respect thereof shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of the property belonging to the same estate identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

59. Inquiry by the Collector.—(1) The Collector to whom a copy of the application and of the valuation has been sent under Section 55, sub-section (2), shall examine the same and may make or cause to be made by any officer subordinate to him such inquiry, if any, as he thinks fit as to the correctness of the valuation or where a part only of the property is situated in his district, of the valuation of that part, and may require the Collector of any other district in which any part of the property is situated to furnish him with the correct valuation thereof.

(2) Any Collector required under sub-section (1) to furnish the correct valuation of any property shall comply with the requisition after making or causing to be made by any officer subordinate to him such inquiry, if any, as he thinks fit.

(3) If the Collector is of opinion that the applicant has underestimated the value of the property of the deceased, he may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the applicant, either in person or by his agent, and take evidence and inquire into the matter in such manner as he may think fit, and if he is still of opinion that the value of the property has been underestimated, may require the applicant to amend the valuation and, if the application for probate or letters of administration is pending in Court, to file a copy of the amended valuation in such Court.

(4) If, in any such case, the probate or letters of administration has or have been granted and the applicant amends the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector and the Collector finds that a less fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, he shall proceed under Section 61, sub-section (4), but if a higher fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, the excess fee shall be refunded to the applicant.

(5) If the applicant does not amend the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may move the Court before which the application for probate or letters of administration was made to hold an inquiry into the true value of the property:

Provided that no such motion shall be made after the expiration of six months from the date of the exhibition of the inventory required by Section 317 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (Central Act XXXIX of 1925).

60. Application to Court and powers of Court.—(1) The Court shall, when moved by the Collector under Section 59, sub-section (5), hold or cause to be held by any Court or officer subordinate to it an inquiry as to the true value at which the estate of the deceased should have been estimated. The Collector shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.

(2) For the purposes of any such inquiry, the Court, or the Subordinate Court or the officer authorised by the Court to hold the inquiry, may examine the applicant on oath either in person or by commission, and may take such further evidence as may be produced to prove the true value of the estate, and where the inquiry has been entrusted to a Subordinate Court or officer, such Court or officer shall return to the Court the evidence taken and report the result of the inquiry and such report and the evidence so taken shall be evidence in the proceedings.

(3) The Court on the completion of the inquiry or on receipt of the report referred to in sub-section (2), as the case may be, shall record a finding as to the true value at which the estate should have been estimated and such finding shall be final.

(4) The Court may make such order in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), as to the cost of the inquiry as it thinks fit.

61. Provision for cases where too low a fee has been paid.—(1) Where too low a fee has been paid on any probate or letters of administration in consequence of any mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator, acting under such probate or letters, applies, to the Collector in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III and pays within six months after the discovery of the mistake or of any effects not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, what is wanting to make up the fee which ought to have been paid at first on such probate or letters, the Collector shall, if satisfied that a low fee was paid in the first instance in consequence of a mistake and without any intention of fraud or to delay the payment of the proper fee, cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped.

(2) If, in a case falling under sub-section (1), the executor or administrator does not, within the six months referred to in that sub-section, pay the deficit fee, he shall forfeit a sum equal to five times the deficit fee.

(3) If, on application being made under sub-section (1), the Collector is not satisfied that the application was made within six months of the discovery of the mistake or of further effects not included in the original valuation or that the payment of a low fee in the first instance was not due to a bona fide mistake, he shall cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment of the deficit fee together with a penalty not exceeding five times such fee.

(4) If, after the grant of probate or letters of administration of an estate, it is found by the Collector as a result of proceedings under Section 59 or Section 60 or otherwise, that a less fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, he shall cause the probate or letters to be properly stamped on payment of the deficit fee, and if he is satisfied that the original undervaluation was not bona fide, he shall levy in addition a penalty not exceeding five times the deficit fee.

(5) The Board of Revenue may remit the whole or any part of the amount forfeited under sub-section (2) or of any penalty under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4).

62. Administrator to give proper security before letters stamped.—In case of letters of administration on which too low a fee has been paid at first, the Collector shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in the manner aforesaid until the adminstrator has given such security to the Court by which the letters of administration have been granted as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased has been then ascertained.

63. Relief when too high a fee has been paid.—(1) If, at any time after the grant of the probate or letters of administration of an estate, it is discovered that a higher fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, the executor or administrator, as the case may be, may apply for a refund to the Collector to whom a copy of the valuation of the estate was sent under Section 55, sub-section (2). The application shall be accompanied by an amended valuation in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III together with the probate or letters of administration upon which a refund is sought.

(2) If the Collector is satisfied that the amended valuation is correct, he shall—

(i) endorse a certificate on the stamped probate or letters of administration to the effect that so much of the fee represented by the stamp or stamps used has been refunded, and

(ii) refund the difference between the fee originally paid and that which should have been paid:

Provided that no refund shall be granted under this section unless the application for refund is made within three years of the date of the grant of the probate or letters of administration, or within such further period as the Collector may allow.

If, by reason of any legal proceedings, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available and in consequence thereof, the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said period of three years, the Collector may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to him to be reasonable under the circumstances.

If the Collector does not grant a refund, the executor or administrator, as the case may be, may apply to the Board of Revenue for an order of refund. An application for such refund should be accompanied by an amended valuation in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III.

64. Recovery of penalties, etc.—Any excess fee found to be payable by an applicant for probate or letters of administration or by an executor or administrator, or any costs under Section 60, sub-section (4), or any penalty or forfeiture payable by any such executor or administrator may, on the certificate of the Board of Revenue, be recovered from the executor or administrator as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

65. Powers of Board of Revenue.—The powers and duties of the Collector under this Chapter shall be subject to the control of the Board of Revenue.

CHAPTER VII

REFUNDS AND REMISSIONS

66. Refund in cases of delay in presentation of plaint, etc.—(1) Where a plaint or memorandum of appeal is rejected on the ground of delay in its representation, or where the fee paid on a plaint or memorandum of appeal is deficient and the deficiency is not made good within the time allowed by law or granted by the Court, or the delay in payment of the deficit fee is not condoned and the plaint or memorandum of appeal is consequently rejected, the Court shall direct the refund to the plaintiff or the appellant, of the fee paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal which has been rejected.

(2) Where a memorandum of appeal is rejected on the ground that it was not presented within the time allowed by the law of limitation, one-half of the fee shall be refunded.

67. Refund in cases of remand.—(1) Where a plaint or memorandum of appeal which has been rejected by the lower Court is ordered to be received, or where a suit is remanded in appeal for a fresh decision by the lower Court, the Court making the order or remanding the appeal may direct the refund to the appellant of the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal; and, if the remand is on second appeal, also on the memorandum of appeal in the first appellate Court.

(2) Where an appeal is remanded in second appeal for a fresh decision by the lower appellate Court, the High Court remanding the appeal may direct the refund to the appellant of the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of second appeal if the remand is in second appeal:

Provided that no refund shall be ordered if the remand was caused by the fault of the party who would otherwise be entitled to a refund:

Provided further that, if the order of remand does not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the refund shall not extend to more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on that part of the subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

68. Refund where Court reverses or modifies former decision on ground of mistake.—Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted on the ground of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, and on the rehearing the Court reverses or modifies its fomer decision on that ground, it shall direct the refund to the applicant of so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under Art. 11 (g) and (t) of Schedule II.

69. Refund in cases of compromise or when suit is decided on the admission of parties.—When a suit or appeal is compromised or when a suit is decided solely on the admission of the parties without any investigation, one-half of the court-fee paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be ordered by the Court to be refunded to the parties by whom the same have been paid respectively.

70. Refund of fee paid by mistake or inadvertence.—The fee paid by mistake or inadvertence shall be ordered to be refunded.

71. Instruments of partition.—Where the final decree in a partition suit has been engrossed on non-judicial stamps furnished by the parties, the Court shall order the refund to the parties of so much of the valued fee paid by them as is equal to the value of the non-judicial stamps furnished by them.

72. Exemption of certain documents.—Nothing contained in this Act shall render the following documents chargeable with any fee:—

(i) mukhtarnama, vakalatnama or other written authority to institute or defend a suit when executed by a member of any of the Armed Forces of the Union not in civil employment;

(ii) memorandum of appearance filed by advocates or pleaders when appearing for persons proceeded against in criminal cases;

(iii) plaints and other documents in suits filed in village courts;

(iv) plaints in suits before Collectors under Madras Regulation XII of 1816;

(v) application or petition to a Collector or other Officer making a settlement of land revenue, or to the Board of Revenue relating to matters connected with the assessment of land, or with the ascertainment of rights thereto or interest therein, if presented previous to the final confirmation of such settlement;

(vi) application relating to a supply for irrigation of water belonging to Government;

(vii) application for leave to extend cultivation or to relinquish land, when presented to an officer of land revenue by a person holding, under a direct engagement with Government, land of which revenue is settled but not permanently;

(viii) application for service of notice of relinquishment of land or of enhancement of rent;

(ix) written authority to an agent to destrain;

(x) first application (other than a petition containing a criminal charge of information) for the summons of a witness or other person to attend either to give evidence or to produce a document or in respect of the production or filing of an exhibit not being an affidavit made for the immediate purpose of being produced in Court;

(xi) bail bonds in criminal cases other than bail bonds in village courts, recognizances to prosecute or give evidence and recognizances for personal appearance or otherwise;

(xii) petition, application, charge or information respecting any offences when presented, made or laid to or before a police officer, or to or before the heads of villages or the village police;

(xiii) petition by a prisoner or other person in duress or under restraint of any Court or its officer:

(xiv) complaint of a public servant as defined in the Indian Penal Code (Central Act XLV of 1860),

(xv) application for permission to cut timber in Government forests or otherwise relating to such forests, not being applications from forest contractors for extending the period of their leases;

(xvi) application for the payment of money due by the Government to the applicant, other than an application for refund of lapsed deposit made six months after the date on which the amount lapsed to the Government;

(xvii) petition of appeal against any municipal tax;

(xviii) application for compensation under any law, for the time being in force relating to the acquisition of property for public purposes;

(xix) petition under Section 48 of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872 (Central Act XV of 1872);

(xx) petition or appeal by a Government servant or a servant of the Court of Wards when presented to any superior officer or Government against orders of dismissal, removal, reduction in rank or suspension; copies of such orders filed with appeals, and applications for obtaining such copies;

(xxi) applications, for refund of court-fees under the provisions of this Act;

(xxii) applications presented to Munsifs in non-appealable cases;

(xxiii) requisitions made by the Government for copies of judgments and decrees or orders or records in suits or proceedings.

73. Special procedure regarding suits by societies registered under the Societies Registration Act.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, where a suit is filed by a society registered under the Travancore-Cochin Literary, Scientific and Charitable Societies Act XII of 1955 or the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (Central Act 21 of 1860) and the Collector of the district certifies that the society is not in a position to pay the amount of fee chargeable on the plaint under this Act, regard being had to the financial condition of the society, the plaint shall be chargeable only with one-half of the amount of the fee chargeable on it

74. Special provision regarding suits by registered trade union, member of Scheduled Castes, etc.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing provisions of this Act, the Court shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), admit the plaint in respect of the following kinds of suit even though the fee chargeable under this Act has not been paid and after such admission calculate the amount of court-fee chargeable in respect of the plaint under the provisions of this Act, and, require the Collector of the District to pay the fee so chargeable—

(i) suits for money instituted by a registered trade union wherein the claim does not exceed one thousand rupees;

(ii) suits for money instituted by a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe whose monthly income does not exceed one hundred rupees and wherein the claim does not exceed one thousand rupees;

Explanation.—For the purpose of this clause, Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe shall have the same meaning as in the Constitution of India;

(iii) suits for money instituted by a prisoner whose monthly income does not exceed one hundred rupees and wherein the claim does not exceed one thousand rupees.

(iv) suits for money filed by a co-operative society registered under the Co-operative Societies Act for the time being in force against any person other than a member of the society;

(v) suits for recovery of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 and for wages or bonus by workmen under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947; and

(vi) suits for arrears of maintenance or for maintenance or for enhancement of maintenance or for recovery of shares of their deceased husbands or parents in the family property, filed by women or minors, where the monthly income of such women or minors, does not exceed one hundred rupees.

Explanation.—'Monthly income' for purposes of clauses (ii), (iii) and (vi) shall mean the average monthly income during the period of one year immediately prior to the date of institution of the suit:

Provided that the plaintiff in the suit has not entered into any agreement with reference to the subject-matter of the proposed suit under which any other person has obtained an interest in such subject-matter or has not acquired by transfer inter vivos an interest in such subject-matter and in cases covered by clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) of sub-section (1) above, the claim originates in favour of the plaintiff.

(2) Every plaint presented to the Court under sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by such documents and records containing such particulars as may be prescribed to enable the Court to come to a finding whether the plaintiff in the suit is entitled to the concession under sub-section (1) or not. The Court may for this purpose hold such inquiry as it deems fit. If upon such enquiry the Court finds that the allegations do not show a cause of action or that the suit appears to be barred by any law or that the plaintiff is not entitled to the concession under sub-section (1), it shall require the plaintiff to pay the fee chargeable in respect of the plaint under the provisions of this Act, and on such payment the plaint shall be deemed to have been duly stamped at the time of presentation.

(3) On receipt of a requisition from the Court under sub-section (1) for payment of a court-fee, the Collector shall pay the required fee within the time specified by the Court.

(4) Where in respect of a suit filed under sub-section (1), if the plaintiff succeeds in the suit or where the suit is dismissed wholly or in part on the ground that the claim or portion of it made in the suit is false or vexatious and the Court records a finding to the effect that it is so, the fee chargeable in respect of the plaint in the suit under the provisions of this Act, shall be recoverable by the Government from the party ordered by the decree to pay the same and shall be a first charge on the subject-matter of the suit.

(5) The Government shall have the right at any time to apply to the Court to make an order for the payment of court-fees under sub-section (4).

(6) All matters arising between the Government and any party to the suit under this section shall be deemed to be questions arising between the parties to the suit within the meaning of Section 47 of the Civil Procedure Code.

(7) Where an order is made under this section, the Court shall forthwith cause a copy of the decree or order to be forwarded to the Collector of the District who may, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, recover the amount of court-fees specified therein from the person or property liable for the payment as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

75. Power to reduce or remit fees.—The Government may, by notification in the Gazette, reduce or remit, in the whole or in any part of the territory of the State, all or any of the fees chargeable under this Act, and may, in like manner, cancel or vary such notification.

CHAPTER VIII

LEGAL BENEFIT FUND

76. Legal Benefit Fund.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, it shall be competent for the Government to levy an additional court-fee, by notification in the Gazette, in respect of appeals or revisions to tribunals or appellate authorities, other than Civil and Criminal Courts, at a rate not exceeding one per cent of the amount involved in the dispute in cases where it is capable of valuation and in other cases at a rate not exceeding one hundred rupees for each appeal or revision.

(2) There shall be constituted a legal benefit fund to which shall be credited—

(i) the proceeds of the additional court-fee levied and collected under sub-section (1);

(ii) fifty per cent of the court-fees levied and collected on mukhtarnama or vakalathnama under Article 16 of Schedule II of this Act.

(3) The fund constituted under sub-section (2) shall be applied and utilised for the purpose of providing an efficient legal service for the people of the State and to provide social security measures for the legal profession.

(4) The mode and manner in which legal service to the people may be made more efficient and social security measures for legal profession may be provided shall be as prescribed by rules made by Government.

CHAPTER IX

MISCELLANEOUS

77. Collection of fees by stamps.—All fees chargeable under this Act shall be collected by stamps.

78. Stamps to be impressed or adhesive.—The stamps used to denote any fee chargeable under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the Government may, by notification in the Gazette, from time to time, direct.

79. Amended document.—Where any document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act is amended in order merely to correct a mistake and to make it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp.

80. Cancellation of stamp.—No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or office until the stamp has been cancelled.

Such officer as the Court or the head of the office may, from time to time, appoint shall, on receiving any such document forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figurehead so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched, and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

81. Deduction to be made.—Where allowance is made in this Act for damaged or spoiled stamps, or where fee already paid is directed to be refunded to any person by an order of Court, the Collector may, on the application of the person concerned, pay to him the amount of fee or where damaged or spoiled stamps are produced, he may, after satisfying himself about their genuineness, give in lieu thereof the same amount or value in stamps of the same or any other description, or if the applicant so desires, the same amount or value in money provided that in all cases where money is paid in cash, a deduction shall be made of [seven Paise]* for each rupee or fraction thereof. No such deduction shall, however, be made where refund is claimed in respect of any fee paid in pursuance of an order of Court which has been varied or reversed in appeal.

* Substituted for "seven naye paise" by Pres. Act 8 of 1966, Section 2 (w. e. f. 1-10-1966).

82. Penalty.—Any person appointed to sell stamps, who disobeys any rule made under this Act, and any person, not so appointed, who sells or offers for sale any stamps, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both.

83. Power of High Court to make rules.—(1) The High Court may make rules to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the fees payable for serving and executing processes issued by the High Court in its appellate jurisdiction and by the Civil and Criminal Courts subordinate thereto;

(b) the remuneration of persons employed by the Courts mentioned in clause (a) in the service or execution of processes;

(c) the fixing by District and Sessions Judges and District Magistrates of the number of process-servers necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued from their respective Courts and the Courts subordinate thereto;

(d) the display in each Court of a table in the English and in the local language or languages showing the fees payable for the service and execution of processes.

(2) All rules made under sub-section (1) shall be subject to confirmation by the Government and on such confirmation shall be published in the Gazette and shall thereupon have effect as if enacted in this Act.

84. Power of Board of Revenue to make rules.—(1) The Board of Revenue may, with the previous sanction of the Government, make rules consistent with this Act to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Board of Revenue and by the Revenue Courts;

(b) the remuneration of the persons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of such processes;

(c) the fixing by Collectors of the number of persons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of such processes;

(d) the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of their powers under Chapter VI;

(e) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act;

(f) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act;

(g) the keeping of accounts of all stamps used under this Act;

(h) the circumstances in which stamps may be held to be damaged or spoiled;

(i) the circumstances in which, the manner in which, and the authorities by which, allowance for used, damaged or spoiled stamps may be made;

(j) the regulation of the sale of stamps to be used under this Act, the persons by whom alone such stamps may be sold and the duties and remuneration of such persons;

Provided that, in the case of stamps used in the High Court, such rules shall be made with the concurrence of the Chief Justice.

(2) All rules made under this section shall be published in the Gazette and on such publication shall have effect as if enacted in this Act.

85. Power of Government to make rules.—(1) The Government may, by notification in the Gazette, make rules* to carry out generally the purposes of this Act.

(2) All notifications and rules made under this section shall, as soon as possible, after they are made, be placed on the table of the Legislative Assembly for one month, and shall be subject to such modification whether by way of repeal or amendment as the Legislative Assembly may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

* For the Kerala Court-fees and Suits Valuation Rules, 1962, see Notifn. No. 10463/C 2/60-2/Law in Ker. Gaz., Extra., dated 19-1-1962.

86. Continuance in force of existing rules.—Until rules are framed under Sections 83, 84 and 85 and until notifications are issued under Section 75, the rules and notifications now in force in respect of matters referred to in those sections, shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act, continue.

87. Repeal.—(1) The Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act, 1955, in force in the Malabar district referred to in sub-section (2) of Section 5 of the States Reorganisation Act, 1956, the Travancore-Cochin Court-fees Act, 1125 and the Travancore-Cochin Suits Valuation Act, 1125, are hereby repealed.

(2) All suits and proceedings instituted before the commencement of this Act and all proceedings by way of appeal, revision or otherwise arising therefrom, whether instituted before or after such commencement, shall, notwithstanding the repeal of the said Acts, be governed by the provisions of the said Acts and the rules made thereunder.

[THE] MYSORE COURT-FEES AND SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1958

(MYSORE ACT XVI OF 1958)

(Received the assent of the President on the Twenty-third Day of May 1958 and first published in the Mysore Gazette on the Twenty-sixth Day of May, 1958.)

An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to court-fees and valuation of suits in the State of Mysore.

Whereas it is necessary and expedient to amend and consolidate the laws relating to court-fees and valuation of suits in the State of Mysore;

Be it enacted by the Mysore State Legislature in the Ninth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE MYSORE COURT-FEES AND SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1958.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Mysore.

(3) It shall come into force on such date* as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

[*] The date so appointed is the 15th August, 1960—See Mys. Gaz., 1960, Pt. IV-C, page 1505.

2. Application of Act.—(1) The provisions of this Act shall not apply to documents presented or to be presented before an officer serving under the Central Government.

(2) Where any other law contains provisions relating to the levy of fee in respect of proceedings under such other law, the provisions of this Act relating to the levy of fee in respect of such proceedings shall apply, subject to the said provisions of such other law.

3. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(i) "appeal" includes a cross-objection;

*[i-a] "Chief Controlling Revenue Authority" means the officer appointed by the State Government to be the Commissioner of Stamps for Mysore.]

[*] Inserted by Mys. Act X of 1964, Section 2 (5-3-1964).

(ii) "Court" means any Civil, Revenue or Criminal Court and includes a Tribunal or other authority having jurisdiction under any special or local law to decide questions affecting the rights of parties;

(iii) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act; and

(iv) expressions used and not defined in this Act or in the Mysore General Clauses Act, 1899 (Mysore Act III of 1899), but defined in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the said Code.

CHAPTER II

LIABILITY TO PAY FEE

4. Levy of fee in Courts and public offices.—No document which is chargeable with fee under this Act shall—

(i) be filed, exhibited or recorded in, or be acted on or furnished by, any Court including the High Court, or

(ii) be filed, exhibited or recorded in any public office, or be acted on or furnished by any public officer,

unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated as chargeable under this Act:

Provided that, whenever the filing or exhibition in a criminal Court of a document in respect of which the proper fee has not been paid is in the opinion of the Court necessary to prevent a failure of justice, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prohibit such filing or exhibition.

°[Provided further that no fee shall be payable in respect of any document filed, exhibited or recorded by or on behalf of the State Government or any officer of the State Government in his official capacity or acted on at the instance of or furnished to the State Government or any officer of the State Government in his official capacity.]

[°] Inserted by Mysore Act X of 1964, Section 3 (5-3-1934).

5. Fees on documents inadvertently received.—When a document on which the whole or any part of the fee prescribed by this Act has not been paid is produced or has, through mistake or inadvertence, been received in any Court or public office, the Court or the head of the office may, in its or his discretion, at any time, allow the person by whom such fee is payable to pay the fee or part thereof, as the case may be, within such time as may be fixed; and upon such payment, the document shall have the same force and effect as if the full fee had been paid in the first instance.

6. Multifarious suits.—(1) In any suit in which separate and distinct reliefs based on the same cause of action are sought, the plaint shall be chargeable with a fee on the aggregate value of the reliefs:

Provided that, if a relief is sought only as ancillary to the main relief, the plaint shall be chargeable only on the value of the main relief.

(2) Where more reliefs than one based on the same cause of action are sought in the alternative in any suit, the plaint shall be chargeable with the highest of the fees leviable on the reliefs.

(3) Where a suit embraces two or more distinct and different causes of action and separate reliefs are sought based on them, either alternatively or cumulatively, the plaint shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees with which

(1) A Regular suit filed by Liquidator of a company against debtors who disputed the claim of the company — Suit can be entertained by the winding up Court but court-fee has to be paid under Mysore Court-fees Act (1958) as on a regular suit. AIR 1967 Mys 190 (191)= (1967) 1 Mys LJ 449.

plaints would be chargeable under this Act if separate suits were instituted in respect of the several causes of action.

Provided that, where the causes of action in respect of reliefs claimed alternatively against the same person arise out of the same transaction, the plaints shall be chargeable only with the highest of the fees chargeable on them.

Nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to affect any power conferred upon a Court under Rule 6 of Order II of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908).

(4) The provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis to memoranda of appeals, applications, petitions and written statements.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, a suit for possession of immovable property and for mesne profits shall be deemed to be based on the same cause of action.

7. Determination of market-value.—(1) Save as otherwise provided, where the fee payable under this Act depends on the market-value of any property, such value shall be determined as on the date of presentation of the plaint.

(2) The market-value of land in suits falling under Sections 24 (a), 24 (b), 26 (a), 27, 28, 29, 31, 35 (1), 35 (2), 35 (3), 36, 38, 39 or 45 shall be deemed to be—

(a) where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government, or forms part of such an estate and is recorded in the Deputy Commissioner's register as separately assessed with such revenue, and such revenue is permanently settled—

twenty-five times the revenue so payable;

(b) where the land forms an entire estate, or a definite share of an estate, paying annual revenue to Government, or forms part of such estate and is recorded as aforesaid, and such revenue is settled, but not permanently—twelve and a half times the revenue so payable;

(c) where the land pays no such revenue, or has been partially exempted from such payment, or is charged with any fixed payment in lieu of such revenue,—fifteen times the net profits, if any, from the land during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint or thirty times the revenue payable on the same extent of similar land in the neighbourhood, whichever is lower;

(d) where the land forms part of an estate paying revenue to Government, but is not a definite share of such estate and is not separately assessed as abovementioned or the land is a garden or the land is a house-site, whether assessed to full revenue or not, or is land not falling within the foregoing description—the market value of the land.

Explanation.—The word "estate" as used in this section means any land subject to the payment of revenue, for which the proprietor or farmer or raiyat shall have executed a separate engagement to Government, or which in the absence of such engagement, shall have been separately assessed with revenue.

8. Set-off or counter claim.—A written statement pleading a set-off or counter claim shall be chargeable with tee in tne same manner as a plaint.

Section 7 — Note 1

(1) Suit for possession of a specific property allotted to plaintiff's share at partition — Property not separately assessed to revenue — Not an estate within the meaning of Section 7 (2) (a) nor within the description of property in Section 7 (2). Court-fee is payable on market value of suit property. AIR 1969 Mys 255 (257) = (1968) 2 Mys LJ 273.

Section 8 — Note 1

(1) Suit for partition against co-owners — Defendant co-owner claims his share — Cancellation of release deed executed

9. Documents falling under two or more descriptions.—Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section, a document falling within two or more descriptions in this Act shall, where the fees chargeable thereunder are different, be chargeable only with the highest of such fees:

Provided that, where one of such descriptions is special and another general, the fee chargeable shall be the fee appropriate to the special description.

CHAPTER III

DETERMINATION OF FEE

10. Statement of particulars of subject-matter of suit and plaintiff's valuation thereof.—In evey suit in which the fee payable under this Act on the plaint depends on the market value of the subject-matter of the suit, the plaintiff shall file with the plaint a statement in the prescribed form, of particulars of the subject-matter of the suit and his valuation thereof unless such particulars and the valuation are contained in the plaint.

11. Decision as to proper fee in courts.—(1) In every suit instituted in any court, the court shall, before ordering the plaint to be registered, decide on the materials and allegations contained in the plaint and on the materials contained in the statement, if any, filed under Section 10, the proper fee payable thereon, the decision being however subject to review, further review, and correction in the manner specified in the succeeding sub-sections.

(2) Any defendant may, by his written statement filed before the first hearing of the suit or before evidence is recorded on the merits of the claim but, subject to the next succeeding sub-section not later plead that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient. All questions arising on such pleas shall be heard and decided before evidence is recorded affecting such defendant, on the merits of the claim. If the Court decides that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient, the Court shall fix a date before which the plaint shall be amended in accordance with the Court's decision and the deficit fee shall be paid. If the plaint be not amended or if the deficit fee be not paid within the time allowed, the plaint shall be rejected and the Court shall pass such order as it deems just regarding costs of the suit.

(3) A defendant added after issues have been framed on the merits of the claim may in the written statement filed by him, plead that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient. All questions arising on such pleas shall be heard and decided before evidence is recorded affecting such defendant, on the merits of the claim, and if the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient, the Court shall follow the procedure laid down in sub-section (2).

Explanation.—Nothing in this sub-section shall apply to a defendant added as a successor or a representative in interest of a defendant who was on record before issues were framed on the merits of the claim and who had an opportunity to file a written statement pleading that the subject-matter of the suit was not properly valued or that the fee paid was not sufficient.

(4) (a) Whenever a case comes up before a Court of appeal, it shall be lawful for the Court, either on its own motion or on the application of any of the parties, to consider the correctness of any order passed by the lower Court affect-by him in favour of another defendant co-owner necessary to grant him relief — Written statement claiming the relief does not fall under Order 8, Rule 6 — Section 8, Court-fees Act, does not apply. AIR 1967 Mys 217 (219) = (1967) 2 Mys LJ [illegible] (DB).

Section 9 — Note 1

(1) Where a case falls under two sections the question as to which of the two provisions would govern the case has to be answered by applying the provisions of Section 9 of the Act. (1968) 1 Mys LJ 336 (339) = 15 Law Rep 1.

ing the fee payable on the plaint or in any other proceeding in the lower Court and determine the proper fee payable thereon.

Explanation.—A case shall be deemed to come before a Court of appeal even if the appeal relates only to a part of the subject-matter of the suit.

(b) If the Court of appeal decides that the fee paid in the lower Court is not sufficient, the Court shall require the party liable to pay the deficit fee within such time as may be fixed by it.

(c) If the deficit fee is not paid within the time fixed and the default is in respect of a relief which has been dismissed by the lower Court and which the appellant seeks in appeal, the appeal shall be dismissed, but if the default is in respect of a relief which has been decreed by the lower Court, the deficit fee shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

(d) If the fee paid in the lower Court is in excess, the Court shall direct the refund of the excess to the party who is entitled to it.

(5) All questions as to value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts arising on the written statement of a defendant shall be heard and decided before evidence is recorded affecting such defendant, on the merits of the claim.

Explanation.—In this section, the expression "merits of the claim" refers to matters which arise for determination in the suit, not being matters relating to the frame of the suit, misjoinder of parties and causes of action, the jurisdiction of the Court to entertain or try the suit or the fee payable, but inclusive of matters arising on pleas of res judicata, limitation and the like.

12. Additional fee on issues framed.—Where a party becomes liable to pay additional fee by reason of an issue framed in the suit, the provisions of the last foregoing section shall apply to the determination and levy of such additional fee subject to the modification that where the party liable does not pay such additional fee within the time allowed, the Court shall strike off the issue and proceed to hear and decide the other issues in the case.

13. Relinquishment of portion of claim.—A plaintiff who has been called upon to pay additional fee may relinquish a part of his claim and apply to have the plaint amended so that the fee paid would be adequate for the claim made in the plaint as amended. The Court shall allow such application on such terms as it considers just and shall proceed to hear and decide the claim made in the plaint as amended, provided that the plaintiff shall not be permitted at any later stage of the suit to add to the claim the part so relinquished.

14. Fee payable on written statements.—Where fee is payable under this Act on a written statement filed by a defendant, the provisions of Section 11 shall apply to the determination and levy of the fee payable on such written statement, the defendant concerned being regarded for the said purpose as the plaintiff and the plaintiff or the co-defendant or the third party against whom the claim is made being regarded as the defendant.

15. Fee payable on appeals, etc.—The provisions of Sections 10 to 13 relating to the determination and levy of fee on plaints in suits shall apply mutatis mutandis to the determination and levy of fee in respect of a memorandum of appeal, cross objection or other proceeding in second appeal.

(1) Suit for partition of property against co-owners — Co-owner defendant also claiming his share in written statement — Cancellation of release deed executed by him in favour of another co-owner defendant necessary for giving him relief — Written statement does not fall under O. 8, R. 6 and from the provisions of Secs. 14, 35 (4) and 38 of the Court-fees Act 1958 court-fee must be paid for the relief of cancellation of the release deed which is involved in the defendant's claim. AIR 1967 Mys 217 (219) = (1967) 2 Mys LJ 49 (DB).

16. Fee payable on petitions, applications, etc.—The provisions of Sections 10 to 13 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the determination and levy of fee in respect of petitions, applications and other proceedings in Courts in the same way as they apply to the determination and levy of fee on plaints in suits.

17. Court-fee Examiners.—(1) The High Court may depute officers to be designated Court-fee Examiners to inspect the records of subordinate Courts with a view to examine the correctness of representations made to, and orders passed by, Courts on questions relating to valuation of subject-matter and sufficiency of fee in respect of proceedings in such Courts.

(2) Questions raised in reports submitted by such Court-fee Examiners and relating to any suit, appeal or other proceeding pending in a Court shall be heard and decided by such Court; and for the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that in hearing and deciding a question raised in any such report, it shall be lawful for the Court to review an earlier decision given by the Court on the same question.

18. Inquiry and commission.—For the purpose of deciding whether the subject-matter of a suit or other proceeding has been properly valued or whether the fee paid is sufficient, the Court may hold such inquiry as it considers proper and may, if it thinks fit, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court.

19. Notice to the State Government.—In any inquiry relating to the fee payable on a plaint, written statement, petition, memorandum of appeal or other document, or to the valuation of the subject-matter of the claim to which the plaint, written statement, petition, memorandum of appeal or other document relates, in so far as such valuation affects the fee payable, the Court may, if it considers it just or necessary to do so, give notice to the State Government together with a copy of any of the documents aforesaid; and where such notice is given, the State Government shall be deemed to be a party to the suit or other proceeding as respects the determination of the question or questions aforesaid; and the Court's decision on such question or questions shall, when it passes a decree or final order in such suit or proceeding, be deemed to form part of such decree or final order.

CHAPTER IV

COMPUTATION OF FEE

20. Fee how reckoned.—The fee payable under this Act shall be determined or computed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, Chapter VI, Chapter VIII and Schedules I and II.

21. Suits for money.—In a suit for money (including a suit for damages or compensation, or arrears of maintenance, of annuities, or of other sums payable periodically), fee shall be computed on the amount claimed.

22. Suits for maintenance and annuities.—In the suits hereinafter mentioned, fee shall be computed as follows:—

(a) in a suit for maintenance, on the amount claimed to be payable for one year;

(b) in suit for enhancement or reduction of maintenance, on the amount by which the annual maintenance is sought to be enhanced or reduced;

(c) in a suit for annuities or other sums payable periodically, on five times the amount claimed to be payable for one year:

Provided that, where the annuity is payable for less than five years, the fee shall be computed on the aggregate of the sums payable:

Provided further that a suit for enhancement of maintenance shall be instituted in a Court which will have jurisdiction to receive a suit for maintenance at the enhanced rate claimed and one for reduction of maintenance shall be instituted in a Court which will have jurisdiction to receive a suit for maintenance at the rate which is sought to be reduced.

23. Suits for movable property.—(1) In a suit for movable property other than documents of title, fee shall be computed—

(a) where the subject-matter has a market value, on such value; or

(b) where the subject-matter has no market value, on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint:

Provided that where the suit is for goods pledged as security for payment of a debt, the fee shall be computed on the amount of debt.

(2) (a) In a suit for possession of documents of title, fee shall be computed on one-eighth of the amount or of the market value of the property secured by the document,

(i) where the plaint alleges denial of the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document, or

(ii) where an issue is framed regarding the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document:

Provided that where the allegation in the plaint or the issue framed relates only to a portion of the amount or property, fee shall be computed on one-eighth of such portion of the amount or on one-eighth of the market value of such portion of the property.

(b) In a suit for possession of documents of title where the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document is not denied, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint.

Explanation.—The expression "document of title" means a document which purports or operates to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest, whether vested or contingent, in any property.

24. Suits for declaration.—In a suit for a declaratory decree or order, whether with or without consequential relief, not falling under Section 25,

(a) where the prayer is for a declaration and for possession of the property to which the declaration relates, fee shall be computed on the market value of the property or on rupees one hundred, whichever is higher;

Section 24 — Note 1

(1) Suit for declaration of occupancy rights should be valued for court-fee not as a suit for simple declaration without consequential relief, but as a suit falling within Article 5 of Sch. 2 of Court-fees Act of 1958. (1968) 1 Mys LJ 336 (340) = 15 Law Rep 1.

(2) Suit for declarations and for possession of the property to which the declaration relates — Court-fee is to be paid on the plaint under Section 24 (a). AIR 1969 Mys 255 (256) = (1968) 2 Mys LJ 273 = (1962) 40 Mys LJ 658 (660), (Cases under old Act.)

(3-4) Suit for declaration that the defendant was bound to construct the house according to conditions of Municipality and for injunction restraining him from building contrary to those conditions is a suit for injunction falling under Cl. (d). AIR 1955 Mys 65 (Pr 2) = ILR (1955) Mys 43 (FB). (AIR 1952 Mys 80 = ILR (1952) Mys 344, Overruled.)

(5) Suit for declaration that plaintiff is entitled to cut and remove timber trees standing on the suit properties and for injunction — The reliefs sought fall under Section 4 (iv) (c). ILR (1960) Mys 897 (899). (Case under old Act).

(6) Where the Court proceeded on the footing that the suit was one for injunction and decided the question of court-fees as under Section 4 (iv) (d) and not under Section 4 (iv) (c) and the defendant did not challenge the order, his objection was not to be considered in revision. AIR 1959 Mys 167 (167) = 36 Mys LJ 422. (Case under old Act.)

(7) Suit for cancellation of settlement deed —Value of the property — Means Market

(b) where the prayer is for a declaration and for consequential injunction and the relief sought is with reference to any immovable property, fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees one hundred, whichever is higher;

(c) where the prayer relates to the plaintiff's exclusive right to use, sell, print or exhibit any mark, name, book, picture, design or other thing and is based on an infringement of such exclusive right, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees five hundred, whichever is higher;

(d) in other cases, whether the subject-matter of the suit is capable of valuation or not, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees two hundred and fifty whichever is higher.

25. Adoption suits.—In a suit for a declaration in regard to the validity or invalidity of an adoption or the factum of an adoption, fee shall be payable at the following rates :—

(a) (i) In a Court of Munsiff or District Munsiff; and (ii) In a Court of Civil Judge, Junior Division, when the market value of the property involved in or affected by the relief does not exceed Rs. 5,000.	Rupees Twenty-five.
(b) (i) In the Court of Civil Judge, Junior Division, when the market value of the property involved in or affected by the relief exceeds Rs. 5,000 and (ii) In any Court other than the Courts specified in (a) (i).	Rupees one hundred if the market value of the property involved in or affected by the relief is Rs. 15,000 or less and rupees two hundred and fifty if it is above Rs. 15,000.

26. Suits for injunction.—In a suit for injunction—

(a) where the relief sought is with reference to any immovable property, and

(i) where the plaintiff alleges that his title to the property is denied, or

(ii) where an issue is framed regarding the plaintiff's title to the property,

fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees one hundred, whichever is higher;

(b) where the prayer relates to the plaintiff's exclusive right to use, sell, print or exhibit any mark, name, book, picture, design or other thing and is based on an infringement of such exclusive right, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees five hundred, whichever is higher;

value and not value in deed. (1963) 1 Mys LJ 67 (70, 73) (DB).

(8) Suit for redemption of a mortgage — Court-fee is to be paid on the principal money. (1962) Mys LJ (Suppl) 545 (548).

Section 26 — Note 1

(1) Suit for injunction restraining the defendants from interfering with plaintiff's possession — No question of title to the property involved — Suit does not fall under Section 26 (a) but falls under Section 26 (c). (1968) 1 Mys LJ 309 (310) = 14 Law Rep 27.

(2) Suit as to lease-hold interest claimed by one party and denied by other should fall under Section 41 (1) (f) — Issue may be an issue of title within Section 26 (a). (1968) 1 Mys LJ 336 (339) = 15 Law Rep 1.

(3) Expression 'Property' refers only to the property which is the subject-matter of the suit. (1968) 1 Mys LJ 336 (338) = 15 Law Rep 1.

(4) Word "title" — Case include lesser interest as that of tenant. (1968) 1 Mys LJ 336 (338) = 15 Law Rep 1.

(c) in any other case, whether the subject-matter of the suit has a market value or not, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees one hundred, whichever is higher.

27. Suits relating to trust property.—In a suit for possession or joint possession of trust property or for a declaratory decree, whether with or without consequential relief in respect of it, between trustees or rival claimants to the office of trustee or between a trustee and a person who has ceased to be trustee, fee shall be computed on one-fifth of the market value of the property subject to a maximum fee of rupees two hundred or where the property has no market value, on rupees one thousand:

Provided that, where the property does not have a market value, value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be such amount as the plaintiff shall state in the plaint.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, property comprised in a Hindu, Muslim or other religious or charitable endowment shall be deemed to be trust property and the manager of any such property shall be deemed to be the trustee thereof.

28. Suits for possession under the Specific Relief Act, 1877.—In a suit for possession of immovable property under Section 9 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877* (Central Act I of 1877), fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees one hundred, whichever is higher.

[*] Now see Specific Relief Act, 1963 (47 of 1963) (1-3-1964).

29. Suits for possession not otherwise provided for.—In a suit for possession of immovable property not otherwise provided for fee shall be computed on the market value of the property or on rupees one hundred, whichever is higher.

30. Suits relating to easements.—In a suit relating to an easement, whether by the dominant or the servient owner, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint, which amount shall in no case be less than rupees one hundred:

Provided that, where compensation is claimed besides other relief relating to such easement, fee shall be paid on the amount claimed as compensation in addition to the fee payable on such other relief.

31. Pre-emption suits.—In a suit to enforce a right of pre-emption, fee shall be computed on the amount of the consideration for the sale which the pre-emptor seeks to avoid or on the market value, whichever is less.

32. Suits relating to mortgages.—(1) In a suit to recover the money due on a mortgage, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed.

Section 31 — Note 1

(1) Suit for declaration and possession of the property on the ground that it was allotted to the plaintiff on partition — Further prayer that the plaintiff had a preferential right to purchase the property allotted to defendant's share and sold by him — The suit so far as relief of declaration and possession is concerned falls under Section 24 (a) of the Act of 1958 — As the second relief is concerned it falls under Section 31 of the Act. In both the cases court-fee is payable under Section 7 of the Court-fees Act, 1958 on the market value of the property. AIR 1969 Mys 255 (256) = (1968) 2 Mys LJ 273.

Section 32 — Note 1

(1) Suit by prior mortgagee for decree for sale — Written statement filed by puisne mortgagee seeking adjudication of his claim based upon his mortgage — Court-fee need not be paid on written statement — It becomes payable when he makes an application for payment and court-fee is to be paid at that stage under Section 32 (3). (1968) 1 Mys LJ 275 (276) = 14 Law Rep 96.

(2) Money claim based on a mortgage deed and a promissory note — They are distinct subjects within the meaning of Section 14 of the Mysore Court-fees Act (3 of 1900) — Court fee should be calculated separately on two claims and paid on the aggregate of the fees so separately calculated and not on the total of the amount claimed under two heads. (1963) 1 Mys LJ (Supp) 121 (125) (DB).

Explanation.—It is immaterial that sale of the mortgaged property is not prayed for.

(2) Where, in such a suit, the holder of a prior mortgage or charge is impleaded and he prays in his written statement that the amount due on his mortgage or charge be determined and that the decree contains a direction for the payment of such amount to him, fee shall be payable on the written statement computed on the amount claimed:

Provided that, where the holder of the mortgage or charge has paid a fee in any other proceeding on the claim to which his written statement relates credit shall be given for the fee paid by him in such other proceeding.

(3) Where, in such a suit, the mortgaged property is sold and the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge applies for payment to him, out of the sale proceeds, of the amount due on his mortgage or charge, such holder of the prior or subsequent mortgage or charge shall pay on his application a fee computed on the amount claimed by him:

Provided that, where such holder of the mortgage or charge is a party to the suit in which the sale was held and has paid fee on the written statement filed by him in the suit, no fee shall be payable by him on the application for payment out of the sale proceeds:

Provided further that, where the holder of the mortgage or charge; not being a party to the suit in which the sale is held, has paid a fee in any other proceeding on the claim to which his application relates, credit shall be given for the fee paid by him in such other proceeding.

(4) In a suit by a co-mortgagee for the benefit of himself and the other co-mortgagees, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed on the entire mortgage:

Provided that, where a co-mortgagee impleaded as defendant in such suit claims on the entire mortgage a larger sum than is claimed in the plaint, the difference between the fee computed on the entire sum claimed in such defendant's written statement and the fee computed on the entire sum claimed in the plaint shall be payable on the written statement.

Explanation.—Nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as affecting the law of limitation.

(5) (a) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee to recover the amount claimed on the sub-mortgage by sale of the mortgagee's interest in the mortgaged property, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed under the sub-mortgage.

(b) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee, if the prayer is for the sale of the property mortgaged to the original mortgagee and the original mortgagor is also impleaded as a defendant, fee shall be computed on the entire amount claimed on the original mortgage which is sub-mortgaged to him.

(6) Where the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge is impleaded in a suit by a co-mortgagee to which sub-section (4) applies, or in a suit by a sub-mortgagee to which sub-section (5) applies, the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a written statement or an application filed by such holder of mortgage or charge.

(7) Where the original mortgagee who is impleaded in a suit to which the provisions of sub-section (5) (b) apply claims on the mortgage sub-mortgaged by him a larger amount than is claimed in the plaint, the provisions of sub-section (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis to the written statement of such mortgagor.

(8) In a suit against a mortgagee for redemption of a mortgage, fee shall be computed on the amount due on the mortgage as stated in the plaint or on one-fourth of the principal amount secured under the mortgage whichever is higher:

Provided that, where the amount due on the mortgage is found to be more than the amount on which fee has been paid by the plaintiff, no decree shall be passed until the deficit fee is paid:

Provided further that, in the case of a usufructuary or anomalous mortgage, if the plaintiff prays for redemption as well as for accounts of surplus profits, fee shall be levied separately on the relief for accounts as in a suit for accounts.

(9) In a suit by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage or where the mortgage is made by conditional sale to have the sale declared absolute, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed in the plaint by way of principal and interest.

33. Suits for accounts.—(1) In a suit for accounts, fee shall be computed on the amount sued for as estimated in the plaint.

(2) Where the amount payable to the plaintiff as ascertained in the suit is in excess of the amount as estimated in the plaint, no decree directing payment of the amount as so ascertained shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the amount so ascertained, is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court may fix, the decree shall be limited to the amount to which the fee paid extends.

(3) Where in any such suit it is found that any amount is payable to the defendant, no decree shall be passed in his favour until he pays the fee due on the amount.

34. Suits for dissolution of partnership.—(1) In a suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts or for accounts of dissolved partnership, fee shall be computed on the value of the plaintiff's share in the partnership as estimated by the plaintiff.

(2) If the value of the plaintiff's share as ascertained in the suit exceeds the value as estimated in the plaint, no decree, or where there has been a preliminary decree, no final decree, shall be passed in favour of the plaintiff, no payment shall be made out of the assets of the partnership and no property shall be allotted as for the plaintiff's share, until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the value so ascertained is paid.

(3) No final decree shall be passed, no money shall be paid and no allotment of property shall be made in favour of a defendant in any such suit as for or on account of, his share of the assets of the partnership, until the fee computed on the amount or value of his share of the assets of the partnership is paid.

35. Partition suits.—(1) In a suit for partition and separate possession of a share of joint family property or of property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff whose title to such property is denied, or who has been excluded from

(1) Suit for partition and possession of share in joint family property — Plaint only stating that defendant refused partition on ground that partition could be claimed only after disposal of another suit for partition — Held, repudiation of right to ask for partition on such ground was not denial of title — Court-fee payable was that prescribed by sub-section (2) and not by sub-section (1). (1968) 1 Mys LJ 367 (368) = 15 Law Rep 34.

(2) Suit for partition of property against co-owners — Co-owner defendant also claiming his share in written statement — Cancellation of release deed executed by him in favour of another co-owner defendant necessary for giving him relief — Written statement does not fall under Order 8, Rule 6 and from provisions of Sections 14, 35 (4) and 38 of Court-fees Act, 1958 Court-fee must be paid on the relief of cancellation of the release deed which is in the defendants' claim. AIR 1967 Mys 217 = (1967) 2 Mys LJ 49 (DB).

(3) Suit for partition and possession of joint family property — Plaintiff in joint possession fixed fee in accordance with Article 11-B of Schedule 2 of Mysore Court-fees Act (1900) is payable. (1962) 40 Mys LJ 658 (660). (Case under old Act.)

(4) Suit for partition and separate possession of property claimed to be in joint possession — Court fee is payable under Article 11B — Court of first instance finding against joint possession of some of the properties — Appeal from decree — Court-fee payable on memo of appeal is also under Article 11B — The nature of the suit would not change by the decision of the court of first instance. AIR 1953 Mys 108 (109, 110) = 32 Mys LJ 92 (DB). (Case under old Act.)

possession of such property, fee shall be computed on the market value of the plaintiff's share.

(2) In a suit for partition and separate possession of joint family property or property owned, jointly or in common by a plaintiff who is in joint possession of such property, fee shall be paid at the following rates;

Rupees fifteen if the value of plaintiff's share is Rs. 3,000 or less;

Rupees thirty if the value is above Rs. 3,000 but not more than Rupees 5,000;

Rupees one hundred if the value is above Rs. 5,000 but below Rupees 10,000 and Rupees two hundred if the value is Rs. 10,000 and above.

(3) Where, in a suit falling under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), a defendant claims partition and separate possession of his share of the property, fee shall be payable on his written statement computed on half the market value of his share or at half the rates specified in sub-section (2), according as such defendant has been excluded from possession or is in joint possession.

(4) Where, in a suit falling under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the plaintiff or the defendant seeks cancellation of decree or other document of the nature specified in Section 38 separate fee shall be payable on the relief of cancellation in the manner specified in that section.

36. Suits for joint possession.—In a suit for joint possession of joint family property or of property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who has been excluded from possession, fee shall be computed on the market value of the plaintiff's share.

37. Administration suits.—(1) In a suit for the administration of an estate, fee shall be levied on the plaint at the rates specified in Section 47.

(2) Where any amount or share or part of the assets of the estate is found due to the plaintiff, and the fee computed on the amount or the market value of such share or part of the assets exceeds the fee paid on the plaint, no payment shall be made and no decree directing payment of money or confirming title to such share or part of the assets shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee computed on the amount or value of the property is paid.

(3) No payment shall be made, no decree directing payment of money or confirming title to any share or part of the assets of the estate shall be passed in favour of a defendant in a suit for administration, until the fee computed on the amount or value of such share or part of such assets is paid by such defendant.

(4) In computing the fee payable by a plaintiff or by a defendant under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) credit shall be given for the fee if any, paid by such plaintiff or by such defendant in any other proceeding in respect of the claim on the basis of which such amount or share or part of the assets of the estate becomes due to such plaintiff or to such defendant.

38. Suits for cancellation of decrees, etc.—(1) In a suit for cancellation of a decree for money or other property having a money value, or other document which purports or operates to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest in money, movable or immov-

(1) Suit for partition of property against co-owners — Co-owner defendant also claims his share in written statement — Cancellation of release deed executed by him in favour of another co-owner defendant necessary for giving him relief — Written statement is not one falling under Order 8, Rule 6 and from the provisions of Sections 14, 35 (4) and 38 of the Court-fees Act 1958 Court-fee must be paid for the relief of cancellation of the release deed which is involved in the defendants' claim. AIR 1967 Mys 217 (219) = (1967) 2 Mys LJ 49 (DB).

able property, fee shall be computed on the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value shall be deemed to be—

if the whole decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, the amount or value of the property for which the decree was passed or other document was executed;

if a part of the decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, such part of the amount or value of the property.

(2) If the decree or other document is such that the liability under it cannot be split up and the relief claimed relates only to a particular item of property belonging to the plaintiff or to the plaintiff's share in any such property, fee shall be computed on the value of such property or share or on the amount of the decree, whichever is less.

Explanation 1.—A suit to set aside an award shall be deemed to be a suit to set aside a decree within the meaning of this section.

Explanation 2.—In a suit for cancellation of a decree and possession of any property, the fee shall be computed as in a suit for possession of such property.

39. Suits to set aside attachment, etc.—(1) In a suit to set aside an attachment by a civil or revenue court of any property, movable or immovable, or of any interest therein or of any interest in revenue, or to set aside an order passed on an application made to set aside the attachment, fee shall be computed on one-fourth of the market value of the attached property in respect of which the suit is instituted or on the amount for which the property was attached, whichever is less.

(2) In a suit to set aside any other summary decision or order of a civil or revenue court, if the subject-matter of the suit has a market value, fee shall be computed on one-fourth of such value, and in other cases, fee shall be payable at the rates specified in Section 47.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, the Registrar of Co-operative Societies shall be deemed to be a civil Court.

40. Suits for specific performance.—In a suit for specific performance, whether with or without possession, fee shall be payable—

(a) in the case of a contract of sale, computed on the amount of the consideration;

(b) in the case of a contract of mortgage, computed on the amount agreed to be secured by the mortgage;

(c) in the case of a contract of lease, computed on the aggregate amount of the fine or premium, if any, and of the average of the annual rent agreed to be paid;

(d) in the case of a contract of exchange, computed on the amount of the consideration or as the case may be, on the market value of the property sought to be got in exchange;

(e) in other cases, where the consideration for the promise sought to be enforced has a market value, computed on such market value or where such consideration has no market value, at the rates specified in Section 47.

41. Suits between landlord and tenant.—(1) In the following suits between landlord and tenant in civil Courts, namely:—

Section 40 — Note 1

(1) Section 40, Cl. (e) means that the relief falling within its ambit has to be valued by valuation of the right of the plaintiff if it has a market value but where it has none at the rates specified in Section 47. (1967) 1 Mys LJ 258 (261) = 9 Law Rep 492

Section 41 — Note 1

(1) Issue as to the existence or otherwise of a lease-hold interest claimed by one party and denied by others — The issue is one under which one party is trying to establish and the other to disprove a right of occupancy within the meaning of Clause (e) of sub-section (1) of Section 41. (1968) 1 Mys LJ 336 (339) = 15 Law Rep 1.

(a) for the delivery by a tenant of the counter-part of a lease or for acceptance of patta in exchange for a muchalika;

(b) for enhancement of rent;

(c) for the delivery by a landlord of a lease or for obtaining a patta in exchange for a muchalika;

(d) for recovering occupancy of immovable property from which a tenant has been illegally ejected by the landlord;

(e) for establishing or disproving a right of occupancy;

fee shall be levied on the amount of rent for the immovable property to which the suit relates, payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

(2) In a suit for recovery of immovable property from a tenant including a tenant holding over after the termination of a tenancy, fee shall be computed on the premium, if any, and on the rent payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

Explanation.—Rent includes also damages for use and occupation payable by a tenant holding over.

42. Suits for mesne profits.—(1) In a suit for mesne profits or for immovable property and mesne profits, fee shall in respect of mesne profits be computed, where the amount is stated approximately and sued for, on such amount. If the profits ascertained to be due to the plaintiff are in excess of the profits as approximately estimated and sued for no decree shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid.

(2) Where a decree directs an enquiry as to the mesne profits which have accrued on the property, whether prior or subsequent to the institution of the suit, no final decree shall be passed till the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits accrued due till the date of such decree is paid.

(3) Where for a period subsequent to the date of the decree or final decree, such decree or final decree directs payment of mesne profits at a specified rate such decree or final decree shall not be executed until the fee computed on the amount claimed in execution has been paid.

43. Suits to alter or cancel entry in revenue registers and certain suits in revenue Courts.—(1) In a suit to alter or cancel any entry in revenue or survey registers or records of the names of proprietors of revenue-paying estate, the fee payable shall be fifteen rupees.

(2) In suits in revenue Courts relating to a village office, the fee payable shall be fifteen rupees.

(3) In suits in Tahsildar's Courts under the Bombay Mamlatdars' Courts Act, 1906 (Bombay Act II of 1906) the fee payable shall be one rupee and fifty naye paise.

(4) In suits and applications under the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879 (Bombay Act V of 1879) and under the Hyderabad Land Revenue Act, 1317F (Hyderabad Act VIII of 1317 Fasli), the fee payable shall be seventy-five naye paise.

44. Suits relating to public matters.—In a suit for relief under Section 14 of the Religious Endowments Act, 1863 (Central Act XX of 1863), or under Section 91 or Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), the fee payable shall be fifty rupees.

Section 41 — Note 1 (contd.)

(2) Decree for mesne profits — Deficient Court-fees directed to be paid by decree within fifteen days under S. 8 it is open to court to stipulate in the decree any date by which the court-fees should be paid. AIR 1959 Mys 168 (168) = 36 Mys LJ 421. (Case under Act 3 of 1900.)

45. Interpleader suits.—(1) In an interpleader suit, fee shall be payable on the plaint at the rates specified in Section 47.

(2) Where issues are framed as between the claimants, fee shall be payable computed on the amount of the debt or the money or the market value of other property, movable or immovable, which forms the subject-matter of the suit. In levying such fee, credit shall be given for the fee paid on the plaint; and the balance of the fee shall be paid in equal shares by the claimants who claim the debt or the sum of money or the property adversely to each other.

(3) Value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be the amount of the debt, or the sum of money or the market value of other property to which the suit relates.

46. Third party proceedings.—In third party proceedings, fee shall be levied on one-half of the value of the contribution or indemnity claimed against a third party or against a co-defendant if a claim is made against him:

Provided that, if the suit against the defendant who has filed the third party notice is dismissed, wholly or in part, he shall be entitled to a refund of the whole or a proportionate part of the fee paid by him.

Explanation.—The provisions of this section shall also apply to counter-claims made in third party proceedings.

47. Suits not otherwise provided for.—In suits not otherwise provided for, fee shall be payable at the following rates:—

(i) In a revenue Court	Rupees Fifteen.
(ii) In any Civil Court	Rupees twenty if the value of the subject-matter is Rs. 5,000 or less; rupees one hundred if the value is above Rupees 5,000 but below Rs. 10,000; and rupees two hundred if the value is Rs. 10,000 and above.

48. Fee on memorandum of appeal against *[decision, award or order] relating to compensation.—The fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against *[a decision or an award or order] relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of property for public purposes shall be computed on the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

[*] Substituted for the word 'order' and for the words 'an order' by Mys. Act XI of 1969, S. 2 (22-5-1969).

49. Appeals.—*[Save as provided in Section 48, the fee payable] in an appeal shall be the same as the fee that would be payable in the Court of first instance on the subject-matter of the appeal:

Provided that, in levying fee on a memorandum of appeal against a final decree by a person whose appeal against the preliminary decree passed by the Court of first instance or by the Court of appeal is pending, credit shall be given for the fee paid by such person in the appeal against the preliminary decree.

Explanation (1).—Whether the appeal is against the refusal of a relief or against the grant of the relief, the fee payable in the appeal shall be the same as the fee that would be payable on the relief in the Court of first instance.

Explanation (2).—Costs shall not be deemed to form part of the subject-matter of the appeal except where such costs form themselves the subject-matter of the appeal or relief is claimed as regards costs on grounds additional to, or independent of, the relief claimed regarding the main subject-matter in the suit.

Section 49 — Note 1

(1) Grant of probate, appeal against — Court-fee payable is under Schedule I, Article 4 which is a special provision for proceedings under Indian Succession Act and not under Section 49 of the Court-fees Act which is a general provision. (1964) 1 Mys LJ 248 (249) (DB).

Explanation (3).—In claims which include the award of interest subsequent to the institution of the suit, the interest accrued during the pendency of the suit till the date of decree shall be deemed to be part of the subject-matter of the appeal except where such interest is relinquished.

Explanation (4).—Where the relief prayed for in the appeal is different from the relief prayed for or refused in the Court of first instance, the fee payable in the appeal shall be the fee that would be payable in the Court of first instance on the relief prayed for in the appeal.

Explanation (5).—Where the market value of the subject-matter of the appeal has to be ascertained for the purpose of computing or determining the fee payable, such market value shall be ascertained as on the date of presentation of the plaint.

[°] Substituted for the words 'The fee payable' by Mys. Act 11 of 1969, S. 3 (22-5-1969).

CHAPTER

VALUATION OF SUITS

50. Suits not otherwise provided for.—(1) In a suit as to whose value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts, specific provision is not otherwise made in this Act or in any other law, value for that purpose and value for the purpose of computing the fee payable under this Act shall be the same.

°[Provided that notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) of Section 7, the value of land specified in clause (a), (b) or (c) of the said sub-section shall, for purposes of determining the jurisdiction of Courts, be the market value of such land].

[°] Inserted by Mys. Act X of 1964, S. 5 (5-3-1964).

(2) In a suit where fee is payable under this Act at a fixed rate, the value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be the market value or where it is not possible to estimate it at a money value such amount as the plaintiff shall state in the plaint.

51. Procedure where objection is taken on appeal or revision that a suit or appeal was not properly valued for jurisdictional purposes.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 99 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), an objection that by reason of the overvaluation or undervaluation of a suit or appeal, a Court of first instance or lower appellate Court which had not jurisdiction with respect to the suit or appeal exercised jurisdiction with respect thereto shall not be entertained by an appellate Court, unless—

(a) the objection was taken in the Court of first instance at or before the hearing at which issues were first framed and recorded, or in the lower appellate Court in the memorandum of appeal to that Court, or

(b) the appellate Court is satisfied for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that the suit or appeal was overvalued or undervalued and that the overvaluation or undervaluation thereof has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit or appeal on its merits.

(2) If the objection was taken in the manner mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1), but the appellate Court is not satisfied as to both the matters mentioned in clause (b) of that sub-section and has before it the materials necessary for the determination of the other grounds of appeal to itself, it shall dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction in the Court of first instance or lower appellate Court.

(3) If the objection was taken in that manner and the appellate Court is satisfied as to both those matters and has not those materials before it, it shall proceed to deal with the appeal under the rules applicable to the Court with respect to the hearing of appeals; but if it remands the suit or appeal, or frames and refers issues for trial, or requires additional evidence to be taken, it shall direct its order to a Court competent to entertain the suit or appeal.

(4) The provisions of this section with respect to an appellate Court shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to a Court exercising revisional jurisdiction under Section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), or other enactment for the time being in force.

CHAPTER VI

52. Application for probate or letters of administration.—(1) Every application for the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be accompanied by a valuation of the estate in duplicate in the form set forth in Part I of Schedule III.

(2) On receipt of such application, the Court shall send a copy thereof and of the valuation of the Deputy Commissioner of the district in which the estate is situated, or if the estate is situated in more than one district, to the Deputy Commissioner of the district in which the most valuable portion of the immovable property included in the estate is situated.

53. Levy of fee.—(1) The fee chargeable for the grant of probate or letters of administration shall comprise—

A fee at the rate or rates prescribed in Article 6 of Schedule I, computed—

(a) where the application is made within one year of the date of death of the deceased, on the market value of the estate on such date; or

(b) where the application is made after the expiry of one year from such date, on the market value of the estate on the date of the application:

Provided that property held in trust not beneficially or with general power to confer a beneficial interest shall not be liable to any fee under this chapter.

Explanation.—Any member of a joint Hindu family governed by the Mitakshara Law who applies for probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of the deceased member of the joint family shall pay a fee on the value of the share in the joint property which the deceased would have received if a partition of the property had been made immediately before his death.

(2) For the purpose of the computation of fee—

(a) the value of the items mentioned in Annexure B to Part I of Schedule III shall be deducted from the value of the estate:

Provided that, when an application is made for probate or letters of administration in respect of part only of an estate, no debt, no expenses connected with any funeral rites or ceremonies and no mortgage encumbrance on any part of the estate other than that in respect of which the application is made shall be deducted:

Provided further that when, after the grant of a certificate under Part X of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (Central Act XXXIX of 1925), or under Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827 in respect of any property included in an estate, a grant of probate or letters of administration is made in respect of the same estate, the fee payable in respect of the latter grant shall be reduced by the amount of the fee paid in respect of the former grant;

(b) the power of appointment which the deceased had over a property or which was created under a will shall be taken into account, the value being taken to be the value of the property forming the subject-matter of the power.

54. Grant of probate.—The grant of probate or letters of administration shall not be delayed by reason of the reference to the Deputy Commissioner under sub-section (2) of Section 52; or of a motion by the Deputy Commissioner under sub-section (5) of Section 56; but the Court shall make no grant of probate or letters of administration until it is satisfied that a fee not less than that prescribed by this Act has been paid on the basis of the net value of the estate as furnished in the valuation accompanying the application, or in the amended valuation filed under sub-section (3) of Section 56:

Provided that the Court may grant probate or letters of administration notwithstanding that the prescribed fee has not been paid, to the Administrator-General in his official capacity on his giving an undertaking to the satisfaction of the Court that the said fee will be paid within such time as may be fixed by the Court.

55. Relief in cases of several grants.—(1) Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration has been made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate and the full fee payable under this Act in respect of the application for such grant has been paid thereon, no fee shall be payable when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

(2) Whenever such grant has been made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fee actually paid under this Act in respect thereof shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of the property belonging to the same estate identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

56. Inquiry by the Deputy Commissioner.—(1) The Deputy Commissioner to whom a copy of the application and of the valuation has been sent under sub-section (2) of Section 52, shall examine the same and may make or cause to be made by any officer subordinate to him such inquiry, if any, as he thinks fit as to the correctness of the valuation or, where a part only of the property is situated in his district, of the valuation of that part, and may require the Deputy Commissioner of any other district in which any part of the property is situated to furnish him with the correct valuation thereof.

(2) Any Deputy Commissioner required under sub-section (1) to furnish the correct valuation of any property shall comply with the requisition after making or causing to be made by any officer subordinate to him such inquiry, if any, as he thinks fit.

(3) If the Deputy Commissioner is of opinion that the applicant has underestimated the value of the property of the deceased, he may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the applicant, either in person or by his agent, and take evidence and inquire into the matter in such manner as he may think fit, and if he is still of opinion that the value of the property has been underestimated, may require the applicant to amend the valuation, and, if the application for probate or letters of administration is pending in Court to file a copy of the amended valuation in such Court.

(4) If, in any such case, the probate or letters of administration has or have been granted and the applicant amends the valuation to the satisfaction of the Deputy Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioner finds that a less fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, he shall proceed under sub-section (4) of Section 58; but if a higher fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, the excess fee shall be refunded to the applicant.

(5) If the applicant does not amend the valuation to the satisfaction of the Deputy Commissioner, the Deputy Commissioner may move the Court before which the application for probate or letters of administration was made to hold an inquiry into the true value of the property:

Provided that no such motion shall be made after the expiration of six months from the date of the exhibition of the inventory required by Section 317 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (Central Act XXXIX of 1925).

57. Application to Court and powers of Court.—(1) The Court shall, when moved by the Deputy Commissioner under sub-section (5) of Section 56, hold or cause to be held by any Court or officer subordinate to it an inquiry as to the true value at which the estate of the deceased should have been estimated. The Deputy Commissioner shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.

(2) For the purposes of any such inquiry, the Court, or the subordinate Court or the officer authorised by the Court to hold the inquiry, may examine the applicant on oath either in person or by commission, and may take such further evidence as may be produced to prove the true value of the estate, and where the inquiry has been entrusted to a subordinate Court or officer, such Court or officer shall return to the Court the evidence taken and report the result of the inquiry and such report and the evidence so taken shall be evidence in the proceedings

(3) The Court on the completion of the inquiry or on receipt of the report referred to in sub-section (2), as the case may be, shall record a finding as to the true value at which the estate should have been estimated and such finding shall be final.

(4) The Court may make such order in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), as to the cost of the inquiry as it thinks fit.

58. Provision for cases where too low a fee has been paid.—(1) Where too low a fee has been paid on any probate or letters of administration in consequence of any mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator acting under such probate or letters, applies to the Deputy Commissioner in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III and pays within six months after the discovery of the mistake or of any effects not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, what is wanting to make up the fee which ought to have been paid at first on such probate or letters the Deputy Commissioner shall, if satisfied that a low fee was paid in the first instance in consequence of a mistake and without any intention of fraud or to delay the payment of the proper fee, cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped.

(2) If, in a case falling under sub-section (1) the executor or administrator does not, within the six months referred to in that sub-section, pay the deficit fee, he shall forfeit a sum equal to five times the deficit fee.

(3) If, on application being made under sub-section (1), the Deputy Commissioner is not satisfied that the application was made within six months of the discovery of the mistake or of further effects not included in the original valuation or that the payment of a low fee in the first instance was not due to a bona fide mistake, he shall cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment of the deficit fee together with a penalty not exceeding five times such fee.

(4) If, after the grant of probate or letters of administration of an estate, it is found by the Deputy Commissioner as a result of proceedings under Section 56

Section 58 — Note 1

(1) Addition of new items to the assets and collect additional Court-fee is within the jurisdiction of Deputy Commissioner and is dealt with in S. 58 Court-fees Act, 1958. The matter being exclusively relating to revenue and not required to be considered judicially by the probate court the application for this purpose does not lie to the probate Court. (1968) 1 Mys LJ 273 (274).

(2) A refund of Court-fee paid on the memo of appeal can be made when a suit is remanded for disposal by the lower Court in the interest of justice. AIR 1952 Mys 20 (21) = 30 Mys LJ 186. (Case under Act 3 of 1900.)

or Section 57 or otherwise, that a less fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, he shall cause the probate or letters to be properly stamped on payment of the deficit fee, and if he is satisfied that the original undervaluation was not bona fide, he shall levy in addition a penalty not exceeding five times the deficit fee.

(5) The Chief Controlling Revenue Authority may remit the whole or any part of the amount forfeited under sub-section (2) or of any penalty under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4).

59. Administrator to give proper security before letters stamped.—In case of letters of administration on which too low a fee has been paid at first, the Deputy Commissioner shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in the manner aforesaid until the administrator has given such security to the Court by which the letters of administration have been granted as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased had been then ascertained.

60. Relief when too high a fee has been paid.—(1) If, at any time after the grant of the probate or letters of administration of an estate, it is discovered that a higher fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, the executor or the administrator, as the case may be, may apply for a refund to the Deputy Commissioner to whom a copy of the valuation of the estate was sent under sub-section (2) of Section 52. The application shall be accompanied by an amended valuation in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III together with the probate or letters of administration upon which a refund is sought.

(2) If the Deputy Commissioner is satisfied that the amended valuation is correct, he shall—

(i) endorse a certificate on the stamped probate or letters of administration to the effect that so much of the fee represented by the stamp or stamps used has been refunded; and

(ii) refund the difference between the fee originally paid and that which should have been paid:

Provided that no refund shall be granted under this section unless the application for refund is made within three years of the date of the grant of the probate or letters of administration, or within such further period as the Deputy Commissioner may allow.

If, by reason of any legal proceedings, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available and in consequence thereof, the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said period of three years, the Deputy Commissioner may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to him to be reasonable under the circumstances.

If the Deputy Commissioner does not grant a refund, the executor or administrator, as the case may be, may apply to the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority for an order of refund. An application for such refund should be accompanied by an amended valuation in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III.

61. Recovery of penalties, etc.—Any excess fee found to be payable by an applicant for probate or letters of administration or by an executor or administrator, or any costs under sub-section (4) of Section 57 or any penalty or forfeiture payable by any such executor or administrator may on the certificate of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority, be recovered from the executor or administrator as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

62. Powers of Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.—The powers and duties of the Deputy Commissioner under this Chapter shall be subject to the control of the Chief Controlling Revenue Authority.

CHAPTER VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

71. Collection of fees by stamps.—All fees chargeable under this Act shall be collected by stamps.

72. Stamps to be impressed or adhesive.—The stamps used to denote any fee chargeable under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette from time to time, direct.

73. Amended document.—Where any document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act is amended in order merely to correct a mistake and to make it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp.

74. Cancellation of stamp.—No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or office until the stamp has been cancelled.

Such officer as the Court or the head of the office may, from time to time, appoint shall, on receiving any such document forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figurehead so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched, and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

75. Deduction to be made.—Where allowance is made in this Act for damaged or spoiled stamps, or where fee already paid is directed to pe refunded to any person by an order of Court, the Deputy Commissioner may, on the application of the person concerned, pay to him the amount of fee or where damaged or spoiled stamps are produced, he may, after satisfying himself about their genuineness, in lieu thereof pay the same amount or value in stamps of the same or any other description, or if the applicant so desires, the same amount or value in money provided that in all cases where money is paid in cash, a deduction shall be made of *[ten] paise for each rupee or fraction thereof. No such deduction shall, however, be made where refund is claimed in respect of any fee paid in pursuance of an order of Court which has been varied or reversed in appeal.

[*] Substituted for "six" by Mys. Act X of 1964, Section 7 (5-3-1964)

76. Penalty.—Any person appointed to sell stamps, who disobeys any rules made under this Act and any person, not so appointed, who sells or offers for sale any stamps, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

77. Power of High Court to make rules.—(1) The High Court may make rules to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the fees payable for serving and executing processes issued by the High Court [ * *] and by the civil and criminal Courts subordinate thereto;

(b) the remuneration of persons employed by the Courts mentioned in clause (a) in the service or execution of processes;

(c) the fixing by District and Sessions Judges and District Magistrates of the number of process-servers necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued from their respective Courts and the Courts subordinate thereto;

(d) the display in each Court of a table in the English and in the local language or languages showing the fees payable for the service and execution of processes.

(2) All rules made under sub-section (1) shall be subject to confirmation by the State Government and on such confirmation shall be published in the official Gazette and shall thereupon have the force of law.

[*] Words "in its appellate jurisdiction" omitted by Mys. Act X of 1964, Section 8, (5-3-1964)

78. Power of State Government to make rules.—(1) The State Government may by notification in the official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, rules may be made to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Mysore Revenue Appellate Tribunal and by the Revenue Courts;

(b) the remuneration of the persons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of such processes;

(c) the fixing by Deputy Commissioners of the number of persons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of such process;

(d) the guidance of Deputy Commissioners in the exercise of their powers under Chapter VI;

(e) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act;

(f) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act;

(g) the keeping of accounts of all stamps used under this Act;

(h) the circumstances in which stamps may be held to be damaged or spoiled;

(i) the circumstances in which, the manner in which, and the authorities by which, allowance for used, damaged or spoiled stamps may be made;

(j) the regulation of the sale of stamps to be used under this Act, the persons by whom alone such stamps may be sold and the duties and remuneration of such persons.

(3) All rules made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after they are made before the State Legislative Assembly while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more sessions and if before the expiry of that period, the State Legislative Assembly makes any modification in the rules or directs that any rules shall not have effect, the rules shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be.

79. Repeal and savings.—(1) The Court-fees Act, 1870 (Central Act VII of 1870) in its application to the Bombay Area, and the Coorg District, the Hyderabad Court-fees Act, 1324 F. (Hyderabad Act VI of 1324 F.), as in force in the Hyderabad Area; the Mysore Court-fees Act, 1900 (Mysore Act III of 1900), and Sections 11 and 17-A of the Mysore Civil Courts Act, 1883 (Mysore Act I of 1883), as in force in the Mysore Area, in relation to the fees and stamps other than fees and stamps relating to documents presented or to be presented before an officer serving the Central Government, and the Suits Valuation Act, 1887 (Central Act VII of 1887), in its application to the Bombay Area, and the Coorg District, the Hyderabad Suits Valuation (For Purposes of Jurisdiction) Act, 1318 F. (Hyderabad Act IV of 1318 F.), as in force in the Hyderabad Area, and the Mysore Suits Valuation Act, 1951 (Mysore Act XXXIX of 1951), as in force in the Mysore Area, and the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act, 1955 (Madras Act XIV of 1955), as in force in the Madras Area, are hereby repealed:

Provided that such repeal shall not affect—

(a) the previous operation of the said enactments or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the said enactments; or

(c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against the said enactments; or

(d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), for the purpose of giving effect to the preceding proviso, to the said sub-section (1), the State

Section 79 — Note 1

(1) Court-fees — Refund — Appeal to Mysore High Court from decree passed by Dharwar Court in erstwhile Bombay State after Reorganisation — Appeal settled out to court — Appellant held not entitled to refund of Court-fees under Section 66, Mysore Court-fees Act (1958) as the appeal arose out of a suit filed before the Act of 1958 and therefore Section 79 of the Act of 1958 applied. [THE] RAJASTHAN COURT-FEES AND SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1961

(RAJASTHAN ACT XXIII of 1961)

[Received the assent of the President on the 26th day of August 1961, and was published in the Rajasthan Gazette, Extraordinary, Part 4 (Ka), dated October 5, 1961.]

An Act to amend and consolidate the law relating to court-fees and valuation of suits in the State of Rajasthan.

Be it enacted by the Rajasthan State Legislature in the Twelfth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE RAJASTHAN COURT-FEES AND SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1961.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of Rajasthan.

(3) It shall come into force on such date* as the State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint.

[*] The date so appointed is the 1st November, 1961—See No. 5 (108) E & T/58 dated 25-10-1961 in Raj. Gaz., 25-10-1961, Extra., Pt. IV (Ga).

2. Application of Act.—(1) The provisions of this Act shall not apply to documents presented or to be presented before an officer serving under the Central Government.

(2) Where any other law contains provisions relating to the levy of fee in respect of proceedings under such other law, the provisions of this Act relating to the levy of fee in respect of such proceedings shall apply subject to the said provisions of such other law.

3. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the subject or context otherwise requires,—

(i) "appeal" includes a cross-objection;

(ii) "Court" means any Civil, Revenue or Criminal Court and includes a Tribunal or other authority having jurisdiction under any special or local law to decide questions affecting the rights of parties;

(iii) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act; and

(iv) expressions used and not defined in this Act or in the Rajasthan General Clauses Act, 1955 (Rajasthan Act VIII of 1955), but defined in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the said Code.

CHAPTER II

LIABILITY TO PAY FEES

4. Levy of fee in Courts and public offices.— No document which is chargeable with fee under this Act shall—

(i) be filed, exhibited or recorded in, or be acted on or furnished by any Court including the High Court, or

(ii) be filed, exhibited or recorded in any public office, or be acted on or furnished by any public officer, unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated as chargeable under this Act:

Provided that, whenever the filing or exhibition in a Criminal Court of a document in respect of which the proper fee has not been paid, is in the opinion of the Court necessary to prevent a failure of justice, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prohibit such filing or exhibition.

5. Fees on documents inadvertently received.—When a document on which the whole or any part of the fee prescribed by this Act has not been paid is produced or has through mistake or inadvertence, been received in any Court or public office, the Court or the head of the office may, in its or his discretion at any time, allow the person by whom such fee is payable to pay the fee or part thereof, as the case may, within such time as may be fixed; and upon such payment, the document shall have the same force and effect as if the full fee had been paid in the first instance.

6. Multifarious suits.—(1) In any suit in which separate and distinct reliefs are sought based on the same cause of action, the plaint shall be chargeable with a fee on the aggregate value of the reliefs:

Provided that, if a relief is sought only as ancillary to the main relief, the plaint shall be chargeable only on the value of the main relief.

(2) Where more reliefs than one based on the same cause of action are sought in the alternative in any suit, the plaint shall be chargeable with the highest of the fees leviable on the reliefs.

(3) Where a suit embraces two or more distinct and different causes of action and separate reliefs are sought based on them, either alternatively or cumulatively, the plaint shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees with which plaints would be chargeable under this Act if separate suits were instituted in respect of the several causes of action:

Provided that, where the causes of action in respect of reliefs claimed alternatively against the same person arise out of the same transaction, the plaint shall be chargeable only with the highest of the fees chargeable on them.

(4) Nothing in sub-section (3) shall be deemed to affect any power conferred upon a Court under Rule 6 of Order II of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 [Central Act V of 1908].

(5) The provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis to memoranda of appeals, applications, petitions and written statements.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, a suit for possession of immovable property and for mesne profits shall be deemed to be based on the same cause of action.

7. Determination of market value.—(1) Save as otherwise provided, where the fee payable under this Act depends on the market value of any property, such value shall be determined as on the date of presentation of the plaint.

(2) The market value of land in suits falling under clauses (a) and (b) of Section 24 or under clause (a) of Section 26 or under Section 28 or under Section 29 or under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) of Section 35 or under Section 36 or under Section 44 shall be deemed to be—

(a) where rent in respect of such land has been settled, twenty-five times the rent rate sanctioned therefor during the last settlement, and

---

Section 7 — Note 1

(1) Suit for possession of house — Court-fee has to be paid on basis of market value of house as on date of plaint — Value of improvements in property made subsequently need not be included in market value of house. 1969 Raj LW 247 (248).

(b) where rent in respect of such land has not been settled, twenty-five times the rent rate sanctioned during the last settlement for similar land in the neighbourhood.

8. Set-off or counterclaim.—A written statement pleading a set-off or counterclaim shall be chargeable with fee in the same manner as a plaint.

9. Documents falling under two or more descriptions.—A document falling within two or more descriptions in this Act shall, where the fees chargeable thereunder are different, be chargeable only with the highest of such fees:

Provided that, where one of such descriptions is special and another general, the fee chargeable shall be the fee appropriate to the special description.

CHAPTER III

DETERMINATION OF FEE

10. Statement of particulars of subject-matter of suit and plaintiff's valuation thereof.—In every suit in which the fee payable under this Act on the plaint depends on the market value of the subject-matter of the suit, the plaintiff shall file with the plaint a statement in the prescribed form of particulars of the subject-matter of the suit and his valuation thereof unless such particulars and the valuation are contained in the plaint.

11. Decision as to proper fee.—(1) In every suit instituted in any Court, the Court shall, before ordering the plaint to be registered, decide on the materials and allegations contained in plaint and on the materials contained in the statement, if any, filed under Section 10, the proper fee payable thereon, the decision being however subject to review, further review and correction in the manner specified in the succeeding sub-sections.

(2) Any defendant may plead that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient. All questions arising on such pleas shall be heard and decided before the hearing of the suit as contemplated by Order XVIII in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908). If the Court decides that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient, the Court shall fix a date before which the plaint shall be amended in accordance with the Court's decision and the deficit fee shall be paid. If the plaint be not so amended or if the deficit fee be not paid within the time allowed, the plaint shall be rejected and the Court shall pass such order as it deems just regarding costs of the suit.

(3) A defendant added after issues have been framed on the merits of the claim may, in the written statement filed by him, plead that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient. All questions arising on such pleas shall be heard and decided before evidence is recorded affecting such defendant on the merits of the claim, and if the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee

(1) Election Petition presented within Limitation but with insufficient Court-fee Stamp — Deficiency in Court fee however made up beyond the period of limitation before courts passing any order on it — Held 'Petition' was deemed to have been made within period of limitation — The question of limitation is not affected if the deficiency is made up by the party on the orders of the Court within the time allowed by it. 1966 Raj LW 135 (135) = ILR (1966) 16 Raj 263.

(2) When an issue of sufficiency of Court-fee is raised the court must decide it. In case of deficiency the Court should grant time to make up the deficiency and if it is not made up within the time allowed by it the plaint should be rejected. 1966 Raj LW 135 (135) = ILR (1966) 16 Raj 263.

(3) Once a written statement has been filed by the defendant the only manner in which the plea of insufficiency of Court-fee can be taken is by amending the written statement and not by a separate application. 1969 Raj LW 184 (186).

paid is not sufficient, the Court shall follow the procedure laid down in sub-section (2).

Explanation.—Nothing in this sub-section shall apply to a defendant added as a successor or a representative-in-interest of a defendant who was on record before issues were framed on the merits of the claim and who had an opportunity to file a written statement pleading that the subject-matter of the suit was not properly valued or that the fee paid was not sufficient.

(4) (a) Wherever a case comes up before a Court of Appeal, it shall be lawful for such Court, either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties, to consider the correctness of any order passed by the lower Court affecting the fee payable on the plaint or written statement or in any other proceeding in the lower Court and determine the proper fee payable thereon.

Explanation.—A case shall be deemed to come before a Court of Appeal even if the appeal relates only to a part of the subject-matter of the suit.

(b) If the Court of Appeal decides that the fee paid in the lower Court is not sufficient, the Court shall require the party liable to pay the deficit fee within such time as may be fixed by it.

(c) If the deficit fee is not paid within the time fixed and the default is in respect of a relief which has been dismissed by the lower Court and which the appellant seeks in appeal, the appeal shall be dismissed, but if the default is in respect of a relief which has been decreed by the lower Court, the deficit fee shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

(d) If the fee paid in the lower Court is in excess, the Court shall direct the refund of the excess to the party who is entitled to it.

(5) All questions as to value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts arising on the written statement of a defendant shall be heard and decided before the hearing of the suit as contemplated by Order XVIII in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908).

Explanation.—In this section, the expression "merits of the claim" refers to matters which arise for determination in the suit, not being matters relating to the frame of the suit, misjoinder of parties and causes of action, the jurisdiction of the Court to entertain or try the suit or the fee payable but inclusive of matters arising on pleas of res judicata, limitation and the like.

12. Additional fee on issues framed.—Where a party becomes liable to pay additional fee by reason of an issue framed in the suit, the provisions of the last foregoing section shall apply to the determination and levy of such additional fee subject to the modification that where the party liable does not pay such additional fee within the time allowed, the Court shall strike off the issue and proceed to hear and decide the other issues in the case.

13. Relinquishment of portion of claim.—A plaintiff who has been called upon to pay additional fee may relinquish a part of his claim and apply to have the plaint amended so that the fee paid would be adequate for the claim made in the plaint as amended. The Court shall allow such application on such terms as it considers just and shall proceed to hear and decide the claim made in the plaint as amended, provided that the plaintiffs shall not be permitted at any later stage of the suit to add to the claim the part so relinquished.

14. Fee payable on written statements.—Where fee is payable under this Act on a written statement filed by a defendant, the provisions of Section 11 shall apply to the determination and levy of the fee payable on such written statement, the defendant concerned being regarded for the said purpose as the plaintiff and the plaintiff or the co-defendant party against whom the claim is made being regarded as the defendant.

15. Fee payable on appeals, etc.—The provisions of Sections 10 to 13 relating to determination and levy of fee on plaints in suits shall apply mutatis mutandis to the determination and levy of fee in respect of a memorandum of appeal, cross-objection or other proceeding in second appeal or in an appeal from the judgment of a single Judge of the High Court of Rajasthan under any law for the time being in force.

16. Fee payable on petitions, applications, etc.—The provisions of Sections 10 to 13 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the determination and levy of fee in respect of petitions, applications and other proceedings in Courts in the same way as they apply to the determination and levy of fee on plaints in suits.

17. Court-fee Examiners.— (1) The High Court may depute officers to be designated Court-fee Examiners to inspect the records of subordinate Courts with a view to examine the correctness of representations made to, and orders passed by, Courts on questions relating to valuation of subject-matter and sufficiency of fee in respect of proceedings in such Courts.

(2) Questions raised in reports submitted by such Court-fee Examiners and relating to any suit, appeal or other proceeding pending in a Court shall be heard and decided by such Court; and for the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that in hearing and deciding a question raised in any such report, it shall be lawful for the Court to review an earlier decision given by the Court on the same question.

18. Inquiry and commission.—For the purpose of deciding whether the subject-matter of a suit or other proceedings has been properly valued or whether the fee paid is sufficient, the Court may hold such inquiry as it considers proper and may, if it thinks fit, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court. Such report and evidence recorded by such person shall be evidence in such inquiry.

19. Notice to the State Government.—In any inquiry relating to the fee payable on a plaint, written statement, petition, memorandum of appeal or other document, or to the valuation of the subject-matter of the claim to which the plaint, written statement, petition, memorandum of appeal or other document relates, in so far as such valuation affects the fee payable, the Court may, if it considers it just or necessary to do so, give notice to the State Government; and where such notice is given, the State Government shall be deemed to be a party to the suit or other proceeding as respects the determination of the question or questions, as aforesaid, and the Court's decision on such question or questions, when it passes a decree or final order in such suit or proceeding, shall be deemed to form part of such decree or final order.

CHAPTER IV

COMPUTATION OF FEE

20. Fee how reckoned.—The fee payable under this Act shall be determined or computed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, Chapter VI, Chapter VIII and Schedules I and II.

21. Suits for money.—In a suit for money (including a suit for damages or compensation, or arrears of maintenance, of annuities, or of other sums payable periodically), fee shall be computed on the amount claimed.

22. Suits for maintenance and annuities.—In the suits hereinafter mentioned, fee shall be computed as follows:—

(a) in a suit for maintenance, on the amount claimed to be payable for one year;

(b) in a suit for enhancement or reduction of maintenance, on the amount by which the annual maintenance is sought to be enhanced or reduced;

(c) in a suit for annuities or other sums payable periodically, on five times the amount claimed to be payable for one year:

Provided that, where the annuity is payable for less than five years, the fees shall be computed on the aggregate of the sums payable:

Provided further that a suit for enhancement of maintenance shall be instituted in a Court which will have jurisdiction to receive a suit for maintenance at the enhanced rate claimed and one for reduction of maintenance shall be instituted in a Court which will have jurisdiction to receive a suit for maintenance at the rate which is sought to be reduced.

23. Suits for movable property.—(1) In a suit for movable property other than documents of title, fee shall be computed—

(a) where the subject-matter has a market value, on such value; or

(b) where the subject-matter has no market value, on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint.

(2) (a) In a suit for possession of documents of title, fee shall be computed on one-fourth of the amount or of the market value of the property secured by the document—

(i) where the plaint alleges denial of the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the documents, or

(ii) where an issue is framed regarding the plaintiff's title to the money or on the property secured by the documents:

Provided that where the allegation in the plaint or the issue framed relates only to a portion of the amount or property, fee shall be computed on one-fourth of such portion of the amount or on one-fourth of the market value of such portion of the property.

(b) In a suit for possession of documents of title where the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document is not denied, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or at which such relief is valued by the Court, whichever is higher.

Explanation.—The expression "document of title" means a document which purports or operates to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest, whether vested or contingent, in any property.

24. Suits for declaration.—In a suit for a declaratory decree or order, whether with or without consequential relief, not falling under Section 25—

(a) where the prayer is for a declaration and for possession of the property to which the declaration relates, fee shall be computed on the market value of the property, subject to a minimum fee of twenty rupees;

(b) where the prayer is for a declaration and for consequential injunction and the relief sought is with reference to any immovable property, fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property, subject to a minmum fee of twenty rupees;

(c) where the prayer relates to the plaintiff's exclusive right to use, sell, print or exhibit any mark, name, book, picture, design or other thing and is based on an infringement of such exclusive right, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint subject to a minimum fee of forty rupees;

(d) where the prayer is for a declaration with reference to any property and no consequential relief is prayed for, fee shall be computed on the market value of the property, subject to a minimum fee of twenty rupees;

(e) in other cases, whether the subject-matter of the suit is capable of valuation or not, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint, subject to a minimum fee of twenty five rupees.

25. Adoption suits.—In a suit for a declaration in regard to the validity or invalidity of an adoption or the factum of an adoption, fee shall be payable at the following rates:—

Where the market value of the property involved in or affected by the relief—

(i) is rupees five thousand or less, Rupees fifty;

(ii) exceeds rupees five thousand but does not exceed rupees ten thousand, Rupees one hundred.

(iii) exceeds rupees ten thousand, Rupees five hundred.

26. Suits for injunction.—In a suit for injunction—

(a) where the relief sought is with reference to any immovable property, and where the plaintiff alleges that his title to the property is denied, fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher;

(b) where the prayer relates to the plaintiff's exclusive right to use, sell, print or exhibit any mark, name, book, picture, design or other thing and is based on an infringement of such exclusive right, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees five hundred, whichever is higher;

(c) in any other case, whether the subject-matter of the suit has a market value or not, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees four hundred, whichever is higher.

27. Suits relating to trust property.—In a suit for possession or joint possession of trust property or for a declaratory decree, whether with or without consequential relief in respect of it, between trustees or rival claimants to the office of trustee or between a trustee and a person who has ceased to be a trustee, fee shall be computed on one-fifth of the market value of the property subject to a maximum fee of rupees two hundred or where the property has no market value, on rupees one thousand:

Provided that, where the property does not have a market value, value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be such amount as the plaintiff shall state in the plaint.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, property comprised in a Hindu, Muslim or other religious or charitable endowment shall be deemed to be trust property and the manager of any such property shall be deemed to be the trustee thereof.

28. Suits for possession under Specific Relief Act, 1877.—In a suit for possession of immovable property under Section 9 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877[*] (Central Act I of 1877), fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees two hundred, whichever is higher.

[*] Now see Specific Relief Act, 1963 (47 of 1963) (1-3-1964).

29. Suits for possession not otherwise provided for.—In a suit for possession of immovable property not otherwise provided for, fee shall be computed on the market value of the property, subject to a minimum fee of rupees twenty.

30. Suits relating to easement.—In a suit relating to an easement whether by the dominant or the servient owner, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint, which amount shall in no case be less than rupees two hundred:

Provided that, where compensation is claimed besides other relief relating to such easement, fee shall be paid on the amount claimed as compensation in addition to the fee payable on such other relief.

31. Pre-emption suits.—In a suit to enforce a right of pre-emption, fee shall be computed on the amount of the consideration for the sale which the pre-emptor seeks to avoid or on the market value of the property sold, whichever is less.

32. Suits relating to mortgages.—(1) In a suit to recover the money due on a mortgage, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed.

(2) Where, in such a suit, the holder of a prior mortgage or charge is impleaded and he prays in his written statement that the amount due on his mortgage or charge be determined and that the decree contain a direction for the payment of such amount to him, fee shall be payable on the written statement computed on the amount claimed :

Provided that, where the holder of the mortgage or charge has paid a fee in any other proceeding on the claim to which his written statement relates, credit shall be given for the fee paid by him in such other proceeding.

(3) Where, in such a suit, the mortgaged property is sold and the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge applies for payment to him, out of the sale proceeds, of the amount due on his mortgage or charge, such holder of the prior or subsequent mortgage or charge shall pay on his application a fee computed on the amount claimed by him :

Provided that, where such holder of the mortgage or charge is a party to the suit in which the sale was held and has paid fee on the written statement filed by him in the suit, no fee shall be payable by him on the application for payment out of the sale proceeds :

Provided further that, where the holder, of the mortgage or charge, not being a party to the suit in which the sale is held, has paid a fee in any other proceeding on the claim to which his application relates, credit shall be given for the fee paid by him in such other proceeding.

(4) In a suit by a co-mortgagee for the benefit of himself and the other co-mortgagees, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed on the entire mortgage :

Provided that, where a co-mortgagee impleaded as defendant in such suit claims on the entire mortgage a larger sum than is claimed in the plaint, the difference between the fee computed on the entire sum claimed in such defendant's written statement and the fee computed on the entire sum claimed in the plaint shall be payable on the written statement.

Explanation.—Nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as affecting the law of limitation.

(5) (a) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee to recover the amount claimed on the sub-mortgage by sale of the mortgagee's interest in the mortgaged property, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed under the sub-mortgage.

(b) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee if the prayer is for the sale of the property mortgaged to the original mortgagee and the original mortgagor is also impleaded as a defendant fee shall be computed on the entire amount claimed on the original mortgage which is sub-mortgaged to him.

(6) Where the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge is impleaded in a suit by a co-mortgagee to which sub-section (4) applies, or in a suit by a sub-mortgagee to which sub-section (5) applies, the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a written statement or an application filed by such holder of mortgage or charge.

(7) Where the original mortgagee who is impleaded in a suit to which the provisions of sub-section (5) (b) apply claims on the mortgage sub-mortgaged by him a larger amount than is claimed in the plaint, the provisions of sub-section (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis, to the written statement of such mortgagor.

(8) In a suit against a mortgagee for redemption of a mortgage, fee shall be computed on the amount due on the mortgage as stated in the plaint :

Provided that, where the amount due on the mortgage is found to be more than the amount on which fee has been paid by the plaintiff, no decree shall be passed until the deficit fee is paid :

Provided further that, in the case of a usufructuary or anomalous mortgage, if the plaintiff prays for redemption as well as for accounts of surplus profits, fee shall be levied separately on the relief for accounts as in a suit for accounts.

(9) In a suit by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage or, where the mortgage is made by conditional sale, to have the sale declared absolute, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed in the plaint by way of principal and interest.

33. Suits for accounts.—(1) In a suit for accounts, fee shall be computed on the amount sued for as estimated in the plaint.

(2) Where the amount payable to the plaintiff as ascertained in the suit is in excess of the amount as estimated in the plaint, no decree directing payment of the amount as so ascertained shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable, had the suit comprised the whole of the amount so ascertained, is paid.

(3) If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court may fix, the decree shall be limited to the amount to which the fee paid extends.

(4) Where in any such suit it is found that any amount is payable to the defendant, no decree shall be passed in his favour until he pays the fee due on the amount.

34. Suits for dissolution of partnership.—(1) In a suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts or for accounts of dissolved partnership, fee shall be computed on the value of the plaintiff's share in the partnership as estimated by the plaintiff.

(2) If the value of the plaintiff's share as ascertained in the suit exceeds the value as estimated in the plaint, no decree, or where there has been a preliminary decree, no final decree, shall be passed in favour of the plaintiff, no payment shall be made out of the assets of the partnership and no property shall be allotted towards the plaintiff's share, until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable, had the suit comprised the whole of the value so ascertained, is paid.

(3) No final decree shall be passed, no money shall be paid and no allotment of property shall be made in favour of a defendant in any such suit for on or account of his share of the assets of the partnership, until the fee computed on the amount or value of his share of the assets of the partnership is paid.

35. Partition suits.—(1) In a suit for partition and separate possession of a share in joint family property or of property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who has been excluded from possession of such property, fee shall be computed on the market value of the plaintiff's share of the property.

(2) In a suit for partition and separate possession of joint family property or property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who is in joint possession of such property, fee shall be paid at the following rates, namely :—

(i) Rupees thirty if the value of plaintiff's share is Rs. 5,000 or less;

(ii) Rupees one hundred if the value is above Rs. 5,000 but does not exceed Rs. 10,000; and

(iii) Rupees two hundred if such value exceeds Rs. 10,000.

(3) Where, in a suit falling under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), a defendant claims partition and separate possession of his share of the property, fee shall be payable on his written statement computed on half the market value of his share or at half the rates specified in sub-section (2), according as such defendant has been excluded from possession or is in joint possession.

(4) Where, in a suit falling under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the plaintiff or the defendant seeks cancellation of decree or other document of the nature specified in Section 38, separate fee shall be payable on the relief of cancellation in the manner specified in that section.

36. Suit for joint possession.—In a suit for joint possession of joint family property or of property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who has been excluded from possession, fee shall be computed on the market value of the plaintiff's share of the property.

37. Administration suits.—(1) In a suit for the administration of an estate, fee shall be levied on the plaint at the rates specified in Section 45.

(2) Where any amount or share or part of the assets of the estate is found due to the plaintiff, and the fee computed on the amount or the market value of such share or part of the assets exceeds the fee paid on the plaint, no payment shall be made and no decree directing payment of money or confirming title to such share or part of the assets shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee computed on the amount or value of the property is paid.

(3) No payment shall be made, no decree directing payment of money or confirming title to any share or part of the assets of the estate shall be passed in favour of a defendant in a suit for administration, until the fee computed on the amount or value of such share or part of such assets is paid by such defendant.

(4) In computing the fee payable by a plaintiff or by a defendant under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), credit shall be given for the fee if any, paid by such plaintiff or by such defendant in any other proceeding in respect of the claim on the basis of which such amount or share or part of the assets of the estate become due to such plaintiff or to such defendant.

38. Suits for cancellation of decrees, etc.—(1) In a suit for cancellation of a decree for money or other property having a money value, or other document which purports or operates to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest in money, movable or immovable property, fee shall be computed on the value of the subject-matter of the suit and such value shall be deemed to be—

(a) if the whole decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, the amount or value of the property for which the decree was passed or other document was executed; and

(b) if a part of the decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, such part of the amount or value of the property.

(2) If the decree or other document is such that the liability under it cannot be split up and the relief claimed relates only to a particular item of property belonging to the plaintiff or to the plaintiff's share in any such property, fee shall be computed on the value of such property or share or on the amount of the decree, whichever is less.

Explanation.—A suit to set aside an award shall be deemed to be a suit to set aside a decree within the meaning of this section.

39. Suits to set aside attachment, etc.—(1) In a suit to set aside an attachment by a Civil or Revenue Court of any property, movable or immovable, or of any interest therein or of any interest in revenue, or to set aside an order passed on an application made to set aside the attachment, fee shall be computed on the amount for which the property was attached or on one-fourth of the market value of the property attached, whichever is less.

(2) In a suit to set aside any other summary decision or order of a Civil or Revenue Court, if the subject-matter of the suit has a market value, fee shall be computed on one fourth of such value, and in other cases, fee shall be payable at the rates specified in Section 45.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, the Registrar of Co-operative Societies shall be deemed to be a Civil Court.

40. Suits for specific performance.—In a suit for specific performance, whether with or without possession, fee shall be payable—

(a) in the case of a contract of sale, computed on the amount of the consideration;

(b) in the case of a contract of mortgage, computed on the amount agreed to be secured by the mortgagee;

(c) in the case of a contract of lease, computed on the aggregate amount of the fine or premium, if any, and of the average of the annual rent agreed to be paid;

(d) in the case of a contract of exchange, computed on the amount of the consideration, or as the case may be, on the market value of the property sought to be taken in exchange;

(e) in other cases, where the consideration for the promise sought to be enforced has a market value, computed on such market value or where such consideration has no market value, at the rates specified in Section 45.

41. Suits between landlord and tenant.—(1) In the following suits between landlord and tenant, namely :—

(a) for the delivery by a tenant of the counter-part of a lease;

(b) for the enhancement of rent;

(c) for the delivery by a landlord of a lease;

(d) for the recovery of possession of immovable property from which a tenant has been illegally ejected by the landlord; and

(e) for establishing or disproving a right to occupy;

fee shall be levied on the amount of rent for the immovable property to which the suit relates payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

(2) In a suit for recovery of immovable property from a tenant including a tenant holding over after the termination of a tenancy, fee shall be computed on the premium, if any, and on the rent payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

Explanation.—Rent includes also damages for use and occupation payable by a tenant holding over.

42. Suits for mesne profits.—(1) In a suit for mesne profits or for immovable property and mesne profits therefrom, fee shall, in respect of mesne profits, be computed on the amount claimed as such profits. If the profits ascertained to be due to the plaintiff are in excess of the profits as claimed, no decree shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable, had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained, is paid.

(2) Where a decree directs an inquiry as to the mesne profits which have accrued on the property, whether prior or subsequent to the institution of the suit, no final decree shall be passed till the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable, had the suit comprised the whole of the profits accrued due till the date of such decree, is paid.

(3) Where, for a period subsequent to the date of the decree or final decree, such decree or final decree directs payment of mesne profits, at a specified rate, such decree or final decree shall not be executed until the fee computed on the amount claimed in execution has been paid.

Section 40 — Note 1

(1) Suit by vendor for recovery of unpaid purchase money under executory contract for sale — Suit held once for specific performance of contract for sale — Court-fee payable will be under S. 40 (a) i. e. on full consideration of the sale and not merely on the amount of unpaid purchase money. (1963) Raj LW 653 (654) = ILR (1963) 13 Raj 1183.

43. Suits relating to public matters.—In a suit for relief under Section 91 or Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), the fee payable shall be thirty rupees.

44. Interpleader suits.—(1) In an interpleader suit, fee shall be payable on the plaint at the rates specified in Section 45.

(2) Where issues are framed as between the claimants, fee shall be payable computed on the amount of the debt or the money or the market value of other property, movable or immovable which forms the subject-matter of the suit. In levying such fee, credit shall be given for the fee paid on the plaint; and the balance of the fee shall be paid in equal shares by the claimants who claim the debt or the sum of money or the property adversely to each other.

(3) Value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be the amount of the debt, or the sum of money or the market value of other property to which the suit relates.

45. Suits not otherwise provided for.—In suits not otherwise provided for, fee shall be payable at the following rates, namely :—

Where the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute—

(i) is less than Rs. 1,000	Rupees ten.
(ii) is not less than Rs. 1,000 but does not exceed Rs 3,000/-	Rupees thirty.
(iii) is not less than Rs. 3,000/- and does not exceed Rs. 5,000/-	Rupees one hundred.
(iv) exceed Rs. 5,000/- but does not exceed Rs. 10,000/-	Rupees two hundred.
(v) exceeds Rs. 10,000/-	Rupees three hundred.

46. Fee on memorandum of appeal against order relating to compensation.—The fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of property for public proposes shall be computed on the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

47. Appeals.—The fee payable in an appeal shall be the same as the fee that would be payable in the Court of first instance on the subject-matter of the appeal :

Provided that, in levying fee on a memorandum of appeal against a final decree by a person whose appeal against the preliminary decree passed by the Court of first instance or by the Court of appeal is pending credit shall be given for the fee paid by such person in the appeal against the preliminary decree.

Explanation.—(1) Whether the appeal is against the refusal of a relief or against the grant of the relief, the fee payable in the appeal shall be the same as the fee that would be payable on the relief in the Court of first instance.

Explanation.—(2) Costs shall not be deemed to form part of the subject-matter of the appeal except where such costs form themselves the subject-matter of the appeal or relief is claimed as regard costs on grounds additional to or independent of the relief claimed regarding the main subject-matter in the suit.

Explanation.—(3) In claims which include the award of interest subsequent to the institution of the suit, the interest accrued during the pendency of the suit till the date of decree shall be deemed to be part of the subject-matter of the appeal except where such interest is relinquished.

Explanation.—(4) Where the relief prayed for in the appeal is different from the relief prayed for or refused in the Court of first instance, the fee payable in the appeal shall be the fee that would be payable in the Court of first instance on the relief prayed for in the appeal.

Explanation.—(5) Where the market value of the subject-matter of the appeal has to be ascertained for the purpose of computing or determining the fee payable, such market value shall be ascertained as on the date of presentation of the plaint.

CHAPTER V

VALUATION OF SUITS

*[48. Suits not otherwise provided for—(1) In a suit as to whose] value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts specific provision is not otherwise made in this Act or in any other law, value for that purpose and value for the purpose of computing the fee payable under this Act shall be the same.

(2) In a suit where fee is payable under this Act at a fixed rate, the value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be the market value or where it is not possible to estimate it at a money value such amount as the plaintiff shall state in the plaint.

[*] Substituted and shall be deemed always to have been substituted by Raj. Act 3 of 1962, S. 2.

49. Procedure where objection is taken on appeal or revision that a suit or appeal was not properly valued for jurisdictional purposes.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 99 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), an objection that by reason of the overvaluation or undervaluation of a suit or appeal, a Court of first instance or lower appellate Court which had no jurisdiction with respect to the suit or appeal exercised jurisdiction with respect thereto shall not be entertained by an appellate Court, unless—

(a) the objection was taken in the Court of first instance at or before the hearing at which issues were first framed and recorded, or in the lower appellate Court in the memorandum of appeal to that Court, or

(b) the appellate Court is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that the suit or appeal was overvalued or undervalued and that the overvaluation or undervaluation thereof has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit or appeal on its merits.

(2) If the objection was taken in the manner mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1), but the appellate Court is not satisfied as to both the matters mentioned in clause (b) of that sub-section and has before it the materials necessary for the determination of the other grounds of appeal to itself, it shall dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction in the Court of the first instance or lower appellate Court.

(3) If the objection was taken in that manner and the appellate Court is satisfied as to both those matters and has not those materials before it, it shall proceed to deal with the appeal under the rules applicable to the Court with respect to the hearing of appeals; but if it remands the suit or appeal, or frames and refers issues for trial, or requires additional evidence to be taken, it shall direct its order to a Court competent to entertain the suit or appeal.

(4) The provisions of this section with respect to an appellate Court shall, so far they can be made applicable, apply to a Court exercising revisional jurisdiction under Section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), or other enactment for the time being in force.

CHAPTER VI

50. Application for probate or letters of administration.—(1) Every application for the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be accompanied by a valuation of the estate in duplicate in the form set forth in Part I of Schedule [illegible]

(2) On receipt of such application, the Court shall send a copy thereof and of the valuation to the Collector of the district in which the estate is situated, or if the estate is situated in more than one district, to the Collector of the district in which the most valuable portion of the immovable property included in the estate is situated.

51. Levy of fee.—(1) The fee chargeable for the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be calculated at the rate or rates prescribed in Article 6 of Schedule I,—

(a) where the application is made within one year of the date of death of the deceased, on the market value of the estate on such date; or

(b) where the application is made after the expiry of one year from such date, on the market value of the estate on the date of the application:

Provided that property held in trust not beneficially or with general power to confer a beneficial interest shall not be liable to any fee under this chapter.

Explanation.—Any member of a joint Hindu family governed by the Mitakshara law who applies for probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of a deceased member of the joint family shall pay a fee on the value of the share in the joint property which the deceased would have received if a partition of the property had been made immediately before his death:

(2) For the purpose of the computation of fee—

(a) the value of the items mentioned in Annexure B to Part I of Schedule III shall be deducted from the value of the estate:

Provided that, when an application is made for probate or letters of administration in respect of part only of an estate, no debt, no expenses connected with any funeral rites or ceremonies and no mortgage encumbrance on any part of the estate other than that in respect of which the application is made shall be deducted:

Provided further that when, after the grant of a certificate under Part X of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (Central Act XXXIX of 1925) in respect of any property included in an estate, a grant of probate or letters of administration is made in respect of the same estate, the fee payable in respect of the later grant shall be reduced by the amount of the fee payable in respect of the former grant;

(b) the power of appointment which the deceased had over a property or which was created under a will shall be taken into account, the value being taken to be the value of the property forming the subject-matter of the power.

52. Grant of probate.—The grant of probate or letters of administration shall not be delayed by reason of the reference to the Collector under Section 50, sub-section (2), or of a motion by the Collector under Section 54, sub-section (5); but the Court shall make no grant of probate or letters of administration until it is satisfied that a fee not less than that prescribed by this Act has been paid on the basis of the net value of the estate as furnished in the valuation accompanying the application, or in the amended valuation filed under Section 51, sub-section (3):

Provided that the Court may grant probate or letters of administration notwithstanding that the prescribed fee has not been paid, to the Administrator-General in his official capacity on his giving an undertaking to the satisfaction of the Court that the said fee will be paid within such time as may be fixed by the Court.

53. Relief in cases of several grants.—(1) Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration has been made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate and the full fee payable under this Act in respect of the application for such grant has been paid thereon, no fee shall be payable when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

(2) Whenever such grant has been made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fee actually paid under this Act in respect thereof shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of the property belonging to the same estate identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

54. Inquiry by the Collector.—(1) The Collector to whom a copy of the application and of the valuation has been sent under Section 50, sub-section (2), shall examine the same and may make or cause to be made by any officer subordinate to him such inquiry, if any, as he thinks fit as to the correctness of the valuation or, where a part only of the property is situated in his district, of the valuation of that part and may require the Collector of any other district in which any part of the property is situated to furnish him with the correct valuation thereof.

(2) Any Collector required under sub-section (1) to furnish the correct valuation of any property shall comply with the requisition after making or causing to be made by any officer subordinate to him such inquiry, if any, as he thinks fit.

(3) If the Collector is of opinion that the applicant has under-estimate the value of the property of the deceased, he may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the applicant, either in person or by his agent, and take evidence and inquire into the matter in such manner as he may think fit, and if he is still of opinion that the value of the property has been under-estimated, may require the applicant to amend the valuation and, if the application for probate or letters of administration is pending in Court, to file a copy of the amended valuation in such Court.

(4) If, in any such case, the probate or letters of administration has or have been granted and the applicant amends the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector and the Collector finds that the fee payable according to the true value of the estate has not been paid in full he shall proceed under Section 56, sub-section (4): but if the fee paid is in excess of that payable according to the true value of the estate, the excess fee shall be refunded to the applicant.

(5) If the applicant does not amend the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may move the Court before which the application for probate or letters of administration was made to hold an inquiry into the true value of the property:

Provided that no such motion shall be made after the expiration of six months from the date of the exhibition of the inventory required by Section 317 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (Central Act XXXIX of 1925).

55. Application to Court and powers of Court.—(1) The Court shall, when moved by the Collector under Section 54, sub-section (5), hold or cause to be held by any Court or officer subordinate to it an inquiry as to the true value at which the estate of the deceased should have been estimated. The Collector shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.

(2) For the purposes of any such inquiry, the Court, or the subordinate Court or the officer authorised by the Court to hold the inquiry, may examine the applicant on oath either in person or by commission, and may take such further evidence as may be produced to prove the true value of the estate, and where the inquiry has been entrusted to a subordinate Court or officer, such Court or officer shall return to the Court the evidence taken and report the result of the inquiry and such report and the evidence so taken shall be evidence in the proceedings.

(3) The Court on the completion of the inquiry or on receipt of the report referred to in sub-section (2), as the case may be, shall record a finding as to the true value at which the estate should have been estimated and such finding shall be final.

(4) The Court may make such order in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908) as to the costs of the inquiry as it thinks fit.

56. Provision for cases where too low a fee has been paid.—(1) Where too low a fee has been paid on any probate or letters of administration in consequence of any mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator, acting under such probate or letters, apply to the Collector in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III and pays within six months after the discovery of the mistake or of any effects not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, the difference between the fee which ought to have been paid in the first instance on such probate or letters and the fee actually paid, the Collector shall, if satisfied that insufficient fee was paid in the first instance in consequence of a mistake and without any intention to defraud or to delay the payment of the proper fee, cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped.

(2) If, in a case falling under sub-section (1), the executor or administrator does not, within six months referred to in that sub-section, pay the deficit fee, he shall forfeit a sum equal to five times the deficit fee.

(3) If, on application being made under sub-section (1), the Collector is satisfied that the application was not made within six months of the discovery of the mistake or of further effects not included in the original valuation or that the payment of insufficient fee in the first instance was not due to a bona fide mistake, he shall cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment of the deficit fee together with a penalty not exceeding five times such fee.

(4) If, after the grant of probate or letters of administration of an estate, it is found by the Collector as a result of proceedings under Section 54 or Section 55 or otherwise, that a less fee has been paid than that payable according to the true value of the estate he shall cause the probate or letters to be properly stamped on payment of the deficit fee, and if he is satisfied that the original undervaluation was not bona fide, he shall levy in addition a penalty not exceeding five times the deficit fee.

(5) The Board of Revenue may remit the whole or any part of the amount forfeited under sub-section (2) or of any penalty under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4).

57. Administrator to give proper security before letters stamped.--In case of letters of administration on which too low a fee has been paid in the first instance the Collector shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in the manner aforesaid until the administrator has given such security to the Court by which the letters of administration have been granted as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased had been then ascertained.

58. Relief when too high a fee has been paid.—(1) If, at any time after the grant of the probate or letters of administration of an estate, it is discovered that a higher fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, the executor or administrator, as the case may be, may apply for a refund to the Collector to whom a copy of the valuation of the estate was sent under Section 50, sub-section (2). The application shall be accompanied by an amended valuation in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III together with the probate or letters of administration upon which a refund is sought.

(2) If the Collector is satisfied that the amended valuation is correct, he shall—

(i) endorse a certificate on the stamped probate or letters of administration to the effect that so much of the fee represented by the stamp or stamps used has been refunded; and

(ii) refund the difference between the fee originally paid and that which should have been paid :

Provided that no refund shall be granted under this section unless the application for refund is made within three years of the date of the grant of the probate or letters of administration, or within such further period as the Collector may allow.

(3) If, by reason of any legal proceedings, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said period of three years, the Collector may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to him to be reasonable under the circumstances.

(4) If the Collector does not grant a refund, the executor or administrator, as the case may be, may apply to the Board of Revenue for an order of refund. An application for such refund should be accompanied by an amended valuation in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III.

59. Recovery of penalties etc.—Any excess fee found to be payable by an applicant for probate or letters of administration or by an executor or administrator or any costs under Section 55, sub-section (4) or any penalty or forfeiture payable by any such executor or administrator may, on the certificate of the Board of Revenue, be recovered from the executor or administrator as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

60. Powers of Board of Revenue.—The powers and duties of the Collector under this Chapter shall be subject to the control of the Board of Revenue.

CHAPTER VII

REFUNDS AND REMISSIONS

61. Refund in cases of rejection of plaint, etc.—(1) Where a plaint is rejected under Order 7, Rule 11, or a memorandum of appeal is rejected under O. 41, Rule 3 or 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act No. 5 of 1908), the Court may, in its discretion, direct the refund to the plaintiff or the appellant of the fee either in whole or in part, paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal which has been rejected.

(2) Where a memorandum of appeal is rejected on the ground that it was not presented within the time allowed by the law of limitation, one-half of the fee shall be refunded.

62. Refund in cases of remand.—(1) Where a plaint or memorandum of appeal which has been rejected by the lower Court is ordered to be received, or where a suit is remanded in appeal for a fresh decision by the lower Court, the Court making the order or remanding the appeal may direct the refund to the appellant of the full amount of the fee paid on the memorandum of appeal; and it the remand is on second appeal also on the memorandum of appeal in the first appellate Court, and, if the remand is on an appeal from the judgment of single Judge of the High Court of Rajasthan under any law for the time being in force, also on the memorandum of second appeal and memorandum of appeal in the first appellate Court.

(2) Where an appeal is remanded in second appeal or in an appeal from the judgment of a single Judge of the High Court of Rajasthan under any law for the time being in force for a fresh decision by the lower appellate Court, the High Court remanding the appeal may direct the refund to the appellant of the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of second appeal if the remand is in second appeal and of the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of second appeal, and the memorandum of appeal from the judgment of a single Judge of the High Court of Rajasthan under any law for the time being in force, if the remand is on such latter appeal.

Provided that no refund shall be ordered if the remand was caused by the fault of the party who would otherwise be entitled to a refund:

Provided further that, if the order of remand does not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the refund shall not extend to more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on that part of the subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

63. Refund on grounds of mistake.—(1) Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted on the ground of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record and on rehearing the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on that ground, it shall direct the refund to the applicant of so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under Article 11 (g) and (h) of Schedule II.

(2) Any fee paid by mistake or inadvertence shall be ordered to be refunded to the person paying the same.

64. Exemption of certain documents.—Nothing contained in this Act shall render the following documents chargeable with any fee:—

(i) Mukhtarnama, vakalatnama or other written authority to institute or defend a suit when executed by a member of any of the Armed Forces of the Union not in civil employment;

(ii) application relating to supply for irrigation of water belonging to Government;

(iii) first application (other than a petition containing a criminal charge of information) for the summons of a witness or other person to attend either to give evidence or to produce a document or in respect of the production or filing of an exhibit not being an affidavit made for the immediate purpose of being produced in Court;

(iv) bail bonds in criminal cases, recognizances to prosecute or give evidence and recognizances for personal appearance or otherwise;

(v) petition, application, charge or information respecting any offence when presented, made or laid to or before a police officer;

(vi) petition by a prisoner or other person in duress or under restraint of any Court or its officer;

(vii) complaint of a public servant as defined in the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (Central Act XLV of 1860), or an officer of the State Railway relating to matters arising out of, or in connection with, discharge of his official duty;

(viii) application for the payment of money due by the State Government to the applicant, other than an application for refund of lapsed deposit made six months after the date on which the amount lapsed to the State Government;

(ix) petition of appeal against any municipal tax;

(x) an application for compensation under any law for the time being in force relating to the acquisition of property for public purposes;

(xi) petition of appeal by a Government servant or a servant of the Court of Wards when presented to any superior officer or Government against orders of dismissal, reduction or suspension; copies of such orders filed with such appeals, and applications for obtaining such copies.

Section 63 — Note 1

(1) Rajasthan Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act (XXII of 1961), Sections 63 (2), 61 and 62 — Refund of Court-fee — Who can order — Under Section 63 (2) Court can order refund and not Collector 1969 Raj LW 175 (175).

65. Power to reduce or remit fees.—The State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette reduce or remit, in the whole or in any part of the territory of this State, all or any of the fees chargeable under this Act, and may, in like manner, cancel or vary such notification.

CHAPTER VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

66. Collection of fees by stamps.—(1) All fees chargeable under this Act shall be collected by stamps.

(2) The stamps used to denote any fee chargeable under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, from time to time, direct.

67. Amended document.—Where any document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act is amended in order merely to correct a mistake and to make it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp.

68. Cancellation of stamp.—(1) No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or office until the stamp has been cancelled.

(2) Such officer as the Court or the head of the office may, from time to time, appoint shall, on receiving any such document, forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figurehead so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched, and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

69. Deduction to be made.—Where allowance is made under this Act for damaged or spoiled stamps or where fee already paid is directed to be refunded to any person by an order of Court, the Collector may, on the application of the person concerned, pay to him the amount of fee, or, where damaged or spoiled stamps are produced, he may, after satisfying himself about their genuineness, give in lieu thereof the same amount or value in stamps of the same or any other description, or if the applicant so desired, the same amount or value in money: provided that in all cases where money is paid in cash, a deduction shall be made of six naye paise for each rupee or fraction thereof. No such deduction shall, however, be made where refund is claimed in respect of any fee paid in pursuance of an order of Court which has been varied or reversed in appeal.

70. Penalty.—Any person appointed to sell stamps, who disobeys any rule made under this Act, and any person, not so appointed, who sells or offers for sale any stamps, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

71. Power of High Court to make rules.—(1) The High Court may make rules to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the fees payable for serving and executing processes issued by the High Court in its appellate jurisdiction and by the Civil and Criminal Courts subordinate thereto;

(b) the remuneration of persons employed by the Court mentioned in clause (a) in the service or execution of processes;

(c) the fixing by District and Sessions Judges and District Magistrates of the number of process-servers necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued from their respective Courts and the Courts subordinate thereto;

(d) the display in each Court of a table in English and in Hindi showing the fees payable for the service and execution of processes.

(2) All rules made under sub-section (1) shall be subject to confirmation by the State Government with or without modification and on such confirmation they shall be published in the official Gazette and shall thereupon have effect as if enacted in this Act.

72. Power of Board of Revenue to make rules.—(1) The Board of Revenue may, with the previous sanction of the State Government, make rules consistent with this Act to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Board of Revenue and by the Revenue Courts:

(b) the remuneration of the persons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of such processes;

(c) the fixing by Collectors of the number of persons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of such processes;

(d) the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of their powers under Chapter VI;

(2) All rules made under this section shall be published in the official Gazette and on such publication shall have effect as if enacted in this Act.

73. Power of State Government to make rules.—(1) The State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules* to provide for the following matters, namely:—

(a) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act;

(b) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act;

(c) the keeping of accounts of all stamps used under this Act;

(d) the circumstances in which stamps may be held to be damaged or spoiled;

(e) the circumstances and manner in which, and the authorities by which, allowance for used, damaged or spoiled stamps may be made;

(f) the regulation of the sale of stamps to be used under this Act, the persons by whom alone such stamps may be sold and the duties and remuneration of such persons;

(g) generally for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) All rules made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after they are so made, before the House of the State Legislature, while it is in session, for a period of not less than fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions and, if, before the expiry of the session in which they are so laid or of the session immediately following the House of the State Legislature makes any modification in any of such rules or resolves that any such rule should not be made, such rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

[THE] TAMIL NADU* COURT-FEES AND SUITS VALUATION ACT
(TAMIL NADU ACT 14 OF 1955)

An Act to amend and consolidate the law relating to court-fees and valuation of suits in the *[State of Tamil Nadu]

Whereas it is necessary and expedient to amend and consolidate the law relating to court-fees and valuation of suits in the *[State of Tamil Nadu]:

Be it enacted in the Sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

[*] Substituted for "Madras" and "State of Madras" by Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Orders, 1969 (w.e.f. 14-1-1969)—Fort St. George Gazette, 13-8-1969, Pt. IV, Section 4, Extra., p. 57.

CHAPTER I
PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE TAMIL NADU COURT-FEES AND SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1955.

(2) I extends to the whole of the State of Tamil Nadu.*

(3) It shall come into force on such date† as the State Government may, by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette, appoint.

[*] The Act has been extended to territories added to the State by Central Act 56 of 1959 by T. N. Act 39 of 1961, Section 3 and Schedule I and to transferred territories by T. N. Act 22 of 1965.

[†] The Act came into force on 19-5-1955; and in the transferred territories on 1-7-1966.

2. Application of Act.—(1) The provisions of this Act shall not apply to—

(a) proceedings in the Presidency Court of Small Causes, Madras;

(b) documents presented or to be presented before an officer serving under the Central Government.

(2) Where any other law contains provisions relating to the levy of fee in respect of proceedings under such other law, the provisions of this Act relating to the levy of fee in respect of such proceedings shall apply subject to the said provisions of such other law.

3. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(i) "appeal" includes a cross-objection;

(ii) "Court" means any Civil, Revenue, or Criminal Court and includes a Tribunal or other authority having jurisdiction under any special or local law to decide questions affecting the rights of parties;

(iii) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act; [......]*

*[(iii-a) "transferred territory" means the Kanyakumari district and the Shencottah taluk of the Tirunelveli district; and]

(iv) expressions used and not defined in this Act or in the Tamil Nadu General Clauses Act 1891 (Tamil Nadu Act I of 1891), but defined in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the said Code.

[*] Word "and" omitted and clause (iii-a) inserted by T. N. Act 22 of 1965, Sec. 4, Sch. II (w.e.f. 1-7-1966).

CHAPTER II

LIABILITY TO PAY FEE

4. Levy of fee in Courts and public offices.—No document which is chargeable with fee under this Act shall—

(i) be filed, exhibited or recorded in, or be acted on or furnished by, any Court including the High Court, or

(ii) be filed, exhibited or recorded in any public office, or be acted on or furnished by any public officer, unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated as chargeable under this Act:

Provided that, whenever the filing or exhibition in a Criminal Court of a document in respect of which the proper fee has not been paid is in the opinion of the Court necessary to prevent a failure of justice, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prohibit such filing or exhibition.

5. Fees on documents inadvertently received.—When a document on which the whole or any part of the fee prescribed by this Act has not been paid is produced or has, through mistake or inadvertence, been received in any Court or public office, the Court or the head of the office may, in its or his discretion at any time, allow the person by whom such fee is payable to pay the fee or part thereof, as the case may be, within such time as may be fixed; and upon such payment, the document shall have the same force and effect as if the full fee had been paid in the first instance.

6. Multifarious suits.—(1) In any suit in which separate and distinct reliefs are sought based on the same cause of action, the plaint shall be chargeable with a fee on the aggregate value of the reliefs:

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) Section 3 (ii) of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act contemplates four classes of Courts, civil, revenue, criminal and any authority or Tribunal having jurisdiction under any special or local law to decide questions affecting rights of parties. A Collector acting under Section 46 of the Income-tax Act may be a Court within the meaning of this section. But he will not constitute a civil Court for purposes of Section 41 (1) of the Court-fees Act. ILR (1960) Mad 371 (376) = (1960) 1 MLJ 137.

Section 5 — Note 1

(1) Suit filed on original side of High Court — Transfer to City Civil Court under Act X of 1955 — Transfer by virtue of a statute and exercise of discretion by High Court — Section 16 of Madras City Civil Courts Act did not apply. There could be no levy of higher court-fee under Section 5. (1959) 1 Mad LJ 160 = 71 Mad LW 701.

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) If a person sues several lessees who are recalcitrant, for recovering possession of the several holdings leased out

Provided that, if a relief is sought only as ancillary to the main relief, the plaint shall be chargeable only on the value of the main relief.

(2) Where more reliefs than one based on the same cause of action are sought in the alternative in any suit, the plaint shall be chargeable with the highest of the fees leviable on the reliefs.

(3) Where a suit embraces two or more distinct and different causes of action and separate reliefs are sought based on them either alternatively or cumulatively, the plaint shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees with which plaints would be chargeable under this Act if separate suits were instituted in respect of the several causes of action:

Provided that, where the causes of action in respect of reliefs claimed alternatively against the same person arise out of the same transaction, the plaint shall be chargeable only with the highest of the fees chargeable on them.

Nothing in the sub-section shall be deemed to affect any power conferred upon a Court under Rule 6 of Order II of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

(4) The provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis to memoranda of appeals, applications, petitions and written statements.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, a suit for possession of immovable property and for mesne profits shall be deemed to be based on the same cause of action.

7. Determination of market value.—(1) Save as otherwise provided, where the fee payable under this Act depends on the market value of any property, such value shall be determined as on the date of presentation of the plaint.

to them, the cause of action against each lessee is different and distinct, relating to each lease and holding, and court-fee should be paid separately in respect of each holding under Section 7 of the Act, even though the reliefs may be clubbed together under Section 6 (3) of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act. Cases of conspiracy among several tenants to defeat the claims of the landowner might however stand on a different footing. ILR (1959) Mad 252 (254) = (1958) 2 MLJ 536 = 71 Mad LW 754.

(2) Suit against several tenants of plaintiff for a declaration that tenants have no permanent rights of occupancy — Plaint alleging conspiracy and joint denial of title by all tenants of different parcels of lands. The suit is based on a single cause of action, viz., joint denial of title by all the defendants. To such a case section 6 (3) of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act has no application. (1958) 2 MLJ 412 (414).

(3) Petition of the trustee of several devasthanams — Property of those devasthanams acquired by Government by separate notifications — Petition to quash those notifications — Petitioner asserting rights as trustee — Identity of points to be decided could not impart unity to the right — Petitioner must file as many petitions as there were institutions whose right he sought to assert — Court-fee is to be paid under Section 6 (4) of the Madras Act. AIR 1957 Mad 570 (571) = (1957) 2 Mad LJ 145.

(4) Applicability — Agreement by defendant settling lands jointly on 24 persons — Latter in possession and cultivation but enjoying separate portions under arrangement among themselves inter se without reference to defendant — Interference by defendant with possession — Suit by all settlees jointly for declaration and injunction — Held, on facts, the plaintiffs got only a single joint right and interference by the defendant with that right constituted but one cause of action, there being only one subject-matter and the plaint did not comprise as many subjects as there were plaintiffs. No additional Court-fee need be paid. AIR 1962 Mad 416 (417) = (1962) 1 Mad LJ 172.

(5) Suit for partition of two properties — One property claimed by plaintiff through mother—Other property claimed through grandfather — Held, claim to two properties related to two distinct causes of action and separate court-fee must be paid upon each under Section 6. (1963) 76 Mad LW 257 (258).

Section 7 — Note 1

(1) Plaintiff purchasing land adjacent to defendants' factory from the defendant — Land characterised as ryotwari land in the patta secured by plaintiff from Government in respect of the land — Suit for possession by plaintiff against defendant — Land valued for Court-fee purposes as ryotwari land under Section 7 (2) (a) of Madras Court Fees Act 1955 — Held, land was valued properly — Court could not take into consideration the probabilities of its use in future

(2) The market value of land in suits falling under Sections 25 (a), 25 (b), 27 (a), 29, 30, 37 (1), 37 (3), 38, 45 or 48 shall be deemed to be—

(a) where the land is ryotwari land—thirty times the survey assessment on the land:

Provided that, where the land forms part of a survey field and is not separately assessed to revenue, the value of such part shall be deemed to be thirty times such proportion of the survey assessment as the part bears to the entire survey field.

Explanation.—Lands in the areas in which the Malabar Tenancy Act, 1929, is in force shall be regarded as ryotwari lands.

(b) where the land is situated in an estate as defined in sub-section (2) of Sec. 3 of the Tamil Nadu Estates Land Act, 1908, not being a land of the description mentioned in sub-clause (g) and such estate has been taken over by the Government under the Tamil Nadu Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1948—thirty times the land revenue payable on the land under Section 23 of that Act; but if a ryotwari settlement has since been effected in pursuance of Section 22 of that Act; in respect of such land, thirty times the assessment as so fixed;

(c) Where the land is situated in an estate which became an estate under the Tamil Nadu Estates Land (Third Amendment) Act, 1936—thirty times the rent payable for the land as fixed under the Tamil Nadu Estates Land (Reduction of Rent) Act, 1947.

(d) where the land is an 'estate' as defined in the Tamil Nadu Estates Land Act, 1908—

(i) where separate peishkush is recorded in the Collector's register as payable for the estate—thirty times peishkush;

(ii) in any other case—thirty times the annual melvaram, realizable from the estate;

(e) where the land is a minor inam held under inam title deed—thirty times the assessment as noted in the village 'B' Register;

(f) where the land is in an inam village which is not an 'estate' as defined in sub-sec. (2) of Section 3 of the Tamil Nadu Estates Land Act, 1908—thirty times the rent payable in respect of it;

(g) where the land is a house site whether assessed to full revenue or not, poramboke land, or is land not falling within the foregoing description—its market value.

*[(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), the market value of land, building or garden in the transferred territory shall, in cases of dispute, be deemed to be ten times the difference between the annual gross profits of such land, building or garden where it is capable of yielding annual profits and the assessment, if any, due to the State Government.]

and its potentialities and value it under Section 7 (2) (g). (1968) 81 MLW 502 (503).

(2) In any case of dispute regarding the quantum of a tax or any other financial burden between a subject and the State, the burden is on the State to show that the larger quantum is leviable and not the smaller one. (1958) 2 Mad LJ 536 (537) = 71 Mad LW 754.

(3) Several holdings leased to different persons — Suit by landlord against lessees — No conspiracy between the tenants — Cause of action against each lessee is different and distinct, relating to each lease — Court-fee should be paid separately in respect of each holding under Section 7 of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act even when the suits are clubbed under Section 6 (3). (1958) 2 Mad LJ 536 (537) = 71 Mad LW 754.

8. Set-off or counter-claim.—A written statement pleading a set-off or counter-claim shall be chargeable with fee in the same manner as a plaint.

9. Documents falling under two or more descriptions.—Subject to the provisions of the last preceding section, a document falling within two or more descriptions in this Act shall, where the fees chargeable thereunder are different, be chargeable only with the highest of such fees:

Provided that where one of such descriptions is special and another general, the fee chargeable shall be fee appropriate to the special description.

CHAPTER III

DETERMINATION OF FEE

10. Statement of particulars of subject-matter of suit and plaintiff's valuation thereof.—In every suit in which the fee payable under this Act on the plaint depends on the market value of the subject-matter of the suit, the plaintiff shall file with the plaint, a statement in the prescribed form, of particulars of the subject-

Section 8 — Note 1

(1) Counter-claim differs from set-off in the following respects —

(1) Set-off is limited to money claims but there is no such limitation in the case of counter-claims.

(2) Set-off is a ground for defence. Counter-claim, is not really a defence to the plaintiff's claim but is a weapon of defence enabling the defendant to enforce his right or claim against the plaintiff as effectively as an independent action of his own.

(3) The plea of the defendant to the extent to which it operates on an extinguishment of plaintiff's claim is in the nature of set-off while in respect of the balance claimed by the defendant it partakes of the character of counter-claim. AIR 1967 Mad 300 (301) = (1966) 1 Mad LJ 200.

(2) The right to a set-off is the right to plead a debt or a money claim due from the plaintiff in deduction or extinction of the plaintiff's claim. A plea of set-off can exist only where both the plaintiff's and defendant's claims are for recovery of money. AIR 1967 Mad 300 (301) = (1966) 1 Mad LJ 200.

(3) Defendant claiming a set-off in a suit by plaintiff has to pay Court-fee on the amount of set-off. 79 Mad LW 159 (162) = ILR (1966) 2 Mad 636.

(4) Any claim in respect of which the defendant could bring an independent separate action against the plaintiff can form the subject-matter of a plea of counter claim. Provided such a plea can be conveniently tried with the plaintiffs' claim. AIR 1967 Mad 300 (301) = (1966) 1 Mad LJ 200.

(5) Every defence will not constitute a counter-claim. A person who has a right not enforceable by an action but in some other way cannot enforce that right by a counter-claim. AIR 1967 Mad 300 (303) = (1966) 1 Mad LJ 200.

(6) A plea for value of improvements by the alienee in a suit for partition by the plaintiff is not a counter-claim. AIR 1967 Mad 300 (301) = (1966) 1 Mad LJ 200.

(7) Counter-claim can be made in a suit for injunction, specific performance or for a declaration. AIR 1967 Mad 300 (301) = (1966) 1 Mad LJ 200.

(8) Suit for partition and separate possession — No question of plea of set-off can arise. AIR 1967 Mad 300 (301) = (1966) 1 Mad LJ 200.

(9) A claim by a defendant in a suit for possession of property that he should be paid the cost of improvements effected by him as a condition of the decree for possession, is neither a claim for set-off nor one by way of counter-claim and Section 8 of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act cannot apply to such claims. AIR 1961 Mad 527 (528) = (1961) 2 Mad LJ 34. (AIR 1961 Mad 355. Distinguished.)

(10) Counter-claim — Suit for redemption — Claim by defendants for value of improvements alleged to have been effected by him is in nature of counter-claim against plaintiff — Court-fee on claim is payable by defendant. AIR 1961 Mad 355 (355) = 73 Mad LW 665.

(11) Suit for the recovery of money—Defence that there was extinction of plaintiff's liability under settlement long anterior to suit leaving claim against plaintiff — The defendant in claiming adjustment of debt in his written statement and claiming a difference as due to him has to pay Court-fee only on the difference he claimed. (1966) 79 Mad LW 159 (162) = ILR (1966) 2 Mad 636.

Section 9 — Note 1

(1) Partnership already dissolved — Plaint praying for partition and separate possession of half share in partnership assets after providing for debts of firm — The suit is for accounts of a dissolved partnership — Court-fee is payable under Section 36 (1) and not Section 37 (2). 72 Mad L W 172 (173, 174) = (1959) 1 Mad LJ 224.

matter of the suit and his valuation thereof unless such particulars and the valuation are contained in the plaint.

11. Decision as to proper fee in the High Court.—Where, in a suit instituted in the High Court, in which a fee is payable under this Act, any difference arises between the officer whose duty it is to see that proper fee is paid and any party as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof, the question shall be referred to the Taxing Officer who shall decide the same:

Provided that, if in the opinion of the Taxing Officer, the question is one of general importance, he may refer it to the Chief Justice of the High Court or such Judge or Judges of the High Court as the Chief Justice shall appoint, either generally or specially in this behalf:

Provided further that, when the case comes up for disposal before the Court, the decision of the Taxing Officer may be reviewed by the Court.

12. Decision as to proper fee in other Courts.—(1) In every suit instituted in any Court other than the High Court, the Court shall, before ordering the plaint to be registered, decide on the materials and allegations contained in the plaint and on the materials contained in the statement, if any, filed under Section 10 the proper fee payable thereon, the decision being, however, subject to review, further review and correction in the manner specified in the succeeding sub-sections.

(2) Any defendant may, by his written statement filed before the first hearing of the suit or before evidence is recorded on the merits of the claim but subject to the next succeeding sub-section, not later, plead that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient. All questions arising on such pleas shall be heard and decided before evidence is recorded affecting such defendant, on the merits of the claim. If the Court decides

(1) Ordinarily there are three stages at which a Court can enquire into the question whether a plaint or appeal has been properly valued. They are: (a) Before the registration of the plaint or appeal. In such cases it will be open to the Court to review correct and further review its decision in the manner specified in Section 12 (1) of the Madras Court-fees Act; (b) After the suit or appeal has been registered an issue on the question of Court-fee can be raised by the defendant or respondent and the Court should decide the matter. In such cases the decision will be binding on the Court that rendered it unless a fresh decision is asked for by the Court-fee Examiner; (c) On the objection of Court-fee Examiners under Section 18 of the Act, when a decision has been given on the report of the Court-fee Examiner no further review or reconsideration is possible except by an appellate Court under Section 12 (4) of the Act. 73 Mad LW 625 (628) = (1960) 2 MLJ 527.

(2) The duty of assessing deficit court-fee rests on the Court and not on the court-fee examiner — The Court while assessing the deficit court-fee ought to give full reasons for its assessment. (1958) 2 Mad LJ 536 (537) = 71 MLW 754.

(3) The word 'plead' used in the section is wider than, and is not restricted only to, the written statement. A defendant has opportunity to raise an objection relating to court-fee either at the time of filing his written statement or subsequently by a petition supported by an affidavit before the evidence is recorded. (1958) 71 Mad LW 116 (118) = (1958) 1 Mad LJ 308.

(4) Plaintiff ordered to pay deficit Court-fee — Plaintiff can file a revision against the order without waiting for a dismissal of suit for default in payment and then file an appeal. AIR 1959 Mad 155 (156) = (1959) 1 Mad LJ 151.

(5) Though the new sub-sections (2) and (3) of Section 12 (Madras Amendment, 1955), give a statutory right to the defendant to raise objections to the adequacy of the court-fee paid by the plaintiff, in practice, so far as mofussil Courts are concerned, there has been no startling departure and in fact what was being done in practice has been placed on a statutory basis now. The field of investigation in regard to court-fees is confined practically to the determination of two points, viz., under-estimation of the subject of suit and the category under which it should fall for the purpose of court-fee, and cannot be larger than what it was before. AIR 1958 Mad 573 (575, 576) = (1958) 1 Mad LJ 21.

(6) Partition suit — Deficit court-fee — Court granting time to pay — Default — One of defendants applying to be transposed as plaintiff and offering to pay court-fee — Court has jurisdiction to allow application — Plaint though imperfect is still valid for purposes of order for that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient, the Court shall fix a date before which the plaint shall be amended in accordance with the Court's decision and the deficit fee shall be paid. If the plaint be not amended or if the deficit fee be not paid within the time allowed, the plaint shall be rejected and the Court shall pass such order as it deems just regarding costs of the suit.

(3) A defendant added after issues have been framed on the merits of the claim may, in the written statement filed by him, plead that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient. All questions, arising on such pleas shall be heard and decided before evidence is recorded affecting such defendant on the merits of the claim, and if the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has not been properly valued or that the fee paid is not sufficient, the Court shall follow the procedure laid down in sub-section (2).

Explanation.—Nothing in this sub-section shall apply to a defendant added as a successor or a representative-in-interest of a defendant who was on record before issues were framed on the merits of the claim and who had an opportunity to file a written statement pleading that the subject-matter of the suit was not properly valued or that the fee paid was not sufficient.

(4) (a) Whenever a case comes up before a Court of Appeal, it shall be lawful for the Court either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties, to consider the correctness of any order passed by the lower Court affecting the fee payable on the plaint or in any other proceeding in the lower Court and determine the proper fee payable thereon.

Explanation.—A case shall be deemed to come before a Court of Appeal even if the appeal relates only to a part of the subject-matter of the suit.

(b) If the Court of Appeal decides that the fee paid in the lower Court is not sufficient, the Court shall require the party liable to pay the deficit fee within such time as may be fixed by it.

(c) If the deficit fee is not paid within the time fixed and the default is in respect of a relief which has been dismissed by the lower Court and which the appellant seeks in appeal, the appeal shall be dismissed, but if the default is in respect of a relief which has been decreed by the lower Court, the deficit fee shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

(d) If the fee paid in the lower Court is in excess, the Court shall direct the refund of the excess to the party who is entitled to it.

(5) All questions as to value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts arising on the written statement of a defendant shall be heard and decided before evidence is recorded affecting such defendant on the merits of the claim.

transposition — O. 1, R. 10 (2) gives wide discretion. AIR 1966 Ker 150 (160) = 1966 Ker LT 199.

(7) There is no provision in the Madras Court-fees Act or any other statute which enables a defendant to move High Court in revision against the decision of the Court of first instance on the matter of Court-fee payable on the plaint. Section 12 (2) only enables the defendant to raise a contention as to the proper Court-fee payable on the plaint. AIR 1961 SC 1299 (1300) = (1961) 3 SCR 1015.

(8) Defendant cannot challenge the discretion exercised by the trial Court in the matter of granting time for payment of the Court-fee. AIR 1966 Ker 150 (158) = 1966 Ker LT 199.

(9) Suit for accounts of dissolved partnership — Plaintiff's estimate not sham — Court would be bound to accept estimate under Section 36 (1) the value to be adopted is the plaintiff's estimate and the power of the Court would not extend beyond ascertaining the real value from the documents referred to in Section 12 (1). AIR 1960 Mad 260 (261) = (1960) 1 Mad LJ 468.

(10) Objection as to adequacy of court-fee paid — Can be raised after issue of a commission under O. 26 of the Civil P. C. for examination of plaintiff — Sub-section (3) of Section 12 does not preclude the question being raised at that stage. (1966) 2 Mad LJ 551 (554) = 80 Mad LW 31.

Explanation.—In this section, the expression "merits of the claim" refers to matters which arise for determination in the suit not being matters relating to the frame of the suit, misjoinder of parties and causes of action, the jurisdiction of the Court to entertain or try the suit or the fee payable but inclusive of matters arising on pleas of res judicata, limitation and the like.

13. Additional fee on issues framed.—Where a party becomes liable to pay additional fee by reason of an issue framed in the suit, the provisions of the last foregoing section shall apply to the determination and levy of such additional fee subject to the modification that where the party liable does not pay such additional fee within the time allowed, the Court shall strike off the issue and proceed to hear and decide the other issues in the case.

14. Relinquishment of portion of claim.—A plaintiff who has been called upon to pay additional fee may relinquish a part of his claim and apply to have the plaint amended so that the fee paid would be adequate for the claim made in the plaint as amended. The Court shall allow such application on such terms as it considers just and shall proceed to hear and decide the claim made in the plaint as amended, provided that the plaintiff shall not be permitted at any later stage of the suit to add to the claim the part so relinquished.

15. Fee payable on written statements.—Where fee is payable under this Act on a written statement filed by a defendant, the provisions of Section 12 shall apply to the determination and levy of the fee payable on such written statement, the defendants concerned being regarded for the said purpose as the plaintiff or the co-defendant or the third party against whom the claim is made being regarded as the defendant.

16. Fee payable on appeals, etc.—The provisions of Sections 10 to 14 relating to the determination and levy of fee on plaints in suits shall apply mutatis mutandis to the determination and levy of fee in respect of a memorandum of appeal, cross-objection or other proceeding in second appeal or in an appeal under the Letters Patent.

17. Fee payable on petitions, applications, etc.—The provisions of Sections 10 to 14 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the determination and levy of fee in respect of petitions, applications and other proceedings in Courts in the same way as they apply to the determination and levy of fee on plaints in suits.

18. Court-fee Examiners.—(1) The High Court may depute officers to be designated court-fee examiners to inspect the records of subordinate Courts with a view to examine the correctness of representations made to, and orders passed by Courts on questions relating to valuation of subject-matter and sufficiency of fee in respect of proceedings in such Courts.

Section 16 — Note 1

(1) With regard to a memorandum of appeal the stage at which an appellate Court can interfere on a matter relating to Court-fee is prior to the registration of the appeal. After the registration of an appeal it is only by means of an objection taken by the respondent or with regard to a request for a decision by the Court-fee Examiner under Section 18 that the appellate Court can review the Court-fee paid — Otherwise it has no power suo motu to do so. 76 Mad LW 504 (505) = (1963) 2 Mad LJ 59.

Section 18 — Note 1

(1) Court can consider the question of proper court-fee on an objection of the Court-fee examiner under Sec. 18 of the Act, when a decision has been given on the report of the court-fee examiner, no further review or reconsideration is possible except by an appellate Court under Section 12 (4) of the Act. ILR (1961) Mad 369 (376) = (1960) 2 MLJ 527.

(2) With regard to a memorandum of appeal, after the registration of the appeal it is only by means of an objection taken by the respondent or with regard to a request for a decision by the Court-fee Examiner under Section 18 of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act, that the Court could review the court-fee paid. Otherwise it has no power suo motu to do so. (1963) 2 MLJ 59 (60) = 76 Mad LW 504.

(2) Questions raised in reports submitted by such Court-fee Examiners and relating to any suit, appeal or other proceeding pending in a Court shall be heard and decided by such Court; and for the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that in hearing and deciding a question raised in any such report it shall be lawful for the Court to review an earlier decision given by the Court on the same question.

19. Inquiry and commission.—For the purpose of deciding whether the subject-matter of a suit or other proceeding has been properly valued or whether the fee paid is sufficient the Court may hold such inquiry as it considers proper and may, if it thinks fit, issue a commission to any proper person directing him to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court.

20. Notice to the State Government.—In any inquiry relating to the fee payable on a plaint, written statement, petition, memorandum of appeal or other document, or to the valuation of the subject-matter of the claim to which the plaint, written statement, petition, memorandum of appeal or other document relates, in so far as such valuation affects the fee payable, the Court may, if it considers it just or necessary to do so, give notice to the State Government and where such notice is given, the State Government shall be deemed to be a party to the suit or other proceeding as respect the determination of the question or questions aforesaid; and the Court's decision on such question or questions shall, when it passes a decree or final order in such suit or proceeding, be deemed to form part of such decree or final order.

CHAPTER IV

COMPUTATION OF FEE

21. Fee how reckoned.—The fee payable under this Act shall be determined or computed in accordance with the provisions of Chapter VI, Chapter VIII and Schedules I and II.

*[21-A. Fee to be computed to the nearest multiple of five paise.—In the determination or computation of the amount of fee payable under this Act, any fraction of five paise less than two and a half paise shall be disregarded and any fraction of five paise equal to, or exceeding two and a half paise shall be regarded as five paise.]

*Inserted by T. N. Act 9 of 1960, S. 2 (w.e.f. 1-4-1960).

22. Suits for money.—In a suit for money (including a suit for damages or compensation, or arrears of maintenance, annuities, or of other sums payable periodically), fee shall be computed on the amount claimed.

*[Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expression "suit for money" shall, in respect of the transferred territory, also include suits for rent, pattom, michavaram, adukkurathu, jenmikaram, or other dues of a like nature.]

[*] Added by T. N. Act 22 of 1965, Section 4 and Schedule II (w.e.f. 1-7-1966).

23. Suits for maintenance and annuities.—In the suits hereinafter mentioned fee shall be computed as follows:—

(a) in a suit for maintenance, on the amount claimed to be payable for one year;

Section 23 — Note 1

(1) Reading Sections 23 and 40 of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act together, it is clear that there cannot be two different standards of valuation for purposes of claiming maintenance and for cancellation of a decree for maintenance. In either case the amount claimed or decreed for one year will be the basis of valuation. In such cases it is not proper to treat the maintenance decree-holder as the holder of a life estate and claim court-fee on the basis of an actual calculation based on the expectancy of life. AIR 1959 Mad 432 (433) = (1958) 2 Mad LJ 159.

(b) in a suit for enhancement or reduction of maintenance, on the amount by which the annual maintenance is sought to be enhanced or reduced;

(c) in a suit for annuities or other sums payable, periodically on five times the amount claimed to be payable for one year:

Provided that, where the annuity is payable for less than five years, the fees shall be computed on the aggregate of the sums payable:

Provided further that a suit for enhancement of maintenance shall be instituted in a Court which will have jurisdiction to receive a suit for maintenance at the enhanced rate claimed and one for reduction of maintenance shall be instituted in a Court which will have jurisdiction to receive a suit for maintenance at the rate which is sought to be reduced.

24. Suits for movable property.—(1) In a suit for movable property other than documents of title, fee shall be computed—

(a) where the subject-matter has a market value, on such value; or

(b) where the subject-matter has no market value, on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint.

(2) (a) In a suit for possession of documents of title, fee shall be computed on one-fourth of the amount or of the market value of the property secured by the document—

(i) where the plaint alleges denial of the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document, or

(ii) where an issue is framed regarding the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document:

Provided that where the allegation in the plaint or the issue framed relates only to a portion of the amount or property, fee shall be computed on one-fourth of such portion of the amount or on one-fourth of the market value of such portion of the property.

(b) In a suit for possession of documents of title where the plaintiff's title to the money or the property secured by the document is not denied, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint.

Explanation.—The expression "document of title" means a document which purports or operates to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish, whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest whether vested or contingent, in any property.

25. Suits for declaration.—In suit for a declaratory decree or order, whether with or without consequential relief, not falling under Section 26—

(a) where the prayer is for a declaration and for possession of the property to which the declaration relates, fee shall be computed on the market value of the property or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher;

Section 25 — Note 1

(1) Section 25 (a) and (b) deal with tangible rights in immovable property or where substantial question as to the title of immovable property is involved. Whereas Sec. 25 (d) deals with intangible rights concerning immovable property where no investigation regarding title to the property is necessary. (1967) 2 Mad LJ 536 (537) = 80 Mad LW 393.

(2) The provisions of Section 25 (a) apply where the prayer is for declaration and exclusive possession of the property. (1961) 2 MLJ 481 (482).

(3) Suit for declaration and prayer for possession as a consequential relief — Appeal falls under Section 25 (a). ILR (1961) Mad 369 (378) = (1960) 2 Mad LJ 527.

(4) Lessees holding land under single agreement with defendant — Lessees subsequently holding portions of land separately under agreement inter se between them — Interference with their possession by defendant — Suit by lessees against defendant for declaration and injunction — Plaint valued under Section 25 (b) — Held, there was only one agreement between the plaintiffs

(b) where the prayer is for a declaration and for consequential injunction and the relief sought is with reference to any immovable property, fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher;

(c) where the prayer relates to the plaintiff's exclusive right to use, sell, print or exhibit any mark, name, book, picture, design or other things and is based on an infringement of such exclusive right, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees five hundred, whichever is higher;

(d) in other cases, whether the subject-matter of the suit is capable of valuation or not, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees four hundred, whichever is higher.

and the defendant — Interference with possession under that agreement could only be one cause of action — There was only one subject-matter — The Court-fee paid was proper. AIR 1962 Mad 416 (417) = (1962) 1 Mad LJ 172.

(5) The plaint asked for a declaration that the decrees obtained against the first defendant on the foot of the mortgage were null and void and not binding on the plaintiff.

Held, the plaints fell within the ambit of Sections 25 (b) and not 25 (d) of Madras Act 14 of 1955 and Court-fee should be paid on the valuation of the suits assessed on that basis. The plaints have to be regarded as asking for reliefs with reference to immovable properties. Without deciding question of title it is impossible to dispose of the suits. (1963) 1 Mad LJ 219 = ILR (1963) Mad 368 (371).

(6) Section 38 would apply only to cases where joint possession is sought as substantive relief and not as a consequential one. Where joint possession is sought as a consequential relief there is no specific provision in the Act and it is the residuary provisions of Secton 25 (d) that would apply to such cases. (1961) 2 Mad LJ 481.

(7) Suit against several tenants of plaintiff for a declaration that tenants have no permanent rights of occupancy — Plaint alleging conspiracy and joint denial of title by all tenants of different parcels of land — Suit is based on a single cause of action viz., joint denial of title by all the defendants — Section 6 (3) of Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act has no application — Court-fees paid under Section 25 (d) held proper. (1958) 2 Mad LJ 412 (413).

(8) Suit for declaration that the plaintiff also was a trustee of the property and as such was entitled to joint possession along with the defendant — Relief for possession was a consequential relief and not a substantive relief — Suit not being provided for, will fall under a residuary clause (d) of Section 25. (1961) 2 Mad LJ 481 (483).

(9) Wakf Board appointing committee only to keep watch on management of wakf property by Mutawalli — Suit by Mutawali for declaration that order appointing committee is not valid and for injunction to restrain it from interfering with his management — Section 25 (d) applies and not Section 28. 77 Mad LW 351 = (1965) 1 Mad LJ 278 (279).

(10) Where the purchaser of a property files a suit only for a declaration that an equitable mortgage created by his vendor was not binding on him he is entitled to pay Court-fee under Section 25 (d) and is not liable to pay Court-fee under Section 40 of the Madras Court-fees Act for cancellation of the equitable mortgage to which he was not a party. (1964) 1 Mad LJ 152 (153).

(11) Suit for declaration of rental rights — No adjudication regarding title — Adjudication regarding intangible rights only — Valuation of the suit — Court-fees to be paid not on market value of the property under Section 25 (a) or (b) but under Cl. (d). (1967) 2 Mad LJ 536 (538) = 80 Mad LW 393.

(12) A suit for a declaration that a particular business carried on under a specified name and style belongs to the plaintiff and that the defendants have no right to interfere with the same is one in respect of an intangible right and will fall within Section 26 (d) of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act, 1955. 75 Mad LW 531 = (1962) 2 Mad LJ 420 (420).

(13) Plaintiff suing for declaration that he was entitled as of right to be in possession of property as he had taken an assignment of lease from the lessee the defendant — Held, the plaintiff was in fact claiming rental rights which means that he was seeking relief on a contract of lease — The main relief asked for came within Sec. 42 (c) and court-fee is as payable under Section 25 (d). (1967) 2 Mad LJ 536 (537, 538) = 80 Mad LW 393.

Cases prior to 1955 Act

(14) Suit for declaration of title to immovable property and for injunction falls under the proviso and court-fee is payable on half the value of the immov-

26. Adoption suits.—In a suit for a declaration in regard to the validity or invalidity o an adoption or the factum of an adoption, fee shall be payable at the following rates:—

(i) In the District Munsif's Court	Rupees fifty.
(ii) In the City Civil Court Madras, or a Sub-Court or a District Court	Rupees one hundred if the property involved in or affected by the relief is Rs, 10,000 or less and rupees five hundred if it is above Rs. 10,000.
iii) In the High Court	Rupees five hundred.

27. Suits for injunction.—In a suit for injunction—

(a) where the relief sought is with reference to the immovable property, and

(i) where the plaintiff alleges that his title to the property is denied, or

(ii) where an issue is framed regarding the plaintiff's title to the property, fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher;

(b) where the prayer relates to the plaintiff's exclusive right to use, sell, print or exhibit any mark, name, book, picture, design or other thing and is based on an infringement of such exclusive right, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees five hundred, whichever is higher;

able property computed in accordance with para (v) of Section 7. AIR 1925 Mad 1143 (1143)  AIR 1931 Mad 69 (70)  AIR 1948 Mad 344 (344).

(15) Proviso should be read with para (v) of Section 7 so as to make the words "with reference to" mean involving possession of land, houses or gardens. Proviso held to be inapplicable to a case where relief claimed was a declaration of right of easement. AIR 1927 Mad 348 (349)  AIR 1958 Andh Pra 106 (107).

(16) Words "the relief sought is with reference to any immovable property" in the proviso, should in some sense relate to the title to immovable property. AIR 1936 Mad 201 (202) = 59 Mad 962  AIR 1946 Mad 235 (236) = ILR (1946) Mad 885.

[See also AIR 1958 Andh Pra 106 (107). (Where, in a suit for a permanent injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with the plaintiff's enjoyment of the suit land by grazing their cattle thereon the only dispute is as to whether the plaintiff is entitled to rights of grazing or the contesting defendants are entitled to those rights, neither Section 7 (iv) (c) nor the Madras proviso applies. AIR 1946 Mad 235 = ILR (1946) Mad 885, Rel. on.)]

(17) It has been held that where a suit is brought by the mortgagor and puisne mortgagee for a declaration that the sale proposed to be held by the defendants mortgagees in pursuance of the power of sale vested in them under Section 69 of the Transfer of Property Act without the intervention of Court would be wrongful, illegal and void on account of the rights to which the plaintiffs, as agriculturists, would be entitled under debt relief legislation and for an injunction restraining the mortgagees from exercising the right until such time as the amount that really becomes payable under the mortgages is ascertained under the debt relief legislation, the proviso to Section 7 (iv) (c) has no application, and the plaintiffs are entitled to put up their own valuation for declaration and injunction. AIR 1955 Mad 676 (Prs. 9, 14) = ILR (1956) Mad 146 (DB).

(18) The words "relief sought" in the proviso must be read as relating to the words "consequential relief" in clause (c) of the main Act. AIR 1936 Mad 201 (202) = 59 Mad 962.

(19) Where the plaintiffs brought a suit in a representative capacity for a declaration that the scheme decided upon and sought to be published by the defendant Municipality under the Madras Town Planning Act was illegal and ultra vires and not binding upon the plaintiffs and for a permanent injunction prohibiting the defendant from enforcing all or any of the provisions of the scheme against the plaintiffs and paid a fixed court-fee under Sch. II, Art. 17 in respect of the declaration and in respect of the injunction court-fee under Section 7 (iv) (d) was paid, it was held that the declaration and injunction asked for could not be construed to be with reference to immovable properties affected by the scheme and therefore, the proviso to Section 7 (iv) (c) (Mad) had no application. AIR 1955 Mad 212 (Pr. 5).

(20) The proviso merely introduces a downward limit below which relief sought in respect of immovable property consequential on a declaratory decree shall not be valued. It does not lay down that if the relief sought properly falls within any other provision requiring a higher valuation, the higher valuation is not to be made. AIR 1932 Mad 605 (609) = 56 Mad 212 (DB).

(c) in any other case, whether the subject-matter of the suit has a market value or not, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or on rupees four hundred, whichever is higher.

28. Suits relating to trust property.—In a suit for possession or joint possession of trust property or for a declaratory decree, whether with or without consequential relief in respect of it, between trustees or rival claimants to the office of trustee or between a trustee and a person who has ceased to be a trustee, fee shall be computed on one-fifth of the market value of the property subject to a maximum fee of rupees two hundred or where the property has no market value, on rupees one thousand:

Provided that, where the property does not have a market value, value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be such amount as the plaintiff shall state in the plaint.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, property comprised in a Hindu, Muslim or other religious or charitable endowment shall be deemed to be trust property and the manager of any such property shall be deemed to be the trustee thereof.

29. Suits for possession under the Specific Relief Act, 1877.—In a suit for possession of immovable property under Section 9 of the Specific Relief Act, 1877 Central Act 1 of 1877)* fee shall be computed on one-half of the market value of the property or on rupees two hundred, whichever is higher.

[*] Now see Specific Relief Act, 1963 (47 of 1963) (1-3-1964).

30. Suits for possession not otherwise provided for.—In a suit for possession of immovable property not otherwise provided for, fee shall be computed on the market value of the property or on rupees four hundred, whichever is higher.

Section 28 — Note 1

(1) For the applicability of Section 28 the suit must be between trustees or rival claimants to the office of trustee or between a trustee and a person who had ceased to be a trustee. (1966) 2 Mad LJ 551 (555) = 80 Mad LW 31.

(2) A suit by a muttavalli praying for a declaration that the order of the Wakf Board appointing a committee to supervise the management of the Wakf by the muttavalli was not binding on him can be valued under S. 25(d) of the Court-fees Act (1955). It is not a suit between trustees or rival claimants to the office of the trustee. It need not be valued under Section 28 which will be attracted only if there is a dispute between the plaintiff and rival trustees to the office of the trustee (mutavalli). (1965) 1 Mad LJ 278 = ILR (1965) 1 Mad 308 (309).

(3) If a person in possession against whom a suit is filed by the trustee of the endowment has been a manager of the property as commonly understood the case would directly fall within the language of Section 28 read with explanations. (1966) 2 Mad LJ 551 (558) = 80 Mad LW 31.

(4) The provision of paying a court-fee on 1/5 of the market value of the property plus a ceiling of Rs. 200 is a fee payable at a fixed rate. 71 Mad LW 477 (478) = (1958) 2 Mad LJ 225.

Section 30 — Note 1

(1) The provisions of Section 30 of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act will apply only to cases when the plaintiff seeks exclusive possession. (1961) 2 Mad LJ 481 (482).

(2) If a person sues several lessees, who are recalcitrant, for recovering possession of the several holdings leased out to them and there is no conspiracy between them (lessees) against the plaintiff, it is obvious that there are different and distinct causes of action relating to each lease and holding and court-fee is payable under Section 30 even where the suits are clubbed under Section 6 (3). 71 MLW 754 (756) = (1958) 2 Mad LJ 536.

(3) In any case of dispute regarding the quantum of a tax or any other financial burden between a subject and the State the burden is on the State to show that the larger quantum is leviable and not the smaller one. 71 Mad LW 754 (756) = (1958) 2 Mad LJ 536.

(4) Suit for possession of land by vendee against vendor — Land characterised in revenue records as ryotwari lands — Court-fee payable is under Section 7 (2) (a) — Land in the hands of vendor was for purpose of building houses or factory — That will not be made a ground to invoke Section 7 (2) (a) in view of its being characterised as ryotwari land in revenue papers. (1968) 81 MLW 502 (503).

31. Suits relating to easements.—In a suit relating to an easement, whether by the dominant or the servient owner, fee shall be computed on the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint, which amount shall in no case be less than rupees three hundred:

Provided that, where compensation is claimed besides other relief relating to such easement, fee shall be paid on the amount claimed as compensation in addition to the fee payable on such other relief.

32. Pre-emption suits.—In a suit to enforce a right of pre-emption, fee shall be computed on the amount of the consideration for the sale which the pre-emptor seeks to avoid or on the market value, whichever is less.

33. Suits relating to mortgages.—(1) In a suit to recover the money due on a mortgage, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed.

Explanation.—It is immaterial that sale of the mortgaged property is not prayed for.

(2) Where in such a suit the holder of a prior mortgage or charge is impleaded and he prays in his written statement that the amount due on his mortgage or charge be determined and that the decree contains, a direction for the payment of such amount to him, fee shall be payable on the written statement computed on the amount claimed:

Provided that, where the holder of the mortgage or charge has paid a fee in any other proceeding on the claim to which his written statement relates, credit shall be given for the fee paid by him in such other proceeding.

(3) Where, in such a suit, the mortgaged property is sold and the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge applies for payment to him, out of the sale proceeds, of the amount due on his mortgage or charge, such holder of the prior or subsequent mortgage or charge shall pay on his application a fee computed on the amount claimed by him:

Provided that, where such holder of the mortgage or charge is a party to the suit in which the sale was held and has paid fee on the written statement filed by him in the suit, no fee shall be payable by him on the application for payment out of the sale proceeds:

Provided further that, where the holder of the mortgage or charge not being a party to the suit in which the sale is held, has paid a fee in any other proceed-

Section 33 — Note 1

(1) Section is applicable only where mortgaged property is sold in mortgage suit and holder of prior or subsequent mortgage applies for payment out of sale proceeds of the amount due on his mortgage or charge. (1966) 1 Mad LJ 211 (212) = ILR (1967) 2 Mad 109.

(2) Section 33 (3) is not applicable to cases where a decree-holder-mortgagee obtains permission to bid and set off and then applies for a sale certificate. (1966) 1 Mad LJ 211 (212) = ILR (1967) 2 Mad 109.

(3) Suit for redemption of Kanom — Court-fee was payable under sub-sec. (1) of Section 34 as calculated under the provisions of Section 33 — The plaintiff was bound under Section 33 (8) to pay Court-fee on the amount due on the mortgage as stated in the plaint or on one-fourth of the principal amount secured under the mortgage whichever was higher. 1958 KLT 894 (895) = 1958 Ker LJ 1025. (Redemption of part of the mortgaged property claimed — Fee paid was more than 1/4 amount secured under the deed — Fee held sufficient.)

(4) Scope — Suit for redemption of mortgage and for accounts — Allegation in plaint that documents in question though executed as sale-deeds, operated only as mortgages — Held, there was no need of cancellation of sale-deeds and, therefore, payment of Court-fees on that basis was not necessary — Court-fee paid for the relief of redemption under Section 33 (8) was held proper. AIR 1970 Mad 107 (107) = (1969) 1 Mad LJ 151. (C. R. P. 1764 of 1961 (Mad), Overruled.)

(5) Where a Court grants a mortgage decree subject to the rights of the prior mortgagee who is a party to the suit — The prior mortgagee is not required to pay Court-fee on his written statement stating that he was a prior and not a puisne mortgagee. 1961 Mad WN 304 = (1961) 1 Mad LJ 352 (352).

ing on the claim to which his application relates, credit shall be given for the fee paid by him in such other proceeding.

(4) In a suit by a co-mortgagee for the benefit of himself and the other co-mortgagees, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed on the entire mortgage:

Provided that, where a co-mortgagee impleaded as defendant in such suit claims on the entire mortgage a larger sum than is claimed in the plaint, the difference between the fee computed on the entire sum claimed in such defendant's written statement and the fee computed on the entire sum claimed in the plaint shall be payable on the written statement.

Explanation.—Nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as affecting the law of limitation.

(5) (a) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee to recover the amount claimed on the sub-mortgagee's interest in the mortgaged property, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed under the sub-mortgage.

(b) In a suit by a sub-mortgagee, if the prayer is for the sale of the property mortgaged to the original mortgagee and the original mortgagor is also impleaded as a defendant, fee shall be computed on the entire amount claimed on the original mortgage which is sub-mortgaged to him.

(6) Where the holder of a prior or subsequent mortgage or charge is impleaded in a suit by a co-mortgagee to which sub-section (4) applies, or in a suit by a sub-mortgagee to which sub-section (5) applies, the provisions, sub-sections (2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis to a written statement or an application filed by such holder of mortgage or charge.

(7) Where the original mortgagee who is impleaded in a suit to which the provisions of sub-section (5) (b) apply claims on the mortgage sub-mortgaged by him, a larger amount than is claimed in the plaint, the provisions of sub-section (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis to the written statement of such mortgagor.

(8) In a suit against a mortgagee for redemption of a mortgage, fee shall be computed on the amount due on the mortgage as stated in the plaint or on one-fourth of the principal amount secured under the mortgage, whichever is higher:

Provided that, where the amount due on the mortgage is found to be more than the amount on which fee has been paid by the plaintiff, no decree shall be passed until the deficit fee is paid:

Provided further that, in the case of a usufructuary or anomalous mortgage, if the plaintiff prays for redemption as well as for accounts of surplus profits, fee shall be levied separately on the relief for accounts as in a suit for accounts.

(9) In a suit by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage or, where the mortgage is made by conditional sale, to have the sale declared absolute, fee shall be computed on the amount claimed in the plaint by way of principal and interest.

34. Suits relating to kanams [ * *].—(1) A suit by a landlord for recovery of possession of property transferred by way of kanam or kanam kuzhikanam shall be deemed to involve the reliefs of redemption and ejectment, and fee shall be levied in respect of each of the reliefs, that is to say, on the kanartham in respect of the relief of redemption and on one year's michavaram or rent in respect of the relief of ejectment.

(2) If in any such suit, arrears of michavaram or rent or damages or both are also sought to be recovered, fee shall be levied also on the amount of such arrears or damages or both:

Provided that where the plaintiff seeks to set off the kanartham and the value of the improvements due by him to the defendant against arrears of michavaram or rent due to him, fee shall be levied only on the balance claimed; and if the amount ascertained to be due to him exceeds the amount as estimated by the plaintiff, no decree shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the amount so ascertained is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court may fix, the decree shall be limited to the amount to which the fee paid extends.

(1) Suits relating to kanoms under Malabar Tenancy Act 1929 are governed by Section 34 of the Madras Court-Fees Act. 1958 Ker LJ 1025 = 1958 Ker LT 894 (894).

*[(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), in respect of the transferred territory, in a suit for ejectment of a kanom holder or a tenant, who has a right to permanent occupancy, or is enjoying under a perpetual lease or under a lease for a term exceeding 25 years, fee shall be computed according to the market value of the subject matter.]

* Words 'under the Malabar Tenancy Act 1929,' omitted and sub-section (3) inserted by T. N. Act 22 of 1965, Section 4 and Sch. II (w. e. f. 1-7-1966).

35. Suits for accounts.—(1) In a suit for accounts, fee shall be computed on the amount sued for as estimated in the plaint.

(2) Where the amount payable to the plaintiff as ascertained in the suit is in excess of the amount as estimated in the plaint, no decree directing payment of the amount as so ascertained shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the amount so ascertained, is paid. If the additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court may fix, the decree shall be limited to the amount to which the fee paid extends.

(3) Where in any such suit it is found that any amount is payable to the defendant, no decree shall be passed in his favour until he pays the fee due on the amount.

36. Suits for dissolution of partnership.—(1) In a suit for dissolution of partnership and accounts or for accounts of dissolved partnership, fee shall be computed on the value of the plaintiff's share in the partnership as estimated by the plaintiff.

(2) If the value of the plaintiff's share as ascertained in the suit exceeds the value as estimated in the plaint, no decree, or where there has been a preliminary decree, no final decree, shall be passed in favour of the plaintiff, no payment shall be made out of the assets of the partnership and no property shall be allotted as for the plaintiff's share until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the value so ascertained, is paid.

(1) Scope — Suit for redemption of mortgage and for accounts — Allegation in plaint that documents in question, though executed as sale-deeds, operated only as mortgages — Held, there was no need of cancellation of sale-deeds and, therefore, payment of Court-fees on that basis was not necessary — The Court-fee for relief of redemption paid under Section 33 (8) and for relief of accounting under Section 35 (1) was held proper. AIR 1970 Mad 107 (107) = (1969) 1 Mad LJ 151.

Section 36 — Note 1

(1) Plaint praying for partition and separate possession of half share in partnership assets after providing for debts of firm — The suit is for accounts of dissolved partnership — Court-fee is payable under Section 36 (1) which is specific provision for such suits and not Section 37 (2). (1959) 1 MLJ 224 = 72 Mad LW 172 (173).

(2) Suit for accounts of dissolved partnership. If the estimate given by a plaintiff is on the face of it a sham one or so obviously wrong the Court can ask the plaintiff to make a proper estimate. But mere inaccuracy in the estimate will not make it a sham one. Reality and not accuracy is the test for ascertaining a proper valuation under Section 36 (1) of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act. AIR 1960 Mad 260 (261, 262) = (1960) 1 Mad LJ 468.

(3) Suits for accounts of dissolved partnership governed by Sections 32 and 33 of the Andhra Pradesh Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act — Section 33 of the above Act corresponds to Section 36 of the Madras Court-fees Act — Valuation by plaintiff — Court has no power to direct plaintiff to amend valuation in suits falling under Sections 32 and 33 — Section 11, not applicable to suits governed by those sections. AIR 1962 Andh Pra 449 (451, 452) = (1962) 1 Andh LT 348.

(3) No final decree shall be passed, no money shall be paid and no allotment of property shall be made in favour of a defendant in any such suit as, for or on account of, his share of the assets of the partnership, until the fee computed on the amount or value of his share of the assets of the partnership, is paid.

37. Partition suits.—(1) In a suit for partition and separate possession of a share of joint family property or of property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who has been excluded from possession of such property, fee shall be computed on the market value of the plaintiff's share.

(2) In a suit for partition and separate possession of joint family property or property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who is in joint possession of such property, fee shall be paid at the following rates:

When the plaint is presented to :—

(i) a District Muniff's Court.—	Rupees thirty;
(ii) the City Civil Court, Madras, or a Sub-Court or a District Court.	Rupees thirty if the value of plaintiff's share is Rs. 5,000 or less. Rupees one hundred if the value is above Rs. 5,000 but below Rs. 10,000 ; and Rupees two hundred if the value is Rs. 10,000 and above.
(iii) the High Court	Rupees three hundred.

(3) Where, in a suit falling under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), a defendant claims partition and separate possession of his share of the property, fee shall be payable on his written statement computed on half the market value of his share or at half the rates specified in sub-section (2), according as such defendant has been excluded from the possession or is in joint possession.

(4) Where, in a suit falling under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the plaintiff or the defendant seeks cancellation of decree or other document of the nature specified in Section 40, separate fee shall be payable on the relief of cancellation in the manner specified in that section.

Section 37 — Note 1

(1) Mere appropriation of profits of the property or even exclusive use or possession of the property by one co-sharer, does not amount to "exclusion" of other co-sharers from possession for which an intention of the co-sharer to keep the others out of possession is an essential element. 1959 Ker LT 412 (413) = ILR (1959) Ker 315.

(2) Where the plaintiff is claiming possession from a third party alienee or from a member of the family so long as he cannot claim joint possession he is liable to pay Court-fee under Section 37 (1). (1964) 77 Mad LW 687 = 1964 Mad WN 674 (676).

(3) Final decree in partition suit — Decree directing payment of mesne profits — Mesne profits are not under O. 20, Rule 12 but form part of the property available for partition — Appeal from decree — Appellant need not pay separate Court-fee on the amount of mesne profits in dispute. (1968) Ker LJ 549 = 1968 Ker LR 598 (601).

(4) Defendants in possession — Suit by plaintiff for partition and possession of his share claiming as co-sharer — No claim of adverse possession by defendant — Plaintiff deemed to be in joint possession — Suit falls under Section 37 (2) of the Court Fees Act and need not pay ad valorem Court-fee on the value of his share. (1960) 1 Mad LJ 354 (356).

(5) Section 37 (1), (2) — Suit for partition and mesne profits — Plaintiff alleging joint possession with defendant — The prayer in the plaint for the recovery of possession was not inconsistent with a case of joint possession and was really for the conversion of the plaintiff's joint possession of the whole property into separate possession by him of a part of it. Hence Court-fee was payable under Section 37 (2) and not under Section 37 (1) of the Act. 1959 Ker LT 412 (414) = ILR (1959) Ker 315.

(6) Partnership dissolved — Plaint praying for partition and separate possession of half share in partnership assets after providing for debts of firm — Court-fee payable is under Section 36 (1) and not Section 37 (2). (1959) 1 Mad LJ 224 = ILR (1959) Mad 707 (710).

(7) Where a suit for partition of two items of properties was transferred from the file of the City Civil Court to the High Court under Section 24, Civil P. C., Section 14 of Madras City Civil Court Act would be applicable and the plaintiff would be bound to pay the Court-fees on the scale for the time being in force in the High Court as a Court of ordinary original civil jurisdiction. Under

38. Suits for joint possession.—(1) In a suit for joint family property or of property owned, jointly or in common, by a plaintiff who has been excluded from possession, fee shall be computed on the market value of the plaintiff's share.

39. Administration suits.—(1) In a suit for the administration of an estate, fee shall be levied on the plaint at the rates specified in Section 50.

(2) Where any amount or share or part of the assets of the estate is found due to the plaintiff and the fee computed on the amount or the market value of such share or part of the assets exceeds the fee paid on the plaint, no payment shall be made and no decree directing payment of money or confirming title to such share or part of the assets shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee computed on the amount or value of the property is paid.

(3) No payment shall be made, no decree directing payment of money or confirming title to any share or part of the assets of the estate shall be passed in favour of a defendant in a suit for administration, until the fee computed on the amount or value of such share or part of such assets is paid by such defendant.

(4) In computing the fee payable by a plaintiff or by a defendant under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), credit shall be given for the fee, if any, paid by such plaintiff or by such defendant in any other proceeding in respect of the claim on the basis of which such amount or share or part of the assets of the estate becomes due to such plaintiff or to such defendant.

40. Suits for cancellation of decrees, etc.—(1) In a suit for cancellation of a decree for money or other property having a money value, or other document

Section 37 (2) (ii) he has to pay fee of Rs. 300. (1963) 70 Mad LW 257.

(8) Suit falling under Section 37 (1) — Plaintiff also claiming relief of accounts of the properties and income of the properties since 1951 — The accounting claimed was only incidental to the relief of partition and was intended to ascertain the family property that was available for partition — No separate Court-fee on the relief of accounting need be paid. 1964 Mad WN 674 (677) = 77 Mad LW 687.

(9) The plaintiff brought a suit with a prayer that the suit house might be valued for the purpose of working out partition in pursuance of direction by her deceased mother in the deed of settlement in which the direction was to pay her brother and sister each 1/3 of the market value of the house. The plaintiff paid Court-fees under Section 37 (2) as on a partition suit.

Held, that the suit was not a suit for partition falling under Section 37 (2) but was one for administration of the deceased mother's estate and therefore the Court-fee payable was under Section 39 of the Act. (1959) 2 Mad LJ 120 (121).

Section 38 — Note 1

(1) Section 38 of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act would apply only to cases where joint possession is sought as a substantive relief and not as a consequential one. (1961) 2 Mad LJ 481 (482).

Section 39 — Note 1

(1) The plaintiff brought a suit with a prayer that the suit house might be valued for purposes of partition in pursuance of direction by her deceased mother in the deed of settlement in which the direction was to pay her brother and sister each 1/3 of the market value of the house — Plaintiff paid Court-fee under Section 37 (2) as on a partition suit — Held, that the suit was not a suit for partition falling under Section 37 (2) but was one for administration of the deceased mother's estate and therefore the Court-fee payable was under Section 39 of the Act. (1959) 2 Mad LJ 120 (121).

(2) Where a plaint (though purported to be filed as an inter-pleader suit) claims reliefs that the Court may take charge of the suit property and ascertain the shares of the contending parties and distribute the same, it is an administration suit attracting Court-fee under Section 39 of the Court-fees Act and Court-fee has got to be levied after the shares are ascertained and before the decree is passed. Neither Section 48 nor Section 50 of the Court-fees Act could apply to such cases. (1961) 2 Mad LJ 33 (34).

Section 40 — Note 1

(1) It is quite true that when the plaintiff's case is that a document is sham and nominal, it need not be set aside and the suit for relief on that footing is not one for cancellation. But even which purports or operates to create, declare, assign, limit or extinguish whether in present or in future, any right, title or interest in money, movable or immovable property, fee shall be computed on the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value be deemed to be—

if the whole decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, the amount or value of the property for which the decree was passed or other document was executed;

if a part of the decree or other document is sought to be cancelled, such part of the amount or value of the property.

(2) If the decree or other document is such that the liability under it cannot be split up and the relief claimed relates only to a particular item of property belonging to the plaintiff or to the plaintiff's share in any such property, fee shall be computed on the value of such property or share or on the amount of the decree, whichever is less.

Explanation.—A suit to set aside an award shall be deemed to be a suit to set aside a decree within the meaning of this section.

in such cases, if the plaintiff sues for cancellation he would have to pay Court-fee for the relief, whether it was necessary to have the deed cancelled or not. But a prayer for mere declaration about plaintiff's title after attacking the document as sham and nominal in the body of the plaint, does not attract the application of Section 40. (1959) 1 Mad LJ 355 (358)  (1964) 1 MLJ 278 (279) = ILR (1964) 2 Mad 163.

(2) If under the substantive law it is necessary for a party to set aside a transaction before obtaining the relief prayed the Court would imply that there was a prayer to set aside the transaction or direct an amendment of the plaint to that effect when such prayer is not necessary but is made in the plaint it will be considered a mere surplusage. ILR (1961) Mad 369 (377) = (1960) 2 Mad LJ 527.

(3) Sale-deed by father and mother as guardian of minor sons — Suit by minors for declaration and possession of the property on the ground that sale-deed was void — Sale-deed was held executed by lawful guardian of the minor and hence it was necessary that sale-deed must be set aside before decree for possession could be given. The case fell under Section 40. (1959) 1 MLJ 118 = 72 Mad LW 671 (673).

(4) Suit by next friend on behalf of P and himself for partition and declaration that execution sale is invalid and not binding on them — Suit decreed in favour of next friend but dismissed as against P only — Suit by P after 14 years for declaration that execution sale and dismissal of the previous suit are not binding on him and he is entitled to share in suit properties — Held, P could be directed to pay Court-fee only on value of decree that he was praying to set aside and not on the market value of suit properties. 1966 Mad WN 137 (139) = 79 Mad LW 214. (Case before the Act 1955.)

(5) Suit by a reversioner 'A' for his share in the property — Suit abated against him — Subsequent suit by A's sons for the same purpose — Setting aside of abatement of previous suit by 'A' necessary — Court-fee must be paid on the value of the share of 'A'. (1959) 1 Mad LJ 21 (22).

(6) Maintenance decree — Plaintiff ordered to pay Rs. 600 P. M. as maintenance — Suit to set aside this part of the decree — Suit valued for purposes of Court-fee at Rs. 7,200 i.e., on the amount payable for one whole year — Held, Sections 23 and 40 must be read together and if that is done it will at once be found that the Court-fee will be payable only on Rs. 7200. AIR 1959 Mad 432 (433) = (1958) 2 Mad LJ 159.

(7) A claim suit under Order 21, R. 63 of the Civil P. C. falls under Sec. 40 and in such a suit the valuation of the property will be the value of the decree in execution of which the property was sold. 74 Mad LW 54 (56) = (1961) 1 Mad LJ 156.

(8) Purchaser of property — Suit by, for declaration that an equitable mortgage created by his vendor not binding on him — As the plaintiff was not a party to the document Court-fee is to be paid under Section 25 (d) and not under Section 40 of the Madras Court-fees Act. (1964) 1 Mad LJ 152 (153).

(9) Strangers who are not a party to a document need not ask for its cancellation. If however they pray for setting it aside on a ground that they were not bound by it, such prayer would not be one coming within Section 40 but merely a declaratory in nature. ILR (1961) Mad 369 (377) = (1960) 2 Mad LJ 527.

41. Suits to set aside attachment, etc.—(1) In a suit to set aside an attachment by a Civil or Revenue Court of any property, movable or immovable, or of any interest therein or of any interest in revenue, or to set aside an order passed on an application made to set aside the attachment, fee shall be computed on the amount for which the property was attached or on one-fourth of the market value of the property attached, whichever is less.

(2) In a suit to set aside any other summary decision or order of a Civil or Revenue Court, if the subject-matter of the suit has a market value, fee shall be computed on one-forth of such value, and in other cases, fee shall be payable at the rates specified in Section 50.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, the Registrar of Co-operative Societies shall be deemed to be a Civil Court.

Section 40 — Note 1 (contd.)

(10) A purchaser of an undivided interest, who is in possession, is not bound to pay Court-fees under Section 7 (v) of the Court-fees Act but under Art. 17-B. ILR (1963) Andh Pra 830.

(11) Decree for partition — Suit by coparcener for declaration that it is not binding on person not party to it and for partition of plaint properties into two equal shares — Section 7 (iv-A) (Mad.) is not applicable — Suit is governed by Articles 17-A and 17-B of Schedule 2 (Mad.). AIR 1957 Andh Pra 955 (956) = 1956 Andhra LT 377 = 1956 Andhra WR 553.

(12) Suit for cancellation of deed of exchange and for recovery of property — Held, that it was not Section 7 (v) but only Section 7 (iv-A) that was applicable. AIR 1959 Andh Pra 495 (496, 497).

(13) Suit for partition and separate share — Alienation of property by plaintiff's guardian during his minority — Court-fee is payable under Section 7 (iv-A). (1968) 81 Mad LW 338.

(14) The plaintiff brought a suit for possession of certain lands on the allegation that an ex parte decree for possession of those lands obtained against him in a previous suit was null and void as the suit lands were situate in an inam estate.

Held, that as the Court had jurisdiction to try the previous suit on the allegations in the plaint, the plaintiff who was a party to that ex parte decree had to specifically pray for setting aside that decree and pay Court-fee under Sec. 7 (iv-A) (Mad). 1956 Andhra WR 183.

(15) Suit for redemption of mortgage and for accounts — Allegation in the plaint that the documents in question though executed as sale deeds operated only as mortgages — Held, where a certain document is the very basis of the plaint claim for redemption and accounts but the prayer is based on the averment that its effect in law, in the light of the facts to be established, is something different from what ex facie it purports to be, there is no need for asking for cancellation — The Court-fee need not be paid under Section 40 but under Section 33 (8). AIR 1970 Mad 107 (107) = (1969) 1 Mad LJ 151.

(1) Section 41 (2) of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act provides for valuation of suits to set aside a summary decision of a civil or revenue Court. Such suits contemplate the adjudication of the title and are not mere appeals from the summary orders. Under the new Madras Court-fees Act such suits are divided into two categories, those capable of valuation and those which are not so capable. The subject-matter of such suits should be held to be what the summary orders were concerned with, viz., the immovable property and Court-fee has to be paid on the proportionate market-value as laid down in Section 41 (2) of the Act. AIR 1960 Mad 147 (148, 149) = (1959) 2 Mad LJ 440.

(2) A Collector acting under Sec. 46 of the Income-tax Act may be a Court within the meaning of Section 3 (ii) of Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act but he will not constitute a Civil Court for the purpose of Section 41 of the Court-fees Act and his decision will not be tantamount to a decision by a Civil or a Revenue Court within the meaning of Section 41 of the Madras Court Fees and Suits Valuation Act. (1960) 1 Mad LJ 137 = ILR (1960) Mad 371 (375, 376).

(3) Suit decreed before Madras Act of 1955 — Suit under Order 21, Rule 58 filed and decided after Act 1955 — Suit under Rule 63 — Court-fee is payable under Section 41 (2) and not under Act of 1870. (1965) 78 Mad LW 497 = ILR (1965) 2 Mad 90 (92).

(4) Claim petition under Order 21, Rule 58 of the Civil P. C. made before the commencement of Act, 14 of 1955 — Suit under Order 21, Rule 63, Civil P. C., after the commencement of Act 14 of 1955 — Court-fee payable only under Act 7 of 1870. AIR 1959 Mad 155 (156) = (1959) 1 Mad LJ 151.

42. Suits for specific performance.—In a suit for specific performance, whether with or without possession, fee shall be payable—

(a) in the case of a contract of sale, computed on the amount of the consideration;

(b) in the case of contract of mortgage, computed on the amount agreed to be secured by the mortgage;

(c) in the case of a contract of lease computed on the aggregate amount of the fine or premium, if any and of the average of the annual rent agreed to be paid;

(d) in the case of a contract of exchange, computed on the amount of the consideration, or as the case may be, on the market value of the property sought to be got in exchange.

(e) in the other cases, where the consideration for the promise sought to be enforced has a market value, computed on such market value, or where such consideration has no market value, at the rates specified in Section 50.

43. Suits between landlord and tenant.—(1) In the following suits between landlord and tenant, namely :—

(a) for the delivery by a tenant of the counterpart of a lease or for acceptance of patta in exchange for a muchilika;

(b) for enhancement of rent;

*[(bb) in respect of the transferred territory, for abatement of rent, where it is not coupled with any other relief;]

(c) for the delivery by a landlord of a lease or for obtaining a patta in exchange for a muchilika;

(d) for recovering occupancy of immovable property from which a tenant has been illegally ejected by the landlord;

(e) for establishing or disproving a right of occupancy;

fee shall be levied on the amount of rent for the immovable property to which the suit relates, payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

(2) In a suit for recovery of immovable property from a tenant including a tenant holding over after the termination of a tenancy, fee shall be computed on the premium, if any, and on the rent payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

Explanation.—Rent includes also damages for use and occupation payable by a tenant holding over.

(3) In an appeal from a suit to contest a distraint under Section 95, sub-sec. (1) or sub-section (2) of the Tamil Nadu Estates Land Act, 1908, or to contest right of sale under Section 112 of that Act, fee shall be charged on the

44. Suits for mesne profits.—(1) In a suit for mesne profits or for immovable property and mesne profits, fee shall in respect of mesne profits be computed, where the amount is stated approximately and sued for, on such amount. If the profits ascertained to be due to the plaintiff are in excess of the profits as approximately estimated and sued for, no decree shall be passed until the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee that would have been pavable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits so ascertained is paid.

(2) Where a decree directs an enquiry as to the mesne profits which have accrued on the property, whether prior or subsequent to the institution of the suit, no final decree shall be passed till the difference between the fee actually paid and the fee which would have been payable had the suit comprised the whole of the profits accrued due till the debt of such decree is paid.

(3) Where, for a period subsequent to the date of the decree or final decree, such decree or final decree directs payments of mesne profits at a specified rate, such decree or final decree shall not be executed until the fee computed on the amount claimed in execution has been paid.

*[44-A. Suits for the interest of assignee of land revenue.—In respect of the transferred territory, in a suit for the interest of an assignee of land revenue, fee shall be computed at ten times his gross profits as such for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.]

* Inserted by T. N. Act 22 of 1965, S. 4 and Sch. II (w.e.f. 1-7-1966).

14. Suits under the Tamil Nadu Survey and Boundaries Act, 1923.—In a suit under Sec. 14 of the Tamil Nadu Survey and Boundaries Act, 1923, fee shall be computed on one half of the market value of the property affected by the determination of the boundary or on rupees three hundred, whichever is higher.

46. Suits to alter or cancel entry in a register.—In a suit to alter or cancel any entry in a register of the names of proprietors of revenue-paying estate, the fee payable shall be fifteen rupees.

47. Suits relating to public matters.—In a suit for relief under Section 14 of the Religious Endowments Act, 1863, or under Section 91 or Section 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the fee payable shall be fifty rupees.

48. Interpleader suits.—(1) In an interpleader suit, fee shall be payable on the plaint at the rates specified in Section 50.

Section 44 — Note 1

(1) Suit for mesne profits — Court-fee paid on the amount mentioned in the sale-deed — Appeal — Held the price offered by the plaintiff for the purchase of the property is the ordinary measure of value and the proper basis for Court-fee valuation. Estimation of the mesne profits might be inaccurate or exaggerated. That cannot be the basis, upon a formula of capitalisation for the value, unless no other basis is available. (2) An order in a suit determining the quantum of mesne profits payable subsequent to the filing of the suit will amount to a final decree within the meaning of Order 20, Rule 12, Civil P. C. and as such in an appeal against such an order the Court-fee has to be computed on ad valorem basis depending on the amount of mesne profits in dispute in the appeal. 70 Mad LW 1021 (1022) = (1958) 1 Mad LJ 99.

Section 48 — Note 1

(1) Where a plaint claims relief that the Court may take charge of the suit property and ascertain the shares of the contending parties and distribute the same, it is an administration suit attracting Court-fee under Section 39 of the Court-fees Act and not an inter-pleader suit and Court-fee has got to be levied after the shares are ascertained and before the decree is passed — Neither Section 48 nor Section 50 of the Court-fees Act could apply to such cases. (1961) 2 Mad LJ 33 (34).

(2) Where issues are framed as between the claimants, fee shall be payable computed on the amount of the debt or the money or the market value of other property, movable or immovable, which forms the subject-matter of the suit. In levying such fee, credit shall be given for the fee paid on the plaint; and the balance of the fee shall be paid in equal shares by the claimants who claim the debt or the sum of money or the property adversely to each other.

(3) Value for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of Courts shall be the amount of the debt, or the sum of money or the market value of other property to which the suit relates.

49. Third party proceedings.—In third party proceedings, fee shall be levied on one-half of the value of the contribution or indemnity claimed against a third party or against a co-defendant if a claim is made against him :

Provided that, if the suit against the defendant who has filed the third party notice is dismissed, wholly or in part, he shall be entitled to a refund of the whole or a proportionate part of the fee paid by him.

Explanation.—The provisions of this section shall also apply to counter-claims made in third party proceedings.

50. Suits not otherwise provided for.—In suits not otherwise provided for fee shall be payable at the following rates :—

(i) In a Revenue Court.	Rupees fifteen.
(ii) In a District Munsiff's Court.	Rupees thirty.
(iii) In the City Civil Court, Madras, or a Sub-Court or a District Court.	Rupees thirty if the value of the subject-matter is Rs. 5,000 or less; rupees one hundred if the value is above Rs. 5,000 but below Rs. 10,000 and rupees two hundred if the value si Rs. 10,000 and above.
(iv) In the High Court	Rupees three hundred.

51. Fee on memorandum of appeal against order relating to compensation.—The fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against an

Section 50 — Note 1

(1) Property attached for recovery of income-tax arrears by Collector under Section 46 of the Income Tax Act — Claim petition — Adjudication by Collector — Suit to set aside the order of the Collector — Collector not a Civil Court within the meaning of Section 41 (1), Court-fees Act — Case does not fall under Section 41 (1) — Court-fee payable is under Section 50 of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act. (1960) 1 MLJ 137 = ILR (1960) Mad 371.

(2) Claim suits to contest summary order contemplate adjudication of title. The subject-matter of suit in such cases is the title to the property which was the subject-matter of the claim, obstruction or redelivery of possession and being capable of valuation the suit falls under Section 41 (2), Court-fees Act and not under Section 50. AIR 1960 Mad 147 (149) = (1959) 2 Mad LJ 440. (Suit under Order 21, Rule 99, Civil P. C.)

(3) Under Madras Court Fees Act (1955) summary orders are divided in two categories, those in which the subject-matter is capable of valuation and those in which it is not so capable — Where the subject-matter in the suit is substantially to set aside a summary order the inclusion in the suit of incidental relief like injunction, possession. etc., will not alter the character of the suit. AIR 1960 Mad 147 (148) = (1959) 2 Mad LJ 440.

(4) Order rejecting application for leave to sue in forma pauperis and rejecting plaint for failure to pay Court-fee within time granted — Appeal — Held the subject-matter of appeal is only the right to seek his remedy on a scheme of deferred payment of Court-fee — Subject-matter is incapable of valuation — Court-fee is payable under Section 52 read with Section 50. AIR 1959 Mad 14 (15) = (1958) 1 Mad LJ 97.

(5) Where a plaint claims relief that the Court may take charge of the suit property and ascertain the shares of the contending parties and distribute the same it is an administration suit attracting Court-fee under Section 39 of the Court-fees Act and Court-fee has got to be levied after the shares are ascertained and before the decree is passed — Neither Section 48 nor Sec. 50 of the Court-fees Act would apply to such cases. order relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of property for public purposes shall be computed on the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

52. Appeals.—The fee payable in an appeal shall be the same as the fee that would be payable in the Court of first instance on the subject-matter of the appeal :

Provided that, in levying fee on a memorandum of appeal against a final decree by a person whose appeal against the preliminary decree passed by the Court of first instance or by the Court of appeal is pending, credit shall be given for the fee paid by such person in the appeal against the preliminary decree.

Explanation (1).— Whether the appeal is against the refusal of a relief or against the grant of the relief, the fee payable in the appeal shall be the same as the fee that would be payable on the relief in the Court of first instance.

Explanation (2).—Costs shall not be deemed to form part of the subject-matter of the appeal except where such costs form themselves the subject-matter of the appeal or relief is claimed as regards costs on grounds additional to or independant of, the relief claimed regarding the main subject-matter in the suit.

Explanation (3).—In claims which include the award of interest subsequent to the institution of the suit, the interest accrued during the pendency of the suit till the date of decree shall be deemed to be part of the subject-matter of the appeal except where such interest is relinquished.

Explanation (4).—Where the relief prayed for in the appeal is different from the relief prayed for or refused in the Court of first instance, the fee payable in the appeal shall be the fee that would be payable in the Court of first instance on the relief prayed for in the appeal.

Explanation (5).—Where the market value of the subject-matter of the appeal has to be ascertained for the purpose of computing or determining the fee payable, such market value shall be ascertained as on the date of presentation of the plaint value or where it is not possible to estimate it at a money value such amount as the plaintiff shall state in the plaint.

(1) Suit for possession of trust property — Plaintiff alleging to be entitled to act as trustee — Market value of the property shown as Rs. 20,200/- Held, that combining Section 28 with Sec. 53 (1) and (2) of the Madras Court-Fees Act, 1955 as well as Section 12 of the Madras Civil Courts Act, the value for pecuniary jurisdiction and Court-fee jurisdiction is the same and hence the value of the subject-matter of the suit was beyond the pecuniary jurisdiction of the District Munsif. 71 Mad LW 477 = (1958) 2 Mad LJ 225 (226).

54. Procedure where objection is taken on appeal or revision that a suit or appeal was not properly valued for jurisdictional purposes.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 99 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, an objection that by reason of the overvaluation or undervaluation of a suit or appeal, a Court of first instance or lower appellate Court which had not jurisdiction with respect to the suit or appeal exercised jurisdiction with respect thereto shall not be entertained by an appellate Court, unless—

(a) the objection was taken in the Court of first instance at or before the hearing at which issues were first framed and recorded, or in the lower appellate Court in the memorandum of appeal to that Court, or

(b) the appellate Court is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded by it in writing, that the suit or appeal was overvalued, or undervaluation thereof has prejudicially affected the disposal of the suit or appeal on its merits.

(2) If the objection was taken in the manner mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1), but the appellate Court is not satisfied as to both the matters mentioned in clause (b) of that sub-section and has before it the materials necessary for the determination of the other grounds of appeal to itself, it shall dispose of the appeal as if there had been no defect of jurisdiction in the Court of first instance or lower appellate Court.

(3) If the objection was taken in that manner and the appellate Court is satisfied as to both those matters and has not those materials before it, it shall proceed to deal with the appeal under the rules applicable to the Court with respect to the hearing of appeals; but if it remands the suit or appeal, or frames and refers issues for trial, or requires additional evidence to be taken, it shall direct its order to a Court competent to entertain the suit or appeal.

(4) The provisions of this section with respect to an appellate Court shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to a Court exercising revisional jurisdiction under Section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, or other enactment for the time being in force.

CHAPTER VI

PROBATES, LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION AND CERTIFICATES OF ADMINISTRATION

55. Application for probate or letters of administration.—(1) Every application for the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be accompanied by a valuation of the estate in duplicate in the form set forth in Part I of Schedule III.

(2) On receipt of such application, the Court shall send a copy thereof and of the valuation, to the Collector of the district in which the estate is situated, or if the estate is situated in more than one district, to the Collector of the district in which the most valuable portion of the immovable property included in the estate is situated.

56. Levy of fee.—(1) The fee chargeable for the grant of probate or letters of administration shall comprise—a fee at the rates prescribed in Article 6 of Schedule I, computed—

Section 54 — Note 1

(1) Memo of appeal — Court can interfere on Court-fee question prior to the registration of appeal — After registration question cannot be taken up unless on an objection by the respondent or a request for a decision by the Court-fee examiner under Section 18 — Otherwise, it has no power to do so suo motu. 76 Mad LW 504 = 1963 Mad WN 335 (345).

Section 56 — Note 1

(1) Ordinarily the estate of a person

(a) where the application is made within one year of the date of death of the deceased, on the market value of the estate on such date; or

(b) where the application is made after the expiry of one year from such date on the market value of the estate on the date of the application:

Provided that property held in trust not beneficially or with general power to confer a beneficial interest shall not be liable to any fee under this chapter.

Explanation.—Any member of a joint Hindu family governed by the Mitakshara Law who applies for probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of a deceased member of the joint family shall pay a fee on the value of the share in the joint property which the deceased would have received if a partition of the property had been made immediately before his death.

(2) For the purpose of the computation of fee—

(a) the value of the items mentioned in Annexure B to Part I of Schedule III shall be deducted from the value of the estate:

Provided, that, when an application is made for probate or letters of administration in respect of part only of an estate, no debt, no expenses connected with any funeral rites or ceremonies and no mortgage encumbrance on any part of the estate other than that in respect of which the application is made shall be deducted :

Provided further that when, after the grant of a certificate under Part X of the Indian Succession Act, 1925, or under Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827 in respect of any property included in an estate, a grant of probate or letters of administration is made in respect of the same estate, the fee payable in respect of the latter grant shall be reduced by the amount of the fee paid in respect of the former grant;

(b) the power of appointment which the deceased had over a property or which was created under a will shall be taken into account, the value being taken to be the value of the property forming the subject-matter of the power.

57. Grant of probate.—The grant of probate or letters of administration shall not be delayed by reason of the reference to the Collector under Section 55, sub-section (2), or of a motion by the Collector under Section 59, sub-section (5); but the Court shall make no grant of probate or letters of administration until it is satisfied that a fee not less than that prescribed by this Act has been paid on the basis of the net value of the estate as furnished in the valuation accompanying the application, or in the amended valuation filed under Section 59, sub-section (3) :

Provided that the Court may grant probate or letters of administration notwithstanding that prescribed fee has not been paid to the Administrator-General in his official capacity on his giving an undertaking to the satisfaction of the Court that the said fee will be paid within such time as may be fixed by the Court.

58. Relief in cases of several grants.—(1) Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration has been made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate and the full fee payable under this Act in respect of the application for such grant has been paid thereon, no fee shall be payable when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

(2) Whenever such grant has been made in respect of any property forming part of an estate the amount of fee actually paid under this Act in respect thereof shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of the property belonging to the same estate identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

59. Inquiry by the Collector.—(1) The Collector to whom a copy of the application and of the valuation has been sent under Section 55, sub-section (2), shall examine the same and may make or cause to be made by any officer subordinate to him such inquiry if any, as he thinks fit as to the correctness of the valuation or where a part only of the property is situated in his district, of the valuation of that part, and may require the Collector of any other district in which any part of the property is situated to furnish him with the correct valuation thereof.

(2) Any Collector required under sub-section (1) to furnish the correct valuation of any property shall comply with the requisition after making or causing to be made by any officer subordinate to him such inquiry, if any as he thinks fit.

(3) If the Collector is of opinion that the applicant has under-estimated the value of the property of the deceased, he may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the applicant, either in person or by his agent, and take evidence and inquire into the matter in such manner as he may think fit, and if he is still of opinion that the value of the property has been under-estimated may require the applicant to amend the valuation, and, if the application for probate or letters of administration is pending in Court, to file a copy of the amended valuation in such Court.

(4) If, in any such case, the probate or letters of administration has or have been granted and the applicant amends the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector and the Collector finds that a less fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, he shall proceed under Section 61, sub-section (4); but if a higher fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, the excess fee shall be refunded to the applicant.

(5) If the applicant does not amend the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may move the Court before which the application for probate or letters of administration was made to hold an inquiry into the true value of the property:

Provided that no such motion shall be made after the expiration of six months from the date of the exhibition of the inventory required by Section 317 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925.

60. Application to Court and powers of Court.—(1) The Court shall, when moved by the Collector under Section 59, sub-section (5), hold or cause to be held by any Court or officer subordinate to it an inquiry as to the true value at which the estate of the deceased should have been estimated. The Collector shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.

(2) For the purposes of any such inquiry, the Court, or the Subordinate Court or the officer authorized by the Court to hold the inquiry, may examine the applicant on oath, either in person or by commission, and may take such further evidence as may be produced to prove the true value of the estate, and where the inquiry has been entrusted to a Subordinate Court, or officer, such Court, or officer, shall return to the Court the evidence taken and report the result of the inquiry and such report and the evidence so taken shall be evidence in the proceedings.

(3) The Court on the completion of the inquiry or on receipt of the report referred to in sub-section (2), as the case may be, shall record a finding as to the true value at which the estate should have been estimated and such finding shall be final.

(4) The Court may make such order in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 as to the cost of the inquiry as it thinks fit.

61. Provision for cases where too low a fee has been paid.—(1) Where too low a fee has been paid on any probate or letters of administration in consequence of any mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator, acting under such probate or letters, applies to the Collector in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III and pays within six months after the discovery of the mistake or of any effects not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, what is wanting to make up the fee which ought to have been paid at first on such probate or letters, the Collector shall, if satisfied that a low fee was paid in the first instance in consequence of a mistake and without any intention of fraud or to delay the payment of the proper fee, cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped.

(2) If in a case falling under sub-section (1), the executor or administrator does not, within the six months referred to in that sub-section, pay the deficit fee, he shall forfeit a sum equal to five times the deficit fee.

(3) If, on application being made under sub-section (1), the Collector is not satisfied that the application was made within six months of the discovery of the mistake or of further effects not included in the original valuation or that the payment of a low fee in the first instance was not due to a bona fide mistake, he shall cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment of the deficit fee together with a penalty not exceeding five times such fee.

(4) If, after the grant of probate or letters of administration of an estate it is found by the Collector as a result of proceedings under Section 59 or Section 60 or otherwise, that a less fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, he shall cause the probate or letters to be properly stamped on payment of the deficit fee, and if he is satisfied that the original undervaluation was not bona fide, he shall levy in addition a penalty not exceeding five times the deficit fee.

(5) The Board of Revenue may remit the whole or any part of the amount forfeited under sub-section (2) or of any penalty under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4).

62. Administrator to give proper security before letters stamped.—In case of letters of administration on which too low a fee has been paid at first, the Collector shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in the manner aforesaid until the administrator has given such security to the Court by which the letters of administration have been granted as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased had been then ascertained.

63. Relief when too high a fee has been paid.—(1) If, at any time after the grant of the probate or letters of administration of an estate, it is discovered that a higher fee has been paid than was payable according to the true value of the estate, the executor or administrator, as the case may be, may apply for a refund to the Collector to whom a copy of the valuation of the estate was sent under Section 55, sub-section (2). The application shall be accompanied by an amended valuation in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III together with the probate or letters of administration upon which a refund is sought.

(2) If the Collector is satisfied that the amended valuation is correct, he shall—

(i) endorse a certificate on the stamped probate or letters of administration to the effect that so much of the fee represented by the stamp or stamps used has been refunded; and

(ii) refund the difference between the fee originally paid and that which should have been paid:

Provided that no refund shall be granted under this section unless the application for refund is made within three years of the date of the grant of the probate or letters of administration, or within such further period as the Collector may allow.

If, by reason of any legal proceedings, the debts due from the deceased have not been ascertained and paid, or his effects have not been recovered and made available and in consequence thereof, the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said period of three years, the Collector may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to him to be reasonable under the circumstances.

If the Collector does not grant a refund, the executor or administrator, as the case may be, may apply to the Board of Revenue for an order of refund. An application for such refund should be accompanied by an amended valuation in the form set forth in Part II of Schedule III.

64. Recovery of penalties, etc.—Any excess fee found to be payable by an applicant for probate or letters of administration or by an executor or administrator, or any costs under Section 60, sub-section (4), or any penalty or forfeiture payable by any such executor or administrator, may, on the certificate of the Board of Revenue, be recovered from the executor or administrator as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

65. Powers of Board of Revenue.—The powers and duties of the Collector under this Chapter shall be subject to the control of the Board of Revenue.

CHAPTER VII

REFUNDS AND REMISSIONS

66. Refund in cases of delay in presentation of plaint, etc.—(1) Where a plaint or memorandum of appeal is rejected on the ground of delay in its representation, or where the fee paid on a plaint or memorandum of appeal is deficient and the deficiency is not made good within the time allowed by law or granted by the Court, or the delay in payment of the deficit fee is not condoned and the plaint or memorandum of appeal is consequently rejected, the Court shall direct the refund to the plaintiff or the appellant, of the fee paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal which has been rejected.

(2) Where a memorandum of appeal is rejected on the ground that it was not presented within the time allowed by the law of limitation, one-half of the fee shall be refunded.

67. Refund in cases of remand.—(1) Where a plaint or memorandum of appeal which has been rejected by the lower Court is ordered to be received, or where a suit is remanded in appeal for a fresh decision by the lower Court, the Court making the order or remanding the appeal may direct the refund to the appellant of the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal; and, if the remand is on second appeal, also on the memorandum of appeal in the first appellate Court, and if the remand is in Letters Patent Appeal, also on the memo-

Section 66 — Note 1

(1) No power of refund of Court-fee except in cases provided in the Act — Apart from provisions of Act Court has limited inherent power of refund — Case not falling under Act — Exercise of inherent power also not proper — Party can apply for refund to Government. AIR 1966 Mad 423 (424, 425) = (1966) 1 Mad LJ 402.

(2) Memo of Appeal returned for deficit Court-fee — Appeal not represented — Court can issue a certificate in exercise of its inherent powers that the appeal was not numbered and direct the appellant to apply to the Revenue Authorities for ex gratia refund as in the case of spoiled stamps. (1958) 1 Mad LJ 183 (184)  (1959) 72 Mad LW 371 = (1959) 1 Mad LJ 110 (111).

randum of second appeal and memorandum of appeal in the first appellate Court.

(2) Where an appeal is remanded in Second Appeal or Letters Patent Appeal for a fresh decision by the lower appellate Court, the High Court remanding the appeal may direct the refund to the appellant of the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of Second Appeal if the remand is in Second Appeal, and of the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of Second Appeal and the Memorandum of Letters Patent Appeal if the remand is in Letters Patent Appeal:

Provided that, no refund shall be ordered if the remand was caused by the fault of the party who would otherwise be entitled to a refund:

Provided further that, if the order of remand does not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the refund shall not extend to more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on that part of the subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

68. Refund where Court reverses or modifies former decision on ground of mistake.—Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted on the ground of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, and on the rehearing the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on that ground, it shall direct the refund to the applicant of so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under Article 11 (g) and (u) of Schedule II.

69. Refund on settlement before hearing.—Whenever any suit is dismissed as settled out of Court before any evidence has been recorded on the merits of the claim, half the amount of all fees paid in respect of the claim or claims in the suit shall be ordered by the Court to be refunded to the parties by whom the same have been respectively paid.

Explanation.—The expression 'merits of the claim' shall have the meaning assigned to it in Section 12.

Section 69 — Note 1

(1) Section 69 of the Madras Court Fees Act, 1955 does not apply to suits transferred to City Civil Courts from the original side of High Court by virtue of Act 10 of 1955. ILR 1958 Mad 1109 (1115) = (1959) 1 Mad LJ 160. (Refund of Court-fee granted under High Court Rules, Rule 13.)

(2) Section 69 and other provisions of refund cannot be treated as authorising a refund in respect of Court-fees paid under any of the repealed enactments or rules. ILR (1958) Mad 1109 (1115) = (1959) 1 Mad LJ 160.

(3) Refund of half the Court-fee — Suit settled out of Court but plaintiff insisting on a memo of compromise being recorded — Refund of Court-fee cannot be claimed. (1965) 2 Mad LJ 513 (515).

(4) Section 69 of the Court-fees Act does not provide for a refund of Court-fees where a compromise is got decreed by the Court. But where a suit is in fact settled out of Court and is dismissed as such, merely because a memo is put into Court setting out the terms of settlement, the party may not be deprived of the benefit of the section. AIR 1967 Mad 311 (312, 313) = (1965) 2 Mad LJ 513.

(5) Suit for three reliefs valued separately — First relief decided in favour of plaintiffs and interim decree passed — Subsequently suit dismissed as settled out of Court — Plaintiffs would be entitled for refund of half Court-fee payable only on remaining two reliefs as the reliefs were separable. (1965) 1 Mad LJ 169 = ILR (1965) 2 Mad 323 (325).

(6) Section 69 applies to testamentary suits as well as suits filed on original side of High Court — Probate proceeding instituted as original petition converted into suit on entering caveat and ad valorem Court-fee paid — Withdrawal of defence — Order for probate to be issued — Request by plaintiff for refund of Court-fee paid at the time of conversion of suit—No inherent power to refund Court-fee paid at time of conversion could be invoked since there was a specific provision in Section 69 for settlement of disputes out of Court. AIR 1962 Mad 108 (110, 111) = (1961) 2 Mad LJ 524 (DB).

(7) Recording of evidence — Word 'recorded' does not refer to oral evidence alone — Admission of even documentary evidence on record amounts to 'recording of evidence' — If such documentary evidence relates to merits of claim, party will not be entitled to refund of Court-fee under Section 69. AIR 1967 Mad 180 (180, 181) = (1965) 78 Mad LW 752. (1965-1 MLJ 169, Disting.)

70. Refund of fee paid by mistake or inadvertence.—The fee paid by mistake or inadvertence shall be ordered to be refunded.

71. Instruments of partition.—Where the final decree in a partition suit has been engrossed on non-judicial stamps furnished by the parties, the Court shall order the refund to the parties of so much of the valued fee paid by them as is equal to the value of the non-judicial stamps furnished by them.

72. Exemption of certain documents.—Nothing contained in this Act shall render the following documents chargeable with any fees :—

(i) mukhtarnama, vakalatnama, or other written authority to institute or defend a suit when executed by a member of any of the Armed Forces of the Union not in civil employment;

(ii) memorandum of appearance filed by advocates or pleaders when appearing for persons proceeded against in criminal cases;

(iii) plaints and other documents in suits filed in village Courts;

(iv) plaints in suits before Collectors under Tamil Nadu Regulation 12 of 1816;

(v) application or petition to a Collector or other Officer making a settlement of land revenue, or to the Board of Revenue relating to matters connected with the assessment of land, or with the ascertainment of rights thereto or interest therein, if presented previous to the final confirmation of such settlement;

(vi) application relating to a supply for irrigation of water belonging to Government;

(vii) application for leave to extend cultivation or to relinquish land, when presented to an officer of land revenue by a person holding, under a direct engagement with Government, land of which revenue is settled but not permanently :

viii) application for service of notice of relinquishment of land or of enhancement of rent;

(ix) written authority to an agent to distrain;

(x) first application (other than a petition containing a criminal charge of information) for the summons of a witness or other person to attend either to give evidence or to produce a document or in respect of the

Section 70 — Note 1

(1) Mistake or inadvertence must relate directly to the payment of Court-fee — Proper Court-fee paid cannot be refunded because party's remedy lay, in some other, and, from point of view of Court-fee, cheaper proceeding — Revision application — Fee paid as on memo of appeal — Fee was held paid under mistake or inadvertence entitling refund. 1967 Ker LT 721 (722) = ILR (1967) 2 Ker 432. (Suit decided under Section 70 as adapted by Kerala Act, 1956.)

(2) Section 70 being a beneficial provision there is no warrant for restricting it to mistakes other than mistakes of procedure. A mistake which arises as a result of the adoption of an erroneous procedure with the consequent payment of a Court-fee appropriate to the procedure adopted will come within the ambit of the section. (1962) 1 Mad LJ 331 (332) = 74 Mad LW 745. (Suit by mistake instead of an application under Sec. 47, Dissented from in 1967 Ker LT 721.)

(3) Appeal pending — Writ petitions filed in respect of the same matter — Appeal successful — Withdrawal of writ petitions — Case not covered by Sec. 70 —Court-fee on writ petitions cannot be refunded. (1966) 2 Mad LJ 238 (239) = 79 Mad LW 392.

Section 72 — Note 1

(1) Accused filing appeal — Neither stamped vakalath nor vakalath is necessary. 1959 Ker LT 800 (801) = 1959 Ker LJ 911.

(2) A petition for revision under Sections 435 and 439 of the Criminal Procedure Code, against a sentence of fine and imprisonment in default of payment thereof does not fall under Section 72 (xiii) of the Madras Court-fees and Suits Valuation Act, 1955, and is not exempt from payment of the prescribed Court-fee.

That section covers only petitions by prisoners in jail or other persons in actual custody. 73 Mad LW 670 = (1961) 1 MLJ 149 (150).

production or filing of an exhibit not being an affidavit made for the immediate purpose of being produced in Court;

(xi) bail bonds in criminal cases other than bail bonds in village Courts, recognizances to prosecute or give evidence and recognizances for personal appearance or otherwise;

(xii) petition, application, charge or information respecting any offence when presented, made or laid to or before a police officer, or to or before the heads of villages or the village police;

(xiii) petition by a prisoner or other person in duress or under restraint of any Court or its officer;

(xiv) complaint of a public servant as defined in the Indian Penal Code or an officer of the State Railway;

(xv) application for permission to cut timber in Government forests or otherwise relating to such forests, not being applications from forest contractors for extending the period of their leases;

(xvi) application for the payment of money due by the Government to the applicant, other than an application for refund of lapsed deposit made six months after the date on which the amount lapsed to the Government;

(xvii) petition of appeal against any municipal tax;

(xviii) application for compensation under any law, for the time being in force relating to the acquisition of property for public purposes;

(xix) petition under Section 48 of the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872;

(xx) petition or appeal by a Government servant or a servant of the Court of Wards when presented to any superior officer or Government against orders of dismissal, reduction or suspension; copies of such orders filed with such appeals, and applications for obtaining such copies.

73. Power to reduce or remit fees.—The State Government may, by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette, reduce or remit, in the whole or in any part of the territory of this State, all or any of the fees chargeable under this Act, and may, in like manner, cancel or vary such notification.

CHAPTER VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

74. Collection of fees by stamps.—All fees chargeable under this Act shall be collected by stamps.

75. Stamps to be impressed or adhesive.—The stamps used to denote any fee chargeable under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the State Government may, by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette, from time to time direct.

76. Amended document.—Where any document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act is amended in order merely to correct a mistake and to make it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp.

Section 73 — Note 1

(1) Although under S. 73 the State Government have power to remit the fees payable by a class of people, every classification must be a reasonable one and must not be arbitrary. AIR 1957 Mad 382 (383 to 385) = (1957) 1 Mad LJ 188.

(2) Section 73 does not empower Government to remit fees payable by a particular individual in a particular case. AIR 1957 Mad 382 (384) = (1957) 1 Mad LJ 188.

77. Cancellation of stamp.—No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or office until the stamp has been cancelled.

Such officer as the Court or the head of the office may, from time to time appoint, shall, on receiving any such document forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figure-head so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched, and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

78. Deduction to be made.—Where allowance is made in this Act for damaged or spoiled stamps or where fee already paid is directed to be refunded to any person by an order of Court, the Collector may, on the application of the person concerned, pay to him the amount of fee or where damaged or spoiled stamps are produced, he may, after satisfying himself about their genuineness, give in lieu thereof the same amount or value in stamps of the same or any other description, or if the applicant so desires, the same amount or value in money provided that in all cases where money is paid in cash, a deduction shall be made of *[five Paise] for each rupee or fraction thereof. No such deduction shall however be made where refund is claimed in respect of any fee paid in pursuance of an order of Court which has been varied or reversed in appeal.

[*] Substituted for 'one anna' by T. N. Act 9 of 1960 (w. e. f. 1-4-1960).

79. Penalty.—Any person appointed to sell stamps, who disobeys any rule made under this Act, and any person, not so appointed, who sells or offers for sale any stamps, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

80. Power of High Court to make rules.—(1) The High Court may make rules to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the fees payable for serving and executing processes issued by the High Court in its appellate jurisdiction and by the Civil and Criminal Courts subordinate thereto;

(b) the remuneration of persons employed by the Courts mentioned in clause (a) in the service of execution of processes;

(c) the fixing by District Magistrates of the number of process servers necessary to be empolyed for the service and execution of processes issued from their respective Courts and the Courts subordinate thereto;

(d) the display in each Court of a table in the English and in the local language or languages showing the fees payable for the service and execution of processes.

(2) All rules made under sub-section (1) shall be subject to confirmation by the State Government and on such confirmation shall be published in the Fort St. George Gazette and shall thereupon have effect as if enacted in this Act.

81. Power of Board of Revenue to make rules.—(1) The Board of Revenue may, with the previous sanction of the State Government, make rules consistent with this Act to provide for or regulate all or any of the following matters, namely :—

(a) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Board of Revenue and by the Revenue Courts;

Section 80 — Note 1

(1) Process fees on the original side of High Court are collected not under Madras Court-fees Act but under different provisions — Section 80 of Madras Court-fees Act does not touch the process fees payable on the original side of the High Court. AIR 1957 Mad 382 (383) = (1957) 1 Mad LJ 188.

(b) the remuneration of the persons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of such processes;

(c) the fixing by Collectors of the number of persons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of such processes;

(d) the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of their powers under Chapter VI;

(e) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act;

(f) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act;

(g) the keeping of accounts of all stamps used under this Act;

(h) the circumstances in which stamps may be held to be damaged or spoiled;

(i) the circumstances in which, the manner in which, and the authorities by which, allowance for used, damaged or spoiled stamps may be made;

(j) the regulation of the sale of stamps to be used under this Act, the persons by whom alone such stamps may be sold and the duties and remuneration of such persons:

Provided that, in the case of stamps used in the High Court such rules shall be made with the concurrence of the Chief Justice.

(2) All rules made under the section shall be published in the Fort St. George Gazette and on such publication, shall have effect as if enacted in this Act.

82. Power of Government to make rules.—(1) The State Government, may, by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette make rules to carry out generally the purposes of this Act.

(2) All notifications and rules made under this section shall, as soon as possible, after they are made be placed on the table of the Legislative Assembly for one month, and shall be subject to such modification whether by way of repeal or amendment as the Legislative Assembly may make during the session in which they are so laid.

83. Continuance in force of existing rules.—Until rules are framed under Sections 80, 81 and 82 and until notifications are issued under Section 73, the rules and notifications now in force in respect of matters referred to in those sections, shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act, continue.

84. Amendment of Central Act III of 1873.—In the Tamil Nadu Civil Courts Act, 1873, Section 14 shall be omitted.

85. Repeal of Central Act IV of 1877.—The Presidency Magistrates (Court Fees) Act, 1877 in so far it applies to the State of Tamil Nadu is hereby repealed.

86. Amendment of Central Act VII of 1892.—In the Madras City Civil Court Act, 1892, Sections 9 and 13 shall be omitted.

87. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Court-fees Act, 1870, in its application to the State of Tamil Nadu and in relation to the fees and stamps other than fees and

Section 87 — Note 1

(1) Although a taxing statute ordinarily will have no retrospective effect, since the earlier Act of 1870 is repealed, the necessity for making a provision that it shall not have retrospective operation was felt and Clause (2) of Sec. 87 was enacted. Taxing statute has to be construed strictly and in case of reason-stamps relating to documents presented or to be presented before an officer serving under the Central Government and the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, in its application to the State of Tamil Nadu are hereby repealed.

(2) All suits and proceedings instituted before the commencement of this Act and all proceedings by way of appeal, revision or otherwise arising therefrom whether instituted before or after such commencement shall, notwithstanding the repeal of the Court-fees Act, 1870 and the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, be governed by the provisions of the said Acts and the rules made thereunder.

*[88. Savings in respect of the transferred territory.—In respect of the transferred territory, all suits and proceedings instituted before the commencement of the Tamil Nadu (Transferred Territory) Extension of Laws Act, 1935, and all proceedings by way of appeal, revision or otherwise, arising therefrom, whether instituted before or after such commencement, shall, notwithstanding the repeal of the corresponding law by the said Act be governed by the provisions of the said corresponding law and the rules made thereunder.

Explanation.—In this section, the expression, "corresponding law" shall mean the Travancore-Cochin Court-Fees Act, 1125 (Travancore-Cochin Act II of 1125) and the Travancore-Cochin Suits Valuation Act, 1125 (Travancore-Cochin Act IV of 1125).]

able doubt, the construction that is beneficial to the subject has always to be adopted. AIR 1956 Mad 597 (599) = (1956) 1 Mad LJ 63.

(2) Obiter: The Court-fee payable under the earlier Act is applicable not only to a copy application for a judgment and decree in a suit or proceeding instituted before the Act but also in respect of a copy of a judgment and decree in an appeal, revision or any other proceeding instituted before or after such commencement, provided it relates to suits and proceedings instituted before the commencement of the Act, and also in respect of (a) vakalat filed in Courts in respect of suits instituted before the commencement of the Act, (b) certified copies of documents such as decrees, judgments, etc., filed as enclosures to appeals and (c) applications for copies of documents filed in suits or proceedings instituted before the commencement of the Act. AIR 1956 Mad 597 (600) = (1956) 1 Mad LJ 63.

(3) In the context in which it has been used in Section 87 (2) a copy application is a proceeding within the meaning of that section. The use of the word "otherwise" will not detract this meaning to be given to the word proceeding. AIR 1956 Mad 597 (598, 599) = (1956) 1 Mad LJ 63.

(4) Scope — Claim in pursuance of notice under Section 9 (3) of Land Acquisition Act filed before commencement of the Act — Court-fee on memo of appeal under Section 54 of the Land Acquisition Act filed after commencement of the Madras Act is to be calculated under Schedule 1, Article 1 of Central Court-fees Act (1870), on claim of enhancement and not under the Act of 1955 in view of Section 87 (2) of the Act. AIR 1962 Ker 25 (26) = 1961 Ker LT 484 (DB). ((1960) 2 MLJ 207, Rel. on.)

(5) Proceedings under Sections 9 and 11 of Land Acquisition Act are proceedings within the meaning of Section 87 (2) of Court-fees Act — Reference under Section 18 of the Act is a continuation of those proceedings or arising out of those proceedings within Section 87 (2) of the Court-fees Act — Proceedings under Sections 9 and 11 started before the Court-fees Act of 1955 — Reference after 1955 — Court-fee is payable under the old law. ILR (1960) Mad 954 (959, 960) = (1960) 2 MLJ 207.

(6) Court-fees Act (1870), Sch. II, Art. 17 (1) — Civil P. C. (1908), O. 21, Rr. 58, 63 and 103 — Suit decreed before Madras Act of 1955—Claim under O. 21, R. 58 filed and decided after the Act of 1955 — Suit under R. 63 — Court-fee is payable under Section 41 (2) and not under Act of 1870. ILR (1965) 2 Mad 90 (92) = (1965) 2 Mad LJ 449.

(7) Execution proceedings — Claim petition filed — Adverse order passed before coming into force of new Court-fees Act — Claim suit filed after coming into force of said Act — Requisite court-fee to be paid as per provision in old Court-fees Act as the claim petitions out of which the claim suit arose were instituted before the Act of 1955. AIR 1959 Mad 155 (156) = (1959) 1 Mad LJ 151.

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and application.—(1) This Act may be called the West Bengal Court-fees Act, 1970.

(2) It extends to the whole of the State of West Bengal.

(3) The provisions of this Act shall not apply to fees or stamps relating to documents presented or to be presented before any officer serving under the Central Government.

(4) Where any other law contains provisions relating to the levy of fee in respect of proceedings under such other law, the provisions of this Act relating to the levy of fee in respect of such proceedings shall apply subject to the said provisions of such other law.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context;—

(1) "appeal" includes a cross-objection;

(2) "Collector" includes any officer not below the rank of a Sub-Deputy Collector appointed by the Collector to perform the functions of a Collector under this Act;

(3) "Court" means any Civil, Revenue or Criminal Court and includes a Tribunal or other authority having jurisdiction under any local or special law to decide questions affecting the rights of parties;

(4) "suit" includes an appeal from a decree except in Section 9;

(5) expressions used and not defined in this Act or in the Bengal General Clauses Act, 1899, but defined in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the said Code.

CHAPTER II

FEES PAYABLE IN COURTS AND IN PUBLIC OFFICES

3. Levy of fees in Court of Small Causes, Calcutta.—The fees for the time being chargeable in the Court of Small Causes at Calcutta, and its office shall be collected in the manner hereinafter appearing.

4. Levy of fee in Courts and public offices.—(1) No document which is chargeable with fee under this Act shall—

(i) be filed, exhibited or recorded in, or be acted on or furnished by, any Court including the High Court, or

(ii) be filed, exhibited or recorded in any public office or be acted on or furnished by any public officer,

unless in respect of such document there be paid a fee of an amount not less than that indicated as chargeable under this Act:

Provided that, whenever the filing or exhibition in a Criminal Court of a document in respect of which the proper fee has not been paid is, in the opinion of the Court, necessary to prevent a failure of justice, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prohibit such filing or exhibition.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or in any other Act, a Court may receive a plaint or memorandum of appeal in respect of which an insufficient fee has been paid subject to the condition that the plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be rejected unless the plaintiff or appellant, as the case may be, pays to the Court within a time to be fixed by the Court such reasonable sum on account of court-fees as the Court may direct.

5. Procedure in case of difference as to necessity of amount of fee.—(1) In case any difference arises between the officer whose duty it is to see that any fee is paid under this Act and any suitor or his pleader, as to the necessity of paying a fee or the amount thereof, the question shall, when the difference arises in the High Court, be referred to the Taxing Officer whose decision thereon shall be final, subject to revision, on an application made within sixty days from the date of the decision, by the suitor or by his pleader, or such officer as may be appointed in this behalf by the State Government, by the Chief Justice or by such Judge of the High Court as the Chief Justice shall appoint either generally or specially in this behalf.

(2) When any such difference arises in the Court of Small Causes at Calcutta, the question shall be referred to the Registrar of the Court of Small Causes at Calcutta whose decision shall be final, subject to revision, on application made within sixty days from the date of the decision, by the party concerned or such officer as may be appointed in this behalf by the State Government, by the Chief Judge or by such Judge of the Court of Small Causes at Calcutta as the Chief Judge shall appoint either generally or specially in this behalf.

(3) The Chief Justice shall declare who shall be the Taxing Officer within the meaning of sub-section (1) of this section.

6. Document inadmissible unless fees collected by stamp purchased in West Bengal.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, no document of any of the kinds chargeable under this Act shall be filed, exhibited or recorded in any Court including the High Court, or shall be received, furnished or acted upon by any such Court or by any public officer, unless in respect of such document, the stamp referred to in S. 39 has been purchased from a person authorised or appointed to sell stamps in West Bengal.

CHAPTER III

COMPUTATION OF FEES

7. Computation of fees payable in certain suits.—The amount of fee payable under this Act in the suits next hereinafter mentioned shall be computed as follows:—

for money;

(i) In suits for money including suits for damages or compensation, or arrears of maintenance, of annuities, or of other sums payable periodically—according to the amount claimed;

for maintenance and annuities;

(ii) In suits for maintenance and annuities or other sums payable periodically—according to the value of the subject-matter of the suit, and such value shall be deemed to be ten times the amount claimed to be payable for one year:

Provided that in suits by widows for maintenance such value shall be deemed to be the amount claimed to be payable for one year; for movable property having a market value;

(iii) In suits for movable property other than money, where the subject-matter has a market value—according to such value at the date of presenting the plaint;

for movable property of no market value,

(iv) In suits—

(a) for movable property where the subject-matter has no market value, as for instance, in the case of documents relating to title, for declaratory decree and consequential relief;

(b) to obtain a declaratory decree or order, where consequential relief is prayed.

for injunction;

(c) to obtain an injunction,

for easement;

(d) for a right to some benefit (not herein otherwise provided for) to arise out of land, and/

for accounts;

(e) for accounts—

according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint or memorandum of appeal subject to the provisions of section 11.

In all such suits the plaintiff shall state the amount at which he values the relief sought.

for possession of land, buildings or gardens;

(v) In suits for the possession of land, buildings or gardens, not being suits referred to in clause (vi)—

(a) according to the value of the subject-matter, and such value shall be deemed to be fifteen times the net profits which have arisen from the land, building or garden during the year next before the date of presenting the plaint or if the Court sees reason to think that such profits have been wrongly estimated, fifteen times such amount as the Court may assess as such profits or according to the market-value of the land, building or garden, whichever is lower;

(b) if, in the opinion of the Court, such profits are not readily ascertainable or assessable, or where there are no such profits, according to the market-value of the land, building or garden;

Explanation.—In this paragraph "building" includes a house, out-house, stable, privy, urinal, shed, hut, wall and any other such structure, whether of masonry, bricks, wood, mud, metal or any other material whatsoever;

for recovery of possession of immovable property;

(vi) In a suit for recovery of possession of immovable property from—

(a) a trespasser, where no declaration of title to property is either prayed for or necessary for disposal of the suit—according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued in the plaint subject to the provisions of Section 11;

b) a licensee upon revocation or termination of his license,—

(i) where a license fee is payable by the licensee in respect of the immovable property to which the suit refers—according to the amount of the license fee of the immovable property payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint, or

(ii) where no such license fee is payable by the licensee—according to the amount at which the relief sought is valued on the plaint subject to the provisions of section 11;

to enforce a right of pre-emption;

(vii) In suits to enforce a right of pre-emption—according to the market-value of the land, building or garden in respect of which the right is claimed;

Explanation.—In this paragraph "building" has the same meaning as in paragraph (v); for partition and separate possession of a share of joint family property, etc.;

(viii) In suits for partition and separate possession of a share of joint family property or of a joint property, or to enforce a right to a share in any property on the ground that it is joint family property or joint property—if the plaintiff has been excluded from possession of the property of which he claims to be a coparcener or co-owner—according to the market-value of the share in respect of which the suit is instituted;

for interest of assignee of land-revenue;

(ix) In suits for the interest of an assignee of land-revenue—fifteen times his net profits as such for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint;

to set aside an attachment;

(x) In suits to set aside an attachment of land or of an interest in land or revenue—according to the amount for which the land or interest was attached :

Provided that, where such amount exceeds the value of the land or interest, the amount of fee shall be computed as if the suit were for the possession of such land or interest;

to redeem;

(xi) In suits against a mortgagee for the recovery of the property mortgaged,

to foreclose;

and in suits by a mortgagee to foreclose the mortgage, or where the mortgage is made by conditional sale, to have the sale declared absolute—

according to the principal money expressed to be secured by the instrument of mortgage;

for specific performance;

(xii) In suits for specific performance—

(a) of a contract of sale—according to the amount of the consideration,

(b) of a contract of mortgage—according to the amount agreed to be secured,

(c) of a contract of lease—according to the aggregate amount of the fine or premium (if any) and of the rent agreed to be paid during the first year of the term,

(d) of an award—according to the amount or value of the property in dispute;

between landlord and tenant;

(xiii) In the following suits between landlord and tenant—

(a) for the delivery by a tenant of the counterpart of a lease,

(b) to enhance the rent of a tenant having a right of occupancy,

(c) for the delivery by a landlord of a lease,

(d) for the recovery of immovable property from a tenant including a tenant holding over after the determination of a tenancy,

(e) to contest a notice of ejectment,

(f) to recover the occupancy of immovable property from which a tenant has been illegally ejected by the landlord, and

(g) for abatement of rent—

according to the amount of the rent of the immovable property to which the suit refers, payable for the year next before the date of presenting the plaint.

8. Fee on memorandum of appeal against order relating to compensation.—The amount of fee payable under this Act on a memorandum of appeal against an order relating to compensation under any Act for the time being in force for the acquisition of land for public purposes, shall be computed according to the difference between the amount awarded and the amount claimed by the appellant.

9. Statement of particulars of subject-matter of suits and plaintiff's valuation thereof.—In every suit in which an ad valorem court-fee is payable under this Act on the plaint, the plaintiff shall file with the plaint a statement of particulars of the subject-matter of the suit and his own valuation thereof unless such particulars and the valuation are contained in the plaint. The statement shall be in such form and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed by the State Government by notification in the Official Gazette. In every such suit the plaintiff shall also, if the Court so directs, file a duplicate copy of the plaint and of the said statement.

10. Procedure where insufficient court-fee is filed on plaint or memorandum of appeal.—(1) In every suit in which a court-fee is payable under this Act on the plaint or memorandum of appeal the Court shall, on the date fixed for the appearance of the opposite party or as soon as may be thereafter, and in every case before proceeding to deliver judgment, record a finding whether a sufficient court-fee has been paid.

(2) If the Court records a finding that an insufficient court-fee has been paid on the plaint or memorandum of appeal the Court shall—

(a) stay all further proceedings in the suit until it has determined the proper amount of such court-fee payable and the plaintiff or the appellant, as the case may be, has paid such amount or until the date referred to in clause (b), as the case may be:

Provided that if the plaintiff or appellant gives, within such time as the Court may allow, security, to the satisfaction of the Court, for the payment of any additional amount for which he may be found liable the Court may proceed with the suit;

(b) fix a date before which the plaintiff or appellant shall pay the amount of court-fee due from him, as determined by the Court under clause (a).

(3) If the plaintiff or appellant fails to give the security referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (2) or to pay the amount referred to in clause (b) of that sub-section within the time allowed, or before the date fixed, by the Court, as the case may be, the suit shall be dismissed.

11. Inquiry as to valuation of suits.—If the Court is of opinion that the subject-matter of any suit has been wrongly valued, it may revise the valuation and determine the correct valuation and may hold such inquiry as it thinks fit for such purpose.

12. Investigation to ascertain proper valuation.—(1) For the purpose of an inquiry under Section 11 the Court may depute, or issue a commission to, any suitable person to make such local or other investigation as may be necessary and to report thereon to the Court. Such report and any evidence recorded by such person shall be evidence in the inquiry.

(2) The Court may, from time to time, direct such party to the suit as it thinks fit to deposit such sum as the Court thinks reasonable as the costs of the inquiry, and if the costs are not deposited within such time as the Court shall fix, may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, dismiss the suit if such party is the plaintiff or the appellant and, in any other case, may recover the costs as a public demand.

13. Power of persons making inquiry under Sections 11 and 12.—(1) The Court, when making an inquiry under Section 12 shall have, respectively, for the purposes of such inquiry or investigation, the powers vested in a Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 in respect of the following matters, namely:—

(a) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath or affirmation;

(b) compelling the production of documents or material objections; and

(c) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.

(2) An inquiry or investigation referred to in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of Sections 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

14. Costs of inquiry as to valuation and refund of excess fee.—(1) If in the result of an inquiry under Section 11 the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has been undervalued the Court may order the party responsible for the undervaluation to pay all or any part of the costs of the inquiry.

(2) If in the result of such inquiry the Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit has not been undervalued the Court may, in its discretion, order that all or any part of such costs shall be paid by the State Government or by any party to the suit at whose instance the inquiry has been undertaken, and if any amount exceeding the proper amount of fee has been paid shall refund the excess amount so paid.

15. Procedure in suits for mesne profits or account when amount found due exceeds amount claimed.—Where, in any suit for mesne profits or for land and mesne profits or for an account, the fee which would have been payable if the suit had comprised the whole of the relief to which the Court finds the plaintiff to be entitled, exceeds the fee actually paid, the Court shall require the plaintiff to pay an additional fee equal to the amount of the excess, and if such additional fee is not paid within such time as the Court may fix, the suit, or if a decree has previously been passed therein, so much of the claim as has not been so decreed, shall be dismissed:

Provided that, where the additional fee is payable in respect of a portion of the claim which can be relinquished, that portion only shall be dismissed.

16. Decision of questions as to valuation.—(1) Every question relating to valuation for the purpose of determining the amount of any fee chargeable under this Chapter on a plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be decided by the Court in which such plaint or memorandum, as the case may be, is filed, and such decision shall be final as between the parties to the suit.

(2) But whenever any such suit comes before a Court of Appeal, reference or revision, if such Court considers that the said question has been wrongly decided, to the detriment of the revenue, it shall require the party by whom such fee has been paid to pay so much additional fee as would have been payable had the question been rightly decided,—

(a) if the party required to pay is the appellant or petitioner, the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of Section 10 shall, so far as may be, apply;

(b) if the party required to pay is the respondent or the opposite party, the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 10 shall, so far as may be, apply, and, if such party fails to pay the fee required before the date fixed by the Court, the Court shall recover the amount of such fee from him as a public demand.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section a question relating to the classification of any suit for the purpose of Section 7 shall not be deemed to be a question relating to valuation.

17. Recovery of deficit court-fee in certain cases.—(1) The High Court shall, when dealing with an application for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court, make an order for the payment of any deficit court-fee with such interest not exceeding six per centum per annum as the High Court may direct, in all cases where the High Court finds that the subject-matter of the suit or appeal had been undervalued either in the Court of first instance or in the Court of Appeal or in both, irrespective of whether the certificate of fitness for appeal to the Supreme Court is or is not granted.

(2) The fee together with interest thereon found to be payable under sub-section (1) shall be paid by the party ordered to do so and if such party fails to pay the amount required before the date fixed by the High Court, it shall be recoverable from him as a public demand.

18. Refund of fee paid on memorandum of appeal.— If an appeal or plaint, which has been rejected by the lower Court on any of the grounds mentioned in the Code of Civil Procedure, is ordered to be received, or if a suit is remanded in appeal, on any of the grounds mentioned in Order XLI, Rule 23 of the same Code for a second decision by the lower Court, the Appellate Court shall grant to the appellant a certificate, authorizing him to receive back from the Collector the full amount of fee paid on the memorandum of appeal:

Provided that if, in the case of a remand in appeal, the order of remand shall not cover the whole of the subject-matter of the suit, the certificate so granted shall not authorize the appellant to receive back more than so much fee as would have been originally payable on the part or parts of such subject-matter in respect whereof the suit has been remanded.

19. Refund fee on application for review of judgment.—Where an application for a review of judgment is presented on or after the ninetieth day from the date of the decree, the Court, unless the delay was caused by the applicant's laches, may, in its discretion, grant him a certificate authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee which would have been payable had it been presented before such day.

20. Refund where Court reverses or modifies its former decision on ground of mistake.—(1) Where an application for a review of judgment is admitted, and where, on the rehearing the Court reverses or modifies its former decision on the ground of mistake in law or fact, the applicant shall be entitled to a cetificate from the Court authorizing him to receive back from the Collector so much of the fee paid on the application as exceeds the fee payable on any other application to such Court under Schedule II to this Act, No. 1, clause (b) or clause (d).

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) of this section shall entitle the applicant to such certificate where the reversal or modification is due, wholly or in part to fresh evidence which might have been produced at the original hearing.

21. Multifarious suits.—(1) In any suit in which two or more separate and distinct causes of action are joined and separate and distinct reliefs are sought in respect of each, the plaint or memorandum of appeal shall be chargeable with the aggregate amount of the fees with which the plaints or memoranda of appeal would be chargeable under this Act in separate suits instituted in respect of each such cause of action:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to affect any power conferred by or under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, to order separate trials.

(2) Where more reliefs than one based on the same cause of action are sought either jointly or in the alternative, the fee shall be paid according to the value of the relief in respect of which the largest fee is payable.

22. Written examinations of complainants.—When the first or only examination of a person who complains of the offence of wrongful confinement, or of wrongful restraint, or of any offence other than an offence for which police officers may arrest without a warrant, and who has not already presented a petition on which a fee has been levied under this Act, is reduced to writing, under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the complainant shall pay a fee of one rupee unless the Court thinks fit to remit such payment.

23. Exemption of certain documents.—Nothing contained in this Act shall render the following documents chargeable with any fee:—

(i) Power of attorney or other written authority to institute or defend a suit when executed by a member of any of the Armed Forces of the Union not in civil employment.

(ii) Written statements called for by the Court after the first hearing of a suit.

(iii) Probate of a will, letters of administration, where the amount or value of the property in respect of which the probate or letters or certificate shall be granted does not exceed two thousand rupees.

(iv) Application or petition to a Collector or other officer making a settlement of land-revenue, or to the Board of Revenue, relating to matters connected with the assessment of land or the ascertainment of rights thereto or interests therein, if presented previous to the final confirmation of such settlement.

(v) Application relating to a supply for irrigation of water belonging to Government.

(vi) Application for leave to extend cultivation, or to relinquish land, when presented to an officer of land-revenue by a person holding, under direct engagement with Government, land of which the revenue is settled, but not permanently.

(vii) Application for service of notice of relinquishment of land or of enhancement of rent.

(viii) Written authority to an agent to distrain.

(ix) First application (other than a petition containing a criminal charge or information) for the summons of a witness or other persons to attend either to give evidence or to produce a document, or in respect of the production or filing of an exhibit not being an affidavit made for the immediate purpose of being produced in Court.

(x) Bail bonds in criminal cases, recognizances to prosecute or give evidence, and recognizances for personal appearance or otherwise.

(xi) Petition, application, charge or information respecting any offence, when presented, made or laid to or before a Police Officer, or to or before the Heads of Village or the village police.

(xii) Petition by a prisoner, or other person in duress or under restraint of any Court or its officers.

(xiii) Complaint of a public servant (as defined in the Indian Penal Code), a municipal officer, or an officer or emplovees of Government Railway.

(xiv) Application for permission to cut timber in Government forests or otherwise relating to such forests.

(xv) Application for the payment of money due by Government to the applicant.

(xvi) Petition of appeal against any municipal tax.

(xvii) Applications for compensation under any law for the time being in force relating to the acquisition of property for public purposes.

(xviii) Petitions of appeal by employees of the Government or Court of Wards against orders of dismissal, reduction or suspension; copies of such orders filed with such appeals, and applications for obtaining such copies.

CHAPTER IV

PROBATES, LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION AND CERTIFICATES OF ADMINISTRATION.

24. Relief where too high a court-fee has been paid.—Where any person on applying for the probate of a will or letters of administration has estimated the property of the deceased to be of greater value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has consequently paid too high a court-fee thereon, if within six months after the true value of the property has been ascertained, such person produces the probate or letters to the Board of Revenue for the local area in which the probate or letters has or have been granted.

and delivers to such Authority a particular inventory and valuation of the property of the deceased, verified by affidavit or affirmation, and if such Authority is satisfied that a greater fee was paid on the probate or letters than the law required, the said Authority may—

(a) cancel the stamp on the probate or letters, if such stamp has not been already cancelled;

(b) substitute another stamp for denoting the court-fee which should have been paid thereon; and

(c) make an allowance for the difference between them as in the case of spoiled stamps, or repay the same in money, at his discretion.

25. Relief where debts due from a deceased person have been paid out of his estate.—(1) Whenever it is proved to the satisfaction of such Authority that an executor or administrator has paid debts due from the deceased to such an amount as, being deducted out of the amount or value of the estate, reduces the same to a sum which, if it had been the whole gross amount or value of the estate, would have occasioned a less court-fee to be paid on the probate or letters of administration granted in respect of such estate than has been actually paid thereon under this Act, such Authority may return the difference, provided the same be claimed within three years after the date of such probate or letters.

(2) But when, by reason of any legal proceeding, the debts due from the deceased have not been recovered and made available, and in consequence thereof the executor or administrator is prevented from claiming the return of such difference within the said term of three years, the said Authority may allow such further time for making the claim as may appear to be reasonable under the circumstances.

26. Relief in case of several grants.—(1) Whenever a grant of probate or letters of administration has been or is made in respect of the whole of the property belonging to an estate, and the full fee chargeable under this Act has been or is paid thereon, no fee shall be chargeable under the same Act when a like grant is made in respect of the whole or any part of the same property belonging to the same estate.

(2) Whenever such a grant has been or is made in respect of any property forming part of an estate, the amount of fees then actually paid under this Act shall be deducted when a like grant is made in respect of property belonging to the same estate, identical with or including the property to which the former grant relates.

27. Probates declared valid as to property though not covered by court-fee.—The probate of the will, or the letters of administration of the effects, of any person deceased heretofore or hereafter granted shall be deemed valid and available by his executors or administrators for recovering, transferring or assigning any movable or immovable property whereof or whereto the deceased was possessed or entitled, either wholly or partially as a trustee, notwithstanding the amount or value of such property is not included in the amount or value of the estate in respect of which a court-fee was paid on such probate or letters of administration.

28. Provision for case where too low a court-fee has been paid on probates, etc.—Where any person on applying for probate or letters of administration has estimated the estate of the deceased to be of less value than the same has afterwards proved to be, and has in consequence paid too low a court-fee thereon, the Board of Revenue for the local area in which the probate or letters has or have been granted may, on the value of the estate of the deceased being verified by affidavit or affirmation, cause the probate or letters of administration to be duly stamped on payment of the full court-fee which ought to have been originally paid thereon in respect of such value and of the further penalty, if the probate or letters is or are produced within one year from the date of the grant, of five times, or, if it or they is or are produced after one year from such date, of twenty times, such proper court-fee, without any deduction of the court-fee originally paid on such probate or letters:

Provided that, if the application be made within six months after the ascertainment of the true value of the estate and the discovery that too low a court-fee was at first paid on the probate or letters, and if the said Authority is satisfied that such fee was paid in consequence of a mistake or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonging to the deceased, and without any intention of fraud or to delay the payment of the proper court-fee, the said Authority may remit the said penalty, and cause the probate or letters to be duly stamped on payment only of the sum wanting to make up the fee which should have been at first paid thereon.

29. Administrator to give proper security before letters stamped under Section 28.—In case of letters of administration on which too low a court-fee has been paid at first, the said Authority shall not cause the same to be duly stamped in manner aforesaid until the administrator has given such security to the Court by which the letters of administration have been granted as ought by law to have been given on the granting thereof in case the full value of the estate of the deceased has been then ascertained.

30. Executors, etc., not paying full court-fee on probates, etc., within six months after discovery of under-payment.—Where too low a court-fee has been paid on any probate or letters of administration in consequence of any mistake, or of its not being known at the time that some particular part of the estate belonged to the deceased, if any executor or administrator acting under such probate or letters does not, within six months after the discovery of the mistake or of any effects not known at the time to have belonged to the deceased, apply to the said Authority and pay what is wanting to make up the court-fee which ought to have been paid at first on such probate or letters, he shall forfeit the sum of one thousand rupees and also a further sum at the rate of ten per cent, on the amount of the sum wanting to make up the proper court-fee.

31. Notice of applications for probate or letters of administration to be given to Revenue-authority and procedure thereon.—(1) Where an application for probate or letters of administration is made to any Court other than the High Court, the Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Collector.

(2) Where such an application as aforesaid is made to the High Court, the High Court shall cause notice of the application to be given to the Board of Revenue for the local area in which the High Court is situated.

(3) The Collector within the local limits of whose Revenue-jurisdiction the property of the deceased or any part thereof is, may at any time inspect or cause to be inspected, and take or cause to be taken copies of, the record of any case in which application for probate or letters of administration has been made; and if, on such inspection or otherwise, he is of opinion that the petitioner has underestimated the value of the property of the deceased, the Collector may, if he thinks fit, require the attendance of the petitioner (either in person or by agent) and take evidence and inquire into the matter in such manner as he may think fit, and, if he is still of opinion that the value of the property has been under-estimated, may require the petitioner to amend the valuation.

(4) If the petitioner does not amend the valuation to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may move the Court before which the application for probate or letters of administration was made, to hold an inquiry into the true value of the property:

Provided that no such motion shall be made after the expiration of six months from the date of the exhibition of the inventory required by Section 317 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925.

(5) The Court, when so moved as aforesaid, shall hold, or cause to be held, an inquiry accordingly, and shall record a finding as to the true value, as near as may be, at which the property of the deceased should have been estimated. The Collector shall be deemed to be a party to the inquiry.

(6) For the purposes of any such inquiry, the Court or person authorized by the Court to hold the inquiry may examine the petitioner for probate or letters of administration on oath (whether in person or by commission), and may take such further evidence as may be produced to prove the true value of the property. The person authorized as aforesaid to hold the inquiry shall return to the Court the evidence taken by him and report the result of the inquiry, and such report and the evidence so taken shall be evidence in the proceeding, and the Court may record a finding in accordance with the report, unless it is satisfied that it is erroneous.

(7) The finding of the Court recorded under sub-section (5) shall be final, but shall not bar the entertainment and disposal by the Board of Revenue of any application under Section 28.

(8) The State Government may make rules for the guidance of Collectors in the exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3).

32. Payment of court-fees in respect of probates and letters of administration.—(1) No order entitling the petitioner to the grant of probate or letters of administration shall be made upon an application for such grant until the petitioner has filed in the Court a valuation of the property in the form set forth in Schedule III, and the Court is satisfied that the fee mentioned in No. 10 of Schedule I has been paid on such valuation.

(2) The grant of probate or letters of administration shall not be delayed by reason of any motion made by the Collector under sub-section (4) of Section 31.

33. Recovery of penalties, etc.—(1) Any excess fee found to be payable on an inquiry held under sub-section (6) of Section 31, and any penalty or forfeiture under Section 30, may, on the certificate of the Board of Revenue, be recovered from the executor or administrator as if it were an arrear of land-revenue by any Collector.

(2) The Board of Revenue may remit the whole or any part of any such penalty or forfeiture as aforesaid, or any part of any penalty under Section 28 or of any court-fee under Section 28 in excess of the full court-fee which ought to have been paid.

34. Section 42 not to apply to probates or letters of administration.—Nothing in Section 42 shall apply to probates or letters of administration.

CHAPTER V

PROCESS-FEES

35. Rules as to costs of processes.—(1) The High Court shall, as soon as may be, make rules as to the following matters :—

(i) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by such Court in its appellate jurisdiction, and by other Civil and Revenue Courts established within the local limits of such jurisdiction;

(ii) the fees chargeable for serving and executing processes issued by the Criminal Courts established within such limits in the case of offences other than offences for which police officers may arrest without a warrant; and

(iii) the remuneration of the peons and all other persons employed by leave of a Court in the service or execution of processes.

(2) The High Court may from time to time alter and add to the rules so made.

Confirmation and publication of rules.

(3) All such rules, alterations and additions shall after being confirmed by the State Government be published in the Official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

36. Tables of process fees.—A table in the English and Vernacular languages, showing the fees chargeable for such service and execution, shall be exposed to view in a conspicuous part of each Court.

37. Number of peons in district and subordinate Courts.—Subject to rules to be made by the High Court and approved by the State Government, every District

Judge and every Magistrate of a District shall fix, and may from time to time alter, the number of peons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued out of his Court and each of the Courts subordinate thereto.

Number of peons in Mofussil Small Causes Courts.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, every Court of Small Causes established under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, shall be deemed to be subordinate to the Court of the District Judge.

38. Number of peons in Revenue Courts.—Subject to rules to be framed by the Board of Revenue and approved by the State Government, every officer performing the functions of a Collector of a district shall fix, and may from time to time alter, the number of peons necessary to be employed for the service and execution of processes issued out of his Court or the Courts subordinate to him.

CHAPTER VI

OF THE MODE OF LEVYING FEES

39. Collection of fees by stamps.—All fees referred to in Section 3 and chargeable under this Act shall be collected by stamps.

40. Stamps to be impressed or adhesive.—The stamps used to denote any fees chargeable under this Act shall be impressed or adhesive, or partly impressed and partly adhesive, as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette from time to time, direct.

41. Rules for supply, number, renewal and keeping accounts of stamps.—(1) The State Government may, from time to time, make rules for regulating—

(a) the supply of stamps to be used under this Act;

(b) the number of stamps to be used for denoting any fee chargeable under this Act;

(c) the renewal of damaged or spoiled stamps; and

(d) the keeping of accounts of all stamps used under this Act:

Provided that, in the case of stamps used in the High Court, such rules shall be made with the concurrence of the Chief Justice of that Court.

(2) All such rules shall be published in the Official Gazette, and shall thereupon have the force of law.

42. Stamping documents inadvertently received.—(1) No document which ought to bear a stamp under this Act shall be of any validity, unless and until it is properly stamped.

(2) But, if any such document is through mistake or inadvertence received, filed or used in any Court or office without being properly stamped, the presiding Judge or the head of the office, as the case may be, or, in the case of the High Court, any Judge of such Court, may, if he thinks fit, order that such document be stamped as he may direct; and on such document being stamped accordingly, the same and every proceeding relative thereto shall be as valid as if it had been properly stamped in the first instance.

43. Amended document.—Where any such document is amended in order merely to correct a mistake and to make it conform to the original intention of the parties, it shall not be necessary to impose a fresh stamp.

44. Cancellation of stamp.—(1) No document requiring a stamp under this Act shall be filed, or acted upon in any proceeding in any Court or office until the stamp has been cancelled.

(2) Such officer as the Court or the head of the office may from time to time appoint shall, on receiving any such document, forthwith effect such cancellation by punching out the figure-head so as to leave the amount designated on the stamp untouched, and the part removed by punching shall be burnt or otherwise destroyed.

CHAPTER VII

MISCELLANEOUS

45. Sale of stamps.—(1) The State Government may, from time to time, make rules for regulating the sale of, and the particulars to be entered at the time of sale on, stamps to be used under this Act, the persons by whom alone such sale is to be conducted, and the duties and remuneration of such persons.

(2) All such rules shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall thereupon have the force of law.

(3) Any person appointed to sell stamps who disobeys any rule made under this section, and any person not so appointed who sells or offers for sale any stamps, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

46. Enlargement of time.—Where any period is fixed or granted by the Court for the doing of any act prescribed or allowed by this Act, the Court may, in its discretion, from time to time, enlarge such period, even though the period originally fixed or granted may have expired.

47. Power to suspend, reduce or remit fees.—(1) The State Government may, from time to time, subject to such conditions or restrictions as it may think fit to impose, by notification in the Official Gazette, suspend the payment of or reduce or remit, in the whole of West Bengal or in any part thereof, all or any of the fees mentioned in Schedules I and II to this Act and may in like manner cancel or vary such order.

(2) The State Government may, from time to time by rules, prescribe the manner in which any fee the payment of which is suspended under sub-section (1) may be realised and for this purpose direct that such fee may be recovered as a public demand.

48. Saving of fees to certain officers of High Court.—Nothing in Chapters II and VI of this Act applies to the Commission payable to the Accountant-General of the High Court or to the fees which any officer of the High Court is allowed to receive in addition to a fixed salary.

49. Continuance in force of the existing rules.— Until rules are framed under Ss. 9, 35, 41, 45 and sub-section (2) of Section 47 and until notifications are issued under sub-section (1) of Section 47, the rules and notifications in force on the date of commencement of the Act in respect of matters referred to in those sections shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act, continue.

50. Repeal and savings.—(1) The Court-fees Act, 1870, in its application to the State of West Bengal and in relation to the fees and stamps other than fees and stamps relating to documents presented or to be presented before an officer serving under the Central Government is hereby repealed.

(2) All suits and proceedings instituted before the commencement of the West Bengal Court-fees Ordinance, 1969, and all proceedings by way of appeal, revision or otherwise arising therefrom whether instituted before or after such commencement shall, notwithstanding the repeal of the Court-fees Act, 1870, be governed by the provisions of the said Act and the rules made thereunder.

(3) The West Bengal Court-fees Ordinance, 1969, is hereby repealed.

(4) Anything done or any action taken under the West Bengal Court-fees Ordinance, 1969, shall be deemed to have been validly done or taken under this Act as if this Act had commenced on the 10th day of January, 1970.

[THE] COURTS (COLONIAL) JURISDICTION ACT, 1874

(37 & 38 Vict., c. 27)

[The text of the Act printed here is as on 15-11-1969.]

[30th June, 1874]

An Act to regulate the Sentences imposed by Colonial Courts where jurisdiction to try is conferred by Imperial Acts.

[Preamble and enacting words.]

Repealed by S. L. R. (No. 2) 1893, (56 and 57 Vict., c. 54.)]

1. Short title.—This Act may be cited for all purposes as THE COURTS (COLONIAL) JURISDICTION ACT, 1874.

NOTE.—There is a difference of opinion between the Calcutta and the Bombay High Courts as to the effect of this statute. In (1912) 39 Cal 487 (490), the Calcutta High Court held that this statute does not authorise the punishment of an act which does not amount to an offence under the English law and that in every case the charge must be framed in terms of the English law though the procedure may be governed by the Indian law. In (1889) 14 Bom 227, however, the Bombay High Court held that both the substantive and procedural law in such cases shall be Indian.

2. Definition of the term "colony."—For the purposes of this Act, the term "colony" shall not include any places within the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, [the Channel Islands, British India †[ *] but shall include] any plantation, territory, or settlement situate elsewhere within Her Majesty's dominions, and subject to the same local Government and for the purposes of this Act all plantations, territories, and settlements under a central legislature shall be deemed to be one colony under the same local Government.

[*] These words were substituted by A. O. (P.) 1937 and S. R. and O. 1937/230, for the words "or the Channel Islands, but shall include such territories as may for the time being be vested in Her Majesty by virtue of an Act of Parliament for the Government of India, and."

[†] The words "or British Burma," repealed by Burma Independence Act, 1947 (11 Geo. 6, Ch. 3), Section 5 and Sch. II, Pt. I.

2A. Application of Act to British India and British Burma.—This Act applies in relation to each Governor's Province and Chief Commissioner's Province of British India †[* * *] as it applies in relation to a colony.

[*] This section was inserted by A. O. (P.), 1937: S.R. and O. 1937/230.

[†] The words "and to British Burma" repealed by Burma Independence Act, 1947 (11 Geo. 6, Ch. 3), Section 5 and Sch. II, Pt. I.

3. At trials in any colonial courts by virtue of imperial Acts, courts empowered to pass sentences as if crimes had been committed in the colony.—When, by virtue of any Act of Parliament now or hereafter to be passed, a person is tried in a Court of any colony for any crime or offence committed upon the high seas or elsewhere out of the territorial limits of such colony and of the local jurisdiction of such Court, or if committed within such local jurisdiction made punishable by that Act, such person shall, upon conviction, be liable to such punishment as might have been inflicted upon him if the crime or offence had been committed within the limits of such colony and of the local jurisdiction of the Court, and to no other, anything, in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding:

Provided always, that if the crime or offence is a crime or offence not punishable by the law of the colony in which the trial takes place, the person shall, on conviction, be liable to such punishment (other than capital punishment) as shall seem to the Court most nearly to correspond to the punishment to which such person would have been liable in case such crime or offence had been tried in England.

THE SCHEDULE
[Repealed.]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"Recent events have demonstrated that it is expedient to provide for the more speedy trial of anarchical offence and for the suppression of associations dangerous to the public peace. This Bill has been prepared to meet these objects. * * *

Part II provides for the suppression of unlawful associations. Such persons as are members of or in any way assist an association which encourages or aids the commitment of acts of violence or intimidation, or of which the members habitually commit such acts, are made liable to punishment, and a severe punishment is provided for persons managing or promoting such associations. Further the Governor-General in Council is empowered to declare certain associations to be unlawful, and the same penalties are provided for persons who after this declaration maintain their connection with them.

The Bill extends in the first instance to the provinces of Bengal and Eastern Bengal and Assam, and the Governor-General in Council is empowered to extend it to other provinces".

ACT HOW AFFECTED BY SUBSEQUENT LEGISLATION

—Amended by Act 23 of 1932.
—In Madras, by Mad. Act 11 of 1950.
—In Maharashtra, by Bom. Acts 6 of 1947; 24 of 1959.

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) The trial of a British seaman for an offence committed on a British ship on the high seas must be conducted under the Criminal P. C., though the offence charged must be an offence under the English law. "In the case of Reg. v. Mount, L. R. 6 P. C. 283, a question arose not as to the nature of the offence but as to the amount of punishment that should be inflicted. All doubts on that point are now settled by 37 and 38 Vict., c. 27". [THE INDIAN] CRIMINAL LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1908

(ACT XIV OF 1908)[*]

[11th December, 1908.]

An Act to provide for the more speedy trial of certain offences, and for the prohibition of associations dangerous to the public peace.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the more speedy trial of certain offences, and for the prohibition of associations dangerous to the public peace; It is hereby enacted as follows :

[*] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of Ind., 1908, Pt. IV, p. 203; and for proceedings in Council, see ibid, Pt. VI, p. 158.

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called THE INDIAN CRIMINAL LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1908.

[*][(2) It extends to the whole of India except [†]the territories which, immediately before the 1st November, 1956, were comprised in Part B States.

(3) It applies to Assam[‡] and to the territories which, immediately before the 1st November, 1956 were comprised in the State of West Bengal; but the State Government of any State may, at any time, by notification[§] in the Official Gazette, bring the whole or any part thereof into force in the territories under its administration to which this Act extends.]

[*] Sub-sections (2) and (3) were substituted for the former sub-section (2), by 2 A. L. O., 1956.

[†] Immediately before the 1st November 1956, the following were the Part B States in India — Hyderabad, Jammu and Kashmir, Madhya Bharat, Mysore, Pepsu, Rajasthan, Saurashira and Travancore-Cochin. Of these Part B States, Jammu and Kashmir, Mysore, Rajasthan and Travancore-Cochin (now known as Kerala) have become independent States under Act 37 of 1956; Hyderabad (Telengana area) has merged with Andhra to form Andhra Pradesh; Madhya Bharat, Pepsu and Saurashtra now form parts of Madhya Pradesh, Punjab and Gujarat, respectively.

[‡] Assam is now divided into two States—Assam and Nagaland, with effect from 1-12-1963. United Khasi-Jaintia Hills district and Garo Hills district of Assam have gone to Meghalaya Autonomous State.

UNLAWFUL ASSOCIATIONS

Section 15 — Note 1

(1) The provisions of Sections 15 and 16, Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908 do not offend the fundamental right guaranteed by Article 19 (1) (c) of the Constitution of India. AIR 1952 Assam 167 (169) = ILR (1952) 4 Assam 18 = 1952 Cri L Jour 1659. (Even assuming those requirements can be regarded as restrictions on the right of the citizen that would not render the section invalid because they should be regarded only as reasonable restrictions.)

(2) Sub-section (2) (b) of the section as amended in Madras by the Criminal Law Amendment (Madras) Act, 1950 is unconstitutional and void because it imposes restrictions on the right of the citizen to form associations or unions which fall outside the scope of what is permitted under Clause (4) of Article 19 of the Constitution. AIR 1952 SC 196 (201) = 1952 SCR 597 = 1952 Cri L Jour 966. (AIR 1951 Mad 147, Affirmed.)

(3) Although Section 15 (2) (b) does not expressly confer power on the Provincial Government to declare an association unlawful and although the Criminal Law Amendment (Madras) Act of 1950 has omitted Section 16 which alone conferred such power from the Act it cannot be held that the State is powerless in the matter. On the contrary it must be taken that such power is implied in the very terms of the amended Section 15 (2) (b). AIR 1951 Mad 147 (176) = 52 Cri L Jour 515 (FB).

(2) "unlawful association" means an association—

(a) which encourages or aids persons to commit acts of violence or intimidation or of which the members habitually commit such acts, or

(b) which has been declared to be unlawful by the State Government under the powers hereby conferred.

In sub-section (2), for clause (b), substitute the following:

"(b) which has been declared by the State Government by notification in the Official Gazette to be unlawful on the ground (to be specified in the notification) that such association—

(ii) has interfered or interferes with the maintenance of public order or has such interference for its object, or

16. Power to declare association unlawful.—*[(1)] If the ‡State Government is of opinion that any association interferes or has for its object interference with the administration of the law or with the maintenance of law and order, or that it constitutes a danger to the public peace, the ‡State Government may, by notification in the ‡Official Gazette, declare such association to be unlawful.

Section 16 — Note 1

(1) No association is unlawful till the date of publication in the Gazette of the notification declaring it unlawful; a person, therefore, arrested before that date is not guilty, even though he knew of the declaration prior to its publication. AIR 1931 Lah 107 (111) = 12 Lah 471 = 32 Cri L Jour 653.

(2) Government must not only insert the declaration in the official Gazette, but, must publish it in such a manner as to allow reasonable opportunity for all people concerned to see it. AIR 1931 Bom 132 (133) = 55 Bom 356 = 32 Cri L Jour 572 (DB).

(3) It is not necessary to issue the Gazette to the public; it is enough if the accused was shown a copy before his arrest. AIR 1931 Bom 203 (204) = 32 Cri L Jour 725 (DB).

(4) Where a general notification declared that all associations, by whatever name the associations might be known or whether they might be known by any distinctive name or not, which had the following objects or any one of them; namely, disobedience of laws and orders of Government., non-payment of taxes, boycott and picketing of liquor and foreign cloth shops, on the ground that they interfered with the administration of law and order and constituted a danger to the public peace — Held, that the notification sufficiently complied with the terms of Section 16 read with

For Section 16, substitute the following sections:

"16. (1) A notification issued under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 15 in respect of any association shall—

(a) specify the ground on which it is issued, the reasons for its issue, and such other particulars, if any, as may have a bearing on the necessity therefor; and

(b) fix a reasonable period for any office bearer or member of the association or any other person interested to make a representation to the State Government in respect of the issue of the notification.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall require the State Government to disclose any facts which it considers to be against the public interest to disclose.

16A. (1) After the expiry of the time fixed in the notification for the making of representations in respect of the issue thereof, the State Government shall place before an Advisory Board constituted under sub-section (2) a copy of the notification and also of the representations, if any, received before such expiry.

(2) The State Government shall, whenever necessary, constitute one or more Advisory Boards; and each such Board shall consist of three persons who are, or have been, or are qualified to be appointed as, Judges of the High Court, and one of them shall be its Chairman. The Chairman and the other members of each Board shall be appointed by the State Government.

(3) The Advisory Board shall, after considering the materials placed before it and, if necessary, after calling for such further information as it may deem fit from the State Government or from any office bearer or member of the association concerned or any other person, submit its reports to the State Government.

(4) The report of the Advisory Board shall specify in a separate part thereof its opinion or that of the majority of its members as to whether or not there was sufficient cause for the issue of the notification in respect of the association concerned.

(5) Nothing in this section shall entitle any person to attend in person or to appear by any legal representative in any matter connected with the reference to the Advisory Board, and the proceedings of the Advisory Board and its report, excepting that part thereof in which its opinion or that of the majority of its members is specified, shall be confidential.

Section 15. AIR 1934 Cal 161 (162) = 35 Cri L Jour 605.

(5) Since the effect of a declaration under Section 16 is to enable the police to investigate a cognizable offence punishable under Section 17, the declaration stands on the same footing as an information of a cognizable offence under the Penal Code. AIR 1952 Assam 167 (168) = ILR (1952) 4 Assam 18 = 1952 Cri L Jour 1659.

(6) Section 16 which merely lays down certain requirements for making a valid declaration cannot be considered to impose any restrictions on the rights guaranteed by Article 19 (1) (c) of the Constitution and therefore, to have become void under the Constitution. AIR 1952 Assam 167 (168) = ILR (1952) 4 Assam 18 = 1952 Cri L Jour 1659.

[But see ILR (1952) 2 Cal 78 (79) (DB)  AIR 1951 Cal 505 (506) = 52 Cri L Jour 1087 (DB). (6) In any case where the Advisory Board or a majority of its members has reported that there is no sufficient cause for the issue of the notification in respect of the association concerned, the State Government shall cancel the notification in respect of such association." — T. N. Act 11 of 1950, S. 3 (12-8-1950): Tamil Nadu A. L. O., 1969.

17. Penalties.—(1) Whoever is a member of an unlawful association, or takes part in meetings of any such association, or contributes or receives or solicits any contribution for the purpose of any such association, in any way assists the operations of any such association shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine or with both.

(2) Whoever manages or assists in the management of an unlawful association or promotes or assists in promoting a meeting of any such association, or of any members thereof as such members, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

*[(3) An offence under sub-section (1) shall be cognizable by the police, and notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall be non-bailable.]

[*] Inserted by the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1932 (23 of 1932), S. 12.

Section 17 — Note 1

(1) Clause 1 of Section 17 is intended to deal with members and all other persons identifying themselves with any unlawful body and Clause (2) of Section 17 is directed against the leaders. AIR 1926 Lah 357 (359) = 27 Cri L Jour 913 = 7 Lah 348 (DB).

(2) Where an association has been declared unlawful and the only charge against a person is that he is a member thereof the appropriate course for the Government to adopt is to put him on his trial in a Court of law on such charge under this Act. Resort to the emergency powers conferred on the executive under the Public Safety Acts resulting in the denial of a trial to such a person would be indefensible and not tolerated by Courts. AIR 1949 East Punj 130 (133, 134) = ILR (1949) East Punj 208 = 50 Cri L Jour 370.

(3) The Court in the proceedings under Section 17, has only to ascertain whether the association in question has been declared unlawful and then examine the evidence as to whether the person facing trial took part in its activities in the manner prohibited by the section. It is not within the province of the Court to determine whether there was necessity for declaring the association unlawful. AIR 1950 Nag 12 (14) = ILR (1949) Nag 976 = 51 Cri L Jour 254. (For purposes of the section Courts take judicial notice of the notification declaring the association unlawful.)

(4) Where an association has been declared unlawful under Section 16 prosecution must prove some overt act or conduct on the part of the accused which establish this connexion with the association at some time subsequent to such declaration. AIR 1931 Lah 145 (152) = 32 Cri L Jour 700.

(5) On mere declaration of the association as unlawful the association comes to an end and no active step is required from members to sever their connections with that body. AIR 1931 Bom 129 (130) = 55 Bom 484 = 32 Cri L Jour 472 (DB).

(6) Powers given by Sections 16 and 17 of the Act are not intended to be used so as to make people liable to penalties for having been members of associations at a time when they were lawful. AIR 1931 Bom 129 (131) = 55 Bom 484 = 32 Cri L Jour 472 (DB).

(7) There is no presumption that a person, who was a member of a lawful association, continued as a member after it has been declared unlawful. On the contrary Courts must presume that he would cease to be a member after the declaration. AIR 1931 Bom 129 (130) = 55 Bom 484 = 32 Cri L Jour 472 (DB)  AIR 1931 Lah 153 (156) = 32 Cri L Jour 708.

(8) The word "assists" in Section 17 (1) must be construed in a reasonable way and means "intentionally assists". The section is obviously not designed to punish persons who, acting quite innocently, happen, by accident, to do something which furthers the operation of an unlawful association. AIR 1933 Mad 123 (124, 125) = 34 Cri L Jour 90  AIR 1952 All 359 (360) = 1952 Cri L Jour 682  AIR 1933 Mad 369 (370, 371) = 34 Cri L Jour 823  AIR 1931 Bom 200 (200) = 55 Bom 442 = 32 Cri L Jour 717 (DB).

(9) Intention to assist the operation of an unlawful association can be inferred by an unambiguous overt act. AIR 1933 Mad 369 (370, 371) = 34 Cri L Jour 823.

(10) The acts of a person who assists and the operations of the association declared unlawful should be so connected together that it should be possible to infer from them the existence of a design or calculation. AIR 1952 All 359 (360) = 1952 Cri L Jour 682.

(11) The mere existence of a common aim between the accused and the unlawful association is not enough to involve assistance. AIR 1931 Bom 200 (200) = 55 Bom 442 = 32 Cri L Jour 717 (DB)  AIR 1932 Lah 613 (614) = 34 Cri L Jour 87  AIR 1932 Lah 578 (578) = 34 Cri L Jour 72.

(12) Words "in any way assists the operations of any such association" cover acts which assist, even without the co-operation of such associations. AIR 1931 Bom 206 (207) = 32 Cri L Jour 804 (DB).

(13) It is immaterial whether the person who renders help to an unlawful association has been authorised to do so or whether he acts purely on his own initiative. AIR 1926 Lah 357 (359) = 7 Lah 348 = 27 Cri L Jour 913 (DB).

(14) The mere display of a Congress flag over a shop, and refusal to take it down at the request of the police, does not amount to assisting the operations of an 'unlawful association' and is not an offence under Section 17 (1). AIR 1933 All 95 (96) = 34 Cri L Jour 22  AIR 1933 Cal 695 (695) = 34 Cri L Jour 925 (DB).

(15) Publication of notice in a newspaper stating that meeting of an unlawful association is to take place and giving its time and place is assisting the promoters and amounts to offence under Section 17 (1). AIR 1931 Bom 206 (207, 208) = 32 Cri L Jour 804 (DB).

(16) Where the accused reproduced in his newspaper an appeal to stop trading in foreign cloth made by a person describing himself as a president of the war council and he was charged under Section 17 (1) with assisting the operations of an unlawful association: Held, that the article did not advocate any unlawful action; it only expressed views on an economic question and no offence was made under Section 17 (1). AIR 1931 Bom 413 (415) = 32 Cri L Jour 1158 (DB).

(17) The mere fact that at a conference, people were asked to join the Congress and boycott of British goods was preached and also the civil disobedience movement was promoted, does not make the conference identical with the Congress which has been declared unlawful and a person who merely presided at such a conference cannot be convicted under Section 17 (1) or (2) of the Criminal Law Amendment Act. AIR 1932 Lah 615 (616) = 34 Cri L Jour 25.

(18) A person making a speech at a meeting of an unlawful assembly must be held to be assisting in promoting a meeting though the speech is not specially violent. AIR 1934 Cal 161 (162) = 35 Cri L Jour 605.

(19) Where the accused was charged as a Jathadar or the leader or controller of a Jatha of the Akali Dal who had addressed meetings—appealing to the Sikhs to organise themselves into jathas and he admitted he was a Jathadar, it amounted to his pleading guilty to an offence under Section 17. AIR 1926 Lah 406 (407) = 7 Lah 359 = 27 Cri L Jour 907 (DB).

(20) To constitute the offence of promoting or assisting meeting of an unlawful association (1) there must be an association already in existence and (2) it must be promoting or assisting to promote a meeting of the association. Urging people to form into Jathas is not promoting. AIR 1925 Lah 522 (522) = 6 Lah 349 = 26 Cri L Jour 1135.

(21) Exhorting Sikhs to enlist themselves for Shahida Jathas and to go out collecting funds for a committee declared unlawful is not an offence under Sections 17 (1) and 17 (2) but is an offence under Section 117, I. P. C. AIR 1926 Lah 115 (116) = 26 Cri L Jour 1374.

(22) One who organizes or assists in organizing a meeting is also promoting or assisting to promote it. AIR 1926 Lah 405 (405) = 7 Lah 357 = 27 Cri L Jour 911 (DB).

(23) Accused exhorted people to hold Diwans and to take steps to establish independent State — On his departure from the place unlawful association was formed — Held, accused instigated the formation of the association and abetted it and his act therefore, would come under Section 117, I. P. C. AIR 1924 Lah 440 (443, 444) = 5 Lah 1 = 26 Cri L Jour 1352 (DB).

(24) The leader of a party who induces certain boys to take out and publicly exhibit Congress flags, and clothes and some cash were agreed to be given in lieu of services rendered, is guilty under Section 17 (2). AIR 1933 Lah 387 (388) = 34 Cri L Jour 1178.

(25) A Police report that a certain person was assisting the volunteers by giving them shelter in his house was held not to make out a prima facie case of offence under Section 17 (2). AIR 1922 Cal 538 (539) = 24 Cri L Jour 1 (DB).

(26) Unless there is evidence regarding the management or assistance in the management or to the promotors of a body declared unlawful, merely being its members and parading through the town shouting its slogans does not justify a conviction under Section 17 (2), there can be conviction only under Section 17 (1) in such cases. AIR 1950 All 149 (149) = 51 Cri L Jour 458.

(27) Where a Pleader assists and promotes a meeting of an unlawful association, for which he is convicted under Section 17 (2), his action is nothing short of an open and defiant violation of law; by such conduct he makes himself liable to action under Section 12, Legal Practitioners' Act. AIR 1934 Cal 808 (809) (DB).

(32) A conviction under Section 17 (1), for taking part before the Constitution came into force in a meeting of the Communist party which was declared an unlawful association under Section 16 of the Act, is not illegal although Section 16 of the Act has been held to be void under Section 13 of the Constitution. AIR 1951 Cal 505 (506) = 52 Cri L Jour 1087 (DB).

(33) Where an association has been declared to be unlawful by reason of the prejudicial activities of its members and a member is reasonably believed to have himself participated in such activities the use against him of the emergency powers of the executive for the prevention of such activities cannot be considered objectionable, merely because that person could have been, if the Government so desired, prosecuted under this section. "(2A) Any person aggrieved by a notification issued under sub-section (1) in respect of any place may, within thirty days from the date on which such notification is published in the Official Gazette, apply to the District Judge of the District in which such place is situated, or if such place is situated in the Presidency-town, to the Chief Judge of the Small Cause Court, for a declaration that the place has not been used for the purposes of any unlawful association and if such District Judge or Chief Judge makes such declaration, the State Government shall cancel the notification in respect of the place.

(2B) In disposing of an application under sub-section (2-A), the procedure to be followed shall be the procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the investigation of claims so far as it can be made to apply; and the decision of the District Judge or Chief Judge of the Small Cause Court, as the case may be, shall be final."—T. N. Act 11 of 1950, S. 4 (12-8-1950): Tamil Nadu A. L. O., 1969.

*[17B. Movable property found in a notified place.— (1) The District Magistrate, Commissioner of Police or officer taking possession of a notified place shall also take possession of all movable property found therein, and shall make a list thereof in the presence of two respectable witnesses.

(2) If, in the opinion of the District Magistrate, or in a Presidency-town the Commissioner of Police, any articles specified in the list are or may be used for the purposes of the unlawful association, he may proceed subject to the provisions hereafter contained in this section to order such articles to be forfeited to Government.

(3) All other articles specified in the list shall be delivered to the person whom he considers to be entitled to possession thereof, or, if no such person is found, shall be disposed of in such manner as the District Magistrate or Commissioner of Police, as the case may be, may direct.

(4) The District Magistrate or Commissioner of Police shall publish, as nearly as may be in the manner provided in Section 87 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the publication of a proclamation, a notice specifying the article which it is proposed to forfeit and calling upon any person claiming that any article is not liable to forfeiture to submit in writing within fifteen days any representation he desires to make against the forfeiture of the article.

(5) Where any such representation is accepted by the District Magistrate or Commissioner of Police, he shall deal with the article concerned in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3).

(6) Where any such representation is rejected, the representation, with the decision thereon, shall be forwarded to the District Judge, in the case of a decision by a District Magistrate, or, to the Chief Judge of the Small Cause Court, in the case of a decision by the Commissioner of Police, and no order of forfeiture shall be made until the District Judge or Chief Judge of the Small Cause Court, as the case may be, has adjudicated upon the representation. Where the decision is not confirmed the articles shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3).

(7) In making an adjudication under sub-section (6) the procedure to be followed shall be the procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the investigation of claims so far as it can be made to apply, and the decision of the District Judge or Chief Judge of the Small Cause Court, as the case may be, shall be final.

(8) If the article seized is livestock or is of a perishable nature, the District Magistrate or Commissioner of Police may, if he thinks it expedient, order the immediate sale thereof, and the proceeds of the sale shall be disposed of in the manner herein provided for the disposal of other articles.]

*[17E. Power to forfeit funds of an unlawful association.—(1) Where the ‡[State Government] is satisfied, after such inquiry as it may think fit, that any monies, securities or credits are being used or are intended to be used for the purposes of an unlawful association, the ‡[State Government] may, by order in writing, declare such monies, securities or credits to be forfeited to Government.

Section 17-D — Note 1

(1) Association declared unlawful by notification — Place used for — Possession of place taken — Notification withdrawn but possession not relinquished — Government and not its servants is liable to pay damages to owner of premises. AIR 1963 All 484 (485, 486).

(2) A copy of an order under sub-section (1) may be served on the person having custody of the monies, securities or credits, and on the service of such copy such person shall pay or deliver the monies, securities or credits to the order of the ‡[State Government]:

Provided that, in the case of monies or securities, a copy of the order may be endorsed for execution to such officer as the ‡[State Government] may select, and such officer shall have power to enter upon and search for such monies and securities in any premises where they may reasonably be suspected to be, and to seize the same.

(3) Before an order of forfeiture is made under sub-section (1) the ‡[State Government] shall give written notice to the person (if any) in whose custody the monies, securities or credits are found of its intention to forfeit, and any person aggrieved thereby may within fifteen days from the issue of such notice file an application to the District Judge in a district, or to the Chief Judge of the Small Cause Court in a presidency-town, to establish that the monies, securities or credits or any of them are not liable to forfeiture, and if any such application is made, no order of forfeiture shall be passed in respect of the monies, securities or credits concerned until such application has been disposed of, and unless the District Judge or Chief Judge of the Small Cause Court has decided that the monies, securities or credits are liable to forfeiture.

(4) In disposing of an application under sub-section (3) the procedure to be followed shall be the procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the investigation of claims so far as it can be made to apply, and the decision of the District Judge or Chief Judge of the Small Cause Court, as the case may be, shall be final.

(5) Where the ‡[State Government] has reason to believe that any person has custody of any monies, securities or credits which are being used or are intended to be used for the purposes of an unlawful association, the ‡[State Government] may, by order in writing, prohibit such person from paying, delivering, transferring or otherwise dealing in any manner whatsoever with the same, save in accordance with the written orders of the ‡[State Government]. A copy of such order shall be served upon the person to whom it is directed.

(6) The ‡[State Government] may endorse a copy of an order under †[sub-section (5)] for investigation to any officer it may select, and such copy shall be warrant whereunder such officer may enter upon any premises of the person to whom the order is directed, examine the books of such person, search for monies and securities, and make inquiries from such person, or any officer, agent or servant of such person, touching the origin of and dealings in any monies, securities or credits which the investigating officer may suspect are being used or are intended to be used for the purposes of an unlawful association.

(7) A copy of an order under this section may be served in the manner provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the service of a summons, or, where the person to be served is a corporation, company, bank or association of persons, it may be served on any secretary, director or other officer or person concerned with the management thereof, or by leaving it or sending it by post addressed to the corporation, company, bank or association at its registered office, or, where there is no registered office, at the place where it carries on business.

(8) Where an order of forfeiture is made under sub-section (1) in respect of any monies, securities or credits in respect of which a prohibitory order has been made under †[sub-section (5)], such order of forfeiture shall have effect from the date of the prohibitory order, and the person to whom the prohibitory order was directed shall pay or deliver the whole of the monies, securities, or credits forfeited, to the order of the ‡[State Government].

(9) Where any person liable under this section to pay or deliver any monies, securities, or credits to the order of the ‡[State Government] refuses or fails to comply with any direction of the ‡[State Government] in this behalf, the ‡[State Government] may recover from such person, as arrears of land-revenue or as a fine, the amount of such monies or credits or the market value of such securities.

(10) In this section, "security" includes a document whereby any person acknowledges that he is under a legal liability to pay money, or whereunder any person obtains a legal right to the payment of money; and the market value of any security means the value as fixed by any officer or person deputed by the ‡[State Government] in this behalf.

(11) Except so far as is necessary for the purposes of any proceeding under this section, no information obtained in the course of any investigation made under sub-section (6) shall be divulged by any Officer of Government, without the consent of the ‡[State Government].]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The Civil Disobedience Movement has made it necessary to supplement the Criminal Law by means of certain Ordinances promulgated by the Governor-General in exercise of his powers under Section 72 of the Government of India Act. The Special Powers Ordinance, which combines powers taken by the earlier ordinances, expires on the 29th December 1932. Though the Ordinances have enabled Local Governments and their officers to control the movement, its organisers have not yet abandoned their attempt to paralyse Government and to coerce law-abiding citizens. The experience of the last two years and of previous movements on the same lines shows that, in the absence of certain of the powers at present existing, it is no difficult matter to start or revive such subversive movements. The conditions prevailing at present as a result of measures taken by the Government of India and Local Governments are such as to render it unnecessary to assume for the whole of British India all the powers conferred by the Special Powers Ordinance now in force, and it is hoped that the powers conferred by Chapter II (Emergency Powers). Chapter IV (Special Courts) and Chapter V (Special provisions against instigation to the illegal refusal of the payment of certain liabilities) will only be needed in certain provinces. It is, therefore, intended by this Bill to take only those powers which a general review of the situation shows are required for the whole of India, and to leave it to the Local Governments to supplement these provisions by means of local legislation in order to meet local or emergent conditions.

The present Bill reproduces in the form of amendments to Acts already on the statute-book, certain provisions of the Special Powers Ordinance (10 of 1932) and includes:

(a) provisions against associations dangerous to the public peace.

(b) provisions against certain forms of intimidation.

(c) provisions to secure greater control over the Press".

[THE] CRIMINAL LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1932

(ACT XXIII OF 1932)*

[19th December, 1932.]

An Act to supplement the criminal law.

WHEREAS it is expedient to supplement the criminal law and to that end to amend the Indian Press (Emergency Powers) Act 1931† and further to amend ‡[*] the Indian Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1908, for the purposes hereinafter appearing;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

[*] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 17-9-1932, Pt. V, page 206; and for Report of Select Committee, see Gazette of India, 12-11-1932, Part V, page 225.

[†] The Indian Press (Emergency Powers) Act, 1931 was repealed by the Press (Objectionable Matter) Act, 1951 (56 of 1951), S. 37 (1).

[‡] The word "temporarily" was repealed by the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1935, Section 3.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Goa, Daman and Diu

For Preamble substitute the following :

"Whereas it is expedient to supplement the Criminal Law for the purposes hereinafter appearing: It is hereby enacted as follows."—G. S. R. 863, Gaz. of Ind., 2-6-1966 Pt. II-S. 3 (i), Ext., p. 389.

Pondicherry

Same as that of Goa, Daman and Diu.—G. S. R. 200, Gaz. of Ind., Pt. II-S. 3 (i), D/- 18-2-1967 p. 230.

1. Short title, extent, duration and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CRIMINAL LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1932.

*[(2) It extends to the whole of India except †[the territories which, immediately before the 1st November, 1956, were comprised in Part B States].]

‡[* * * * *]

(4) The whole of the Act except §[* * *] Section 7 shall come into force at once, and the † [State Government] may by notification‡ in the §[Official Gazette] direct that †‡[ * ] Section 7 shall come into force in any area on such date as may be specified in the notification.‡

[*] Substituted for former sub-section (2), by A. L. O., 1950.

[†] Substituted for "Part B States," by 3 A. L. O., 1956. Immediately before the 1st November, 1956, the following were the Part B States in India: Hyderabad, Jammu and Kashmir, Madhya Bharat, Mysore, Pepus, Rajasthan, Saurashtra and Travancore-Cochin. Of these States, Jammu and Kashmir, Mysore, Rajasthan and Travancore-Cochin (Kerala) are full-fledged States now, under the States Reorganisation Act 1956. Rest of these States have been merged with adjoining States, e. g., Hyderabad with Andhra Pradesh; M. B. with Madhya Pradesh; Pepsu with Punjab and Saurashtra with Bombay and then Gujarat, after division of Bombay into Maharashtra and Gujarat.

[‡] Sub-section (3), limiting the duration of the Act to three years from commencement was repealed by Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1935, S. 2.

[§] The words and figure "Section 4 and" were repealed by S. 4, ibid.

Section 1 — Note 1

(1) Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1935 amending Act of 1932 is validly enacted by the Governor-General under the power vested in him under proviso to Section 67-B (2), Government of India Act, 1915. AIR 1951 Bom 459 (461) = 1952 Cri L Jour 37 (DB).

(2) When the Act of 1935 was repealed by Act 20 of 1937, sub-section (3) of Section 1 of the Act of 1932 which stood repealed under the former Act did not revive and bring into operation the three years duration prescribed by that sub-section. AIR 1951 Bom 459 (463) = 1952 Cri L Jour 37 (DB).

STATE AMENDMENTS

Gujarat

In sub-sections (2) and (4) of Section 1 the words "State of Bombay" shall stand unmodified.—Guj. A. L. (8th Amendment) Order, 1961 (w. e. f. 1-5-1960).

Madhya Pradesh

For sub-section (2) of Section 1, in its application to the State of Madhya Pradesh, substitute the following :—

> "(2) It extends to the whole of India except the territories which immediately before the 1st November, 1956 were comprised in Part B States other than the Madhya Bharat and Sironj Regions of the State of Madhya Pradesh."—M. P. Act 10 of 1967, S. 2 (2-5-1967).

Maharashtra

(i) In sub-section (2), after the words and letter "comprised in Part B States" insert the words, "other than the Hyderabad and Saurashtra areas of the State of Bombay."

(ii) To sub-section (4), the following proviso shall be added, namely :—

"Provided that in the Hyderabad and Saurashtra areas of the State of Bombay this Act except Section 7 shall come into force on the date of the commencement of the Criminal Law Amendment (Bombay Amendment and Extension) Act, 1959". — Bom. Act XXIV of 1959, S. 10 (27-4-1959): Maha. A. L. O., 1960.

2. to 4. Dissuasion from enlistment. Tampering with public servants. Boycotting a public servant.—[Repealed by the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1935, Section 2.]

5. Dissemination of contents of proscribed document.—(1) Whoever publishes, circulates or repeats in public any passage from a newspaper, book or other document copies whereof have been declared to be forfeited to *[Government] under any law for the time being in force, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine or with both.

(2) No Court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under this section unless the †[State Government] has certified that the passage published, circulated or repeated contains, in the opinion of the †[State Government], seditious or other matter of the nature referred to in sub-section (1) of Section 99A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, or sub-section (1) of Section 4 of the Indian Press (Emergency Powers) Act, 1931.‡

[*] Substituted for "Her Majesty" by A. L. O., 1950.

[†] Substituted for "Provincial Government" by A. L. O., 1950.

[‡] This Act was repealed by Act 56 of 1951, S. 37 (1).

OBJECTS AND REASONS

"We are impressed by the danger that persons who inadvertently repeat a passage not harmful in itself from a newspaper which has been declared to be forfeited may be exposed to the mischief of this clause.

We have accordingly introduced by sub-clause (2) a provision which we think will be sufficient safeguard against this danger." — S. C. R.

There is no justification whatever for the plea that the offence contemplated by Section 7 (1) (a), when committed in respect of public official whether high or low, should go unpunished. AIR 1939 Mad 21 (25) = ILR (1939) Mad 87 = 40 Cri L Jour 224 (DB).

(6) Section 7 is not in conflict with Trade Unions Act. Apart from immunity from criminal conspiracy Trade Unions Act does not allow immunity from any criminal offences. AIR 1935 Nag 149 (152) = 36 Cri L Jour 1153 = 31 Nag LR 318.

(7) Section 7 can be applied to picketing in the course of trade disputes. AIR 1935 Nag 149 (151) = 31 Nag LR 318 = 36 Cri L Jour 1153  AIR 1951 Bom 459 (462) = 1952 Cri L Jour 37 (DB).

(8) Section 7 (a) does not infringe Article 14 of the Constitution. AIR 1961 All 522 (525) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 443.

(9) Under Clauses (a) and (b) of subsection (1) the mere exercise of the right of freedom of movement is made penal under certain circumstances. The section as it stands requires apart from the mental state signified by the word 'intention' nothing more by way of an overt act than 'loitering' in the case of Cl. (a) and loitering in a particular way in the case of Clause (b). AIR 1951 Bom 459 (462) = 1952 Cri L Jour 37 (DB).

(10) "Loitering" to amount to an offence under Section 7 (1) must be accompanied by the specified intention the existence of which is a matter of proof. AIR 1951 Bom 459 (462) = 1952 Cri L Jour 37 (DB)  AIR 1967 Orissa 52 (54) = 1967 Cri L Jour 570 = 32 Cut LT 577.

(11) In order to commit offence under Section 7 (b), loitering must be done with the intention that any person is deterred from entering or approaching or dealing at the particular place near which such loitering occurs. ('36) 37 Cri L Jour 10 (11, 12) (Nag)  AIR 1967 Orissa 52 (54) = 1967 Cri LJ 570 = 32 Cut LT 577  1968 Cri LJ 564 (565) = 33 Cut LT 414.

(12) Where the accused a member of a political party picketed in front of the shop of a North Indian trader and dissuaded intending customers from purchasing from the shop of a North Indian it was held that he should be convicted of the offence under Section 7 (1) (b). AIR 1952 Mad 95 (97) = ILR (1952) Mad 553.

(13) Prosecution for forcible closure of shop and obstruction to business — Accused closing shop of P. W. 1 by use of force — Examination of any customer is not necessary — Held, case clearly came within mischief of Section 7 (1) (b). AIR 1966 Orissa 211 (213).

(14) Procession passing through a mohalla having foreign cloth shops and halting for distributing hand-bills does not amount to loitering or deterring people from buying foreign cloth. ('36) 37 Cri L Jour 10 (11, 12) (Nag).

(15) This Act is a special law within the meaning of Section 41, I. P. C., and there can therefore, be an abetment of an offence under Section 7 (1) (a). AIR 1939 Mad 21 (26) = ILR (1939) Mad 87 = 40 Cri L Jour 224 (DB).

(16) Many offences punishable under Section 7, may be committed but no Magistrate can take cognizance of any one of those offences unless that particular offence is constituted by the facts set out in the Sub-Inspector's report. AIR 1943 Mad 572 (573) = 44 Cri L Jour 796.

Explanation.—Encouragement of indigenous industries or advocacy of temperance, without the commission of any of the acts prohibited by this section is not an offence under this section.

(2) No Court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under this section except upon a report in writing of facts which constitute such offence made by a police officer not below the rank of officer in charge of a police station.

[*] Section 7 was enforced in Kutch, Saurashtra and Hyderabad areas of the State of Bombay from 24-8-1959: see Bom. Gaz. 30-7-1959, Pt. I, p. 726: It was also enforced in the districts of Dehra Dun, Saharanpur, Moradabad, Mirzapur, Basti, Gorakhpur, Deoria, Muzaffarnagar, Aligarh and Rampur: see U. P. 9. Procedure in offences under the Act.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898,—

(i) no Court inferior to that of a Presidency Magistrate‡ or Magistrate of the first class shall try any offence under this Act;

(ii) an offence punishable under sections [ * *] 5 [ * *] or 7 shall be cognizable by the police;

†[* * * * * *] and

(iv) an offence punishable under Section 7 shall be non-bailable.

Punjab, Haryana and Chandigarh

In clause (i) of Section 9, for the words "Magistrate of the first class" substitute the words "Judicial Magistrate of the first class." — Punjab Act 25 of 1964, S. 2 and Sch., Pt. II (2-10-64); Act 31 of 1966, Ss. 29 and 89: Haryana A. L. O., 1968.

10. Power* of State Government to make certain offences cognizable and non-bailable.— (1) The †[State Government] may, by notification‡ in the §[Official Gazette], declare that any offence punishable under Sections 186, 188, 189, 190, 228, 295A, 298, 505, 506 or 507 of the Indian Penal Code, when committed in any area specified in the notification shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Crimial Procedure, 1898, be cognizable, and thereupon the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall, while such notification remains in force, be deemed to be amended accordingly.

Section 10 — Note 1

(1) A notification making the offence under Section 188, Penal Code a cognizable offence does not dispense with the necessity of a public authority filing a complaint in accordance with the provisions of Section 195, Criminal P. C. AIR 1951 Orissa 84 (85) = ILR (1950) Cut 545 (DB). (There is no conflict between this section and Section 195, Criminal P. (ACT XX OF 1938)

[The Act printed here is as on 30-6-1970.]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"A large number of public speeches designed to dissuade persons from enlisting in the Defence Forces or, in the alternative, to incite would be recruits to commit acts of mutiny or insubordination after joining those Forces have come to notice during the past 18 months. The object of the speakers is clearly not the spread of pacifism, but to dissuade would be recruits from taking part in any war in which the British Empire may become engaged. The Bill is designed to penalise these activities." — Gazette of India, 13-8-1938, Part V, page 276.

[THE] CRIMINAL LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1938
(ACT XX OF 1938)*

[14th September, 1938.]

An Act to amend the criminal law.

WHEREAS it is expedient to supplement the criminal law by providing for the punishment of certain acts prejudicial to the recruitment of persons to serve in, and to the discipline of, †[the Armed Forces of the Union];

It is hereby enacted as follows:

[*] For Statement of Objects and Reasons: see Gaz. of Ind., 13-8-1938, Part V, page 276.

This Act has been extended to the new Provinces and Merged States by the Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (59 of 1949), S. 3 (1-1-1950) and to the Union Territories of Manipur and Tripura by the Union Territories (Laws) Act, 1950 (30 of 1950), S. 3 (16-4-1950). Vindhya Pradesh to which also this Act was extended now forms part of the State of Madhya Pradesh—See Act 37 of 1956, S. 9 (1) (e).

It has been extended to Union Territory of—

(i) Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Regulation 6 of 1963.

(ii) Pondicherry by Regulation 7 of 1963 (1-10-1963) and

(iii) Laccadive, Minicoy and Amindivi Islands by Regulation 8 of 1965 (1-10-1967).

The Act has been extended also to the Autonomous Districts in the State of Assam by the Criminal Law Amendment (Extension to Autonomous Districts) Act, 1955 (Assam Act 7 of 1955), S. 2 (5-4-1955).

It has been extended also to States Merged in the States of Bombay: see Bombay Merged States (Laws) Act (4 of 1950), Sch. II, Part I (30-3-1950).

The Act has been declared in force in all partially excluded areas in Orissa by Orissa Regulation 1 of 1943.

[†] Substituted for "His Majesty's Forces" by A. L. O., 1950.

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called THE CRIMINAL LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1938.

(2) It extends to the whole of India °[° ° °]

(3) It shall come into force in a †State on such date‡ as the †State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint in this behalf for such †State.

[°] The words "except Part B States" were omitted by the Part B States Laws Act, 1951 (3 of 1951), S. 3 and Sch. (1-4-1951).

(xi) in the State of Uttar Pradesh on 20-8-1954: see U. P. Gaz., 1954, Pt. I, page 1041;

(xii) in the State of West Bengal on 1-10-1954: see Cal. Gaz., Extra., 1-10-1954. Notification No. 7461/2A-33/54, D/- 1-10-1954;

(xiii) in all the partially excluded areas in the State of Orissa with effect from 3-2-1940—see Orissa Regulation 1 of 1943, S. 2 and Sch. I.

2. Dissuasion from enlistment and instigation to mutiny or insubordination after enlistment.— Whoever—

(a) with intent to affect adversely the recruitment of persons to serve in the Military, Naval or Air Forces of *[the Union], wilfully dissuades or attempts to dissuade the public or any person from entering any such Forces; or

(b) without dissuading or attempting to dissuade any person from entering such Forces, instigates the public or any person to do, after entering any such Force, anything which is an offence punishable as mutiny or insubordination under Section 27 of the Indian Army Act,† 1911, or Sections 10 to 12 and 14 to 17 inclusive of ‡[* * ] the Indian Navy (Discipline) Act, 1934,§ or Sections 35 to 37 inclusive of the Indian Air Force Act,† 1932, as the case may be,

shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

No person shall be prosecuted for any offence under this Act except with the provious sanction of the ‡State Government.§

Exception 1.—The provisions of clause (a) of this section do not extend to comments on or criticism of the policy of Government in connection with the Military, Naval or Air Forces, made in good faith without any intention of dissuading from enlistment.

Exception 1.—The provisions of clause (a) of this section do not extend to the case in which advice is given in good faith for the benefit of the individual to whom it is given, or for the benefit of any member of his family or of any of his dependants.

[‡] The words "the Naval Discipline Act as applied to the Indian Navy by" were omitted by A. L. O., 1950.

[§] Now see Ss. 42 to 45 and 47 of the Navy Act, 1957 (62 of 1957).

[*†] Now see the Air Force Act, 1950 (45 of 1950), Ss. 37 and 42.

[*‡] Substituted for 'Provincial Government' by A. L. O., 1950.

[*§] In pursuance of clause (1) of Art. 239 of the Constitution, the President has directed that the Chief Commissioners of Delhi, Ajmer and Coorg shall, subject to the control of the Central Government and until further orders, exercise the powers of the State Government under S. 2 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1938 (20 of 1938) in the States of Delhi, Ajmer and Coorg respectively. See S. R. O. 2416, D/- 20-7-1954, published in Gaz. of Ind., 24-7-1954, Pt. II-Section 3, page 1806. Ajmer and Coorg have now merged with the States of Rajasthan and Mysore respectively.

NOTE.—"Mutiny" is a collective offence, that is to say, it cannot be committed by one man. It is an offence which deals with collective insubordination, collective defiance or disregard of authority or refusal to obey authority. "Insubordination" means a refusal to subordinate oneself to authority and it does not follow that a mere failure to obey an order amounts to insubordination: See (1957) 2 All ER 694 (696).]

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

"The Government of India set up a Committee of Members of Parliament under the chairmanship of Dr. Bakhshi Tek Chand to review the working of the Special Police Establishment and to make recommendations for the improvement of the laws relating to bribery and corruption. The amendments proposed in the Bill are based on the recommendations of that Committee. They seek to make the offering of bribe a substantive offence by itself instead of, as at present, as mere abetment. The maximum punishment for an offence under Section 165, I. P. C. (acceptance by a public servant of a valuable thing without consideration from persons concerned in proceeding or business transacted by him), is considered to be light and is proposed to be to that prescribed for an offence under Section 161, I. P. C., namely, acceptance of a bribe. In view of certain practical difficulties in the prosecution of cases relating to bribery and corruption, the scope of Section 337 (1) of the Criminal P. C. for tendering pardon to accomplices has been proposed to be extended to bring such offences within its purview. A special forum for trial is also proposed for such cases in order to eliminate delay; this particular amendment has been given a limited life*. Opportunity has been taken to extend the applicability of Section 164, Criminal P. C. to Presidency towns.

[THE] CRIMINAL LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1952
(ACT XLVI OF 1952)*

[28th July, 1952.]

An Act further to amend the Indian Penal Code and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, and to provide for a more speedy trial of certain offences.

BE it enacted by Parliament as follows :—

[*] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of Ind., 12-7-1952, Pt. II-Sec. 2, page 243.

This Act has been extended to the Union Territory of Dadra and Nagar Haveli by Regulation 6 of 1963 (1-7-1965) and to Pondicherry by Regulation 7 of 1963 (1-10-1963): It has been extended to the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu by G. S. R. 1634, G. I., 29-10-1966, Pt. II, Sec. 3 (i), page 1837.

1. Short title.—This Act may be called THE CRIMINAL LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1952.

STATE AMENDMENT

Goa, Daman and Diu

Section 1-A.

In its application to the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu, after Sec. 1, insert the following, namely :—

1A. Definitions. In this Act :—

(a) "Administrator means the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu, appointed by the President under Art. 239 of the Constitution of India;

(b) 'Goa, Daman and Diu' means the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu;

Preamble — Note 1

(1) The provisions of the Act are not void as violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India. AIR 1957 SC 503 (508) = 1957 SCR 678 = 1957 Cri L Jour 605. (AIR 1954 Bom 327 (DB), Affirmed.)

(c) Judicial Commissioner's Court means the Court of the Judicial Commissioner of Goa, Daman and Diu." — G. S. R. 1634, Gaz. of Ind., 29-10-1966, Pt. II, S. 3 (i), p. 1837.

2. Amendment of Section 165, Act 45 of 1860.—[Repealed by Repealing and Amending Act, 1957 (36 of 1957), S. 2 and Sch. I.]

3. Insertion of new Section 165A in Act 45 of 1860.—[Repealed by Repealing and Amending Act, 1957 (36 of 1957), S. 2 and Sch. I.]

5. Amendment of Section 337, Act 5 of 1898.—[Repealed by the Repealing and Amending Act, 1957 (36 of 1957), S. 2 and Sch. I.]

NOTE.—The amendments made by this section were for a period of two years only calculated from 28-7-1952. But now by S. 59 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1955 (XXVI of 1955) these amendments have been incorporated in S. 337 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

6. Power to appoint special Judges.—(1) The State Government may, by notification‡ in the Official Gazette, appoint as many Special Judges as may be necessary for such area or areas as may be specified in the notification to try the following offences namely :—

(a) an offence punishable under Section 161, [Section 162, Section 163, Section 164] Section 165 or Section 165A of the Indian Penal Code or [ *]† Section 5 of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1947;

(b) any conspiracy to commit or any attempt to commit or any abetment of any of the offences specified in clause (a).

(2) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a special Judge under this Act unless he is, or has been a Sessions Judge or an Additional Sessions Judge or an Assistant Sessions Judge under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

[*] Inserted by the Prevention of Corruption (Amendment) Act, 1955 (50 of 1955), S. 4 (1-1-1956).

Section 3 (Repealed) — Note 1

(1) Section 165-A which imposes a greater penalty for abetment of the offences under Sections 161 and 165 has no application to acts committed before its enactment. AIR 1954 Bom 327 (328) = ILR (1954) Bom 763 = 1954 Cri L Jour 952 (DB). (In such cases Section 161 read with Section 116, Penal Code would be available even after the enactment of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952.)

(2) A special Judge has no power to act under Section 337, Criminal P. C., and tender a pardon to the accused. 1957 Cri L Jour 67 (69) (Madh B.)

(3) Case under Sections 161/116, Penal Code, distributed to Special Judge in West Bengal before Section 165-A, Penal Code, was included in Schedule of W. B. Criminal Law Amendment (Special Courts) Act, 21 of 1949 — Cognizance and conviction under Section 165-A, Penal Code by Special Judge held without jurisdiction — Defect of jurisdiction held could not be cured by Section 529 (e), Criminal P. C. — That section applied to Magistrates and did not apply to Special Judge. AIR 1959 SC 8 (13) = 1959 Cr LJ 98.

Section 6 — Note 1

(1) Section 6 is not discriminatory and does not offend against Article 14 of the Constitution of India. AIR 1957 Raj 1 (4) = ILR (1957) 7 Raj 111 = 1957 Cri L Jour 96. (There is no option left to State Government in the matter of appointing or not appointing a special Judge for any given area.)  AIR 1965 Andh Pra 372 (386) = (1965) 2 Andh WR 44 = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 585 (DB).

(2) The power of the State Government to appoint a special Judge under Section 6 of this Act does not depend upon the applicability or otherwise of the provisions of the Criminal P. C. to that State. AIR 1956 Manipur 9 (11) = 1956 Cri L Jour 249.

(3) The section which has conferred authority upon the Government to appoint special Judges does not cast any obligation on the Government to make the appointment within any specified time.

[‡] District and Sessions Judge, Ambala, appointed as Special Judge with jurisdiction over the whole State of Haryana for trial of all cases investigated under S. 6 (1) (a) and (b) by the Delhi Special Police Establishment—See Haryana Gaz., 20-5-1967, Ext., p. 277.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Goa, Daman and Diu

In its aplication to the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu, in sub-section (1) of Section 6, for the words "State Government," substitute the word "Administrator"—see G. S. R. 1634, Gaz. Ind., 29-10-1966, Pt. II, S. 3 (i), p. 1837.

Nagaland

In its application to Nagaland, for sub-section (2) of S. 6, substitute the following, namely :—

"(2) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a Special Judge under this Act unless he has been—

(a) a Sessions Judge or an additional Sessions Judge or an Assistant Sessions Judge under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, or

(b) a Judicial Officer in Nagaland." — Reg. 3 of 1962, S. 2 (1-3-1962).

Section 6 — Note 1 (contd.)

AIR 1955 Assam 214 (216) = ILR (1954) 6 Assam 264 = 1955 Cri L Jour 1321 (DB).

(4) It is open to the Government under Section 6 to appoint more than one special Judge for the same area or appoint one and the same Judge to exercise jurisdiction in more than one area. AIR 1958 Raj 184 (185) = 1958 Cri L Jour 971.

(5) General Clauses Act (1897), Sec. 15 — Appointment of person as Special Judge by virtue of office is valid. AIR 1965 Andh Pra 372 (380, 381) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 585 = (1965) 2 Andh WR 44 (DB).

(6) Trial of offences falling under Section 6 (1) — Appointment of more than one Special Judge for a particular area — Before a Judge can proceed with trial he must have been specified under Section 7 (2). 1964 (2) Cri LJ 486 (487) = (1963) 2 Mys LJ 548 (DB) (Mys).

(7) Special Judge to try offence under Section 165-A of Penal Code — Sessions Judge, Additional Sessions Judge or Assistant Sessions Judge may be appointed by virtue of his office and not necessarily by name. AIR 1967 Orissa 31 (36).

(8) A special Judge appointed under this Act is not a Criminal Court within the provisions of the Criminal P. C. and the ambit of his powers is to be ascertained solely from the provisions of Sections 6 and 7 of the Act itself. ILR (1958) Andh Pra 791 (798).

(9) The power under Section 5-A of Prevention of Corruption Act (1947) is conferred on the Magistrate in a general term and hence there is no warrant to impose any limitation as to the area of his jurisdiction. 1968 Cr LJ 256 (260) (Mad).

(10) Several defalcations made at different times within course of one year can be joined together as one offence — Such charge can be joined with another charge under Section 477-A, Penal Code regarding false entries made for covering defalcations — Special Judge under Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, (1952) can try accused under Section 477-A, Penal Code by reason of Section 7 (3) of the Act as case falls under Section 235 (1), Criminal P. C. AIR 1963 Guj 15 (20) = 1963 (1) Cri LJ 162 (DB).

(11) A pre-requisite for the applicability of the procedure prescribed under Sections 6 and 7 of the Act is that the trial should be for offences enumerated under Section 6 itself. AIR 1954 Hyd 56 (64) = ILR (1953) Hyd 573 = 1954 Cri L Jour 464 (DB).

(12) Illegal amendment of notification appointing a special Judge — Section 16 of General Clauses Act, does not apply but Section 21 applies. AIR 1965 Andh Pra 372 (382) = 1965 (2) Cr LJ 585 (DB).

(13) A valid trial cannot be held by a special Judge where the offence charged is not one which is enumerated under Section 6 of the Act. 1955 All L Jour 655 (655). (Trial of offences under Section 162 or 163, Penal Code by special Judge is not valid.)  AIR 1958 Orissa 150 (152) = ILR (1958) Cut 677 = 1958 Cri L Jour 916  ILR (1958) Andh Pra 791 (798). (Criminal conspiracy to commit offences under Sections 466, 467 and 420, Penal Code is not covered by the Prevention of Corruption Act and therefore, special Judge cannot try that offence.)  AIR 1957 Tripura 18 (21) = 1957 Cri L Jour 394. (Offences punishable under Sections 342 and 384, Penal Code unless they form part of the charge for an offence also under Section 6 (1) of the Act cannot be tried by special Judge.)  1957 Cri L Jour 108 (112) (All). (Offence under Section 468, Penal Code unless it forms part of the same transaction which constitutes an offence enumerated under Section 6 of this Act cannot be tried by Special Judge.)  AIR 1956 All 197 (199). (Cases of criminal breach of trust by public servants.)

NOTE.— (i) In this Regulation expression "Nagaland" has the meaning assigned to it by Reg. 2 of 1961. Nagaland is now a State under Act 27 of 1962.

(ii) Except in S. 9, in its application to Tuensang district references to Criminal Procedure Code in this Act shall be construed as references to corresponding law in that district.—See Ss. 3 and 4 of the said Regulation.

North East Frontier Agency

Amendment is the same as in Nagaland except clause (b) which is as follows :— "(b) a Judicial Officer, North East Frontier Agency." — Reg. 2 of 1962, S. 2 (1-3-1962).

NOTE.—In this Regulation, the expression 'North East Frontier Agency' has the meaning assigned to it in Reg. 1 of 1954 and except in S. 9, references to the Code of Criminal Procedure in the Act shall be construed as references to corresponding law for the time being in force in Nefa—See Ss. 3 and 4 of Reg. 2 of 1962.

West Bengal

Section 6 shall not apply to the State of West Bengal. — W. B. Act 21 of 1949, Section 13.

Section 6 — Note 1 (contd.)

(14) The words "Indian Penal Code" in the section must be construed as referring only to the Central Act and not to any Penal Code of a Part B State which instead of the Central Act was in force in that State at the time of the commission of the offence although the contents of the local Code were the same as of the Penal Code. AIR 1954 Madh B 83 (84) = ILR (1954) Madh B 411 = 1954 Cri L Jour 872.

(15) The competency of a special Judge to try some of the offences falling within Clauses (a) and (b) of Section 6 (1) of the Act can in no way be affected merely because the accused persons are not public servants. Therefore, the conviction of a public servant at a joint trial with others who are not public servants upon a charge of conspiracy under Section 120-B, Penal Code to commit offences falling under Clauses (c) and (d) of Section 5 (1) of the Prevention of Corruption Act is not invalid. AIR 1958 Bom 354 (358, 359) = 1953 Cri L Jour 1144.

(16) A special Judge ceases to have jurisdiction in a case under Section 161, Penal Code the moment he finds that the accused is not a public servant and as a consequence thereof also jurisdiction to try any other offence with which also the accused is charged. The dismissal of the complaint by the special Judge in such circumstances cannot be construed as an order of acquittal which could bar a trial under Section 403, Criminal P. C. for the other offence with which the accused was charged before the special Judge. AIR 1957 Madh Pra 224 (224, 225) = 1957 Cri L Jour 1410.

(17) The Act by itself, even where no special Judge has been actually appointed ousts the jurisdiction of the Magistrates from proceeding with the enquiry in cases which are exclusively triable by a special Judge. AIR 1955 Pat 88 (92) = 33 Pat 872 (DB). (AIR 1954 Pat 80, Overruled.)

(18) The Act applies even to pending cases and the appointment of a special Judge ousts the jurisdiction of the Magistrate to continue the trial and deliver a judgment. AIR 1954 Bom 327 (330) = ILR (1954) Bom 763 = 1954 Cri L Jour 952.

[But see contra in AIR 1954 Madh B 83.]

(19) A case exclusively triable by a special Judge, when transferred to a person who is both a special Judge and also a sessions Judge, must be transferred to him, in order that he should have jurisdiction to try it, in his capacity as a special Judge and not as a sessions Judge. AIR 1956 Pepsu 32 (32) = ILR (1955) Patiala 684 = 1956 Cri L Jour 414.

(20) Power to transfer case pending before special judge appointed under Act — Supreme Court has such power. AIR 1966 SC 1418 (1422).

(21) Jurisdiction of special Judge to try offences other than those mentioned in Section 6 — Though the special Judge has jurisdiction which he is competent to exercise under the Prevention of Corruption Act or the Criminal Law Amendment Act still as provided in Section 7 (3) he can try an accused for offences under Section 120-B read with Sections 466, 467 and 420, I. P. Code — Similarly other accused who are said to have abetted these offences could also be tried by him. AIR 1961 SC 1241 (1244, 1245) = (1962) 1 SCR 194 = 1961 (2) Cr LJ 302. (ILR (1958) Andh Pra 791, Reversed.)

(22) A special Judge appointed by the Government who admittedly does not possess the qualifications prescribed by Section 6 is incompetent to try an offence under the Act. AIR 1956 Manipur 9 (11) = 1956 Cri LJ 249.

(23) All cases and all accused coming under notification under Sections 6 and 7

7. Cases triable by special Judges.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, or in any other law the offences specified in sub-section (1) of Section 6 shall be triable by Special Judges only.

(2) Every offence specified in sub-section (1) of Section 6 shall be tried by the special Judge for the area within which it was committed, or where there are more Special Judges than one for such area, by such one of them as may be specified in this behalf by the State Government.[*]

(3) When trying any case, a Special Judge may also try any offence other than an offence specified in Section 6 with which the accused may, under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, be charged at the same trial.

(25) Prevention of Corruption Act (1947), Section 6 — Sanction for prosecution obtained — Prosecution set aside due to invalidity of notification under Section 6, Criminal Law Amendment Act, appointing Special Judge to try the case — Subsequent valid notification — No fresh sanction is required. AIR 1965 Andh Pra 372 (381) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 585 (DB).

(26) Power of State Government to appoint a judge out of various judges who are Special Judges for some offences arising in an area — Power confined to cases investigated by particular agency — Notification is valid under Section 6. AIR 1965 Andh Pra 372 (384, 385) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 585 = (1965) 2 Andh WR 44 (DB).

(27) Under Section 6, the appointment of a Special Judge has to be in respect of an area or areas and not in respect of any particular case or a group of cases. AIR 1959 All 218 (219) = 1958 All WR (HC) 764 = 1959 Cr LJ 409 (DB).

(28) As regards conspiracy to commit an offence under Section 5 (2) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, this was an offence specified in Section 6 (1) of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1952, and under Section 7 (1) of that Act only a Special Judge could try it. The question whether Special Judge for Kerala had territoral jurisdiction had to be decided with reference to the rules in Ch. XV of Code of Criminal Procedure. AIR 1959 Ker 311 (315, 316) = 1959 Cr LJ 1172.

(29) Rules under Criminal P. C., Section 549, Rule 3 — Rule does not apply to a special Judge constituted under the Criminal Law Amendment Act (1952). AIR 1961 SC 1762 (1773, 1774) = 1961 (2) Cr LJ 828.

(30) "Any other law" — Meaning of — Army Act (1950) constitutes "any other law" — Accused charged with offences falling under Section 6 — Special Judge has jurisdiction to try such offences though the acts also constitute offences under Section 52 of the Army Act 1950. AIR 1961 SC 1762 (1774) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 828.

(31) Magistrate is not deprived of his power by any provision of the Act to take cognizance of offence even where offence is exclusively triable by Special Judge. AIR 1967 Pat 416 (422) (DB).

Section 7 — Note 1

(27) A, who was a subordinate Judge and Assistant Sessions Judge in Lower Assam Districts with Headquarters at G was invested with powers of a Special Judge under the Act. In exercise of that power he took seisin of a case arising from district Y. Later on he was transferred to D and B was appointed his successor at G. Then by later notification B also was made a Special Judge. Sometime later their respective jurisdictions were allocated by another notification confining A's limit to district Y and B's to district Z. There was nothing in those notifications which indicated that B was authorised to take up cases pending on the file of A while at G as his successor irrespective of where they arise from. Nor was there an order of the High Court, transferring the particular case from A's file to him. In these circumstances it was held that A's jurisdiction over the case was not lost. 8. Procedure and powers of special Judges.—(1) A Special Judge may take cognizance of offences without the accused being committed to him for trial, and in trying the accused persons, shall follow the procedure prescribed by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, for the trial of warrant cases by Magistrates.

(2) A Special Judge may, with a view to obtaining the evidence of any person supposed to have been directly or indirectly concerned in, or privy to, an offence, tender a pardon to such person on condition of his making a full and true disclosure of the whole circumstances within his knowledge relating to the offence and to every other person concerned, whether as principal or abettor, in the commission thereof; and any pardon so tendered shall for the purposes of Sections 339 and 339A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, be deemed to have been tendered under Section 338 of that Code.

is one which if committed by a civilian would be exclusively triable by a Special Judge under this Act. AIR 1958 Bom 354 (364) = 1958 Cri LJ 1144 (DB).

(29) A Sessions Court to which a case has been committed by a valid order of commitment passed before the commencement of the Act cannot be divested of its jurisdiction under Section 7. AIR 1953 Mad 451 (454) = ILR 1953 Mad 667 = 1953 Cri LJ 882. (Retrospective effect of Section 7 must be limited to extent indicated in Section 10. Act does not affect pending cases in Courts other than Magistrate Courts.)  AIR 1953 All 694 (695) = 1953 Cri LJ 1546 (DB). (The accused who before the Act has acquired the valuable right of being tried with the aid of jury or assessors cannot be deprived of that right in the absence of anything clearly in the Act authorising such deprivation.)

(30) An offence under Section 165-A, Penal Code being only an abetment of an offence under Section 161 or 165 of that Code is not in substance an independent offence but is one which should be taken to be included when there is a mention of the original offences themselves. Therefore even though the offence under Section 165-A is not expressly enumerated in the Schedule to the unamended W. B. Criminal Law Amendment Act, 15 of 1949, it must be held that a Special Judge appointed under that Act was fully competent to take cognizance of an offence under Section 165-A of the Penal Code. AIR 1956 Cal 385 (388) = 1956 Cri LJ 991 (DB).

(31) Magistrate is not deprived of his power by any provision of the Act to take cognizance of offence even where offence is exclusively triable by Special Judge. AIR 1967 Pat 416 (422) (DB).

(32) Provisions of Prevention of Corruption Act in the matter of investigation not strictly complied with — Trial not necessarily bad. (1961) 2 Guj LR 664 = 1962 (1) Cr LJ 142 (146, 147) (DB).

(33) Appointment of Special Judge — Appointment for particular case — Subsequent order to hold Court in prison — Validity— The appointment has to be in respect of an area or areas and not in respect of any particular case or group of cases. Hence the court could not be held inside a prison. 1959 Cr LJ 409 = AIR 1959 All 218 (219) (DB).

(34) Barring that part of the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act which amends the Penal Code, the rest of the Act is procedural and therefore retrospective. The retrospectivity of a procedural statute will not however affect the substantive rights which have already vested in a citizen. AIR 1959 All 149 (152, 153, 154) = 1959 Cr LJ 268.

(35) 'Any other law' — Meaning of — Army Act (1950) constitutes 'any other law' — Accused charged with offences falling under Section 6 — Special Judge has jurisdiction to try such offences though the acts also constitute offences under Section 52 of the Army Act, 1950. AIR 1961 SC 1762 (1774) = (1962) 2 SCR 195 = 1961 (2) Cr LJ 828.

(36) Fact that some of the offences with which the accused persons are charged are not those enumerated in Section 6 of the Act does not take away the jurisdiction of the special Judge. AIR SC 1762 (1774, 1778) = (1962) 2 SCR 195 = 1961 (2) Cr LJ 828.

(37) Special Judge — Jurisdiction of, is exclusive only as to trial of an offence — So far as taking of cognizance of the offence is concerned a Magistrate as well as the Special Judge can take cognizance of the offence. AIR 1969 Delhi 26 (42) (DB).

(38) Offence under Sections 5 (1) (d) and 5 (2), Prevention of Corruption Act, committed in Varanasi District — Case disposed of by Special Judge sitting at Lucknow — Appeal — Forum — Appeal must be heard by the Bench sitting at Allahabad — Question of jurisdiction to be decided by reference to area in which offence was committed and not by reference only to place where the Judge deciding the case happened to sit. (1968) All Cri. R 15.

(39) Power to transfer case pending before special judge appointed under Act — Supreme Court has such power. AIR 1966 SC 1418 (1422).

Section 8 — Note 1

(1) The irregularity arising on the ground of the absence of proper authority

(3) Save as provided in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 shall, so far as they are not inconsistent with this Act, apply to the proceedings before a Special Judge; and for the purposes of the said provisions, the Court of the Special Judge shall be deemed to be a Court of Session trying cases without a jury or without the aid of assessors and the person conducting a prosecution before a Special Judge shall be deemed to be a public prosecutor.

*[(3A) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the provisions contained in sub-section (3), the provisions of †[Sections 350 and 549] of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, shall, so far as may be, apply to the proceedings before a Special Judge, and for the purposes of the said provisions a Special Judge shall be deemed to be a Magistrate."]

(4) A Special Judge may pass upon any person convicted by him any sentence authorised by law for the punishment of the offence of which such person is convicted.

CONTENTS

1. Short title and extent.
2. Questioning the territorial integrity or frontiers of India in a manner prejudicial to the interests of safety and security of India.
3. Statements etc., in a notified area prejudicial to maintenance of public order, etc., therein or to safety or security of India and regulation of entry of persons in such area.
4. Power to declare certain publications forfeited and to issue search warrants for the same.
5. Application to High Court to set aside order of forfeiture.

Statement of Objects and Reasons

"Certain recent developments in the regions adjoining the borders of India and in other parts of the country likely to jeopardise the security of the country and its frontiers point to the necessity of placing curbs on such activities. The Criminal Law Amendment Bill, 1960, accordingly seeks to provide for punishment to persons who may question the territorial integrity or frontiers of India in a manner prejudicial to the safety and security of the country, and for other cognate matters."

[THE] CRIMINAL LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1961
(ACT XXIII OF 1961)

[17th May, 1961.]

An Act to supplement the criminal law.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Twelfth Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

[*] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gaz. of India, 1960, Ext., Pt. II-Sec. 2, p. 938.

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called THE CRIMINAL LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1961.

(2) It extends to the whole of India except the State of Jammu and Kashmir.

The Act has been extended to the Union Territory of (i) Goa, Daman and Diu by Regulation 12 of 1962 (1-1-1964) (ii) Dadra and Nagar Haveli, by Regn. 6 of 1963 (1-7-1965) and (iii) Pondicherry, by Regn. 7 of 1963, (1-10-1963).

2. Questioning the territorial integrity or frontiers of India in a manner prejudicial to the interests of safety and security of India.—Whoever by words either spoken or written, or by signs, or by visible representation or otherwise, questions the territorial integrity or frontiers of India in a manner which is, or is likely to be, prejudicial to the interests of the safety or security of India, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine, or with both.

3. Statements, etc., in a notified area* prejudicial to maintenance of public order, etc., therein or to safety or security of India and regulation of entry

Section 3 — Note 1

(1) Notified area under sub-section (3) —Petitioner granted permit to enter and remain in it for prescribed period — Subsequent cancellation of permit before expiry of period — Order passed arbitrarily and in violation of rules of fair play — Order quashed. AIR 1968 Delhi 49 (54).

of persons in such area.—(1) If the Cental Government considers that in the interests of the safety or security of India or in the public interest, it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare any area adjoining the frontiers of India to be a notified area; and thereupon, for so long as the notification is in force, such area shall be a notified area for the purposes of this section.

(2) Whoever makes, publishes or circulates in any notified area any statement, rumour or report which is, or is likely to be, prejudicial to the maintenance of public order or essential supplies or services in the said area or to the interests of the safety or security of India, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine, or with both.

(3) On and after such day as may be specified in, and subject to any exemptions for which provision may be made by, a notification issued under sub-section (1), no person who was not immediately before the said day a resident in the area declared to be a notified area by the notification shall enter or attempt to enter that area or be therein except in accordance with the terms of a permit in writing granted to him by a person, not below the rank of a Magistrate of the first class, specified in the said notification.

(4) Any police officer, not below the rank of Sub-Inspector of Police, may search any person entering or attempting to enter, or being in, or leaving, a notified area and any vehicle, vessel, animal or article brought in by such person, and may, for the purpose of the search, detain such person, vehicle, vessel, animal or article:

Provided that no woman shall be searched in pursuance of this sub-section except by a woman authorised in this behalf by the police officer

(5) If any person is in a notified area in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (3), then, without prejudice to any other proceedings which may be taken against him, he may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of any police officer on duty in the notified area, not below the rank of Sub-Inspector of Police.

(6) If any person enters or attempts to enter a notified area or is therein in contravention of any of the provisions of sub-section (3), he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.

[*] For declaration of certain areas adjacent to frontiers of India as notified areas in Himachal Pradesh and Uttar Pradesh, see G. S. R.s 377, 378, 379 and 380 dated 23-3-1962, published in Gaz. It is hereby enacted as follows:

[°] For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Gazette of India, 1897, Pt. V, p. 363; for Report of the Select Committee, see ibid, 1898, Pt. V, p. 19; and for Proceedings in Council, see ibid., 1897, Pt. VI, pp. 238 and 254; and ibid., 1898, pp. 22, 101 and 175.

PREAMBLE — SYNOPSIS

1. Scheme and arrangement.
2. Police Rules and Regulations.
3. Construction of a penal statute.
4. Code, how far exhaustive.
5. Scope and object of the Code.

This Act has been declared to be in force in Sonthal Parganas (now forming part of the State of Bihar) with modifications, under the Sonthal Paraganas Settlement Regulation, 1872 (III of 1872), S. 3 and Sch. (as to the modifications see the Sonthal Parganas Justice Regulation, 1893 (V of 1893), S. 4); in Panth Piploda, by the Panth Piploda Laws Regulation, 1929 (1 of 1929), S. 2 and Schedule; in Khondmals District by the Khondmals Laws Regulation, 1936 (IV of 1936), Sec. 3 and Schedule and Angul District by the Angul Laws Regulation, 1936 (V of 1936), S. 3 and Sch.; Reg. V of 1936 has now been repealed by Orissa Act 19 of 1967; Angul district as formed under the repealed Regulation now forms part of the district of Dhenkanal in Orissa State. It has been extended to Berar by Act 4 of 1941.

It has been declared to be in force by notification under the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), S. 3 (a) in the Scheduled Districts in the Ganjam (now in Orissa State) and Vizigapatam (now in A. P. State)—see Ft. St. G. Gaz., 1898, Pt. I, p. 306, and Gazette of India, 1898, Pt. I, p. 869. For cesser of certain areas from this Agency from being part of Scheduled Areas, see the Madras Scheduled Areas (Cesser) Order, 1951 (C. O. 30, d. 22-6-1951) and the Andhra Scheduled Areas (Cesser) Order, 1955 (C. O. 50, d. 9-9-1955) published in Gaz. Ind. 1951, Pt. II, S. 3, Ext., p. 843 and Gaz. Ind. 1955, Pt. II, Section 3, Ext., p. 1997); and by notification under the same section and Section 5A in the following other Scheduled Districts, namely, the Districts of Hazaribagh, Lohardaga (now the Ranchi District—see Calcutta Gazette, 1899, Pt. I, p. 44), Manbhum and Palamau and in Pargana Dhalbhum and the Kolhan

1. Scheme and arrangement. — (1) Where the language is ambiguous, it is permissible to construe the provisions of a particular section with reference to the scheme and arrangement of the Act. ('07) 31 Bom 480 (487) = 6 Cri LJ 47 (DB)  ('68) 5 Bom HCR (Cr) 69 (73. 74) (FB)  AIR 1920 Mad 337 (337, 338, 343) = 21 Cri LJ 402 (FB)  ('81) 5 Bom 338 (347, 349) (FB).

(2) The division into chapters is an organic feature of the Criminal Procedure Code and all the sections falling under one chapter must be interpreted as having reference exclusively to matters within the purview of that chapter. ('06) 33 Cal 292 (294) = 3 Cri LJ 126 (DB)  ('68) 5 Bom HCR 69 (74) (FB).

(3) Since all the provisions of an Act must be construed harmoniously, it is permissible to interpret a doubtful point occurring in one part by a consistent reference to the express provisions on similar points in other parts of the Act. AIR 1944 All 137 (142, 160) = 46 Cri LJ 38 (FB)  ('71) 16 Suth WR Cr 28 (30) (DB).

2. Police Rules and Reguations. — (1) There is no section in the Code which gives the Executive Government power to make rules to supplement the Code. AIR 1938 All 625 (630) = 40 Cri LJ 132 (DB).

(2) The Code cannot be modified by any orders of the Local Government in a departmental Code such as the Police Regulations. AIR 1938 All 534 (535) = 39 Cri LJ 971.

(3) Departmental interpretation, such as is embodied, for instance, in Police Rules, is of some assistance in arriving at a correct construction of an operative section in the Code. ('47) 48 Cri LJ 774 (777) (Lah).

(4) Bihar and Orissa Police Manual (1930), Rule 50 (d) was framed not in pursuance of any power contained in Cr. P. C. (1898) but under Sections 7 and 12 of Police Act (1861). AIR 1967 Pat 416 (421) = 1967 Cri LJ 1677 = 1967 BLJR 385.

(5) Provisions contained in Criminal P. C., in respect of police investigation are neither affected nor modified by Sections 7, 12 or 46 of Police Act (1861). AIR 1967 Pat 416 (421) = 1967 Cri LJ 1677 = 1967 BLJR 385 (DB).

3. Construction of a penal statute. — (1) The Code of Criminal Procedure provides for a machinery for the punishment and prevention of offences against the substantive criminal law. ('89) 13 Bom 590 (598) (FB)  ('89) 13 Bom 600 (606) (DB)  ('92) 16 Bom 661 (669) (DB).

(2) A penal statute must be construed strictly. (3) The rule of strict construction must yield to the paramount rule that every statute is to be expounded according to its express or manifest intention. AIR 1958 Ker 41 (43) = ILR (1957) Ker 989 = 1958 Cri LJ 177 (DB)  AIR 1967 Punj 322 (324) = 1967 Cri LJ 917 (DB)  AIR 1965 Guj 302 (306, 307) = in the Singbhum District. All these districts and areas now form part of the State of Bihar.—See Calcutta Gazette, 1898, Pt. I, p. 714 and Gazette of India, 1899, Pt. I, p. 779. Note, Scheduled Districts Act, 1874, has ceased to have effect under the provisions of A. O., 1937.

As to its application in the Andaman and Nicobar Islands, see the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Regulation (III of 1876), S. 13 and the Andaman and Nicobar Islands Regulation, 1884 (I of 1884), S. 3 and the Andaman and Nicobar Islands (Amendment) Regulation, 1950 (II of 1950).

It has ceased to be in force, by notification under the Assam Frontier Tracts Regulation, 1880 (II of 1880), S. 2, in the Garo-Hills, the Khasi and Jaintia Hills, the Naga Hills, the North Cachar Sub-division of the Cachar District, the Mikir Hill tracts in the Nowgong District, the Dibrugarh Frontier Tracts in the Lakhimpur District, and the Lushai Hills (now known as Mizo District—see Act 18 of 1954)—see Assam Gazette, 1898, Pt. II, p. 788 and Assam Code, Vol. II, Appendix II-C. Naga Hills District now forms part of the State of Nagaland. As all the laws prevailing in the State of Assam apply to the State of Nagaland, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 would apply to the State of Nagaland as well—see Act 27 of 1962, S. 3 and Schedule and S. 26 (1-12-1963). United Khasi and Jaintia Hills district and the Garo Hills district together from the autonomous State of Meghalaya now—See Act 55 of 1969, S. 3 (1) (2-4-1970).

The provisions of the Act do not apply to trials or proceedings before Nyaya Panchayats in West Bengal and Andhra Pradesh—See W. B. Act I of 1957, S. 96 (b) and A. P. Act II of 1964, S. 172 (3).

(Returns under Rule 126-F of Defence of India (Amendment) Rules, 1963 — Pawn-broker, also a dealer, need not submit returns about the ornaments held by him as pawnbroker.)

(7) In a penal statute it is the duty of the Courts to interpret words of ambiguous meaning in a broad and liberal sense so that they will not become traps for honest, unlearned (in the law) and unwary men. AIR 1953 SC 278 (Pr 23) = 1953 SCR 825 = 1953 Cri LJ 1116.

(8) The principle of construing a statute in order to suppress a mischief and to advance the object of the legislation does not apply to a penal statute. AIR 1953 Bom 347 (353) = ILR (1953) Bom 1007 = 1953 Cri LJ 1445 (FB).

(9) It is not competent to the Court to stretch the meaning of an expression used by the Legislature in order to carry out the intention of the Legislature. AIR 1953 Bom 347 (353) = ILR (1953) Bom 1007 = 1953 Cri LJ 1445 (FB).

(10) A penal statute must be construed according to its plain, natural grammatical meaning. AIR 1953 Bom 347 (353) = ILR (1953) Bom 1007 = 1953 Cri LJ 1445 (FB).

(11) When a matter is both within the letter and the spirit of the enactment, then a penal statute is to be construed like any other instrument and the Court is not to find or make any doubt or ambiguity in its language. (12) In construing the provisions of the Code, it need not be assumed that the principles of English criminal law, either substantive or procedural, were intended to be adhered to. AIR 1936 Cal 356 (367) = ILR (1937) 1 Cal 711 = 37 Cri LJ 758 (FB).

Preamble — Note 3 (contd.)

(13) The language of the Code is conclusive and must be construed according to ordinary principles so as to give effect to the plain meaning of the language used. In the case of ambiguity that meaning must be preferred which is more in accord with justice and convenience, but in general the words used read in context must prevail. AIR 1938 PC 130 (133) = ILR (1938) 2 Cal 295 = 65 Ind App 158 = 32 Sind LR 476 = 39 Cri LJ 452.

(14) The cardinal rule of interpretation is that every section of the Code is to be given a proper interpretation. AIR 1958 Raj 248 (249) = ILR (1957) 7 Raj 737 = 1958 Cri LJ 1243 (DB).

(15) In matters of criminal law retrospective effect can be given only by an Act of the Legislature and not by the executive orders of the Government. AIR 1943 Sind 39 (45) = 44 Cri LJ 293 (FB).

(16) Where there is a change in the law applicable, after a complaint is filed and, before it is disposed of, and the law relates to a matter of procedure it is only the law that is in force at the time when the case is decided that will apply. AIR 1952 Hyd 187 (Prs. 12, 14) = ILR (1952) Hyd 684 = 1952 Cri LJ 1740 (FB)  AIR 1952 Hyd 135 (Prs 2, 6) = ILR (1952) Hyd 383 = 1952 Cri LJ 1299 (DB).

(17) For ascertainment of legislative intent of a statute the statute must be considered as a whole. AIR 1967 Punj 42 (44) = 1967 Cri LJ 251 = 1965 Pun LR (Supp) 140.

(18) Punctuation marks — Punctuation marks are not to be treated as forming part of a statute and they are, therefore to be disregarded for the purpose of interpretation. AIR 1967 Goa 40 (44) = 1967 Cri LJ 463 (DB).

(19) The juxtaposition of a proviso or a sub-section is not a safe guide for its interpretation. AIR 1967 Ker 216 (219) = 1967 Ker LT 258.

(20) If a reading of the proviso shows that it is intended as a proviso to the whole section or to a part thereof, it should be so read. The whole section along with the proviso should be read consistent with the legislative object, and in such a way as to give an intelligent meaning to the statutory provision. AIR 1967 Ker 216 (219) = 1967 Cr LJ 1334 = 1967 Ker LT 258.

(21) The nature of the mens rea that would be implied in a statute creating an offence depends on the object of the Act and the provisions thereof. AIR 1966 SC 43 (45) = 1966 Cri LJ 71 = (1966) 2 SCJ 421.

(22) Only where it is absolutely clear that the implementation of the object of the statute would otherwise be defeated that mens rea may, by necessary implication, be excluded from a statute. AIR 1966 SC 43 (45) = 1966 Cri LJ 71 = (1966) 2 SCJ 421.

4. Code, how far exhaustive. — (1) The Criminal Procedure Code is exhaustive only with regard to matters specifically dealt with by it. Absence of any provision on a particular matter does not mean that the Court has no power in regard thereto, and the Court may act on the principle that every procedure should be understood as permissible till it is shown to be prohibited by law. AIR 1940 Nag 390 (392) = 42 Cri LJ 208  AIR 1934 Cal 428 (429) = 61 Cal 498 = 35 Cri LJ 941 (DB)  AIR 1923 Cal 724 (725) = 24 Cri LJ 677 (DB).

(2) The citizens of a former French possession in India possess a vested right to be governed by the provisions of the French law until such time as a competent authority introduces new patterns of legislation. (1965) 2 Mad LJ 332 = 1965 Mad LJ (Cri) 729.

(3) The correct principle is that in matters of procedure, a particular procedure should be considered to be permitted if it is not prohibited and not that every procedure should be taken as prohibited, unless it is provided for. AIR 1960 Raj 44 (46) = 1960 Cri LJ 278 (DB).

(4) A Magistrate cannot ask the accused to send any particular paper in his possession to the Magistrate. 1968 All Cri R 465 = 1968 All WR (HC) 729.

5. Scope and object of the Code.— (1) The Code lays down the procedure to be followed in every investigation, inquiry into, or trial for, every offence whether under the Indian Penal Code or under any other law. The Code also makes provisions for inquiries into certain specific matters. The procedure laid down for inquiring into the specific matters naturally cannot be applied to inquiring into other matters. AIR 1956 All 351 (353) = ILR (1956) 2 All 60 = 1956 Cri LJ 761 (DB).

(2) The Code is a Code of Procedure and, like all procedural laws, in designed to further the ends of justice and not to frustrate them by the introduction of endless technicalities. The object of the Code is to ensure that an accused person gets a full and fair trial along certain well-established and well-understood lines that accord with notions of natural justice. AIR 1956 SC 116 (121) = 1955-2 SCR 1140 = 1956 Cri LJ 291.

(3) The Code itself does not define what is irregularity and what is illegality. Illegality can only mean an incurable irregularity, incurable because of the prejudice leading to failure of justice, and the question of prejudice being a question of fact has to be decided by Court in each particular case. AIR 1968 Mad 117 (132) = 1968 Cri LJ 493 = (1968) 1 Mad LJ 480 (DB).

(4) One has to see the effect, if any, of the breach of provisions of the Code,

(6) Merely because some provision of the Code is not observed if at all the application of Article 21 of the Constitution is not attracted. AIR 1968 Bom 400 (414) = 1968 Cri LJ 1584 = 69 Bom LR 808 (DB).

(7) Expression "statement made to a Police Officer" — Statement recovered by Police from pocket of accused when he was unconscious held did not fall within Section 162. AIR 1965 Guj 302 (306, 307, 308) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 753 = (1964) 5 Guj LR 897 (DB).

(8) A second class Magistrate not specially empowered to record a statement under Section 164 is not entitled to give oral evidence of confession made to them. AIR 1964 SC 358 (363, 364) = 1964 (1) Cri LJ 263 (2) (DB).

(9) If a statute has conferred a power to do an act and has laid down the method in which that power has to be exercised, it necessarily prohibits the doing of the act in any other manner. AIR 1964 SC 358 (361) = 1964 (1) Cri LJ 263 (2) (DB).

(10) No provision in Code about acquittal or discharge of accused on failure of complainant to attend Court — This is no omission but a deliberate departure from Chapters on trial of summons and warrant cases — Intention appears to be that Magistrate should proceed with the inquiry — Else the Code would have said what would happen if the complainant remains absent. AIR 1967 SC 983 (984, 985) = 1967 Cr LJ 943 = (1967) 1 SCR 807.

NOTE.—The repealed section ran as follows:

> "2. Repeal of enactments.—(1) On and from the first day of July, 1898, the enactments mentioned in the first schedule shall be repealed to the extent specified in the fourth column thereof, but not so as to restore any jurisdiction or form of procedure not then existing or followed, or to render unlawful the continuance of any confinement which is then lawful.
> (2) Notifications, etc. under repealed Acts.—All notifications published, proclamations issued, powers conferred, forms prescribed, local limits defined, sentences passed, and orders, rules and appointments made, under any enactment hereby repealed, or under any enactment repealed by any such enactment, and which are in force immediately before the first day of July, 1898, shall be deemed to have been respectively published, issued, conferred, prescribed, defined, passed and made under the corresponding section of this Code.
> (3) Pending cases.—The provisions of this Code shall apply to all proceedings instituted after the commencement of this Code, and so far as may be, to all cases pending in any Criminal Court when this Code comes into force."

[1882 — Ss. 2, 558; 1872 — S. 2.]

3. References to Code of Criminal Procedure and other repealed enactnents.—(1) In every enactment passed before this Code comes into force in vhich reference is made to, or to any chapter or section of, the Code of Crimimal Procedure, Act XXV of 1861 or Act X of 1872, or Act X of 1882, or to any other enactment hereby repealed, such reference shall, so far as may be practicable, be taken to be made to this Code or to its corresponding chapter or section.

(2) Expressions in former Acts.—In every enactment passed before this Code comes into force the expressions "Officer exercising ('or having') the powers (or 'the full powers') of a Magistrate," "Subordinate Magistrate, first class," and "Subordinate Magistrate, second class," shall respectively be deemed to mean "Magistrate of the first class," "Magistrate of the second class" and "Magistrate of the third class," the expression "Magistrate of a division of a district" shall be deemed to mean "Sub-divisional Magistrate," the expression "Magistrate of the

(5) Section 4 (2) of Criminal P. C. must be read as a continuation of Section 4 (1) and so read, the definitions in Penal Code incorporated in Criminal P. C. must be susceptible to variation depending on the subject or context. It cannot therefore be contended that the words "unless a different intention appears from the subject or context', in Section 4 (1) do not control the definitions incorporated in the Criminal P. C. by virtue of Section 4 (2) thereof. AIR 1967 Punj 189 (190) = 1967 Cri LJ 586.

(2) The power of arrest referred to here must be an unqualified power and not a conditional power. AIR 1935 Rang 181 (183) = 36 Cri LJ 998 (DB)  AIR 1925 Bom 131 (132, 133) = 26 Cri LJ 441 (DB).

(3) An offence under Section 19 (f) of the Arms Act which is punishable with imprisonment for three years is a cognizable offence. AIR 1934 Nag 71 (75) = 35 Cri LJ 1097.

[But see AIR 1969 Goa 104 (106) = 1969 Cri LJ 1131.]

(4) An offence under Section 9 of the Opium Act, 1 of 1878, punishable with imprisonment for less than three years is not a "cognizable one." AIR 1952 Him Pra 74 (Pr 20) = 1952 Cri LJ 1712.

(5) Offences punishable with fine only are not cognizable. AIR 1938 Rang 161 (163) = 39 Cri LJ 642 (DB).

(6) The words "or under any law for the time being in force" are wide enough to include an express or implied provision of any law or enactment. AIR 1930 Bom 49 (51) = 31 Cri LJ 633 (DB)  AIR 1956 Raj 37 (38) = 1956 Cri LJ 269 = ILR (1955) 5 Raj 134.

(7) Since an offence under S. 161, Penal Code, has been made cognizable under Section 3, Prevention of Corruption Act, 1947, an offence under S. 161 read with Section 116, Penal Code must be held to be cognizable. AIR 1956 Raj 37 (38) = 1956 Cri LJ 269 = ILR (1955) 5 Raj 134  AIR 1965 Andh Pra 372 (377 to 379) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 585 = (1965) 2 Andh WR 44 (DB).

(8) Offence under Section 161, I. P. Code is a cognizable offence. Its nature is not affected by either Section 3 or Section 5-A of the Prevention of Corruption Act (1947). The requirement that in a cognizable offence, a police officer should be able to arrest without warrant, is without any limitation and Section 5-A cannot be split up to mean that an offence can be cognizable in reference to one officer and not in reference to another. AIR 1962 Bom 263 (265) = 1962 (2) Cri LJ 598 = 64 Bom LR 274 (DB).

(9) Almost all the offences which may be alleged to have been committed by a public servant fall within Chapter IX and Chapter XI. The underlying policy in making these offences by public servants non-cognizable is to ensure the diligent discharge of their official functions without fear or favour. AIR 1955 SC 196 (202) = 1955 SCR 1150 = 1955 Cri LJ 526 = ILR (1955) Punj 135.

(10) Offence of accepting payment from debtor after he is deemed to have been discharged made cognizable offence —Governor was competent to make such provision. AIR 1967 Madh Pra 52 (56) = 1966 MPLJ 800 (DB).

(11) Section 18, Saurashtra Prevention of Prostitution Act is the only section which gives the police power to arrest without a warrant. All offences under this Act, except those to the extent mentioned in Section 18, are non-cognizable offences notwithstanding Sch. 2, Criminal Procedure Code. AIR 1956 Sau 116 (118) = 1956 Cri LJ 1442 (DB).

(12) The following offences are cognizable offences:—

(a) Offence under Rule 125 (9) of Defence of India Rules 1962. 1964 All LJ 954 = 1964 All WR (HC) 573  1966 All Cr R 350  1966 All LJ 754  (1967) 8 Guj LR 138  AIR 1968 Guj 23 (27) = 1968 Cri LJ 156. = 9 Guj LR 201 (DB).

(bb) Complaint regarding offence under Section 7 of Essential Commodities Act — Offence punishable with three years' imprisonment— Is cognizable offence within meaning of Section 4 (1) (f). AIR 1970 SC 267 (269).

(c) Offence under Section 122 of Railways Act (1890). 1964 All WR (HC) 108.

(d) Offences under Sections 409 and 120-B of Indian Penal Code. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 448 (453) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 605 = (1961) 1 An WR 153.

(13) The Code does not contemplate any case to be partly non-cognizable. Thus a case which includes cognizable offences and non-cognizable offences is a cognizable case. AIR 1961 Andh Pra 448 (453) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 605 = (1965) 1 An WR 153.

(14) Accused informing police by phone that he had shot two persons in self-defence, but furnishing no particulars — Information conveyed does not disclose commission of a cognizable offence and no case can have been registered thereon — Held further, that police were quite right in proceeding to scene of occurrence and recording case on information supplied by deceased's party and that there was no basis for charge that police suppressed case of accused and favoured that of deceased's party. ILR (1967) 1 Ker 640 (DB).

(g) "Commissioner of Police."—"Commissioner of Police" includes a Deputy Commissioner of Police:

(h) "Complaint."—"Complaint" means the allegation made orally or in writing to a Magistrate, with a view to his taking action under this Code, that some person whether known or unknown, has committed an offence, but it does not include the report of a police-officer:

7. "That some person has committed an offence."
8. "Some person whether known or unknown."
9. "Report of a police-officer."
10. Limitation.
11. Objection as to maintainability of complaint.
12. Complainant.
13. Action by Magistrate.

1. Scope of the definition. — (1) A "complaint" must be distinguished from "information." AIR 1930 All 820 (820, 821) = 32 Cri LJ 306.

(2) There is nothing in the definition of "complaint" which requires it to be made only in a non-cognizable case. AIR 1930 All 820 (821) = 32 Cri LJ 306.

(3) A Police officer can make a complaint in a non-cognizable case. AIR 1952 Kutch 54 (Pr 4) = 1952 Cri LJ 1037.

(4) In criminal cases, it is the Crown which prosecutes in vindication of its peace. AIR 1919 Mad 851 (852) = 20 Cri LJ 101  AIR 1962 Raj 1 (2) = 1962 (1) Cri LJ 80 (DB)  AIR 1960 Raj 150 (152) = 1960 Cri LJ 853.

[But see (1967) 1 Andh WR 443 = 1967 Mad LJ (Cri) 462  AIR 1967 Mad 390 (391) = 1967 Cri LJ 1525 = (1967) 1 Mad LJ 108  AIR 1965 Ker 59 (62) = 1965 (1) Cri LJ 178 = 1964 Ker LT 535 (DB)  AIR 1961 All 377 (378, 379) = 1961 (2) Cri LJ 53 = 1961 All LJ 118  1961 Ker LT 532.]

(5) Where A sells land to B and receives its price and, later on, it is discovered that a part of the land did not belong to A, a complaint under Section 420 by B is maintainable, even though there is an indemnity clause in the sale deed. 1957 Jab LJ 930 (931)  AIR 1965 Pat 442 (446) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 530 = 1965 BLJR 582.

(6) Definition of 'complaint' in Criminal P. C. cannot be made applicable to Police Rule, 1638. 1964 Cur LJ 150 (Punj).

(7) Question whether an allegation is a complaint must be decided on the basis of the definition of that term in Section 4 (1) (h). AIR 1969 Ker 111 (117) = 1969 Cri LJ 486 = 1969 Ker LT 351 (DB).

(8) Taking cognizance on invalid complaint — Can be treated as taking cognizance on information. AIR 1969 Ker 111 (117) = 1969 Cri LJ 486 = 1969 Ker LT 351.

(9) Meaning of the word 'complaint' in Section 48 of the Madras Prohibition Act (10 of 1937) is wider than that defined in Section 4 (1) (h) and includes a police report. 1960 Mad WN 317 (DB).

(10) Joint complaint by two or more if permissible — Section 4 (1) (h) is silent on this point — (Obiter). AIR 1969 Manipur 56 = 1969 Cri LJ 989.

(11) An application under Section 107 is not a complaint within Section 4 (1) (h). AIR 1968 Mad 225 (226) = 1968 Cri LJ 760 = 1967 Mad LW (Cri) 173.

(12) Provision of Section 247 is attracted only in cases in which summons are issued on complaint. ILR (1963) 13 Raj 164 = 1963 Raj LW 48 (DB).

(13) Complaint filed by public officer comes within definition of 'Complaint' in Section 4 (1) (h). (1960) 1 Ker LR 373 = 1960 Ker LT 481.

(14) A revision petition is not meant to be a complaint within Section 4 (1) (h) and Section 190 (1) (a). The facts in the petition may constitute information within Section 190 (1) (c). AIR 1960 Andh Pra 184 (186) = 1960 Cr LJ 455.

Section 4 (1) (h) — Note 1 (contd.)

(15) Application to Consolidation Officer to proceed against accused under Section 195 (1) (c) — Application is not a complaint and the applicant is not complainant within the meaning of Section 417 (3). AIR 1962 All 6 (7, 8) = 1962 (1) Cri LJ 1 = 1961 All LJ 557.

(16) Deposition of complainant as witness cannot also be taken as 'complaint'. 1968 Cri LJ 117 (120) = 8 Guj LR 290 (DB).

(17) The term 'complaint' used in Section 72 of the Post Office Act (1898) has to be read and understood as one contemplated by Section 4 (1) (h) of Criminal P. C. (1966) 7 Guj LR 698 = ILR (1966) Guj 576..

(18) Word complaint is used in the Mysore Police Act, Section 81, Proviso in the sense of some reliable or credible information and not in the same sense as defined in Section 4 (h) of Criminal P. C. 1969 MLJ (Cri) 366 = (1969) 1 Mys LJ 581.

(19) 'Complaint' and 'offence' in Section 190 have meaning as defined in Sections 4 (1) (h) and 4 (1) (o). 1968 Cri LJ 117 (119) = 8 Guj LR 290 (DB).

(20) The ingredients of a 'complaint', are (1) the allegation made orally or in writing to a Magistrate, (2) with a view to his taking action under the Code, and (3) stating that some person whether known or unknown has committed an offence. AIR 1965 All 508 (510) = 1965 (2) Cri LJ 455 = 1965 All LJ 558 (DB).

(21) A charge-sheet lodged by the police, whether in a non-cognizable or in a cognizable offence, does not amount to a 'complaint', so as to attract Section 247. AIR 1963 Madh Pra 125 (125, 126) = 1963 (1) Cri LJ 442 (2) = 1963 MPLJ 154 (DB).

(21-a) The words "complaint in writing" appearing in Sec. 195 (1) (a) refer to a formal complaint as defined in Section 4 (1) (h). 1969 Cri LJ 1459 (1460) = (1969) 2 Mys LJ 608.

2. Form of complaint. — (1) There is no particular form in which a complaint should be made. It is the substance of the complaint that is to be regarded. ('13) 14 Cri L Jour 425 (426) (All)  AIR 1958 All 76 (79) = 1958 Cri L Jour 11.

(2) A complaint may be oral. AIR 1924 Rang 35 (36) = 25 Cri L Jour 229  ('08) 7 Cri L Jour 10 (15) = 35 Cal 141 (DB).

(3) Allegations not stated in the complaint do not form part of the complaint. AIR 1932 Pat 72 (75) = 33 Cri L Jour 349.

(4) A complaint should allege facts but it is not necessary to allege all the facts on which the accused is to be charged. AIR 1953 Tripura 1 (Pr 3)  ('08) 9 Cri L Jour 108 (111) = 32 Mad 3 (DB).

(5) A mere endorsement made by a Superintendent of Police forwarding to a Magistrate the report made to the former by a Sub-Inspector of Police is not a complaint. AIR 1936 All 788 (791) = 38 Cri L Jour 57 (DB).
